In Memoriam

Whereas, It has pleased Him, "who doeth all things well," to remove from our midst, by death, our brother, Simcon Corbett; be it

Resolved, That Bricklayers', Masons', and Plasterers' Union, No. 6, of Vermont, has lost a beloved brother, a faithful friend, and an earnest worker;

Resolved, That our charter be draped for a period of thirty days in memory of the deceased, and that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the widow, as she dwells alone in the sweetness of devoted love and sadness of blighted hope;

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the lodge, a copy sent to the widow of our deceased brother, and also a copy sent to the Bennington Banner for publication.

Amatite ROOFING

Perhaps the greatest advantage of Amatite roofing is the fact that it does not need painting. Amatite has a durable mineral surface that resists wear and is absolutely waterproof.

A number of young people from this place are becoming interested in the dances being held each week at the Forest house at Lake St. Catharine, which they report very enjoyable, being well conducted and good music being provided.

A narrow escape from death was experienced by the chauffeur of the Harrington car and five passengers who were with him Saturday. Driving through the Manchester dugway the car skidded over the bank, nearly upsetting, and threw the occupants out. None were badly hurt, although bruised. The car was badly wrecked by striking two trees as it went over, smashing the radiator and other parts.

The marriage of Miss Gladys M.
Crandall to Joseph Phillips occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Crandall on Wednesday evening, July 29th, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. W.
L. Haven at eight o'clock, the young couple being attended by Mr. and Mrs. Casey of Manchester, during the double ring service. At the reception dainty refreshments were provided followed while the bride and groom escaped by auto for a short honeymoon trip.

War-Talk Alliteration

An Austrian army, awfully arched, Boldly by battery besiege Belgrade; Cossack commanders cannonading come,
Deal devastation's dire destructive doom;
Every endeavor engineers essay, For fame, for freedom fight, fierce furious fray.
Generals' general's generals grapple—gracious God!
How honors heav'n heroic hardihood!
Infrigate, indiscriminate in ill, Just Jesus, instant innocence instill!
Kinsmen kill kinsmen, kindred kindred kill.
Labor low levels longest, loftiest lines,
Men march midst mounds, moles, mountains, mud'rons mines, Now noisy, noxious numbers notice nought
Of outward obstacles overcoming ought;
Poor patriots perish persecution's pest,
Quite quiet Quakers "quarter, quarter" quest;
Reason returns, religion, right re-doanda, Swarrow stop such sanguinary bounds,
Truce to thee, Turkey, terror to thy train!
Unwise, unjust, unmerciful Ukraine!
Vanish vile vengeance, vanish victory vain!
Why wish we warfare? Wherefore welcome you,
Xerxes, Xantippus, Xavier, Xenophon?
Yield ye young Yaghier, yeoman;
yield your yell Zimmerman's Zoroaster's Zeno's zeal Again attract; arts against arms appeal.
All, all ambitious aims, avants, away!
Et cetera, et cetera, et cetera.
