

"I SUFFERED SEVEN YEARS"

Was Eventually Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered for seven long years with a lame back, irregularities and pain. I had one physician after another but they did me no good. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gave it a trial and in a short time I felt benefited and am now feeling fine, and without weakness or pain. Many of my friends have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and been helped by it."

Mrs. MARGARET NESS, 1846 E. Hazzard St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headache, or "the blues" should not rest until they have given this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special suggestions. The result of its long experience is at your service.

"LES MISERABLES"

Synopsis of Famous Melodrama to Be Given at Opera House.

William Farnum in Les Miserables, the most melodramatic of all Victor Hugo's great melodramas, produced by William Fox and directed by Frank Lloyd, at the opera house tonight.

For stealing a loaf of bread to keep his sister and her children from starving, Jean Valjean is sentenced to five years in the galleys. Several times he attempts to escape. Each time he is recaptured and in all serves nineteen years. He comes out in 1815 a man whose soul is set against society that caused him to spend all those years in prison for the theft of a loaf of bread.

He trades to the provincial town of D. People shun him. He is denied food. He goes to the Bishop's house. The Bishop, a Godly man, gives him food and a bed to sleep in. During the night Jean gets up and steals the Bishop's silver. He is captured but the Bishop tells the gendarmes he gave the silver to Jean. As Jean leaves the Bishop says:—

"Jean Valjean, you no longer belong to evil but to God. Remember I have bought your soul of you and have given it to God."

Jean goes off. Later he is heard of as the millionaire Mayor of the town of M. The Bishop's words have made a great change in him. He is doing good everywhere. He has a manufacturing plant that is thriving and employing many persons.

One of his workers in Fantine, who has a child Cosette. Facing starvation Fantine gives the child to a family named Therdier, which constantly beggars her by their demands for money. Finally Fantine is discharged. When Jean, now known as Father Madeleine, learns of this, he seeks out Fantine, who is in the hospital, and promises to get Cosette for her. He fore he can carry out his promise, he hears that a man in another province has been identified as Jean Valjean and is about to be sent to the galleys. Despite everything, Father Madeleine discloses his identity and saves the man. Fantine dies. Father Madeleine flees from the place and takes Cosette with him. They go to Paris.

During all this time Jean is hounded by Javert, the inspector of police, who knew Jean as Convict No. 24601. In Paris, Cosette, the only human creature who ever loved Jean, falls in love with Marius, a young aristocrat. At first Jean tries to thwart this love affair, fearful he will lose Cosette's love. But the man in Jean asserts itself and in the revolutionary riots of 1831, he saves Marius' life and Marius and Cosette are married. Cosette never knew that Jean had been a convict. During these riots Jean also saves the life of Javert, his life-long enemy.

CARL EMMONS BUGBEE

Young Man, Native of Woodford, Died Wednesday.

Carl Emmons Bugbee died at his home on West Main street Thursday evening. He was taken ill less than a week ago with influenza which later developed pneumonia.

Mr. Bugbee, aged 34 years, was a native of Woodford and had always lived there until a year ago when he moved to West Main street. He was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse N. Bugbee.

For twelve years he was driver of the stage from Bennington to Woodford and when the route was discontinued a year ago he entered the employ of the Ryan Trucking company. A temperate young man with excellent morals and fine character he will be greatly missed from a large circle of friends in this community and in Woodford. Although a man in good health until a few days ago he realized he could not get well and made preparations for funeral services. As requested the remains will be taken to the home of his parents in Woodford where the funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon. Rev. P. L. Dow will officiate.

Surviving beside his wife and parents are two children, a son, Perry, 6 years of age, and a daughter, Rena, 4 years old, and two brothers, John and Jesse, both of Woodford.

ACTOR'S SUDDEN DEATH

Edwin Arden, Successful Playwright and Actor Dies in New York.

New York, Oct. 3.—Edwin Hunter Pendleton Arden, one of the best-known actors and playwrights of the American stage during the last thirty years, died suddenly yesterday.

Edwin Arden began his dramatic career in the support of Thomas W. Keene in Chicago in 1882. He was born in St. Louis and educated in the public schools there. New York first knew him in 1882 when he appeared with the Madison Square Theatre Company in "Young Mrs. Winthrop." Later in the same season he was in "The Russian Honeymoon" company. He next went to the Boston Museum Company in the support of Edwin Booth, Dion Boucicault and John Gilbert, and the next season found him with the Edwin Booth company.

He appeared in a round of legitimate parts in New York in 1885 and from 1886 to 1895 toured the country at the head of his own company, which presented an extensive repertoire, including many plays which were written by Arden himself. Among his plays were "Eagle Nest," "Barred Out," "Raglan's War" and "Night and Morning."

FRENCH ADVANCE EASTWARD

They Have Increased Their Gains in Several Localities.

Paris, Oct. 4.—The French in the St. Quentin region have advanced east of Lesdigns, the war office reported. The Americans and French in Champagne have advanced further northwest of Blanc Mont and Medeah Farm. North and northwest of Rheims, the French have increased their gains somewhat and improved their position in the vicinity of Betheny.

Wants School Renamed

Editor of the Banner.—In many places it is customary to name school buildings in honor of persons especially worthy of distinction. I would suggest that the seventh ward school building with which Miss Whitney has been so closely identified during the past twenty years be called, "The Cora B. Whitney School."

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—lungs coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

EXAMINATION CANCELLED

year ago there were some 300,000 United States bondholders, there are now somewhere between 20,000,000 and 25,000,000. Awakened patriotism has made the American people a saving people, a bond-buying people. The effect of the Liberty loans on our national life, on the individual citizen, and our home life is immeasurable—of incalculable benefit.

The Fourth Liberty Loan campaign will close October 19. No American doubts its success; no good American will fail to contribute to its success. The blood of our men, fallen in Europe calls to us; our answer must be and will be worthy of them and our country.
