Brief Mention of Interesting Incidentals for the Home

Pleasing little collection of Matting-covered Boxes, Mahogany Bud Vases, Candle Sticks, Book Blocks, Smokers' Stands and Lamps, Scrap Baskets, Serving Tray Wagons, Lullaby Bassinets, Chinese and Wicker Chairs and Settees, Curtain Rods, and Fixtures of the better sort

ALEXANDER DRYSDALE & SON

A Friend Remarked

to me that he would get his Fall Suit Here
but he liked to try on several times when making.

The try on way is certainly fine; its mother's way when making over father's old coat to fit the boy. Put it on; then pin up the slack; baste, and sew up. It answers all requirements of law, and is mother's way, so it must be a fine way.

Suppose it does knock all the style out of a coat; suppose it does make crooked all the beautiful, symmetrical lines a good tailoring system puts in; why should you care? Covers your back; don't it? Just as warm; isn't it? Wear as long; won't it?

Then why not be a good fellow and excuse this Perfect System of Try-on Tailoring and give a poor tailor a show—maybe the TRY ON system is the only one your tailor had a chance to learn. Costs money you know to learn to cut to fit; takes time too, under a master, and there are very few that can afford such a training. They haven't the time nor the money.

So forget there is any such thing as style in cutting; forget that it's the beautiful lines placed on the cloth while laying, to be cut, on the bench that makes the symmetry of the finished coat; forget that when a coat is cut as big as a balloon to allow for misfitting, that every handful of cloth chopped off has on it a line of beauty—a style line—a line of symmetry, that belongs to you; that you are paying for. Forget these things; be a corking good fellow, close your eyes and take the bag.

Are ours made this way; do we cut for try-ons? Most certainly not. Our clothing is cut and tailored by Ed. V. Price & Co. who cut to fit. No surplus cloth to cut off—no alterations to make. They fit you perfectly first time you put them on your back. The style lines; the line of grace and beauty are all there. You pay for them—you get them.

SUFFERED YEARS FROM CATARRH

Louis Fortier Relieved of Catarrh and Stomach Trouble After Taking TANLAC

PRAISES MASTER MEDICINES

Holyoke Resident Now Recommends It To Friends.

Mr. Louis Fortier of 554 South Bridge Street, Holyoke, Mass., suffered from stomach trouble and catarrh for years. He saw Tanlac advertised and after taking three bottles he now recommends it to his friends.

When telling of his case at George F. O'Connor's Drug Store, Holyoke, Mr. Fortier said:

"I suffered from a stomach trouble and catarrh for years. I saw Tanlac advertised and now since taking three bottles I feel fine.

"My catarrh does not bother me half as much as it used to.

"I am now glad to recommend Tanlac."

The experience of Mr. Fortier proves the wonderful qualities of Tanlac, the Master Medicine.

It is upon such testimonials as these from men and women of unquestioned wisdom and judgment which come in an unbroken never-ending chain that the remarkable success of Tanlac has been built. They are the guarantees of its merits extraordinary.

Tanlac, so people declare who have used it, has the remarkable quality of going right to the seat of stomach, kidney, intestinal and catarrhal troubles and brings buoyant spirits, sound digestion and restful sleep.

Tanlac is now being introduced and explained daily in Bennington, at William L. Gokay's Drug Store, and can also be obtained in all neighboring cities and towns at the Tanlac Stores.

STAMFORD

William Anton of New York, who has been visiting his brother, Edward and Charles Anton has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woulft entertained a few of their friends Monday evening it being their fifteenth wedding anniversary. They served a bountiful supper. Music and games were the features of the evening. Everyone reported a fine time.

STAMFORD

Luke Flood of Boston and his sister, Mrs. Bouchard of North Adams were guests of Mrs. William Sanford recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Tanner of Wilkesburg, Mass., visited at A. J. Tanner's a few days last week, returning home Saturday.

It should have read Bert Cole instead of Rev. D. C. Cole as printed in the last weeks Stamford items.

Miss Mildred Whitney of Brattleboro is the guest of Mrs. Eva Goodrich.

Married in Stamford by Rev. D. C. Abbott on September 29, Warren Clough and Alberta Stroppe, both of this town. They have the well wishes of a host of friends.

BENNINGTON BRIEFS

News of the Town and Village Told Briefly for Busy Readers

The Boy Scouts will meet on Saturday evening.

The Baptist ladies aid will meet on Thursday afternoon and evening in the church parlors.

Mrs. J. Loring Thayer of Boston is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Eva Goodrich.

Mrs. Richmond is quite ill and a trained nurse is in attendance.

Miss Edith Dewd is spending a few days at home this week.

Miss Emily Butterworth of Indiana is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fritchard.

On September 27th and 28th, the ladies and gentlemen of our city will be given a wonderful demonstration of the Arco Wand Vacuum Cleaner at Nichols & Warren Electric Company's store, 528 Main street. It is built into the house like a radiator heating plant, and will last as long as the building itself. The public is cordially invited to see the clever demonstration. Annual house-cleaning, dusting, step-ladder climbing, back-straining, lifting and sweeping are forever abolished for womankind. Come and see it. Adv.

Visit TROY'S Great Display of New Fall FASHIONS

OCTOBER 5, 6 and 7

Thirty-seven leading merchants in Troy, N. Y., will co-operate on these days to show you the most varied and elaborate selection of new Fall fashions for men, women and children that central New York state affords.

To properly stock and display the apparel for men, women and children and home furnishings offered on these days, requires a total floor space of 655,000 square feet—that's more than 15 acres of floor space.

The 2,054 willing hands employed by these retailers will be ready to place before you just the things you wish to see—at your service to show you the very latest and most interesting designs, patterns, fabrics and utilities.

167 big plate glass show windows will be filled with the fashions—the up-to-the-minute things that men, women and children love to look at before deciding upon any purchase. The curtains will be raised on these unusual displays at 9 o'clock, Thursday morning, October 5th.

Visiting Troy Fashion Week means seeing such an assortment to select from—most of the styles that the French, English and American markets offer. And, when you shop in Troy you buy at Troy conservative prices. When you buy from TROY RETAIL SERVICE MEMBERS, you receive all that this emblem implies—value, service, courtesy and fair dealing.

Bring your family and visit Troy in time for the Firemen's Annual Parade on the afternoon of October 5th.

You will enjoy coming by motor, train or by interurban and you can't afford to miss it.
