ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Election August 5th, 1880.

CHIT-CHAT.

—Listen! Scandal's about.
—As a harpist George Brazleton is a successist.
—There seems to be a boarding-house war going on in our town.
—The "fat editor" is going to "garden it" on a large scale this year.
—"Pap" Martin can make a jay-bird ashamed of himself. They never visit his side of the Square.
—It is getting almost time for our knight of the rod, Geolefeber, to make another visit to the Devil—steps.
—The weather was too inclement for buggy riding last Sunday afternoon. We felt sorry for Hagl, Mike, and Fozzy.
—The outlook for the farming interest of our county is said to be encouraging. All the farmers ask now is fair weather.
—That clever young Texian, Tom Jenkins, (one of the bright lights of the Winchester Normal,) has our thanks for late Texas papers.
—In speaking of the Street Vocal Club last week, we intended to add "to be continued" at the bottom. We are glad that we didn't.
—The Street Committee did have those mud-holes on our street filled up. A little work now and then is relished by High-street men.
—The weather last week made some of our friends yawn with spring fever. Laziness is said to only flourish at spring tide, but old 200 pounder's life seems to be an eternal spring.
—As models of beauty, refinement and intelligence, the young ladies of Winchester—school girls included—can't be excelled. And the married ladies are—par excellence.
—Lots of people in town last Monday. And, judging from the scene in the rear of our office in the "shank of the day," we are satisfied that the "spirits of just men" were not made perfect.
—A gentleman in Winchester makes it his business to find out the name and business of every stranger who visits the town. We haven't learned whether or not he has made any money at the business.
—We don't want to join that much-abused class, the weather-prophets, but will venture to remark: The next few weeks will show whether it will be cloudy or fair. Remember, now, we predicted it when it comes.
—Individually and collectively the young men from abroad who attend the Winchester Normal are models of politeness. May their shadows never grow less. The deportment of the resident pupils is remarkably good. May it ever be thus.
—Madame Rumor says one of Winchester's fair ladies is soon to marry some fellow from a distance. We are opposed to this. We think our girls ought to support our own town boys. This way of marrying fellows from abroad exhibits a lack of town pride that is ridiculous.
—One of Winchester's young bloods says we mustn't put his name in the Journal. All right, you needn't fret yourself, honey. Unless you should come into notoriety by a mere accident we will never care anything about you, much less use your name in our space.
—The street committee are having some of the crossings on the streets repaired. The crossing near Mrs. Pryor's residence was made entirely new. It is a substantial piece of work. Its construction was superintended by Mayor Forbes, who requested us to put in this notice—or words to that effect.
—Candidates have commenced to talk pleasantly to and shake hands with all they meet. The canvass will be under full headway in a few weeks, and before it is over the babies of our county will be praised so much for their beauty, that we fear their mothers will grow vain.
—Our schools—may they both ever live and flourish as the green bay tree." In fact, they will live. And right here we will say, as we have often said before, that no town in the South can boast of better educational advantages than Winchester. Long live Normal.
—There is and has been for several weeks a lively scrap-iron trade going on in Winchester. Small boys and negroes are mostly engaged in the traffic, and they "gobble up" everything in the shape of iron, from a horseshoe-nail to a cooking-stove. In fact, it is almost unsafe to leave your gate hinges out after night.

From the 10th District.

COWAN, TEXAS, March 1.

Editor Home Journal:

The first of the past week was warm and pleasant, but ending with rain and cold. Plum bushes are in bloom, elm trees are green, and peach trees would have been in bloom in a few days but for the sudden change in the temperature.
Farmers are well up with their work. Some have broken up their gardens and planted Irish potatoes.
Wheat has escaped the ravages of the worm thus far, and is looking well.
Died.—On the 27th ult., at the residence of her son, near Cowan, Mrs. Jackson, aged 78 years. She had been in feeble health for several years.
The residence of M. P. Hines was destroyed by fire on the evening of the 27th ult. He had moved to town last fall, and a negro family were living in the house. There was no one at home when it took fire. Mr. Hines and the negro children were in the crib near by, sleeping, and the negro man was plowing a short distance from the house, but did not discover the fire until the roof was dropping in. The wind was very brisk from the east, and it is supposed it caught from the fire-escape.
A lady whose name I did not learn, who had been on a visit to relatives at Tracy City, was robbed at Cowan last Wednesday night. She came down on the evening train, and was in the sitting-room awaiting the night train bound north. She was alone. Two men came in and stirred up the fire in the stove. She was sitting near the stove, and her child was fretting. She took her purse out of her bosom and laid it on the seat by her side to nurse the child, when one of the men seized the purse, and both ran. She pursued them some distance, but they soon disappeared out of her reach. Two men have been arrested, and it is hoped the guilty parties will be discovered and punished.

