FIGHT FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE IN CITY OF WIDAY

Russians Finally Driven Out by Von Hindenburg

TEUTONS CONTINUE TO ADVANCE

Progress Checked to Some Extent by Russia's Near Galician Frontier.

Berlin, via London, Sept. 17.—Gen. von Hindenburg has captured the city of Widay, south of Dvinsk, it was announced by the war office this afternoon. Widay was captured after house to house fighting with the Russian garrison.

The Bavarians under Prince Leopold have crossed the Szezzara river.

London, Friday, Sept. 17.—Stern battles are being fought all along the eastern front from Riga to the Rumanian border, and while the Germans continue to advance slowly in the north and center, the Russians in the south are repeating their successes against the Austro-German armies, which are now being driven back across the River Stripa in Galicia and have been forced to retreat westward, north of the Galician frontier.

While these Russian victories naturally are welcomed in Russia and the allied countries as an evidence that the Russian armies are still able to take the offensive when supplied with ammunition, there is an inclination to exaggerate their importance. The engagements, however, keep the Austro-Germans busy and make it imperative to send reinforcements southward, which could be used to better advantage in the north where operations of much greater moment are being directed by Field Marshal von Hindenburg.

This general, who began his offensive against the Vilna-Dvinsk Railway a week ago, has not yet established himself on the line. His cavalry, which did reach it, has been driven back. Nevertheless he has driven

HARTE'S THEATER WILL BE OPENED TOMORROW

Were Unable to Get It Ready For Tonight

BUILDING IS NOT COMPLETED

But Auditorium is Nearly Ready and Men Will Work All Night Tonight

Owner John B. Harte of the new Harte moving picture house on Main street had planned to open the theatre today but some of the fixtures have been delayed and it is now proposed to show the first pictures tomorrow.

Mr. Harte believes that he has one of the finest moving picture houses of its capacity in New England. In planning the construction and equipment of the theatre he has all along had in mind the comfort of his patrons and the installation of an outfit that would provide the best possible pictures to be obtained.

Carrying out this purpose he has finished the interior in simple rather than elaborate taste. The walls are maroon with but little in the way of decoration and much of the woodwork is in white color but in the case of the ceiling there is a considerable change from the general scheme Colonial in style. The large cross beams finished in gold and green on a background of white the effect is beautiful and pleasing.

One thousand persons can be seated in the house, 700 on the main floor and 300 in the balcony. On the main floor the seats are upholstered in leather with a comfortable, pitch to the backs and with ample room for comfort. In the balcony the seats are placed to give each patron more room than is required by the state regulations.

Because of the pitch of the floors toward the stage it is possible to see the top of the pictures from every seat in the house and one's view is not obscured by the head of the person sitting in front.

There are nine exits and the ventilation plan should make the theatre comfortable under all weather conditions. There are eight ventilators in the ceiling capable of purifying the air at all times. The entire building, with the exception of the wings of the stage, is of brick making almost perfectly fire proof conditions. The moving picture machine is installed in a concrete room, the first of its kind to be built in Vermont. This booth is so ventilated that the risk of fire through the burning of films is eliminated.

The picture machine is of the latest type, a Powers 6-B. The machine has been on the market but a few days and is equipped with new adjustment features by which many of the delays and annoyances can be avoided. It is equipped with a dynamo for the purpose of changing the alternating current to a direct current, thereby providing a light as uniform as can be had for the purpose. The machine is operated by electric motor which will provide more uniform power than can be derived from the hand-propelled machines.

Pictures will be thrown upon a gold-radium screen, which in the opinion of moving picture men, is the best background for the purpose. While there are yet undone many finishing touches that will improve the interior of the theatre patrons who are present on the opening night should be impressed with the convenience and comfort that has been provided for them.

OATMAN HEARING CONTINUED To Await Outcome of Injuries to Walter Hollister. State's Attorney Frank C. Archibald of Manchester arrived in the village this morning and after a brief hearing in municipal court the hearing in the matter of Charles P. Oatman, under bonds for the shooting of Walter Hollister, was continued to Saturday, September 25, to await the outcome of the boy's injuries.

