

Mr. Went-And-Cut-It
—Here's Mr. 'Gets-It'

The New Plan Corn Cure That's as Sure as the Rising Sun.

"Glad to meet you!" says the razor to the corn. "I'll bleed for you!" says the corn to the razor. Razors and corns love each other. Corns love to be cut, picked, gouged, saved, plastered and jerked out—they grow faster. Mr. and Mrs. Went-And-Cut-It realize it now—they use "Gets-It" instead—it's the wonderful, simple corn-cure that never fails. Stops pain. You apply it in 2 seconds. It dries at once, the corn is doomed. Nothing to stick to the stocking or press on the corn. It means good-night to plasters, salves, diggers, razors and toe-bundling. You can wear smaller shoes. Your corns will come right off, "clean as a whistle." Never inflames healthy flesh. The world's biggest selling corn cure. "Gets-It" is sold by druggists everywhere, in a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

"Why, O Why, Did I Do It? 'Gets-It' for Me After This—If I Live!"

Sold in Bennington and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by W. L. Gokay.

EAST ARLINGTON

I as president of the leap year dance, nor any of my helpers, did not have anything to do about the piece put in the Arlington news in Saturday's Evening Banner about the dance. We hope the young men will come to help us, just the same, to have this dance the best one we have ever given.

Mary Mann.

Boys and young men, be game, go to the dance and make this leap year dance the best one ever given here. Remember—it will be four years before you can have another chance to be taken to a dance by the fair damsels. Who knows but this dance may be the means of making another "happy home" just "us two." EDNA GOODRICH'S DEBUT

In Photoplay, "Armstrong's Wife" at Harts Theatre Today.

One of the most unusual and thrilling photodramas ever seen will be presented at the Harts Theatre today when Edna Goodrich, the noted dramatic actress and international beauty, makes her photodramatic debut as a Paramount Star in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "Armstrong's Wife," the gripping drama written especially for Miss Goodrich by Margaret Turnbull, the celebrated novelist.

The scenes, vivid in their realism, carry the audience from the little country village to the gambling halls of a great city and from there to the heart of the rugged mountains of the great Canadian Northwest.

Miss Goodrich, as little Mae Fielding, the country girl, is given a splendid opportunity to display her excellent dramatic ability as well as some of the beautiful gowns for which she is so noted.

The production of "Armstrong's Wife" is said to be one of the most beautiful ever turned out by the Lasky company and Miss Goodrich has been given a support of unequalled excellence, including Thomas Melgan, James Cruze, Mrs. Lewis McCord, Florence Dagmar, Hal Clements Raymond Hatton and other members of the Lasky all-star stock company.

A Big Cash Saving and Valuable Extras!

An actual saving to Piano purchasers of $82.50 and to Player purchasers of $160 is enough to make this Piano Club the most notable and most popular merchandising event in history. We want you to realize that this saving is actual—it is real. We want you to distinguish between this co-operative club plan of money saving and so-called "sales." Even so large a sum as $82.50 or $160 look small beside some figures you'll see. But get at the logic of the proposition. Be sure the "offer" does not wilt and wither in the fierce sunlight of reason and common sense. There are sales and schemes galore. But are they reasonable? Are they possible? Do they appeal to your business sense? This Profit-Sharing Club will.

$5 Sends a Piano Home $10 Sends a Player Home
Think of It! A $350 Piano for $267.50 or a $600 Player-Piano for $440

Such a saving is only possible by ordering 400 instruments for immediate delivery. It means a saving of $82.50 to $160 to club members. I means a total saving to club members of the enormous sum of $72,750. Big and astounding as these figures are, they are possible when a house like ours deals on such a gigantic scale.

Note the Extras

In addition to selling you a Piano at an actual saving of $82.50 or a Player-Piano at an actual saving of $160, we offer you a number of very advantageous and unique club features. These we enumerate at the head of this page. Perhaps they are secondary, but they are important.

Cash Rebates

The rebating system is an instance. Figure it out for yourself. Every time you make an extra payment of $1.50 we hand you back 25c in cash. If you make ten extra payments in advance—that's $15—we give you $2.50 in cash. You may avail yourself of the extremely easy terms if you wish, but it will pay you to anticipate payments when you can.

Free Receipt in Case of Death

This is a wonderfully liberal concession. It means that the family of the club member is protected against loss of the instrument in the event of his death. It means protection. And it is given as a part of the club, without extra cost. You cannot afford to be without it.

Free Exchange

We offer you free privilege of exchanging the Piano or Player you may select for any other, equal in value or even better, at any time within one year, without the loss of a penny you have paid. We make the exchange without a word and apply all payments on the new instrument. For instance, if you should not be able to decide between the Piano or the Player-Piano and you finally take the Piano, any time within a year you may exchange for the Player.

Entertaining Himself.
In Clayton Hamilton's "On the Trail of Stevenson" is this quaint passage between the boy and his nurse, Allison Cunningham:
"When little Louis was about five years old he did something naughty, and 'Cummy' stood him up in a corner and told him he would have to stay there for ten minutes; then she left the room. At the end of the allotted period she returned and said, 'Time's up, Master Lou; you may come out now.' But the little boy stood motionless in his penitential corner. 'That's enough; time's up,' repeated Cummy. And then the child mystically raised his hand, and, with a strange light in his eyes, 'Hush,' he said, 'I'm telling myself a story.'"

English Golf Courses.
A glance over the plans of the seven championship golf courses of Great Britain reveals the fact that not one possesses a single hole which measures 550 yards, the longest being the seventeenth at Westward Ho, which is 542 yards. St. Andrews possesses two holes of over 400 yards, the fifth is 533 yards and the fourteenth of 516 yards. The twelfth at Prestwick measures 508 yards and the sixteenth at Hoylake 510 yards. There is not a single hole at either Murfield or Deal which measures 500 yards.
