

The Delight of Children

The self developed, inner-flavour of New Post Toasties bear a unique attraction for the kiddies—they even like them dry from the package for their lunches. A box of Toasties provides "eats" that will delight the children.

New Post Toasties are usually served with cream and sugar, in which form the flavour is more pronounced and the flakes more delicious. These New Toasties do not "chaff" or crumble in the package and they don't mush down in cream—both common defects of old-fashioned "corn flakes."

Then, too, notice the tiny bubbles on the flakes, produced by the quick, intense heat of a new patented process of making which imparts delightful crispness and a substantial body to the flakes.

New Post Toasties are a vast improvement over any old-style "corn flakes."

For tomorrow's breakfast—

Told His Reason.

The bride looked elegant in her white pounce de terre caught up with gorgonzolas, and everything was going along swell.

The minister spoke, "If any one knows any reason wherefore by which standing this man should not marry this woman let him chirp up now or forever take a back seat."

There was a stir in the last row. A pale faced man rose to his feet.

"I know a reason!"

The entire seven-ten spectators turn ed their eyes on the speaker as the eyes of one speckled tailor.

"Name it!" thundered the minister.

"I'm his father," said the little man, "and he's owed me $38.50 for seven years, and if he's been unable to pay it all this time how can he pay it when he has a wife to support as well as himself?"

"The man is right. I can't marry you," said the minister, who had started out as a tailor himself. And the ceremony did not proceed until the tailor had passed his hat among the guests and collected all but $2.19. Pittsburgh Press.

Clear Skin Comes From Within

It is foolish to think you can gain a good clear complexion by the use of face powder. Get at the root of the trouble and thoroughly cleanse the system with a treatment of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Gentle and mild in action, do not gripe, yet they relieve the liver by their action on the bowels. Good for young, adults and aged. Go after a clear complexion today. 25c. at your druggist.

CURE THAT SPAVIN

Use that Carb. Spirit, Elixophor or other brand with Kendall's Spavin Cure. Mr. Marvin W. Shaw, Wis., writes this about Kendall's Spavin Cure:

"I have been using your Spavin Cure for some time and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good. I have been suffering from spavin for some time and I have tried many other remedies but they have not done me any good. I have tried your Spavin Cure and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good. I have been using your Spavin Cure for some time and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good. ### Favors.

He only confers favors generously who appears, when they are once conferred, to remember them no more.—Johnson.

Always Feminine.

A young chap was walking along a business street with a very pretty girl when he happened to glance into a couple of windows where the latest styles of men's overcoats and suits were displayed. The girl noticed it. She stopped and exclaimed: "What a dandy overcoat! Why don't you get one of those, Bob? You'll look fine inside of that."

She looked at everything in that window, and the young chap was delighted at her interest in men's clothes.

"You're all right, Grace," said he. "That's what I like about you. Most girls would rather look at lingerie waists than at a man's overcoat and suits."

The girl laughed. "Well, Bob," said she, "to be perfectly honest, the mirrors in that window are something to cry for. I was trying to see if my hat was on straight!"

The Scrap Book

Too Late For the Boats. They told a story about one of the New York to Boston boats. This boat quivered from stem to stern one morning and, with a harsh, grating sound, came to a full stop.

A man in a suit of fancy pajamas ran wildly up on deck.

"Good gracious, captain," he said, "have we struck something?"

"Call it yourself," the captain answered.

"Cap, we're sinking! I can feel it! Shall I get into a life preserver?"

"You are past the need of a life preserver now, my poor fellow," the captain said.

"Cap, we're sinking! I can feel it! Shall I get into a life preserver?"

"Too late, the captain answered solemnly. "It's too late for the boats now."

"Too late? Too late?"

"Yes," said the captain. "We've done all we can for you, and you'll have to look out for yourself from now on. You see, we've just tied up to the dock."

How To Get Rid Of A Cold. Summer colds are serious. Read how C. E. Summers, Holdrege, Neb., got rid of his. "I contracted a severe cough and cold and could hardly sleep. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and the very first dose relieved me. I took a second dose before going to bed and can truthfully say I did not cough all night. By using as directed the next two days my cough was entirely cured and I give Foley's Honey and Tar full credit for my speedy recovery." Foley's always soothes and heals. Children love it. Sold Everywhere.

If We Only Knew.

If we knew what hearts are aching For the comfort we might bring; If we knew what souls are yearning For the sunshine we might bring; If we knew what feet are weary Walking pathways roughly told We would quickly hasten forward, Stretching forth our hands to all.

If we knew what friends around us Feel a want they never tell— That some word that we have spoken Pained or wounded where it fell, We would speak in accents tender, To each friend we chanced to meet; We would give to each one freely Smiles of sympathy so sweet.

Had Periods of Rest. Entering the small depot of an outlying railway station the superintendent was greatly angered to find general disorder and uncleanliness. Much dismayed, after being forced to listen to a severe reprimand, the negligent employee attempted to make the best explanation possible, but being a victim of the stammering habit his efforts were of little avail, and, in fact, angered his superior much more. Finally, incensed beyond a point where one's feelings would be considered, the superintendent hammered the desk with his fist and exclaimed: "Great Scott, man! Do you stutter all the time?"

"Stutter," replied the unfortunate agent, "only wh-when I t-try to t-talk."

Keep It Dark. Simplicity—is the light out in the hall? Dullness—Yes. Shall I bring it in?—Leligh Burr.
