WHITE STONE.
 Anti-Saloon meeting Monday next, 2:30 p. m., at Asbury church on the Island.

R. H. Priddy and family have removed to Highlandtown, Baltimore, to reside. We regret their departure.

Mr. Editor, amid all your firing from the political heights can't you descend long enough to say something about the little "high" school at White Stone? Can't Lancaster furnish a good man? We have heard no one spoken of but that old vet, Wm. T. Marsh. If he is to be a candidate let us rally to him before the field gets pledged up.

WHITE STONE.

IBERIS.
 Joe Douglas, who is working at Urbans, spent Saturday and Sunday at his home near Brookvale.

Miss Lucy Prindle, of Bon Air, is visiting Mrs. Hardy here.

HEATHSVILLE.
 LIQUOR TRIAL, PERSONAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

John F. Anderson, of this place, was before Squire Eichberger on Thursday last on the charge of selling whiskey without license. The Commonwealth was represented by C. S. Towles, and Asa S. Rice appeared for Anderson. The evidence was conclusive, and he was fined $150. An appeal was taken. Anderson has long been under suspicion. Men of bibulous habits have long frequented his place, and while no positive evidence was had that he sold whiskey the general opinion was that the crowd who went there were not simply social callers.

The Rev. Mr. Tyler has been preaching in the village. His sermons were far beyond the usual order and were much enjoyed. His manner is engaging and impressive.

W. C. Snow is taking an inventory of his goods preparatory to his change of business.

On last Friday night the members of the Lend-A-Hand society had a very pleasant "ride to Oscar Betts", the place appointed for their meeting.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the blood is in proper condition. Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures all blood diseases, such as eczema, eruptions, itching humors, and all skin diseases. It is the best for children. It is sold in bottles of 25 cents and 50 cents. Prepared by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Made by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
