From Dr. Bonesteel we learn that Mr. Stephen Cunningham of Polk county, who has been sick with typhoid fever, is now better. Don't sell or sow dirty grain any longer, when you can get a good Fanning Mill at Wiggins's Hardware store on 11th street, for $15.

We understand the Madison Review has changed hands from F. H. Gerrard to John Slater, and will be known hereafter as the Chronicle. The Opera House will be open Thursday afternoon, affording opportunity for those to visit the fair who can not attend in the evening.

Prevent explosions and terrible calamities by getting at William Becker's the celebrated "Head Light" Oil, warranted not to explode. On last Friday evening quite a crowd of young folks gathered at the house of C. A. Newman in the character of a surprise and they had a good time.

S. O. Raymond was out yesterday morning for the first time since his severe illness. He looks pale and bleached, but thinks he will come along all right. In an other place we give the official returns of the election on the 5th, in tabular form. Politicians will do well to paste it in their scrap-books for future reference.

You will do yourself a great favor by trading at Wm. Becker's. His motto is "Ehrlich wahr am langsten," which being interpreted means "Honesty is the best policy." Hotel and Saloon keepers! I am making a very nice lamp-post, and can furnish the same complete with lamp, very cheap. See the one in front of Ed. Sheehan's Sample Rooms, and give me Orders. Chas. Schroeder.

—R. L. Rosier lost by the explosion of a lamp at his premises on the Loop valley Saturday night a frame stable and some harness.

—James Ware returned Friday from his new home in Greeley county. He has just completed a dwelling on his homestead, and expects to be there soon with his family.

—Mrs. George, of Clarksville, has been very ill and not expected to recover. We learned Monday morning that a great change had taken place in her condition, and that she was much better.

—Tommy Wake, son of Charles Wake of this city, has quite a reputation as a rider of fast horses, having recently had two calls from abroad to ride for races in Butler and Seward county.

—The Democrats of Platte county owe their defeat, this election, in part, to disaffection in their ranks, and their present conduct is not such as to assure the untrifled of success in the future.

—Rev. J. Q. A. Fleharty is absent this week at Fremont, attending District Conference. The conference began its sessions yesterday and will continue three days.

—A suit before Justice Byron Millett, set for trial today, at 9 a. m., attracted no little interest from its novelty.—Joseph Gross v. Platte Co. Agricultural Society, for a premium of $75 on his horse.

—On Sunday next, Nov. 17th, the Right Rev'd Catholic Bishop O'Connor will be here to dedicate the new monastery and school-house, and to bless the bells and give confirmation. Services will commence at half past nine, a. m.

—By all odds the best place to buy Groceries, is at Wm. Becker's. He keeps only the best qualities of Sugar, Tea and Coffee. He is continually receiving the very Best Michigan Cider, which he sells by the barrel or gallon. Winter apples by the bushel or barrel.

—Those who have not got their corn husked, had better be about it, as we may have cold, wet weather and perhaps deep snows, in which case a great deal of corn will be lost, because the severe winds in summer blew down considerable of it, which is now flat on the ground.

—Rev. Sherman conducted the religious services at the Congregational church last Sabbath and delivered a very interesting discourse indeed, on the subject of Faith and Works, shedding new light upon that theme, which to the Bible student, at least, it must be admitted, had some dark shades.

—Those who are looking to the future of the Platte county Democracy for their living, would better make a note of the element that acted somewhat independently in this campaign. Whether or not they hold the "balance of power," those who wish for success cannot afford to pass them by without consultation.

—William Milton, a young man who lived just over the line in Hamilton county, was killed lately by the accidental discharge of a shotgun. It appears that he had "fired off" one barrel at a jack-rabbit; and while reloading it the other barrel went off and he received the charge of shot in his face and head, killing him instantly.—Osceola Record.

—On Friday last a team became frightened at the cars near the depot and started down Platte street for the river, with the tongue of the driver on the ground, and the wagon in the wagon. The position was one of danger, but the driver, with the coolness of a general, ran the team into the bank below the Nebraska House and by splintering the tongue to kindling wood, saved the wagon, horses and himself.

—It is not yet determined where the new Congregational church is to be located. The committee appointed to find a suitable site is at work, and reports progress. A subscription is soon to be circulated and the citizens generally asked to contribute. It is certainly time the society had a better-looking and more commodious building than the one now occupied.

—The reason assigned by "close observers" for the defeat of Gibson as assessor of this precinct is that he didn't live in or near the city; that Mr. Henry's large vote for commissioner was owing to the fact that he lives in the city. In politics, we dislike to see geographical lines drawn, and such contests are especially disagreeable and unprofitable in county affairs.

