

LOCAL MENTION.

All communications should be addressed to the VIRGINIA CITIZEN, IRVINGTON, VA.

Mrs. A. F. Turlington is visiting friends in Norfolk.

Miss Nellie Byrd is spending this week with Mrs. F. C. Franz.

Little Miss Beatrice Garner has returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sanders and little son, Earl, visited at Warsaw last week.

Among the recent sick are: Editor Lee, Mrs. Thos. B. Croxton, Mrs. Irving R. Messick.

Mrs. Jas. S. Lokey is in Baltimore receiving medical treatment. "Little Jim" is with his mother.

Messames Allan and Harding, of Rebooth Church, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Harding.

Mrs. A. Y. Lee, mother of the editor, is in Norfolk for treatment for her eyes. Mr. and Mrs. Lee accompanied her.

Miss Norma Bussells spent several days the past week with her cousin, Miss Stella Robertson, at Anti-Rapp.

We beg to announce we have secured the sole agency of King Quality shoes, which is the "Shoe of Shoes." If you need a pair, give them a trial.

Irvington Haberdashery Co., E. M. Edwards, Manager.

Miss Fredericka Forney, daughter of Capt. Forney, of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, is studying at the Southern Seminary this session.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Raughter and daughters, Misses Annie and Alice, of Baltimore, arrived Wednesday to attend the Rock-Brewington nuptials.

Capt. James Jackson, colored, of Urbana, died in the marine hospital here Tuesday, where he had been for the past six months. Interment Thursday at Sharon cemetery.

We are selling underwear manufactured by the Columbia Knitting mill, which is superior to any other make at the same price.

Irvington Haberdashery Co., E. M. Edwards, Manager.

Mrs. B. L. Willing is visiting friends and relatives in Hampton. Capt. Willing accompanied her to Norfolk. He and Edie George have returned from that city.

Mrs. Eunice Andrews, of Chicago, while stopping with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Cross, of Weems, is visiting Miss Maud Leland and other friends here.

Dr. Newbill was called to Poplar Neck this week to see the venerable and beloved Mrs. Basketto (at Mr. Talbot's), aged 91 years. Also to see Mrs. Geo. L. Squires and Margaret Bellows.

Received Patterson overalls and jumpers, which are Union made, and which sell at 60 cents. If you rip them, return them to us, and we will give you a new pair.

Irvington Haberdashery Co., E. M. Edwards, Manager.

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

Dredging season opens on the Potomac tomorrow—Saturday.

Miss Julia Beauchamp, daughter of Mrs. J. D. Beauchamp, of Wilmington, Del., will teach in Caroline county this session.

Altheus Weaver, a young man, of Montross, Westmoreland county, was arrested by a Washington detective and taken to that city, charged with the theft of $200 from a man in that city.

The appointment of Mr. J. Aubrey Newbill as principal of the graded school at Colonial Beach rocks King George of one of its best teachers, and we consider it a great mistake that some special effort was not made to retain him in our schools.—King George Corr. Westmoreland Inquirer.

It's The World's Best.

No one has ever made a salve, ointment or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the one perfect healer of Cuts, Corns, Bruises, Sores, Scalds, Bala, Eczema, Salt Rheum, For Sore Eyes, Cold Sores, Chapped Hands, or Sprain, it is supreme. Infallible for Piles. Only 5c at all druggists.

FINES FURTHER REDUCED.

The department at Washington has passed on most of the petitions filed by gasoline boat owners to be relieved of the heavy fines imposed by U. S. officers at Wharton Grove on August 7th ultimo. So far only four have been released entirely, but in no case passed on has a larger fine than $5 been imposed. Several of the cases for violation of Section 6 of the Act in regard to having fire extinguisher have been referred to the U. S. Attorney for appropriate action. The Collector of Customs at Tappahannock desires that the fines be sent to his office as soon as parties receive notices from him, and that same be sent by check or money order to avoid any trouble in case of loss of letter in mail.

MILLINERY AND TAILORED SUITS.

Haydon & Rice, milliners at Irvington, have an excellent, selected stock of millinery and one that would do credit to a large city. And to keep their stock up to the standard they are ordering every few days. In addition to the millinery they have a ladies' tailoring department. They will take your measure and have your suit made. Store in Bank building.

SHARPS.

Those who attended the Richmond Fair from here were: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Davis, Miss Nettie and Oscar Luttrell, R. B. Davenport and H. P. Wright.

