—T. F. Wilson and family and Mrs. Will Murray spent last week in camp on the island south of town.
—Rev. Luce was called to Lyons last week by the illness of his brother-in-law. He returned Friday night.
—Mrs. Homer Robinson entertained Monday afternoon in honor of her husband's mother, Mrs. Robinson.
—If still in doubt you had better make up your mind now to come to Columbus and celebrate the Fourth.
—Take a day off and celebrate the Fourth in the good old style in Columbus. See program in another column.
—Easton & Co. are headquarters for choice groceries and hardware. We take country produce at highest market prices.
—Miss Anna Sturgeon went to Lindsay Friday where she will have a position as compositor in the newspaper office at that place.
—Wm. Schils makes boots and shoes in the best style, and uses only the very best stock that can be procured in the market.
—Dressmaking, plain and fancy sewing, at home of Mrs. Peter Laughlin opposite Union Pacific round house. Mrs. Laughlin and Mrs. Napier.
—It is confidently expected by all optimists that Nebraska will finally pull herself together and raise a full crop of corn this fall if any other section does.
—The half-price sale of embroideries and hot weather goods of all kinds continues to draw the crowds to E. D. Fitzpatrick's, the White Front dry goods store.
—Claude Finley of Sterling, Kansas, who has been staying the past eight months with the family of his son, Mrs. Wm. Graves, returned to his home last Thursday.
—Mrs. John Seipp, her son Walter and daughter Marguerite, Miss Estelle Hecker and Mrs. Hagaman all started today (Tuesday) for a visit to relatives in Wisconsin.
—Miss Ethel Farrand will entertain friends this afternoon in honor of Miss Mary and Margaret Franklin of Fremont. The occasion will also be Miss Ethel's birthday anniversary.
—In district court last week L. D. Curtis was given a divorce from Adda Curtis. The defendant was given alimony to the amount of $400 and the custody of the children.
—Contractor Jimmie Brimblecom's five cars of railroad grading outfit went through this place Thursday night going to Havens, Nebraska, where he has six miles of double track to grade.
—Mr. and Mrs. John Dawson of Ocoee celebrated their anniversary Monday evening at their home. Mr. and Mrs. George Scott and Mrs. Rasmussen of the city attended the gathering.
—R. B. James, who recently lost tools valued at $35, stolen from the school grounds in the Second ward, has recovered his wheelbarrow, which was discovered and fished out of the Loup river by Fred Brewer.
—Rev. Munro Sunday evening took for his subject of discourse "Lessons from Macbeth." The subject was chosen in response to a request from the Shakespeare club students, who wished to listen to a sermon on the subject.
—On the public road east of Ed. Westcott's farm, two miles east of town there is a part of the road made almost impassable by mud holes. Farmers coming from that direction have found it very inconvenient in reaching this city with loads.
—Green peas, cucumbers and potatoes have been brought in to market by home growers and apricots and peaches are shipped to the merchants. Strawberries from home growers are plentiful in the market selling from 3 quarts for 25 cents to 10 cents a quart.
—County Judge Battarman issued marriage licenses to the following parties: William W. Ogden and Christina Kippie, both of Columbus; George H. Carmine of Polk county and Mrs. Amber J. Hurst of Ocoee; John Meyer and Gessend E. Hunneman, both of Platte county.
—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerhartz of Le-mont, Ill., visited here several days with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gerhartz, coming west on their wedding trip. They left Monday for the east, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Gerhartz who will visit several weeks with her mother, whom she has not seen in twelve years.
—Easton's delivery horse became frightened Tuesday afternoon while near R. Jenkinson's residence and took a run of several blocks. After a run about town it started for the river and would have jumped in but for a fisherman who turned its course homeward. No damage was done to horse or vehicle.

—Investigate Osteopathy; its cures are permanent.
—Dr. L. G. Voss, Homeopathic physician, Columbus, Neb.
—For watches and clocks see the Eleventh street jeweler, Columbus.
—Do not fail to see our 8-foot galvanized steel mill for $32.00. A. Dunsell & Son, if.
—Pretty hot weather Monday. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the thermometer marked 92° in the shade.
—Leo Gutierrez leaves for St. Paul, Minn., this evening to take a position with the Great Northern R. R. Co.
—First communion services were held in the Catholic church Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. Twenty-six children were in the class.
—Messieurs Erakins, Voss and Raney have issued invitations for a Kensington this (Wednesday) afternoon at the home of Mrs. Erakins.
—If Fremont doesn't get a canal from the Platte river project it will import one from Omaha. It knows no such word as fail.—Tribune.
—The common remark just now is that the home grown strawberries are of fine flavor and much superior to berries that have been shipped in.
—Dr. and Mrs. Hansen expect to leave soon for a northern state, hoping it will be of benefit to the doctor who is suffering from rheumatism.
—Rev. John Lohr of DuBois, Neb., brother of William Lohr, who died Saturday, is in the city, called several days ago by the sickness of his brother.
—Carpenters Union No. 1501. Regular meetings every Saturday night. Visiting brothers invited. E. J. Scott president; Chas. Wurdeman, financial secretary.
—The Hoagland lumber company have moved their lumber from the sheds formerly owned by J. E. Kaufmann and Messrs. Branigan & Hendry will today turn their horses into the yards.
—The Columbus Stars played a game of base ball with the first team Sunday, beating them 15 to 8. The first team can no longer lay claim to that name and we understand will re-organize soon.
—Harry Lohr came home from Creton, Iowa, called by the sickness and death of his father. J. Finney and two sons of Polk county also came in time to attend the funeral of Mr. Lohr on Monday.
—The Orpheus society held their annual picnic last Sunday in Baker's grove southwest of the city. There were at least 500 people attended and from a financial standpoint it was the most successful the boys have ever given.
—Monday evening about 9 o'clock several citizens observed a cyclone cloud south of town, but apparently it did not touch earth. Garrett Hulst, H. S. Elliott and others witnessed it. Mr. Hulst says it gave the appearance of coming toward Columbus then turned east and south.
—A. M. Covert, who was so seriously hurt in the Union Pacific yards last week, of which he gave an account in our last issue, is still at the hospital receiving the best care possible. At moments Mr. Covert seems to be rational but not long enough to recognize his own family.
—Next Sunday morning Rev. Millard will hold the quarterly meeting service in the Methodist church, and following Sunday morning Rev. Olcott will preach. During Rev. Luce's vacation for one month there will be no evening church services and with the exception of the first two Sundays there will be no morning services.
—Platte Center will celebrate the Fourth. A trap shoot, parade, a program of music, oration, etc., will take place in the morning and in the afternoon sports of many kinds such as foot races, sack races, fat woman race, catching greased pig, base ball game between Monroe and Platte Center, and many other attractions.
—Mrs. J. B. Geitzen and Mrs. C. Kramer entertained at the home of the former Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hale of Sioux City and Mrs. Young of Lincoln. Military salute was the amusement for the afternoon. Mrs. L. I. Albert received favors for the most home hands and Messieurs Sullivan, Hale, Young and Martyn receiving favors for holding the winning ball.
—Company K held a target practice Sunday in Will Ernst's pasture north of the city. Herman Herring won first place by a score of 35 out of a possible 50. Otto Haged came next with 32 points, the target being at a distance of 300 yards. There were seventeen participants in the shoot. The boys expect to have their new guns before the next practice which will be in two weeks.
—Dr. Ireland called Drs. Martyn and Evans of Columbus in consultation Monday in the case of J. J. Cahill. An operation was performed upon Mr. Cahill's knee. It is feared that his injuries are of a serious nature. H. E. Hoehne of Columbus visited a few days with his brother, Carl F. this week. Born on Monday, June 22, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cross, a daughter.—St. Edward Advance.
—The Fullerton Post says that a son of Mr. Adamson living at the mouth of Horse creek was on the street one day last week with a human skeleton supposed to be that of an Indian. The body had been buried in a sitting posture as Indians bury their dead. The head of the skeleton was well preserved and contained almost a full set of teeth. This county at one time was the headquarters of a tribe of Indians called the Pawnees and this is probably the remains of one of their past chiefs. Mr. Adamson was digging a cave when he came upon the skeleton.
—Myron Wilson, the fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Wilson, got his left leg caught in the belting of the machinery which runs the ice cream freezer at Posche's Thursday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock, and before he could be released the limb was badly broken. Both bones below the knee were fractured and one was severely splintered. It is not known just how the accident occurred, but the room in which the machinery stands is small and poorly lighted, and in adjusting the belt Myron became entangled, with the shoes remaining. Dr. Voss was called and as soon as possible the belts were cut to release the boy. Several physicians attended to the dressing and setting of the limb.

—Charles Hoehne fell from a ladder Sunday afternoon while filling the water tank of a car in the Union Pacific yards, and is now laid up with a very lame back. A round in the ladder on which he was standing, broke, and in falling to the ground he hit on his shoulder, throwing his head backward and almost breaking the neck. No serious injuries have resulted but friends say he had a very narrow escape from instant death.
—Prof. Paul violinist, Prof. Cunningham pianist, Miss Lottie Hochberger vocalist and Miss Bertha Stauder cellist, gave a concert Monday evening in Humphrey under the auspices of the Woman's club of that city. A very large and appreciative audience both from Humphrey and surrounding towns greeted them, and after the concert a reception was held for the musicians at the home of Dr. Metz. The people from here spoke in high praise of their entertainment by the Humphrey friends.
