Mrs. M. L. Hufford Dead.
Mrs. M. L. Hufford, aged 68 years, died at the home of her son-in-law, Joe Wisener, at Welch, W. Va., March 30. She had been in bad health for a number of years, but pneumonia was the direct cause of her death. Mrs. Hufford was the widow of Dr. A. S. Hufford, of Wittens Mills, who was called to the great beyond 17 years ago. Four sons, A. C. of Welch; W. T. and J. E. of Lex, and R. S. of Jed; and two daughters, Mrs. Joe Wisener and Mrs. W. G. Cline, of Welch, survive. The remains were interred at Wittens Mills, the former home of Mrs. Hufford.

Mrs. Hufford was a devout member of the Methodist church; was a true and noble mother and a beloved neighbor. The relatives have the sympathy of a large number of friends in their bereavement.

Will Locate at Bland.
Samuel W. Williams, jr., has decided to move his law office from Bluefield to Bland, Va. Mr. Williams, who is a son of Attorney General Williams of this State, feels that Bland offers an excellent field for him at this time on account of the fact that Judge Fulton Kegley, who formerly practiced there, is now a judge on the circuit court bench; Judge Williams, his father, who practiced in the courts of Bland, is now attorney general of Virginia, while T. J. Mumcey will in all likelihood be appointed assistant U. S. district attorney. Mr. Williams, who is quite a young man, feels that this leaves an opening which should not be neglected.

Mr. C. H. Peery, of North Tazewell, shipped on last Friday a car of what is said to be the fattest cattle ever shipped from that point. Mr. Peery offers to sell the receipt for fattening like he does for five dollars.

The scarlet fever situation at Bluefield is improving. It was deemed best, however, not to open the schools for another week, and although the moving picture shows have been reopened children under eighteen years are not admitted.

Baseball.
The Pocahontas Rexall's and the Red Sox, of Graham, played on the grounds of the latter last Saturday. The Rexall's went to Graham with the intention of wiping out previous defeats and did so by the decisive score of 9 to 3. Umpire—Longworth.

On the same day Honaker and Richlands crossed bats at Honaker in a closely contested game that was finally won by Honaker by the score of 5 to 4. Umpire—Hiltzheimer.

KILLS LICE, TICKS, FLEAS, MITES, CURES MANGE, SCAB, RINGWORM, SCRATCHES, ETC. DESTROYS DISEASE GERMS AND DRIVES AWAY FLIES.

NON-IRRITATING. EFFECTIVE. INEXPENSIVE.

YOU can't afford to let lice, ticks, fleas and mites eat your stock alive. Get a supply of KRESO DIP and follow directions. It will put an end to the parasites and give the stock a chance to thrive and put on flesh. Use it in barns, hog pens, chicken houses and dog kennels—any place where there are vermin.

KRESO DIP is a coal tar product. It mixes readily with water. It does not burn or irritate like carbolic acid. It does not blister or take the hair off like kerosene. It costs less and does more than any of these. You can't make a better investment than to buy some Kreso Dip to kill lice, ticks, mites and fleas and prevent disease by destroying the germs.

One gallon of KRESO DIP makes 60 to 75 gallons when mixed with water. Each lot is STANDARDIZED by the manufacturers, therefore always the same.

In Memoriam.
Ezra W. Boyd was born March 30, 1907 and departed this life March 17, 1910, aged 2 years, eleven months and 17 days.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

And as our darling Ezra gone,
Once was our hope and pride—
Our darling whom we loved so dear
Is taken from our side.

With tearful eyes and anxious prayers
To God we cried in vain,
His life in mercy for to spare
And grant it health again.

Thy will, oh Lord, not our's be done,
To spare to us our only son;
And now it's resting on that bright shore,
Where we shall meet to part no more.

Sleep on then, Ezra, dear,
Sleep on, and take your peaceful rest,
Soon we again thy voice shall hear
With Christ amid the blest.

Founding Mill, Va., March 28, 1910.

Judge and Mrs. J. H. Stuart, Mrs. T. P. Bowen and Mrs. W. G. O'Brien attended the funeral and burial of Colonel Wm. R. Stuart at Bluefield on last Friday.

Broke up Poker Game.
Armed with two pistols and masked, an unknown highwayman broke up a poker game participated in by eight men near Dante, Va., on last Thursday, according to reports sent out from that place. Laying his hat on the table the gentleman said: "Gentlemen, all I want is your cash." After the men had parted with their cash he thanked them one and all, then melted into the gloom with nearly a thousand dollars.

The robber was of medium size, and the report says, rather stocky. An iron grey mustache protruded from his mask.

When the gentlemanly knight of the road leveled his guns on the players their hands waved above their heads like willow branches in a stiff breeze. There was over five hundred dollars in the "pot" which the man scooped into his slouch hat. No questions were asked of him.

The greatest assembly of railroad men ever known in America gathered in Worcester, Mass., on last Saturday and Sunday, where they were addressed by President Wm. H. Taft. There were present representatives of the various brotherhoods representing the United States, Canada and Mexico, and while the meeting may eventually result in the formation of a great federation of railroad men, the ostensible object of the Worcester meeting was the promotion of good fellowship and the interchange of ideas.

VIRGINIA:
In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of the county of Tazewell on the 31st day of March, 1910.
John P. Gose, Plaintiff, vs.
J. K. Groseclose et al., Defendants.

The object of this suit is to set aside, both as voluntary and fraudulent in fact, and void, a certain deed made by J. K. Groseclose and others to Mary E. Groseclose, widow of H. B. Groseclose, deceased, and sundry heirs at-law of said H. B. Groseclose, deceased, which said deed is dated the 29th day of April, 1909, and recorded in the Clerk's Office of Tazewell county, Virginia, in Deed Book No. 65, page 52, etc., and subject the one-sixth part of said property which descended to the defendant, J. K. Groseclose, from his father, H. B. Groseclose, to sale for the payment of the amount of the claim against the styled suit in favor of John P. Gose against the said J. K. Groseclose, which claim is for the sum of $1500.00.

The description of said property is as follows: The undivided interest of the said J. K. Groseclose in all of the personal property and real estate of which his father, H. B. Groseclose, died seized and possessed, the personal property consisting of money, bonds, cattle, horses, household and kitchen furniture, etc., and the real estate consisting of several tracts or parcels of land, situate in Burkes Garden and on Little Creek, in Tazewell county, Virginia, one tract containing 6.45 acres, adjoining the lands of John P. Gose, Jacob Spracher and others; another tract containing 15 acres, adjoining the lands of Miles Claypool, Mary R. Jamison and others; another tract containing about 21 acres and 47 poles, adjoining the lands of Joseph Meek and others; another tract containing 85 acres, adjoining other lands belonging to H. B. Groseclose and others; another tract containing 72 acres, known as the "ison land"; another tract containing about 5 acres, situate in Bland county, Virginia, and any and all other real estate owned by H. B. Groseclose at the time of his death.

And an affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant James H. Groseclose is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that he do appear here within fifteen days after due publication hereof, and do what may be necessary to protect his interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Tazewell Republican, a newspaper published in the town of Tazewell, and that a copy be posted on the front door of the courthouse of this county as the law directs.

VIRGINIA—In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Tazewell county, in vacation, April 2nd, 1910.
Merchants Farmers Bank, of Richlands, Va., a corporation,
Complainant,
vs. Pittsburg Baryta & Milling Corporation, a corporation, and others, Defendants.

It appearing to me, S. M. Graham, clerk of the Circuit Court of Tazewell county, Va., in vacation, from the affidavit of James W. Harman, agent and attorney for the plaintiff in the above styled suit, filed in this suit, that Pittsburg Baryta & Milling Corporation, and Tri-State Mining & Manufacturing Company, and The Mercantile Trust Company, of Pittsburg, Penn., defendants in the above styled suit, are corporations; that there is no agent of either or any of said defendant corporations in the said county of Tazewell, wherein this suit is commenced; and that there is no person in the Tazewell Republic, a newspaper published in this State, which said copy of said process is as follows:

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA:
To the Sheriff of Tazewell County, Greeting:

We command you to summon Pittsburg Baryta & Milling Corporation, a corporation chartered under the laws of the State of Virginia, J. T. Keil, B. E. Hobson, Fred J. Shaler, Walter Lyon, the Tri-State Mining & Manufacturing Company, a corporation chartered under the laws of the State of New Jersey, and The Mercantile Trust Company, of Pittsburg, Penn., a corporation chartered under the laws of Pennsylvania, to appear at rules to be held in the clerk's office of our Circuit Court of Tazewell county, Va., on the third Monday in May, 1910
