News of the Town and Village Told Briefly for Busy Readers

John H. Ineson, who has been very ill, is not so well today.

Mrs. Harry Brack has returned to her home in Springfield, Mass., after spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Alice Gunshaanon.

Griswold's store will be open every night this week to accommodate those who wish to inspect their remarkable display of Valentines. Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy B. Johnson, summer residents have left for Palm Beach, Fla., where they will stop at "The Breakers." C. Thornton of Boston accompanied them.

Griswold has beat his own record this year for variety and beauty of his stock of Valentines and will remain open every night this week for their display. It includes several new lines of novelties never before shown and not to be found elsewhere in town. Adv.

Next Monday night at quarter of eight, (Start on time, so you won't be late), at the Baptist church parlors we all will meet, corner of Main and Valentine streets; Intermediate department and adult, too, or, if you're a teacher, this means you. A social that's sociable is our aim—Come do your part, get into the game.

POWNAI

The selectmen have posted the notices for the voting of the ministerial money which is as follows: At the store of C. H. Myers, Pownal Center, Tuesday, Feb. 22; A. G. Parker & Son, Pownal, Wednesday, Feb. 23; A. N. Smith, North Pownal, Thursday, Feb. 24.

Born in Walpole, Mass., Feb. 6 a son to Mr. and Mrs. Willard A. Munson. The infant is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Munson of Church street and great-grandson to Mrs. Geo. F. Montgomery of north west hill. Mrs. Munson, as well as her husband is well known in Pownal as she spent a large part of last summer here.

At the mid-winter convention of the Woman's foreign Missionary society of the Troy Conference held in Cohoes, Tuesday p. m. one of the principal addresses was delivered by Miss Mabel Woodruff of Ketchum, Corner. Miss Woodruff is a former Pownal girl being the daughter of Rev. A. M. Woodruff a former M. E. church pastor. She is a returned missionary from China and her subject was "Day schools in Kin Kiang."

Anna C. M. Tillinghast of Beverly, Mass., who will speak here next Tuesday Feb. 15 upon "The so called Advantages of the License System," is one of the ablest public speakers in this country. She puts forth her ideas with the force and logic of a man, and there are few men who can equal her on the lecture platform. In Massachusetts she toured the state with Charles Sumner Bird and Joseph Walker, candidates for governor and spoke with them from 2 to 5 times each day. Mrs. Tillinghast has lived under high license, local option and state prohibition, so is well posted to speak with authority. All over voters should hear Mrs. Tillinghast and perhaps gain new light on the liquor question. The lecture will be in the M. E. church and will commence at 7.30 p. m.

Let This MASTER-MACHINE

Royal

cut down the high cost of your typewritten letters

YOUR Typewriter, like your telephone, must become a cost-reducer—or you are not getting all you pay for.

And unless you are "Royalized," you are paying the price of the Royal without knowing it—besides that of your old-style machine—in the higher cost of your business letters.

This wonderful New Royal Master-Machine 10 takes the "grind" out of typewriting. The Royal makes it easy for ANY stenographer to turn out MORE letter, with LESS effort, in the same working day.

Get the Facts! Send for the "Royal man" in your town and ask for a DEMONSTRATION.

Write Direct for our new brochure, "BETTER SERVICE," and a beautiful Color-Photograph of the New Royal Master-Model 10. Price $100