ESTILL SPRINGS, TEXAS, March 1.

Editor Home Journal:

We are sorry to have announce the death of Mrs. John S. Brooks, wife of W. B. Gray's miller. She died on the 29th of February, leaving five children to mourn her loss.
We are glad to learn that Mrs. W. B. Gray, who has been very ill, is convalescent.
Mrs. W. B. Holt, wife of "Uncle Bill," still continues very ill.
Addison Temple, who has been ill, is now going about, apparently in usual health.
We hear of no other sickness in the community.

Winchester Normal,

Winchester, Tenn.

THIS INSTITUTION, FOR LADIES
and GENTLEMEN, begins its second Scholastic Year with a Faculty of seven teachers, September 1st, 1879.

ADVANTAGES—Location for health unsurpassed, and easy of access from all parts of the State.
—Young, earnest and able teachers in every department.
—Classical, Scientific and Irregular courses of instruction.
—Special advantages in Music, Vocal and Instrumental, Penmanship, Book-keeping, and Modern Languages.
—Cheaper board and tuition combined with superior school-room advantages.
—Aims: Thorough and systematic Culture of Body, Mind and Heart; the watch-word being, A True Manhood and a True Womanhood.
—God places brothers and sisters in the same family, and by placing boys and girls in the same school, the boys are gentler and the girls stronger, while the morals and manners of both are purer and better.
—The instruction is given by teachers who have warm hearts to welcome and willing hands to help, and is thorough, careful and complete.
—The complaint so often urged, that teachers in Colleges are slaves to routine, that they blindly follow precedents, and never originate or adopt new methods, can not be made against Winchester Normal. She has fresh young life, does not roll in the old ruts; but is guided by large and liberal ideas, while possessed of force of will to carry them out.
—The Scholastic Year comprises two terms, each of five months.

Expenses per Term of Five Months:

Primary School	$10.00
Grammar	15.00
Collegiate Schools	25.00
Music on Piano	30.00
Music on Guitar	20.00
Full Commercial Course	20.00

Board can be had with the President at $12.00 per month exclusive of washing; $13.00 inclusive of washing.
The best families in Winchester and vicinity will open their houses to boarders on favorable terms.
This School is no HOUSE OF REPOSE. Those with permanent bad habits need not enter for the welfare of the school and safety of others will require their removal.
ONLY WORKING STUDENTS WANTED. Those who go to school to spend money, to keep company, to be thought respectable, &c., will better go to some fashionable College, for they will not be long here. This school is no refuge from care and labor. The student wins success only by patient industry and hard study. Students willing to expend all their energies in the great work of education will find congenial spirits in the Normal.

Winchester, Tenn.

and GENTLEMEN, begins its second Scholastic Year with a Faculty of seven teachers, September 1st, 1879.

ADVANTAGES—Location for health unsurpassed, and easy of access from all parts of the State.
—Young, earnest and able teachers in every department.
—Classical, Scientific and Irregular courses of instruction.
—Special advantages in Music, Vocal and Instrumental, Penmanship, Book-keeping, and Modern Languages.
—Cheaper board and tuition combined with superior school-room advantages.
—Aims: Thorough and systematic Culture of Body, Mind and Heart; the watch-word being, A True Manhood and a True Womanhood.
—God places brothers and sisters in the same family, and by placing boys and girls in the same school, the boys are gentler and the girls stronger, while the morals and manners of both are purer and better.
—The instruction is given by teachers who have warm hearts to welcome and willing hands to help, and is thorough, careful and complete.
—The complaint so often urged, that teachers in Colleges are slaves to routine, that they blindly follow precedents, and never originate or adopt new methods, can not be made against Winchester Normal. She has fresh young life, does not roll in the old ruts; but is guided by large and liberal ideas, while possessed of force of will to carry them out.
—The Scholastic Year comprises two terms, each of five months.

Expenses per Term of Five Months:

Primary School	$10.00
