The electrical illumination of the village will start tonight after the dress rehearsal of the pageant. The dress rehearsal tonight will begin promptly at eight o'clock so as to finish early when as many as possible of those taking part in the coaches, autos, etc., will come immediately down town and parade the street in costume, the lights will be turned on and, if possible a band will be secured to head the parade. The illumination will be started in season to welcome the parade and Bennington streets will present a carnival aspect about 10:30 this evening.

The directors of "The Big Fair" which occurs at Rensselaer Park, Troy August 15, 16, 17 and 18 have appropriated the sum of $2500 for prizes for the trotting contests and from the entries in this portion of the exposition one can attend with the assurance that they will see races of the same calibre as to be seen on the Grand Circuit. The list of entries in all other departments is larger than any previous exhibition, which is saying in a good deal as this fair has the reputation of being the biggest in New York state, outside of the state fair and it is a most formidable rival of that one. The gates of the fair will be open daily from 6 a. m. until 11 p. m., and at night the grounds will be electrically lighted. Special rates and trains will prevail on all railroads entering Troy for the fair dates.

TRIES TO HELP AND DROWNS
 In Assisting Another Clarence Sarbick Sinks in Erie Canal.

Schenectady, N. Y., Aug. 10.—In his efforts to help Harry Haines of New York city, pass through a lock in the Erie canal about five miles from here with his yacht this afternoon, Clarence Sarbick, 22 years old, left his motor boat to the care of his companions and jumped aboard Haines' boat. While the yacht was being raised, he slipped his footing and disappeared in the water. The strong current prevented him from coming to the surface, although he was a good swimmer. Two hours later the body was recovered by the coroner.

THE GRANVILLE GAME
 Score Shows That Huckleberry Boys Wielded the Willow

The Bennington baseball team showed up well at the bat in this game with three hits and Connors, Delaney and Burrington secured two safe hits apiece. The error column shows more ragged work than the local fans have been accustomed to observe but the record was far better than that of the Granville team which was playing on its home diamond. The score:

POPE PIUS BETTER
 His Holiness Improved Through Change of Room

Rome, Aug. 10.—Pope Pius early last night enjoyed several hours of rest in his room on the third floor of the Vatican, to which he was moved yesterday from his small bed chamber on the fourth floor. The chamber now is more spacious and airy and the change appears to have revived the Pope's strength somewhat and cheered his spirits.

Eight years ago today great throngs gathered at the Vatican to greet and venerate the newly elected Pontiff at the moment of his coronation.

THE ORIGINAL CATAMOUNT
 Animal Used as Model for Bronze Statue Now Here

James C. Colgate and George A. Robinson went yesterday to West Wardsboro by auto to procure a stuffed catamount for use in the Pageant to be placed on the sign of the Catamount Tavern. They returned in the evening by way of Groat Pond and Kelly Stand over Stratton mountain. The animal was the model for the bronze catamount at Old Bennington and is the property of O. M. Merrill of West Wardsboro.

The animal was taken in November 1875 and was followed by a hunter who thought he was following a bear because of the size of the tracks. It was shot while in a tree. The species is practically extinct throughout the country, especially so in New England. The species is a large, heavy-boned animal and in common speech is often confused with the ordinary wildcat. The big cat was exhibited through the main streets last evening by the returning party, having been covered with a blanket during the first part of the journey.

The mounted animal was exhibited in Bennington in 1876 and a charge of 10 cents was made. The following is the bill advertising it:

"The Wardsboro Catamount—The catamount taken last November at Wardsboro, Windham Co. Vt., is now in the hands of the Bennington Historical society. For the purpose of allowing the artist, Bartlett, to use it as a model for his bronze catamount to be placed on the granite pedestal at Bennington Center in front of the Old Catamount Tavern. It is now on exhibition at the old Stark Bank building and will remain here for a few days till Mr. Bartlett takes it to Paris. Tickets 10 cents. To be obtained at J. T. Shurtleff's, the Post Office and at Kelso & Day's store. No money taken at the door. The proceeds of the exhibition are to be used for the purposes of the society.—Bennington, September 8, 1876."