—Last Wednesday R. Y. Lingo living southwest of town across the Loup had their family horse stolen. The same night D. H. Harrington at Dunsmuir missed his harness and buggy and the thief who had evidently visited both places was traced to Shelton; there he had sold the outfit for $50. At that place he expressed a saddle to Kenney and Sunday Sheriff Byrnes caught him man there and brought him back to Columbus. He gave his name as C. F. Beedle.
—Monday's Lincoln Star says: "H. W. Graybill, university of Nebraska, '00, M. A. '02, has been elected head of the department of biology of the Clinton, Ia. High school. During the last year Mr. Graybill has been in charge of the science work in the Columbus, Neb., High school." Members of the city school board have not been informed if Prof. Graybill will accept the offer or not, but as he has had several very flattering positions offered him before, and refused them, they are in hope he will remain for the year.
—Dr. and Mrs. Hans Peterson entertained about one hundred and fifty friends Friday evening to a farewell party at Messner's hall. Cards and other games were the amusement of the evening and later a prize was given to the best looking person in the room, for which Miss Clara Reaser received the prize. In the card game Dr. Chas. Platz and Mrs. A. Anderson received prizes and in the other games Dr. Paul and Mrs. Rorer won the honors. Refreshments were served at a late hour. The many guests enjoyed a very pleasant evening.
—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Askins have been very much worried for several weeks past, having received word that from indication, their son Harry was one of the victims of the Heppner, Oregon, flood several weeks ago. A trunk had been found evidently the property of Harry Askins and as Mr. Askins's son expected to be in that part of the state at that time it was believed that he had been drowned, but the family have received a letter from Harry dated at Livingston, Montana, stating that he was in Yellowstone park at the time of the flood.
—There will be union temperance services of Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian churches held in the Congregational church Sunday evening. Rev. Halsey will preach the sermon, talking as his text "I have much people in this city" and his subject will be "The people of this city." The Baptists will not unite in the union service having made previous arrangements for preaching services in their own church. Rev. E. J. Ulmer preached both morning and evening in the Baptist church last Sunday and will occupy the pulpit next Sunday, coming here as a candidate for the pastorate.
—The city council met Wednesday in an adjourned meeting and accepted an invitation from the Fourth of July committee requesting them to take part in the parade Saturday. A communication from L. F. Gottschalk, chief of fire department, recommended that the hook and ladder building be painted, was referred to the committee on fire with power to act. An ordinance providing for the building, repairing and maintaining of sidewalks in the city, providing a penalty for the violation of the provisions thereof, and repealing an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance" passed March, 1901, was presented and read the first time. The council passed resolutions of sympathy to the mayor and his family on account of the sudden and tragic death of his young child.
—Prof. Watters arrived here Friday from St. Paul and will begin at once to put his rooms, rented above the post-office, in shape for the opening of the business and normal college. He will be assisted in the business department by Prof. H. J. Huff who is a graduate of the Gregg Commercial college of Chicago, and who has since been a successful teacher in the St. Paul business college. Mr. Watters is a graduate of a normal school and since 1894 has been superintending schools at different places. He was re-elected superintendent of the St. Paul schools for the coming year but resigns to take up the college work here. A town the size of Columbus that has no business or normal college is behind the times, and if there is any enterprise we have needed it is in these lines. The railroad facilities are excellent and there is every encouragement to believe that the promoters will meet with success.
—Miss Metts and Baby Henaley gave a hop at Messner's hall last Thursday evening in honor of their brother, Cadet Will Henaley, who is home from the West Point Military Academy on a furlough. The rooms were artistically decorated with palms and bathos plants, the stars and stripes taking prominent part in the decorations. One large flag was used as a curtain for the stage from where the Auditorium orchestra furnished music for the dancing. The electric lights shone through globes of red, white and blue. About one hundred and fifty invited guests were present. Refreshments were served and at a late hour the people departed having spent a very enjoyable evening. Those from out of town who attended were: Cadet Frederic C. Vest of Council Bluffs, Iowa, Amanda Kling and Robert McAllister of Grand Island, Dr. Doyce Bennett of Bellwood, Wm. Kasper, Ernest of Bellwood, Fremont, Myrtle Fisher of Geneva, Mo., and Mrs. Bessie Davis and Mr. and Mrs. John Jorgensen of Havelock and Peter Duffy of Lincoln.

—The Tribune states we are offering Journal subscribers in larger than any other rates published. It shows each hemisphere sixty inches in circumference, the two combined forming a map of the world four feet by two and a quarter feet. These are only two out of many maps in the large volume. We will give any of our subscribers an opportunity to own one of these books. By paying up your subscription to date and $3.00 you may have the book and one year's subscription in advance to THE JOURNAL. New subscribers may have the two for $3.00.
