Joseph Wahlatrom, of Pittsburg, arrived Wednesday to spend a week with his family at the Irvington Beach.

Miss Fannie Robinson, with a party of friends from upper Lancaster, was here on a luncheon yesterday.

J. P. DeBerry, of Norfolk, spent Tuesday at the Singer Sewing Machine office here auditing Manager Lawton's work.

Messrs. G. H. Oliver and S. B. Griffith went from here Tuesday to attend Rappahannock Association in upper Richmond.

Mrs. W. J. Newbill, Mrs. W. McD. Lee and daughters and Miss Nannie Oliver leave this morning to spend the ten days at Marvin Grove Camp.

A card to her sisters, Mesdames Griffith and Croxton, state that Mrs. Ben Minor, of Tappahannock, has been taken to Richmond for hospital treatment.

T. J. Eubank, Browns Store, Va., is in the market for a few thousand each chestnut and white oak ties. Could also handle cargo or so of sap pine lumber. For full particulars write him.

H. F. Hollock and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hollock, of Washington, father, brother and sister, respectively, of Mrs. W. C. Thompson, arrived Monday for a visit to that lady.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sanders and little son, Mr. and Mrs. W. Broadus, Mrs. A. James, sr., Miss Sadie Sanders, Josie Sanders and Harry Hammonds spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Laura Sanford, at Bertrand.

In order to advertise the business, I will take boards the rest of season at $5.00 a week.

J. W. CLARKSON, Sharps Wharf, Va. (Rappahannock River).

CAUGHT ON THE FLY. The Sunday Schools of Farnham district will picnic today at Urbanna.

Hon. John Curlett is attending as a delegate Rappahannock Association this week.

Mrs. Thos. G. Jones and daughters, of Urbanna, leave this week for Marvin Grove Camp.

Anti-Saloon League meeting at White Stone Baptist church next Tuesday, 3 p. m. Important meeting and all urged to come.

Misses Susie and Frances Rock and Annie Stoneham, of Lancaster county, Va., are spending several weeks at "Ames' Ridge", the home of Mr. John S. Ames, guests of his daughter, Miss Lelia Ames.—Enterprise, Accomack.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Eubank, of Browns Store, announce the approaching marriage of their sister, Miss Julia Elizabeth, to Mr. S. S. Russell, of Mila, to take place Tuesday, August 10th, at high noon at Lebanon Baptist church.

RELIGIOUS. Rev. E. F. Garner preached at White Stone last Sunday and Presiding-elder R. F. Gayle at Asbury and Irvington.

The Sunday schools at Edgely and White Marsh closed last Sunday, the former until the first Sunday in September and the latter until the third Sunday in August.

The protracted effort at Carmel closed on Tuesday night. The meeting was in many ways a blessing. Ten or more were added to the church and God's people greatly revived. Bro. Ware, of Lancaster, did faithful work and greatly endeared himself to everyone so fortunate as to meet him and will always have a glad welcome here.—Westmoreland Corr. N. N. News.

Marvin Grove Camp, Methodist, on the border of Richmond and Northumberland counties opens today (Friday). Everything is in readiness and the grounds and cottages present a neat and attractive appearance. Rev. J. Sydney Peters, of Petersburg, and Rev. W. Asbury Christian, of Richmond, will have charge of the preaching. Prof. J. C. VanPelt, of Norfolk, is expected to lead the singing. The telephone put in last year will be in operation again this year, and mail addressed to Lara will be delivered daily. Indications are that a large number of tenters will spend the week there.

NOTICE THESE. A good, neat and reliable cook wanted for private family. Good position.

W. W. Tunis & Bro. Lumber Co., Tunis Mills, Md., want large lot of framing.

Dr. Covington, of Lillian, will be at Marvin Grove prepared to do dental work. Mrs. Covington can furnish rooms to several ladies.

BASE-BALL. Irvington second nine was cleaned up by White Stone last Saturday.

Irvington went over to Crisfield Tuesday and defeated the Marylanders 5 to 2. The next day Parkley (Accomack), the champions of the Eastern Shore, drubbed our boys 7 to 2.

Tortured On A Horse. "For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without labor in my back," writes E. S. Napier, of Glasgow, Ky., "when all doctors and other remedies failed. Bucken's Arnica Salve cured me. It is available for Pills, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Blisters, Fever-Sores, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Corns, etc. Guaranteed by all druggists."

LYELL DEFENDS MANN. EDITOR CITIZEN: A report is being circulated that Judge Mann voted for the Jordan oyster bill.

I wish to say that I have the Senate Journal which shows that he voted with Senators Gunter, Sears, Shands and other Tidewater Senators on the Keezell substitute, and that the Jordan bill never came to a vote in the Senate.

JOHN M. LYELL, Farnham, Va.

LANCASTER COUNTY.

KILMARNOCK.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Meredith Bonner and little child arrived Wednesday to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bonner.

Henry Dohman accompanied the Irvington base-ball club to Crisfield, Md., Tuesday.

