Full Blood Barred Plymouth Rock eggs for sale by Mrs. R. A. Marroll; $1.00 for 15 eggs. Leave orders at Crabb & Co's store. 2t
A. J. Shorts little girl, Clara Belle died last Thursday at their home near Cooper of scarlet fever. Two others of the family are sick.
J. F. Hook, one of the old timers, was down from Cody during the first of the week on business. Mr. Hook always comes in to see us and is a welcome visitor at the DEMOCRAT office.
Now is the time to begin making arrangements for some races early in the season and what's the matter with having them in June. Let every one get a shoulder to the wheel and push.
We haven't heard much about that telephone that should span the country. Why don't some one get out and take it up. It's what we need, you need it and your neighbors needs it, so let's have a telephone.
We were very busy moving our presses Saturday and didn't get to record all of the visitors and if you are not in this week call and see us in our new quarters and we will record the names of the first fifty persons to pay their account to the DEMOCRAT no matter whether it be 10 cents or $10. Get your name on the roll of honor. We need the money.
Frank Lee of Brownlee is necessarily a little careful how he steps with his left foot since his horse fell with him a little over a week ago spraining his ankle which laid him up for several days. He's getting around better than our friend, Mr. E. R. Vandegrift who had his good leg broken by his horse falling on it just before and as it isn't set yet we are afraid he will have a painful time of it.
Arrangements are now being made whereby the DEMOCRAT is to own a better title to itself and to do this we need your account settled. To be plainer about it we want you to pay us a dollar for the past year's subscription and pay us in advance for next year. We carried you last year and let's pay fair and you give us a lift by paying up what you owe and if you have a little more money you can pay for a year in advance. Now don't put this off during good times as prosperity has been voted and we need some of the signs of it to go business with. Who'll be the next.
Geo. Tracewell and son started out in the country Monday to begin work on the farm recently leased by him from Ed Parry. The family will remain in town for a while that the children may attend school during the spring.

Jos Bristol was on our streets Monday.
John Foster from down the river was doing business in town Monday.
Mrs. Underwood, mistress of the Cody hotel, was down last Saturday.
The A. O. U. W. ball, Friday night, was a success socially and financially.
John Britt, of Britt, has been down with inflammatory rheumatism for a couple of weeks.
J. A. Hooton will own the hotel building that is going up just north of the Valentine house.
Jas. Harvey hauled another load of hay, last week, from W. D. Clarkson's hay claim out south.
Mrs. Dwyer came down from Gordon last week and Monday went up to Crookston to visit for a while.
Work will soon begin on the new court house as the bids will be opened today and we suppose the contract will soon be let.
J. W. Burleigh and Rasmus Anderson are the nominees for the town board to succeed J. W. Burleigh and D. Stinatd whose term expires this spring.
Jas. Quigley and Frank Brayton will soon begin a building of stone on the lots between Barker's stone building and Elliott's drug store. They will need only front and back and a wall through the center.
Last week we forgot to mention that John Stetter started back east for a visit at his old home in Virginia taking his wife along with him as far as Chicago to visit with her folks during John's sojourn at his former home.
Thomas Gates, of Lime Springs, Iowa, passed through Valentine last week from the west part of the county where he had been looking after his stock interests in charge of J. M. Ganow. Mr. Gates says his stock has been doing finely through the winter.
Foundation for Hooton's building was begun Tuesday by Jas. Galloway and as most of the material is on the ground it is safe to say that the building will soon be completed. This gives the Valentine House more room as the new part will be used for lodging.
The A. O. U. W. of this place is contemplating building the second story to the buildings that Quigley and Brayton are going to put up and use it for a lodge room. This would be as fine a room as any lodge would need and could also be used for plays by putting up a stage as the room would be 64x76 feet and would seat a large audience.
The DEMOCRAT office is again on the move, this time to the old laundry building near the Depot temporarily while the Quigley building is being moved to a lot west of Farnham's and south from Geo. H. Hornby's. There we hope to be permanently located and in a good location where we will be glad to have our patrons call.
Preparations are being made to move the Quigley building from the lot north of Elliott's drug store now occupied by the DEMOCRAT office to a lot south and across the street from Hornby's hardware store. This will be a good location and only about one half block from Main St. west of the Cherry Co Bank. We hope to be settled there and ready for business by next week. Until then we must content ourselves to be cramped for space in the laundry building near the depot.
At a meeting of the assessors of Cherry county, Neb., March 19, the following schedule of rates was agreed upon:
