—The Norfolk team is planning for its return game of foot ball with Columbus, which is to be played at that city November 9. The players are practicing faithfully and hope to make a better showing than they did on the occasion of the recent game in this city.—News.

—What Dana once said, that probably no newspaper had ever been issued but contained something that should have been left out, or lacked something that should have been published, seems yet to be true, if we are to judge by the experience of Columbus newspapers.

—Benj. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis, was operated upon for appendicitis on Wednesday of last week by Drs. Martyn, Evans, Geer & Hansen, at St. Mary's hospital. He had been at work at Plattsmouth, and his physician advised him to come to the hospital here.

—David Orr, plumber at Dussell's, who had been suffering with sciatic rheumatism, described as "about as bad as it could get," has returned from Kirksville, Missouri, where he took treatment from the Osteopaths at their infirmary, and now has no pain left only a little stiffness.

—Many people are suffering fearfully from indigestion or dyspepsia, and one single bottle of HERRINE would bring about a prompt and permanent cure. Few doses will do more for a weak stomach than a prolonged course of any other medicine. Price 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fricks will make their home in Columbus this winter. Mr. Fricks has been working at his trade in that city since last spring and has spent the year ahead of him. The family joined him there Sunday. Their friends hope that their removal will not be permanent.—Madison Chronicle.

—G. W. Hardy returned this far Saturday from Hyannis, where he had been in attendance at the carnival. Mr. Hardy lives at Leigh, and was the guest of his son, C. C. while in the city. They had a job on Gov. Savage; in firing at a tin can, inside parties had fired his shells with full effect of shot, when he didn't seem to be able to hit anything. Apparently, however, he made his strongest record goal by shooting, only second to the champion, A. H. Hardy, who made some extraordinary hits, among them, in sixteen shots, in ten seconds, he formed the letter H in a card board, held in hand by Bud Bowers of Schuyler. There were about 1,600 cowboys at the carnival.

—WANTED—SEVERAL PERSONS OF CHARACTER and good standing in each state in the United States to represent our company and sell our "MAGNET" brand of electric light bulbs. These bulbs are made of solid glass and contain a vacuum of high quality. They are guaranteed to burn for 100 hours. All orders filled at once. Write to us for our literature. Address: Frischholz Bros., 11th Street, Columbus, Nebraska.

—Apples are going to be very scarce. Lay in your winter's supply. Hales & Adams have a car load.

—Miss Ethel Boyd, Mrs. Hansen and Miss A. Henry are reported on the sick list. Miss Henry is bed-ridden, and is 61 years of age.

—The lightning struck the barn of J. F. Garter, living on the Horton place north of the Lamp, on Sunday night killing a horse. There were three horses in the barn standing side by side and the one in the center was killed while the others were uninjured.—Geman Leader.

—For all fresh cuts or wounds, either on the human subject or on animals, BALLARDE'S SNOW LIMEWASH is excellent. It is made from a special oil of white, hard-ripe oats and some of the best honey, it cannot be too highly recommended. Price 25 and 50 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—J. Gier has been one of the very best men in the city this season and has still work ahead for weeks. In his specialty, cement work, he has called not alone in Columbus, but from other places here and there over the state; whenever he has been to do work he is called again, his work being of the very best.

—Thomas Kinsey has shown some of his best work this year he has harvested 60 tons of corn from three acres. Of the third cutting he threshed about four acres and obtained 20 bushels of seed. Evidently it would be to the interest of Nebraska farmers to give more attention to alfalfa culture.—Stromberg Headlight.

—J. W. Beach, who lives near Schuyler, and is a breeder of Aberdeen-Angus cattle, and Duroc-Jersey hogs was in the city Friday, and purchased of C. K. Davis one of his thoroughbred Durocs. He gives Mr. Davis' thoroughbred short-horn cattle high praise, and believes the race has not been broken since that Columbus was so well supplied.