Miss Emma Fisher is visiting her sister, Mrs. Edith Smith.

J. W. Hundley made a flying trip to Norfolk this week on business.

Mrs. E. M. Beagle, of Fisherman, who has been visiting the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Meekins, returned home last Friday.

Miss Sadie Lewis left last Saturday for Norfolk.

OYSTER SUPPER.

The Ladies' Aid of Wicomico M. P. church will hold an oyster supper at Mills Hall Thursday, November 17th.

J. E. MASSEY, Pastor.

LANCASTER COUNTY.

KILMARNOCK.

G. B. Holbrook, our butcher, is again on his rounds. Mr. Holbrook and wife spent the summer in Norfolk.

Little Miss Georgia Emma Holbrook is still in a hospital, having hurt herself last spring by falling down stairs.

A brass band of about twelve pieces has been organized here and ere long they expect to be able to give some excellent music.

MILLENBROOK.

F. G. Newbill, of Irvington, was here last week on business.

W. E. Martin, Postoffice Inspector, was here last week, making the annual inspection of the postoffice.

T. J. Downing was here last week en-route to Accomac county to speak.

The Bertrand Oyster Co. has begun shucking oysters.

Capt. T. I. Ratcliffe left last week for Fredericksburg where he will shuck oysters this season.

R. Lloyd Ficklin, of this place, was in Baltimore this week.

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMERTIME.

IBERIS.

L. O. Towles and Mrs. J. B. Slater are in Baltimore this week buying fall goods.

Silas Whitaker, of Hopewell, is sinking an artesian well for L. O. Towles & Bro., at their oyster house.

On last Sunday afternoon Sam Richardson, of Matthews, preached a good sermon at White Marsh from the text "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways."

Mrs. Bettie Dunaway and little child, of Mila, have been visiting at the home of W. W. Beane, as have also Mrs. Ingram and two children, of White Stone.

Mr. Crowther, of Avalon, spent Friday night at the home of C. L. Degges.

R. J. Carney is indisposed at this writing.

PINCKARDSVILLE.

Miss Nannie Dunaway left on the Norfolk steamer to consult a specialist about that constant headache that has troubled her so long.

Dr. Dunaway is from home right much of his time just now, as he has been holding protracted meetings at several of his churches and visiting among his members.

Mrs. Annie Hall is sick with rheumatism in her shoulder. Lucien is better.

Mrs. Otis Harding and her two pretty little boys were over to see us not long since.

Miss Jennie Harding spent a few days with her cousins last week. I guess somebody will be looking for the edge of the hill, ere long, or singing "Her bright smile haunts me still."

Come again cousin Bill and bring your little brother with you.

We rejoice and are exceedingly glad that Prof. Frank P. Brent runs the High School at Lancaster again.

READER.

ALFONSO.

Miss Jennie Pinckard, of Lively, is spending sometime with her cousin, Miss Jennie Bradshaw, at Coan.

Quite a number of people from this vicinity attended the baptizing at Wheaton Sunday, where the candidates from Lebanon and Norwood were baptized by Rev. W. F. Dunaway.

Mrs. W. H. Marsh, daughter, Miss Ethel, and little sons, Sewell and Luther, have returned to their home at Reedville, after spending two weeks at the home of the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. W. J. Haynie.

Miss Ethel is a charming musician. She made many friends while in this vicinity who regret her departure.

We are glad to report E. D. Cundiff, who has been on the sick list for some time, very much improved at this writing.

Our deepest sympathies go out to the bereaved widow and children of P. D. Northern who died recently of Bright's disease. He was a member of Lebanon church, where he is greatly missed.

J. Elbert Bush visited friends at Reedville recently.

Miss Virgie E. Haynie is boarding at Lancaster C. H., where she is attending High School.

The public school here opened last Monday with Miss. Oleana Webb as teacher.

Work will begin on the new school at Litwalton this week.

There will be preaching at Lebanon next Sunday morning. A large attendance is desired.

W. J. Haynie is erecting a large barn.

SWEET VIOLETS.

OUTMAN.

Rev. Manning Dunaway, wife and son, Ralph, of Lumber Bridge, N. C., are the guests of Mrs. Ernest Gresham.

Miss Grace Cottingham returned home Monday night, after a delightful visit to relatives at Norfolk.

Mrs. Wm. C. Chowning and little daughter, Virginia, who spent the summer with Mrs. J. E. Blakemore, left on Monday's steamer, via Baltimore and Jacksonville, for Daytona, Florida.