—The first quarterly meeting for Columbus charge will be held at the M. E. Church this city, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, December 3d, 4th and 5th, 1878. Preaching every evening during the meeting. Dr. Slaughter will be present and conduct the meetings. All are cordially invited.

—From here Bishop O'Connor will go to Stearns Prairie, services Tuesday at 9 1/2 a. m., and St. Anthony's Wednesday, same hour. He will return to Columbus on Friday and leave Saturday for Central City, for dedication of the church and giving confirmation on Sunday. On Monday at the Luxemburg settlement, Butler county.

—School commenced at the new St. Francis school-house, Monday, Nov. 4th, attendance, so far, about 80, with more expected; the number will doubtless reach one hundred in a short time—all of them from the city. The Dormitory is now ready for occupation, and boarders will be taken hereafter. Whenever there are a sufficient number of pupils to justify it, Algebra and Book-keeping will be taught.

—The "citizen of the whip," who bet ten dollars with the citizen of "law and land" that Clarkson would be elected, has won his money, even if Butler county don't happen to be in this senatorial district, and now the joke and laugh come in on the other side. We would advise democratic politicians hereafter not to wager their money on the result of elections with a certain republican stock dealer, unless they expect to get scooped.

—In the multitude of counsel there is wisdom, and we suggest to those of our readers who have anything to offer in the way of legislation that they communicate with D. C. Loveland and T. C. Ryan of this city, representatives, and John T. Clarkson of Schuyler, senator. They are the people's chosen agents in the general assembly, for the enactment of laws, and you will do them a favor by making known your wants.

—Hon. H. T. Sperry was in the city one day last week, after election, and didn't seem to be in a good humor towards the JOURNAL. He thinks we did him injustice in an article published from the David City Republican. We will do ourselves the justice to say here that we never thought of Mr. Sperry in the recent contest, except as the leader of a forlorn hope, with no chance of election himself, and very little power to help his friends on the ticket. He may think that he holds the balance of power in this county (which, no doubt, is his ambition), but many a man has been mistaken in his calculations, and so may Hon. Henry T.

—The Democrats of Platte county would like to be possessed of the secret of Republican success this fall. A part of it they can guess, but for all the facts they cannot account in this way, and would fail have an explanation. A continuous effort, up to the elections next fall, will doubtless be made by the Democrats of old Platte to regain their lost ground, and Republicans if they would continue to succeed, must keep watch on every movement of their political adversary, and act accordingly. For once, Republicans of Platte have applied the method of successful campaigning, and if they continue in the same course there is no apparent reason why they should ever be less successful.

—O. P. Reed and family returned from their southern trip on Saturday last. They had a very pleasant visit at Pawnee, Marysville and Crete, at the latter place stopping with Ben. Collinsworth formerly of Columbus. O. P. speaks in the highest terms of the country through which they passed, and brought with him specimens of excellent apples raised at Centerville, Lancaster Co., by John W. Frey, for 21 years a resident there. Mr. Frey says he could have had fruit twelve years ago as well as now. He has an apple orchard three years old that is bearing some. The specimens Mr. Reed left with us are splendid, luscious fruit. In the southern part of this State apples are being sold at 75 cents a bushel, and Nebraska-grown are regarded equally as good as Michigan. The corn between Crete and the southern line is the best Mr. R. ever saw in the west. Mr. Reed lost one of his horses on the trip and paid out a considerable doctor's bill—his loss being $175.

Remarks on the Election Returns. Besides the vote given in the table of the official canvass, found elsewhere, we make the following additions: Jas. Baird had one vote for gov. in Woodville precinct; F. J. Mead, one for Lieut. Gov. in Pleasant Valley; Benj. J. Palmer, one in the same precinct for Sec'y of State; Jno. Wise, one in Sherman for representative, and S. L. Barrett, one vote for representative. It will be noticed by the table that Gerhold's vote was heaviest in Butler precinct, where very special work was put in shortly before, and on election day; next in his own precinct, Bismark, then in Columbus. While we believe it is a fact that heretofore the Republicans of Platte have never elected a commissioner, except when two Democrats were running, it is believed by some that Wise's majority would have been greater, if Mr. Gerhold had been out of the field. We are not prepared to say so much, however.