—There is probably no disease more distressing and annoying than piles. TABLET'S BUCKETE PILE OINTMENT is daily curing cases of years' standing of itching and bleeding piles. The cure begins on the first application, a little perseverance makes the cure complete. Price 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, Thomas A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—S. Wedgworth and wife, of Iowa, were out looking after some property interest at Geoson and came up to visit his cousin, D. A. McDaniel. They returned Tuesday. Mr. Wedgworth's ancestry are rich in the history of this country. They were sent over from England to teach the colonists how to farm. The records show that they once owned the historic Bunker Hill.—At-bon Argus.

—The Monroe Looking Glass says that Mrs. T. W. Adams of Columbus visited her parents there Tuesday. H. J. Hendry has been confined to his bed by illness the past week. Mrs. Albert Under and daughter, Mrs. Williams, of Columbus, were visiting friends in Monroe the first of the week. Jacob Shottwell from Butler county was there attending the half-yearly meeting of the Friends last week.

—County Attorney O'Brien has filed suit against the bondsmen of ex-Treasurer Lynch to recover what is yet due the state (through the county), some $16,000. It has been understood that Lynch turned over to his bondsmen property worth enough to make good, at least a portion of his delinquency. Anyhow, the county attorney has brought suit. It remains to be seen whether the county can now recover from the bondsmen.

—Work on the gas plant is being pushed rapidly. Nearly all the masts are laid, and the gas house or pumping station, or whatever you choose to call it, is fast going up. This is a brick structure on Market street, near the waterworks pumping house. In one end of the house is a large cylinder, the gas tank, which will hold water, the gas is generated. It is expected about the time of the next real dark evenings that the street lights will be turned on.—Albion News.

—The brick walls in addition to St. Mary's hospital are being rapidly completed, the masons now working on the fourth story. They expect to put the roof on during this week. The building will be a handsome structure as it will stand when complete, with the pressed-brick walls on the south and west sides, large windows, etc. Everywhere are made, and the foundations will be begun soon for the boiler-house, coal cellar and laundry buildings to the rear of the hospital buildings.

—Thomas Matzen met with quite a misfortune on Tuesday afternoon, which might have been more serious. He went up on a windmill to oil it. The mill was out of gear, but a gust of wind started the wheel and his hand was caught in between the second and third fingers of his left hand and pinned him to the mill. The wheel was so revolved once that his hand could be released. Dr. Algen deemed the wound and found that no bones were broken, but the flesh was torn and bruised badly.—Schuyler Sun.

—Friday morning between 12 and 1 o'clock fire was discovered at the rear of the restaurant of Mrs. L. R. Calland on Thirteenth street, and immediately the alarm was given. The fire was discovered to be in the kitchen and no clue to the origin has been found but the supposition is that some had disturbed a box of matches in a cupboard. The damage done was more on account of the wind used by the flames and the smoke, as the flames had not gained much headway. A supply of four had been put in the day before the fire. Mrs. Calland was insured in the Columbus and Continental companies in all for $2200, Speiser & Elliott, agents.

—There were some Halloween pranks committed in the city, but nothing of a very serious nature that we have heard of. However, it would be well if there were no pranks of this kind permitted. The "crazy" kind of pranks are usually harmless and do not do things that they would do very much advanced of. If right is ignored or violated in any particular the penalty is sure to follow in some shape or other. Here is a person, for instance, suffering from the expense of a recent great calamity, finds when daylight comes, an additional expense heaped up by the thoughtlessness of mischievous-loving boys and girls, or the willful wickedness of juveniles who give free play to their own imagination. There is no sense in it, though it may be thought to obey the law, and then violate no one's rights.

OSTEOPATHY.

The science of osteopathy although comparatively new yet, is one that accomplishes wonders and we must respectfully urge you to investigate, and to this end we will be very glad to furnish anyone so desiring with literature treating on the subject. All known curable diseases—both acute and chronic are successfully treated by this wonderful science and who have been pronounced as incurable by other methods have responded easily to this system.

Only curable cases are accepted by us; if yours is not one amenable to our method of treatment we will frankly tell you so, and if we can benefit you to any extent we will also inform you of the fact. We charge nothing for either consultation or examination. If you are afflicted call and learn our opinion on your case. A lady operator in charge of ladies' department.
