

Our Buyer, Mr. Cole

Is in Boston placing orders on Spring Merchandise in conjunction with thirty or more other stores, all members of the Independent Chain Stores, Inc.

Twenty manufacturers of clothing and furnishings have offered to sell this syndicate spring merchandise at ten to twenty percent under price they would quote single stores.

In other words these manufacturers offer to sell us at jobbing prices, thus cutting out the middleman.

With one set of profits eliminated this store will be able to offer our trade Spring merchandise at very attractive prices.

Not as low of course as the distress prices now offering by us, but yet far under the prices necessary during the war time period.

We will positively keep our customers posted on the price situation and will have all our goods marked on the reduced basis.

You shall have the full benefit of our buys.