The boy, who is the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hollister of Grove street, was shot in the face with a charge of peas fired from a shotgun in the hands of the property owner, while the boy was stealing grapes. Mr. Oatman claims that the gun was accidentally and prematurely discharged and that it was his intention to pepper the legs of the grape thieves to teach them a lesson.

A resident of Bennington yesterday talked with Dr. Frank N. Smith, the eye surgeon at the Samaritan hospital in Troy. The physician stated that there was no question as to the loss of the right eye and that it would be impossible to give a definite statement regarding the condition of the left eye at present. The left eye, the surgeon said was badly injured.

Since he became a patient at the hospital the boy according to Dr. Smith has suffered but little pain and is unusually cheerful considering the frightful injury he has received. A strange feature of his case is that he has thus far shown no bitterness against the man who is responsible for his pitiful condition. He says he was doing what he should not have done and must bear some of the responsibility.

James K. Batchelder of Arlington appeared for Mr. Oatman at the hearing this morning.

DAY OF ATONEMENT

Yom Kippur, Greatest of Jewish Holy Days.

The celebration of Yom Kippur, the holiest of all Jewish days, will begin this evening at sunset and end Saturday at sundown. The Jewish day of atonement will be celebrated by all devout Jews throughout the entire universe in fasting and prayer. The day falls on the 10th of Tishri, according to the Jewish calendar, and is the one day in all the year that the Jews observe religiously. The local Jewish places of business will be closed in celebration of the day. During the day the humblest Jew will spend the time in fasting and prayer.

The celebration in the synagogues opens this evening with the singing of "Kol Nidre," which is noted the world over. This song is always sung as an introduction to the day of atonement. During the day a candle will be kept burning as a symbol of life. The worshipping in the homes will be in a room decorated in white, the symbol of purity. At the service this evening Rabbi M. Friedman will speak on "Yom Kippur, day of God."

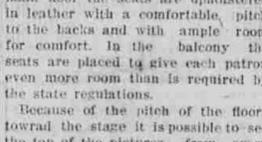

Neilah, which marks the conclusion of the service of the day is observed in the synagogues. The end of the holy day is announced by blowing the "Shofar."

Probably Started With Request For More Than They Expected to Get.

New York, Sept. 16.—The proposed billion dollar loan to Great Britain and France shivered today in the gossip of Wall street half its previous size.

Five hundred million dollars was the sum set as the amount which American financiers would lend. This figure seemed to be uniform in half a dozen or more reports current in the financial section. At least one financier in close touch with the situation was quoted as saying that this sum would be loaned. The commission itself and its American financial aides had nothing to say as to this phase.

In some manner not understood tonight the situation was different from the situation yesterday. There was an almost unanimous opinion among bankers whose views could be obtained and that in naming this vast sum at the outset the commission sought to place itself in an advantageous trading position.

Here is the way some financial authorities regarded the situation. The commission asked for a billion dollars. It did not expect to get the full amount. To this request bankers would naturally make a counter-offer—say half a billion. There would then follow a series of parleys. The commission would reduce the amount by 50,000,000 to 100,000,000 and the American bankers would add a few hundreds of millions to their previous offer. After a period of negotiations they would reach a common figure, say by splitting the difference. This would then be agreeable to both sides and definite terms as to the interest rate of the term of the loan and other details could be fairly quickly disposed of.

The men who have come over here from Great Britain and France, in the opinion of Wall street, are master players in the game of world finance. Like all good players, they do not betray by their words what their intentions are nor do they place all their cards on the table at once as Wall street views it. Consequently, it is expected that there will be many more developments before it will be seen what they are really striving for and whether they will win.

FAREWELL RECEPTION Friday Evening in Honor of Rev. and Mrs. William F. Meyer. A reception will be given in the social rooms of the First Baptist church, Friday evening, the 17th instant, at eight o'clock, in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. William Ferdinand Meyer and family. Members of the church and congregation and all friends are most cordially invited to be present. Mr. Meyer severs his relation as pastor of the First Baptist church of Bennington, Oct. 1st, to accept a call to a broader field in Leominster, Mass.

Mr. Meyer has given five years of faithful service to this society and community and it is with deep regret and heartfelt sadness to his host of friends that he is to go but will wish him success, prosperity and unwavering support in the chosen field.