J. E. Blakemore, Jr., of Senora, boarded Monday's steamer via Baltimore and Savannah for Jacksonville, Florida.

Graham Stoneham and sister, Miss Grace, of Molok, left this week for Baltimore. Graham continues his studies in medicine and his sister to take up trained nursing.

Geo. H. Stewart is nursing an infection of both hands of about two weeks' duration. Dr. Stewart is having a new barn and carriage house built, which will add much to the appearance of his property.

The prolonged drought was broken by a nice steady rain fall which lasted all day Saturday and well into the night.

Geo. Cottingham is placing lumber for a new store porch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakemore returned home Saturday last after a delightful trip to Baltimore, Washington and Harpers Ferry.

Miss Henley, of Essex county, is substituting as teacher for Miss Nannie Dunaway during her absence.

Geo. H. Stewart is nursing an infection of both hands of about two weeks' duration. Dr. Stewart is having a new barn and carriage house built, which will add much to the appearance of his property.

The prolonged drought was broken by a nice steady rain fall which lasted all day Saturday and well into the night.

Geo. Cottingham is placing lumber for a new store porch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakemore returned home Saturday last after a delightful trip to Baltimore, Washington and Harpers Ferry.

Miss Henley, of Essex county, is substituting as teacher for Miss Nannie Dunaway during her absence.

Geo. H. Stewart is nursing an infection of both hands of about two weeks' duration. Dr. Stewart is having a new barn and carriage house built, which will add much to the appearance of his property.

The prolonged drought was broken by a nice steady rain fall which lasted all day Saturday and well into the night.

Geo. Cottingham is placing lumber for a new store porch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakemore returned home Saturday last after a delightful trip to Baltimore, Washington and Harpers Ferry.

Miss Henley, of Essex county, is substituting as teacher for Miss Nannie Dunaway during her absence.

Geo. H. Stewart is nursing an infection of both hands of about two weeks' duration. Dr. Stewart is having a new barn and carriage house built, which will add much to the appearance of his property.

The prolonged drought was broken by a nice steady rain fall which lasted all day Saturday and well into the night.

Geo. Cottingham is placing lumber for a new store porch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakemore returned home Saturday last after a delightful trip to Baltimore, Washington and Harpers Ferry.

Miss Henley, of Essex county, is substituting as teacher for Miss Nannie Dunaway during her absence.

Geo. H. Stewart is nursing an infection of both hands of about two weeks' duration. Dr. Stewart is having a new barn and carriage house built, which will add much to the appearance of his property.

The prolonged drought was broken by a nice steady rain fall which lasted all day Saturday and well into the night.

Geo. Cottingham is placing lumber for a new store porch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakemore returned home Saturday last after a delightful trip to Baltimore, Washington and Harpers Ferry.

Miss Henley, of Essex county, is substituting as teacher for Miss Nannie Dunaway during her absence.

Geo. H. Stewart is nursing an infection of both hands of about two weeks' duration. Dr. Stewart is having a new barn and carriage house built, which will add much to the appearance of his property.

The prolonged drought was broken by a nice steady rain fall which lasted all day Saturday and well into the night.

Geo. Cottingham is placing lumber for a new store porch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakemore returned home Saturday last after a delightful trip to Baltimore, Washington and Harpers Ferry.

Miss Henley, of Essex county, is substituting as teacher for Miss Nannie Dunaway during her absence.

Geo. H. Stewart is nursing an infection of both hands of about two weeks' duration. Dr. Stewart is having a new barn and carriage house built, which will add much to the appearance of his property.

THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE APPOINTMENTS.

Meetings in the interest of the State Anti-Saloon League and our own local work will be held in Lancaster county from 21-23 inclusive.

The county convention will take place on Friday, the 21st, at Lancaster C. H. An attractive programme has been prepared. Speakers of State-wide reputation will be with us, besides most excellent music from a choir composed of ladies from all sections of the county.

The exercises will begin promptly at 11 a. m. We urge all to come and show their interest in the cause of temperance.

Come and bring your basket of lunch and spend a pleasant and profitable day.

Appointments on Sunday, 23rd: Kilmarnock (Baptist church) 11 a. m.; Island 3:30 p. m.; Irvington 7:30 p. m.

W. L. WARE.

MILLINERY AND DRESS MAKING.

I have an up-to-date millinery and dress-making establishment over T. O. Smith's store. Call and leave your order for your fall suit. Also the latest creations in hats, etc.