Tom Yerby has returned from Baltimore, where he has been for treatment of his eyes, greatly relieved.

Welby Bonner is in Norfolk this week. Rev. F. W. Claybrook is attending the Baptist Association in Richmond county this week.

WHITE STONE. District Anti-Saloon meeting at Baptist church here Tuesday next, 3 p. m. Annual election of officers and other important matters. All urged to attend.

Messrs. J. R. Gresham and Geo. W. Thompson are attending Rappahannock Association this week.

R. F. Hatcher, of Washington, is spending this week with his wife at her parental home.

The ladies of Wesley chapel will hold a Lawn Fete on the ground adjoining the building on the evening of Saturday, July 31st, beginning about 6 o'clock. Supper and refreshments will be served at reasonable prices. Music on the grounds will be an attractive feature. Proceeds to be used for painting the building.

The hook and line fishermen have been quite successful both in the bay and river.

George Mattingly and his family, of Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hurst, of Bluff Point, were visiting R. N. Hall this week.

Miss Grace Dunton, of Baltimore, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dunton, near here, to spend some time.

Mrs. Atticus James returned home Wednesday from Fredericksburg where she has been attending the Normal.

OTTOMAN. Geo. Gresham, wife and daughter, of Spencer, N. C., are visiting relatives here.

Dr. Russell Cottingham, of Remington, Va., who was called to his father's bedside Monday last, returned by Monday's steamer via Fredericksburg. Mr. Cottingham accompanied his son home and will go from there to Washington for surgical attention.

Mrs. Bruce Cottingham's mother and brother, George, of Washington, left Monday after a few days visit here.

Mrs. H. B. Nolley, of Beuna Vista, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lucy McL. Eubank.

Mrs. Geo. H. Steuart and daughter, Louise, boarded Friday's steamer for several weeks' visit in Baltimore, Washington and Southern Maryland.

Miss Louise Sanford is visiting the home of Mrs. Spicer Mitchell this week. Collin Chilton left by steamer Friday for Baltimore to look after his canning interest and to visit his wife and daughter, who are visiting near Laurel, Md.

Miss Alice Blakemore is spending a few days in Ottoman.

Mrs. Lucy McL. Eubank and daughters, Nanny Bland and Frances, spent several days with Mrs. L. D. Stoneham during the past week.

Spicer Mitchell and family passed through Ottoman Sunday en route to Christ church.

The dry spell is playing havoc with vegetation and everybody is wishing for rain.

C. L. Shackelford shipped the first grapes from this vicinity by Monday's steamer.

TOMATOES FROM THE POTOMAC. Four thousand crates of tomatoes arrived in Baltimore Monday on steamer Anne Arundel from landings on the Potomac river. This is the second large consignment so far this season. The steamer Northumberland, which arrived last Friday from the same territory, carried 5,000 crates, and is expected that consignments will increase from now on.

People around Coan, on the Potomac have received thus far more than $50,000 for their tomatoes, and the main crop is still to be gathered, though largely reduced by dry weather. The canneries along the Potomac and the Rappahannock will begin operations in the course of the week, when millions of bushels of tomatoes will be put up for winter and spring use.

DENTIST AT CAMP. I will be at Marvin Grove Camp (Mrs. Geo. W. Sanders' tent) prepared to do dental work during the whole encampment.

T. S. D. COVINGTON, D. D. S. Lillian, Va.

WELLFORD DENIES GUN TAX. A telephone yesterday from Hon. R. Carter Wellford says:

"I deny the statement in your paper last week in toto that I favor a $10 tax on shot-guns. It is absolutely false and malicious and has no denied it at Whelan where it started."

Mr. Wellford was at Lancaster court and should have there answered his opponent, in whose speech the CITIZEN quoted it in this language "A Richmond county friend of Mr. Wellford announced that Mr. Wellford—a large land-owner—wanted such a tax on all shot-guns. It was taken by disreputable enemies to Lancaster and charged to Curlett."

Anyone would have taken Mr. Wellford's denial without his "retting on his ear" about it. His vehemence expends itself to deny what was started on himself but he has been quite "mum" as to the unjust charges of his followers against Mr. Curlett.

CONTRAST OF CURLETT AND WELLFORD.

Mr. Curlett is a pronounced "dry" man. Mr. Wellford is not on record as such.

Mr. Curlett did much, and, naturally, made some mistakes. Mr. Wellford did nothing to speak of, and his sins are those of omission.

Mr. Curlett can be of use to this section. Mr. Wellford can do little in an unfriendly Legislature.

Mr. Curlett is a good speaker. Mr. Wellford cannot make a public speech.

Mr. Curlett's record is for large appropriations to the commission schools, and afterwards to the big institutions.

Mr. Curlett always looked after the universities and institutions first.

Mr. Curlett was reared a poor man and a farmer. He has made a success by the sweat of his brow.

Mr. Curlett is a left-winger. Which, then, shows the better business acumen?