—J. H. Letjsharms, an old settler of Platte county, died at his home in the north part of the city Sunday morning of old age, after an illness of but fourteen days. Mr. Letjsharms was born in Sage, Oldenburg, Germany, February 16, 1819. He served several years as a commissioned officer in the German army. Coming to America he located in Wisconsin in 1836, from there he came to Columbus in 1837 and became one of the first settlers on a farm near Shell creek, moving to the city this spring. Mr. Letjsharms was twice married before leaving Germany, his second wife survives him. He also leaves two daughters and one son, Mrs. Anna Wilson, by his first wife, Mrs. Eliza Brandes and Lewis Letjsharms by his second wife, all living in Columbus. The funeral services were held at the German church this Tuesday morning, leaving the residence at 10:30 for the church on Shell creek, interment in Calvary cemetery.
—A pretty wedding ceremony took place at the Kipple residence east of the city last Sunday evening between 8 and 9 o'clock when Miss Christina Kipple and Mr. W. W. Ogden were united in marriage. Rev. Messier officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Passale acted as groomsmen and bridesmaids respectively. After the ceremony an exquisite supper was served. There were about seventy-five invited guests present. The happy couple left Monday morning for Tins, Missouri, the former home of the groom. They will return in about two weeks to begin housekeeping. The bride is the daughter of a well known farmer living about two miles east of town and the groom has been a clerk for some time in Hulst & Adams' store. THE JOURNAL joins with many friends in extending to the couple best wishes for the fullest happiness which life can bring.
—Saturday's Fremont Tribune contained the following information: "A joint meeting of the directors of the Commercial club and the power canal company was held Thursday morning. A telegram had been received from L. D. Richards, now in New York, asking if it would be satisfactory for the Fremont company to join with the Columbus company in the matter of guaranteeing the cost of a survey. Knowledge of the exact status of affairs was so limited that nothing definite could be done. The proposition was that Fremont and Columbus will join on the survey and each will take its chance on a favorable report in its behalf. Each one has already had a survey and it is not known why these are not regarded as satisfactory. All the committee could do under the circumstances was to authorize Mr. Richards to proceed as his judgment dictated, since he is 'on the ground' and knows the situation as no one here does." Since the above was put in type word has been received by interested parties here from H. E. Babcock who is in New York City that the proposition submitted by him to the promoters of the Fremont project has been accepted. The proposition is to submit the two plans to expert engineers who are to determine which is the better; having this decided the promoters of both schemes are to join to make the better plan a success. Mr. Babcock states that it will be at least six weeks before anything more definite will materialize.
—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Becker last Wednesday about 5 o'clock in the afternoon got hold of a bottle of medicine which was in a harness chest in the stable and swallowed a portion of the contents. He then ran to the house, the bottle still in his hand, and the mother saw immediately that the child had taken some of the deadly poison. Within five minutes several physicians were present but nothing could be done to save him, and about 7 o'clock little Paul David's spirit passed to the world beyond. The poison was a preparation used for external purposes on horses and contained red iodide of mercury and corrosive sublimate. Paul was born November 18, 1901, and was a sweet, lovable child induced with a beautiful nature. Mr. Becker had been called away to Omaha in the morning by the serious sickness of his mother and did not reach home until after the baby had passed away. Funeral services were held from the home Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Cash of the Episcopal church. The pall-bearers were Louis Bucher, Dene Kavanagh, Mary Howard and Susie Boen. Neighbor girl friends of the family lined the grave at the cemetery with flowers. Relatives from out of town who came to attend the funeral were Miss Stella Becker and Miss Emma Wake of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wake of Seward, Frank Wake of Geneva and Charles Wake, Jr., of St. Edward. The family have sincere sympathy of the entire community in their great sorrow.
—The present interest in the power canal reminds us that in the early days of Columbus the settlers were conscious of the power of the Loup river. A pamphlet history of Platte county printed in 1873 and written by L. N. Taylor, one of the brightest men of the early settlers, indicates that serious thought was given the problem. Early files of THE JOURNAL also contain many articles upon the subject. We quote from the pamphlet of Mr. Taylor the closing paragraph, which should be power canal materialize, would seem now to have been well prophesied: "Columbus is a town far more promising than a casual observer would suppose. It has the natural position and surroundings to remain always the chief town of central Nebraska. With Columbus it is not so much a question of what or when? It is never safe to rely simply on the indications of natural facts, but it is always safe to follow them up actively. Neither the best nor the worst money that will ever be laid out in Nebraska will ever be made in the active investment in Columbus and Platte county, at the present stage of their history, will be taking any serious