(Mrs.) E. W. SMITH, Kilmarnock, Va.

SOME FIRES.

W. B. Crowther, of Avalon, lost a small tenant house by fire Sunday night last. The house was occupied by a colored family and the fire originated from a lamp. Loss about $100, with no insurance.

A barn belonging to W. E. Cox, on his farm near Kilmarnock, was destroyed by fire Saturday night. Barn and contents, consisting of provender, grain, farming implements, etc., were complete loss, amounting to several hundred dollars. Mr. Dougherty is occupying the place and was part loser with Mr. Cox. Fire is thought to be of incendiary origin. No insurance.

A. B. C.

NOTICE THESE:

Square piano for sale cheap.

J. Mayo Robinson has weir poles for sale.

New millinery and dress making establishment at Kilmarnock.

HEATHSVILLE COURT.

Regular term of Northumberland court convened at Heathsville Monday.

The grand jury was empaneled and brought in one indictment—against James Wilson, colored, charged with the murder of two children. Other than that there was but very little of importance before the court.

Geo. Walker, a young attorney of Heathsville, qualified to practice in that court.

At 2 o'clock court adjourned and Hon. W. A. Jones spoke in behalf of his candidacy and on the issues of the day.

A large crowd was in attendance upon court and to hear Mr. Jones speak.

FORCED TO Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always paid. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calumet, Ark. "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the King of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. Its positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Asthma, Croup—all Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. L. C. Harrison will conduct services at Wicomico Episcopal church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

An all-day meeting, with noon refreshments, was held yesterday (Thursday) by Irvington ladies at the Baptist church. Mrs. Leake, of Richmond, addressed the Woman's Missionary Society in the morning and afternoon, and at noon talked to the Y. W. A. At night Mrs. Leake spoke at White Stone.

From the lower Northern Neck Brother S. T. Habel writes under recent date: "I am much in love with my work here at Fairport, and am now making our last effort to pay off all the $1,200 parsonage debt that our two churches incurred last December. The spiritual condition of my churches is better than it has been for many years. Dr. Fisher helped me at Smithland the first week in August, much to the gratification of all the members there, and I baptized twelve as a partial result of his and our labors. He will hold our meeting at Fairport the last of November. The Minister's and Laymen's Institute of the Northern Neck will be held at Fairport Baptist church the 29th and 30th of October."

Brother H. E. Dameron, of Mundy Point, contributes this cheering communication: "Just a word from Northumberland to say that our pastor, Rev. E. L. Hardestate, who came to us recently from Montgomery county, Md., has just closed a two weeks' series of meetings at Bethany. Until Wednesday evening of the first week he was assisted by Rev. F. J. Leikens, of Central Union Mission, Washington, D. C. Saturday evening a large crowd assembled on the shores of Yeocomico river, beneath whose waters eighteen were buried with Christ in baptism. Brother Hardestate is an earnest and zealous worker in the great soul-winning business, an excellent pastor, and a fine Christian gentleman; and while there is still and ever shall be a tender spot in our hearts for our dear Brother Street, who last served us, we are learning to love him dearly and feel that he is the right man in the right place. He begins a series of meetings at Gibbon on the fourth Sunday, where he will be assisted by Rev. S. P. DeVault." Religious Herald.

Reaching the Top

In any calling of life, demands a vigorous body and a keen brain. Without health there is no success. But Electric Bitters is the greatest Health Builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, tones and invigorates the whole system and enables you to stand the wear and tear of your daily work. "After months of suffering from Kidney Trouble," writes W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "three bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." See at all druggists.

"Just when we think we have seen the largest hat that any girl dare wear, along comes another that will hold three or four quarts more," says the Toledo Blade. What of? Rata?—News Leader.

CUPID'S DARTS EFFECTIVE.

Hymen's Altar the Scene of Many Happy Unions.

OCTOBER RIVALS JUNE FOR BRIDES.

Miss Myrtle Pauline Henderson, daughter of Captain and Mrs. P. H. Henderson, of lower Lancaster, and Mr. John R. Leizler, of Laurel, Md., will be married Saturday evening, October 15th, 7:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gawan, of Westmoreland county, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lula Turberville, to Mr. Sydney Henderson, of Kilmarnock, Va. The wedding is to take place late this fall at Carmel Methodist Episcopal church, Westmoreland county.