Mr. Curlett needs the position and can be of use. Mr. Wellford does not need it, except to gratify certain political leaders.

Mr. Wellford is "dyed in the wool" with the "Lewis faction". Mr. Curlett has never been of the "Lee faction", but always independent.

Mr. Curlett favors a good annual appropriation to protect fish and oysters—bringing back to Tidewater some of the money it pays into the State, and not sending it all west to institutions that few but the rich can profit by.

Mr. Curlett's sponsors are fighting against Tidewater in this.

Mr. Curlett's sponsors are fighting against Tidewater in this.

POLITICAL.

Tucker's friends are stilled by the record that Judge Mann never supported McNeare after the latter left the Democratic party.

We know a heap of farmers, who are farmers, and who are going to vote for Mr. Koerner, because the politicians who are not farmers are opposed to him.—Sussex Standard.

When you run for political office everything you ever did or didn't do comes right out. And you will find out lots of things about yourself that you never knew.—Baltimore Sun.

Judge Mann, exasperated at Tucker's unsupported category of charges, this week from the stump denounced Tucker's tactics. He declares falsehood after falsehood has been circulated.

Mr. Tucker's trickery turns truly to his undoing. Judge Mann's magnetism for morality and manhood assumes a magnitude which engulfs his opponent in its intensity.—Accomac News.

General Mahone was a democrat at the time the letters were written by Judge Mann to the head and front of the "readjusters," according to Mann's friends.—Richmond News Leader.

The Southern Planter's fight against Commissioner Koerner falls to the ground when it is known to emanate from personal enmity, and also that the editor of the Planter has no vote in this State.

We believe that Judge Mann's victory is essential to the continued advance of the temperance crusade in Virginia. Let the people speak in no uncertain tone on the 5th of August.—Gloucester Tribune.

Jas. S. Barron, formerly of Warsaw, will be a candidate for Congress next year from the Norfolk district as a Tucker man. He may change his mind, as Tucker men are apt to be scarce after next week.

Cloud the issues as you will, the fight between Tucker and Mann is a fight between wets and dries. There are many dry men in the Tucker camp, but his nomination would be hailed as a Waterloo for the dries.—Sussex Standard.

Mr. Tucker may call on the mountains to cover him, but he cannot conceal the fact that he advocated compulsory education at Emporia and Nansemond as late as the present year. The testimony of living witnesses is against him, and cannot be refuted.—Index-Appeal.

Mr. Tucker apologizes for charging that Judge Mann's promise was to Mr. Smith for superintendent of schools four years head. His letter was to help Mr. Smith in the late contest. Pity Mr. Tucker is not man enough to apologize to other gentlemen he says Judge Mann promised offices to.

In a recent speech Judge Mann said that he was charged with having the support of the "ring." He don't know, he said, what the "ring" was, but said he hoped it was for him. Something had hit him so hard in 1905 that it had "knocked the stuffing" out of him. If it was the "ring" that did it he hoped it was for him sure this time.

WALKER SUPPORTS JETT

HEATHSVILLE, VA., FEB. 4, 1909. Hon. T. A. JETT, REEDVILLE, VA.

Dear Brother Jett:—As to whether you should be a candidate for the nomination to the House of Delegates next fall, I think that is a matter which should depend in a large measure upon your own wishes and feelings. I do not know of any reason why you should not be a candidate if you care to be.

You made a very faithful member, rendered very good service to your constituents, especially to the people of your immediate section in the matter of the legislation affecting the fishing interest, as I had excellent opportunity to observe; and your influence in the next house because of your larger acquaintance and experience would be greater than in the last. If you decide to be a candidate, it will give me pleasure, as I am sure you know, to support you and do anything I can in your behalf.

I should not have advised you to be a candidate for the nomination last time, because I thought Mason had made a good representative and was entitled as far as any one can be entitled in such a matter to another term; but I know something about their circumstances and the influences which brought about your candidacy, and that the idea of your candidacy did not originate with you.

I think it is quite certain that in the next legislation there will be a great deal of agitation as to oyster legislation, and highly probable a good deal as to fishing. Your practical knowledge of these industries would be a great service to these people if you should be in the House of Delegates, and I do not know of any one in the district who in this respect would be able to render more efficient service.

As my term in the Senate does not expire until after the next session, I will necessarily have to try to hold up that end, and I do not know of any one I would sooner have on the other side than you.

I am strongly inclined to think that under all the circumstances it is your duty to be a candidate.

Sincerely yours, C. HARDING WALKER.

NEVER ABANDONS HIS PARTY. [Suffolk Herald.] We do not want the people of Nansemond to forget Sam Williams for attorney-general and J. Taylor Elyson for lieutenant governor. Everybody knows about Taylor Elyson and he is certain to be the nominee. Sam Williams is not so well known in this section, but he is all right. He is an other man who has never left "the house of his fathers." As true to the Democracy as a needle is to the north pole, Sam Williams has never wavered, faltered, and he belongs to the boys who wore the gray. Vote for Sam Williams, anyway.