It is pretty difficult, perhaps impossible, exactly to answer the question from the table, is Platte county Republican, and how much? For the reason that a number of Democrats who wished to teach the party generally a bit of practical wisdom, voted the "clean" Republican ticket. It is a little singular, however, that for Auditor and Treasurer, concerning whom there was no special effort, one way or the other, the votes in all the precincts run exactly parallel, and of course, the majorities in the county are the same—fourteen republican. The vote on Congressman contingent shows about the same state of facts; and that on Atty Gen. and also Com. of Lands, &c., very nearly the same. Judging by the returns alone, it would seem that Platte county is, politically, republican, by about fourteen.

—We have neglected to mention the public meeting held on the evening of the 24th ult., to consider the practicability of erecting a Sisters' Hospital in Columbus. Dr. Bonesteel acted as chairman, and W. N. Hensley as secretary. Quite a number of business men were present and approved of the movement. The Mother Superior of the Sisters of the Poor of St. Francis, of Olpe, Germany, was present, accompanied by an other Sister. After exchanging views it was determined to go forward with the work. A committee of citizens for the purpose of raising funds, was appointed, consisting of J. G. Higgins, L. Gerrard, T. C. Ryan, J. P. Becker and C. A. Speice. Two Sisters are expected this week to begin the work of soliciting, also to begin hospital work, in a small way, at once. The general public is pretty well acquainted with the objects and methods of these hospitals, which have the unqualified approval of intelligent men of every religious persuasion. Those patients who are able to do so are expected to pay the reasonable expense of their care and medical treatment, but all comers are cared for, irrespective of race, condition or religion. The Sisters receive no salary, but are supported by charitable contributions, their whole thought and life being devoted to the care of the sick. It has to be seen at a glance why such an institution will be of benefit to Columbus, and to Central Nebraska, and we shall not be at all surprised to see within the next year, a Sisters' Hospital, in full operation here, and receiving the hearty co-operation of the public.

—Messrs. Schaup & Glade, of Polk county, living about four miles directly southeast from this city have been making valuable improvements on their premises. Mr. McCauley, the carpenter employed, has put up a beautiful dwelling-house, at a cost of $1,800 or $2,000. Mr. McCauley is a first-class workman, and finished this building in good style and taste. They have also erected what will be known as the "Platte Valley Mill." It is supplied with water from Clear Creek, which never freezes, and if at any time more water is required, it is so arranged that it can be supplied from the Platte river. The millwright work was done by J. I. Reynolds, and the entire machinery, with two run of stone, is set to work by power from a Turbine wheel, and was set in motion last Friday with the happiest results, and performing excellent work. This mill will be of incalculable value to the South Platte farmers, and will, doubtless, receive their patronage, provided they do good work and conduct their business fairly and honestly and according to law.

—On Saturday evening last Mr. Wm. Eimers, who recently located in this city in the dry-goods and grocery business, was tendered a serenade by the members of the brass band, the band "boys" recognizing in him an experienced musician, and one who will strengthen their organization by becoming a member. After playing a lively minuet, provided they do good work and conduct their business fairly and honestly and according to law.

Important Decision. Byron Millett, Esq., who was in attendance at the late session of the Supreme Court, gives us the following syllabus of a decision rendered by Chief Justice Maxwell, in the case of Sessions & Carson, v. Irwin, opinion filed Oct. 18th: Appraisers selected by a sheriff to appraise real estate levied upon by him, act judicially in making the appraisal, and it is their duty to ascertain the actual amount due upon liens and encumbrances upon such real estate.

And they must specifically enumerate the liens and encumbrances which they find subsisting against such real estate. Tax deeds are not liens or encumbrances within the meaning of the statute. A party claiming under such deeds holds adversely, and must rely upon his title.

Mon. J. B. Finch. This gentleman, who is one of the greatest workers in the temperance cause that ever appeared before American audiences, will arrive in Columbus Monday next and begin his labors on Tuesday, spending some eight or ten days with us. He never fails to enlist with him the temperance friends of every shade and degree of opinion, and to engage them in earnest work against the common enemy. We have read of his successes at Lincoln, Omaha and other places in the State, and know that the friends of the temperance cause in Columbus will be glad to hear him. Let every friend turn out to the meetings.

A Card. I hereby express to my friends my gratitude for their confidence reposed in me for County Commissioner, and expression given by their ballots the 5th of Nov., 1878, and I trust that the confidence is not misplaced. Of my opponents I ask and desire their good will. From my enemies, if I have any, I expect or ask no favors. Nov. 11th, 78. JOHN WISE.

A Card. We return our sincere thanks to brethren and friends for their kindness to us during the sickness and burial of our dear, little Lizzie. A. E. and E. T. BELLARD.
