REPORTS 78 FLIERS BAGGED
17 Aeroplanes.

Berlin Statement Admits the Loss of 17 Aeroplanes.

Berlin, Sept. 17, (by Wireless to Sayville).—Seventy-eight aeroplanes were lost by the British and French as the result of aerial engagements on the western front during August according to figures given out by a competent authority, says the Overseas News Agency today. Of this number forty-nine machines fell into German hands, thirty-one of the captured aeroplanes being British and eighteen French. Twenty-eight aeroplanes are positively known to have been shot down behind the hostile lines, it is declared, while one aeroplane was forced to descend behind the lines.

The German losses of aeroplanes during August, before and behind the enemy's front, were seventeen aeroplanes," the statement adds. "The German statement again mentions the names, the types of aeroplanes, the numbers on the motors of the captured machines and the service in which they were engaged. The enemy, despite repeated requests has not made public the names of the German aeroplanes which he pretends to have captured or the dates of the alleged capture."

GRAHAM'S EXPENSES $28.18

Republican Nominee for Governor Files Expense Statement.

Montpelier, Sept. 18.—The republican nomination for governor by the primary method cost Horace P.
Graham the sum of $28.18, according to his sworn statement of expenses filed with the secretary of state, according to a provision of the primary act. The only other candidate to file a statement of expenses up to Saturday noon was Fred L. Webster of Swanton, democratic nominee for attorney-general, and he expended $3 cent.

The law provides that the candidate shall file a statement within ten days after the election which gives the other nominees nearly a week in which to make out their statements.
The candidate is supposed to include in his items all amounts "paid or promised." There is considerable interest in regard to what the senatorial fight cost two of the candidates and their statements will probably be read with interest.

Preparedness:
How it Helps Coughs and Colds

Early Fall brings croup, bronchitis with its racking, weakening cough, asthmatic breathing, troublesome night coughs, whooping cough, and tickling, irritable throat. It aggravates the distreassing cough of weak lungs, and the chronic coughs of elderly people.
Buy your bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar now, and be prepared to stop these coughs and colds before they have a chance to work mischief in your system. It is a safe, sure and reliable medicine. Sold Everywhere.

Our Daily Special.
Some men have spring fever all year around.

Luke McLuke Says:
Some men are such consistent losers that any time they break even they boughtie they are winners.
The sex knowledge people take themselves mighty seriously in their endeavors to enlighten the school children. But it will probably be a long time before Harvard Ellis replaces Mother Goose in our nurseries.

Once in awhile a woman is lucky and has as many clothes ten years later as she had when she was married.

There are all sorts of people in the world, including the man who refers to a burlesque queen as an actress.

The reason why a man tries to make his machine beat everything else on the street and hit nothing but the high places when he is turning corners is because he is going to have plenty of time when they stretch him out on a slab in the morgue.

When you are sitting beside a pretty girl who seems to like you it is mighty hard to keep from resting your arm on the back of the seat she is occupying.

A woman gets pretty mad when a man loses some money gambling. But she doesn't hit up a real boiling rage until she discovers that he has lost some money by accommodating his ornery relatives.

It is easy to make a hit with the average wife. Just tell her how light her bread is and how heavy her baby is.

You can wear cheap clothes and fool some people. But you never fool anybody when you are wearing cheap jewelry.

There are a whole lot of men in the world who can argue learnedly on the constitution and the Monroe doctrine who imagine that Daniel Webster compiled Webster's Dictionary.

Some people seem to think so. But it wasn't Lincoln's whiskers that made him a great man.

And where is the old fashioned man who could prove almost anything by the Bible?

The King's Way.

It was characteristic of the late King Edward VII. that he never showed too much or too little courtesy, but just enough to maintain his reputation of being the most gracious gentleman of Europe. Some years ago, according to the author of "The People's King," his majesty visited Aberdeen and knighted the lord provost. At the luncheon which followed the king sat next to Mrs. Lyon, the wife of the lord provost, and noticed on the table the card denoting her place.

"I must alter this," the king said, smiling on the lady.

With his pencil he effaced the word Mrs. and in its place substituted Lady and graciously handed the card to her newly made ladyship.

Family Harmony.

"I am very easy on my shoes," said the stout lady complacently. "Look at this pair, I've worn them three years, and they're still as good as new. I'm easy on clothes too. There's my tweed —just as fresh as the day I bought it, seven years ago. And hats, gloves, stockings—in fact, I'm easy on everything."

"Except father, eh?" said her daughter quietly, without looking up from her book.

That Settled It.

She—You remind me so much of my brother. He—Indeed! In what way? She—Well, Harry seems awfully fond of me, yet he never offers to kiss me.

After that it was quite unnecessary for her to ring in any of her relatives.
—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Early Astronomy.

Anaxagoras, a distinguished Athenian, in 525 B. C. taught that the sun was not a deity, but an incandescent fiery mass. He also suggested that the moon shone by reflected light and correctly explained solar and lunar eclipses.

Masked Balls.

Henry VIII. introduced the ball masque into England. As this form of amusement gradually spread the people began to hire halls and charge admission fees, and the routs of the court were limited by the orgies of the mob.

Postal Savings Banks.

All the money the postal savings banks receive they immediately redeposit in national reserve banks and so keep it in circulation instead of allowing it to remain hoarded and hidden.

Of all our infirmities, vanity is the dearest to us. A man will starve his other vices to keep that alive.—Franklin.
