W. H. Bueholz had a birthday Saturday and the members of the Kindergarten club concluded that it was the proper time to invade the precincts of his home, unannounced. They did so, and a very pleasant evening was passed.

The new Marquardt opera hall will be opened tonight by the Sanford Dodge company in "Othello." The ushers will be in full dress and the opening night promises to prove a treat to those who attend. A large number of tickets have been sold and a full house is assured.

Judge Norris of Wayne is in Norfolk today in the interest of Bloomfield in the Knox county division case. He goes to Bloomfield tonight where he will deliver the Memorial address. The judge has just been appointed solicitor of customs at Manila, and will within a short time, depart with his family for the Philippines.

J. R. Cline, general agent for northeast Nebraska for the celebrated Nichols & Shepard company, vibrator threshing machinery, is a hustler who believes in the use of printer's ink, and is advertising his business. He made a contract with THE WEEKLY NEWS today for a large display advertisement which will appear this week.

Last fall the voters of Knox county voted on the proposition to divide the county, out of it forming the new county of Dewey with Bloomfield as the county seat. When the votes were counted both those opposed and those in favor of the division claimed a victory. The matter will be brought before Judge Kincaid by mutual consent in this city this afternoon, who will hear the evidence and render a decision. Messrs. E. A. Houston, S. Draper and R. H. Harris of Niobrara are in the city in connection with the case.

A party of gentlemen from Kentucky, composed of Col. M. H. Crump, Dr. John D. Woods, Marshal Ennis, R. W. Covington, Morgan Hughes and Robert F. Dulaney are in the city investigating the beet sugar industry with a view of establishing a factory in the vicinity of their home. They live in the vicinity of Bowling Green and are all substantial farmers of that section. They raise tobacco extensively but do not find it very profitable and so are turning their thoughts toward beet culture. They have been in the city since Saturday and are much gratified at the courtesies which have been extended to them by Manager Vietzer. They go home quite encouraged in regard to their enterprise and are confident that Kentucky will soon enter the lists as a beet sugar raising state. They expressed themselves as highly pleased with Norfolk and what they had seen of Nebraska.

Wayne Republican: It is done, the carpets are beaten, the pictures are back in their accustomed place, the stove is snugly stored away to rust, and peace, sweet peace abides with us for a time, but oh how short, for in a few days the pestiferous fly will make life miserable and then confound those old screens they will have to be put in place. Is there any place on earth where such troubles are not a hideous nightmare to the man of the house, where he can go and enjoy freedom from the everlasting round of carrying out stoves in the spring, carrying them back in the fall and at both times losing all the grace of God that he ever had by being obliged to wrestle with a contrary old stove pipe and listen to a voice advising you just how to do the job and at the same time pleading with him to be careful and not get soot on the carpet or not to put your dirty hands on the wall paper, a place where bed bugs won't get into the cracks in the walls and persist in coming out when least expected or desired and making their presence known and causing a pulling out of all the furniture and the tacks out of the carpet. There are times and circumstances that makes a fellow really wonder whether life is worth the living and when he is surely convinced that marriage is a failure. Oh those screens!

Rev. E. P. Wigton and family departed for Osmond this afternoon, where Mr. Wigton assumes the pastorate of the Presbyterian church to which he was recently called. Mr. Wigton has been a resident of the city for the past 15 years and he and his family will be much missed by the people of Norfolk. They carry with them the hearty good wishes of their friends for a pleasant and successful future.

R. C. Milligan and family left this morning for Sioux City, which place they will make their home. Mr. Milligan has been a resident of Norfolk for more than a dozen years. During that time he has been actively engaged in the real estate business. He and his family will take with them to their new home the kindly regard of their old neighbors and friends at Norfolk who will hope for them bright days and enlarged success.

The sample sale held by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church was a grand success. About $200 was realized. They still have on hand a sulky plow, a saddle and a Round Oak stove, which are on sale at Dr. F. A. Bryant's drug store. They wish to thank the merchants of Norfolk who so kindly assisted them, and the daily papers who so liberally advertised their sale, and Dr. John Koenigstein who generously gave them the use of his storeroom.

Marquardt's hall was again well filled last evening to listen to the presentation of "The Prisoner of Spain" by the Sanford Dodge company. While the play lacked plot, it abounded in stirring incidents of war and amusing episodes which appealed to the spirit of patriotism among the people and struck a quick response in the popular heart. The parts were all well taken and the company has made a very favorable impression by their work in Norfolk.

The contract for publishing the Nebraska Workman, the official organ of the A. O. U. W., jurisdiction of Nebraska, was awarded at Grand Island on Monday. There were seven bidders and the competition for the work was very strong, but the publisher of this paper succeeded in landing the contract, and the Workman will continue to be published from this office two years longer. The circulation of the Workman now amounts to about 32,000 copies.

Last Sunday was a gala day for Plano men at Norfolk. The general manager, F. O. Wilson of Council Bluffs, was here, and a number of the assistants of the North Platte territory. In the afternoon they visited the general agent, W. H. Blakeman, at his residence and while there were photographed in a group by F. M. Hoyer. Immediately following this, dainty refreshments were served. The "boys" dispersed feeling that the day of recreation and reunion had been a very enjoyable and profitable one.

Bayard Powell, formerly of South Norfolk, died at Amherst on Saturday. He was 30 years old. The body was brought here over the Union Pacific on Sunday and Monday the remains were taken to Pierce, where his parents now reside, for burial. He was a member of the Second Congregational church of this city, where he attended its Sunday school and was a member of the lodge of Busy Bees. Twenty-eight of the school and lodge people led by Mr. Chapman went to Pierce to attend the funeral. Rev. Jefferies preached the sermon.

Decoration day exercises at Battle Creek were of an unusually impressive and interesting character. Battle Creek sent forth several of its young men to do battle at Manila and one of them is dead. A portrait of young Hoover was conspicuous over the platform and the day was in reality a funeral day. Col. J. E. Simpson of this city gave an eloquent address which was listened to with rapt attention by the large audience present. The school children took a prominent part in the program. A fine dinner was served by the ladies to the old soldiers and invited guests.

One of the most notable gatherings of the year in this section of Nebraska is likely to be held at Norfolk the fourth week in June. The Orphans Home of Fremont has been invited by the Christ Lutheran church of this city to have their annual picnic here at that time. It is not known as yet whether that date will be satisfactory, but if not some other will be fixed. When complete arrangements are made THE NEWS will publish the program in full. Special trains will be run to this city at the time and it is estimated by those who have the matter in charge that upwards of 5,000 strangers will be present.

The audience that filled Marquardt's hall the night it was opened as an opera house and again last night, both in character and numbers very plainly evidenced the desire of the people of Norfolk for better hall accommodations. Mr. A. J. Durland deserves much credit for providing such an improved room for the use of opera, and the manner in which the people have so heartily reciprocated ought to leave no further doubt but what they will meet any ampler and better facilities which may be made, in the same generous spirit. Norfolk needs a good, well equipped opera house and will unquestionably make it profitable to its projector.