Miss Mary Virginia Marchant, of Middlesex county, and Mr. James W. Carroll, of Baltimore, were married in that city Thursday, October 6th. The ceremony was witnessed only by members of the families of the contracting parties. The bride is a daughter of the late Capt. J. R. Marchant and Mrs. Virginia Marchant, of Middlesex, and sister of Dr. C. D. Marchant, of Hammon Village, Va. They will make their home at Mt. Washington, Md.

HUBBARD—SMITH.

"Sunnyside" was never more beautifully decorated nor the people of Heathsville more interested in what was taking place within its walls than this week. The occasion was the wedding of Miss Lloyd Estelle Smith, daughter of Mr. Estelle Smith, and Dr. Benjamin H. B. Hubbard, of White Stone. The parlor was tastefully decorated in ferns and potted plants. At the appointed hour—11 o'clock—the strains of Engelmann's wedding march, rendered by Miss Genevieve Smith, sister of the bride, began resounding through the spacious building and the bridal party proceeded to the parlor. Miss Smith was given in marriage by her brother, Col. E. Hugh Smith. She was robed in a handsome brown chiffon broad-cloth with hat and gloves to match. Miss Margaret Virginia Smith, also sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was a creation of green, and she wore a black picture hat. Dr. Hubbard was attended by Mr. Walton C. Hubbard as best man. The ceremony was performed according to the rights of the Episcopal church by Rev. L. C. Harrison of Heathsville, during which the sweet strains of Reubenstein's melody in F was played. Miss Genevieve Smith's gown was of blue messaline. Mrs. Hubbard is both beautiful and accomplished and popular at home and away. Dr. Hubbard is one of the leading physicians of the Northern Neck and has large business interests in Lancaster county. A buffet luncheon was served, after which Dr. and Mrs. Hubbard left for a northern tour extending as far as Canada. Upon their return they will reside at White Stone.

ROCK—BREWINGTON.

One of the prettiest church weddings of the fall took place at Irvington M. E. church Wednesday afternoon of this week, when Miss Lilly DeBerry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Brewington, of Irvington, plighted her troth to Mr. Howard Owen Rock, also of Irvington. Rev. J. D. Hosier performed the ceremony with the ring service.

A summer bower of golden rod and asparagus ferns had been erected over the altar with an arch of same of the left, and the whole front of the building was banked with ferns and other potted plants. The building had been darkened and the lighted chandeliers with yellow lights and candles about the altar shed a mellow light through the whole building. It will be seen that the color scheme was yellow, green and white. Mrs. Irving Russell Messick, having been escorted to the organ, played a prelude from Nevins; and Miss Annie Baugher, of Baltimore, standing to the rear of the arch, sang "O, Perfect Love."

The maid of honor, Miss Myrtle Vaughan Brewington, sister of the bride, and two bridesmaids, Misses Frances Lyell Rock, of Litwalton, sister of the bride-groom, and Pauline Crosby Long, of Irvington, entered from the side doors and marched down the centre aisle to where portiers were drawn at the vestibule. Then the ushers—Messrs. L. Newton Weaver, of Urbana, E. Lee Simmons, Bernard Willing, William R. Rowe, Gilbert K. Messick and Wallace Smith, all of Irvington—marched to the altar two and two divided there, one standing on either side; the bride's maids following and separating at the altar, as did the ushers. The maid of honor, the ring bearer, little Ethel Brewington, niece of the bride, and the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, marched up the centre aisle in order named.

The bride-groom, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Lucius T. Rock, Jr., as best man, entered at the side door on the right and was at the altar awaiting the bride. The recessional was in order similar to the processional, only reversed and Mr. Brewington having given place to Mr. Howard O. Rock. Mr. L. T. Rock, Jr., retired with Miss Myrtle Brewington.

The bride's gown was of soft white satin, trimmed with point lace, and she wore a tulle veil caught with a coronet of pearls and diamonds, a gift of the bride-groom, and carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and orchids. The maid of honor wore yellow crepe de chine over yellow messaline, yellow picture hat and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore white net over silk, and both wore black picture hats and carried white chrysanthemums. Miss Baugher wore a rich robe of yellow satin and Mrs. Messick of white satin and each a black picture hat. Little Miss Brewington had on a white frock and white hat and bore the ring and the bride's train.

The bride's going-away gown was of blue chiffon broad cloth with hat to match. All the men wore black suits with white vests and white ties. The music used was from Nevins, Burleigh, Lehengrin, Chamade and Mendelssohn in order named.

Mrs. Rock is an attractive young lady and has many friends, as was evidenced by the large number of beautiful presents received. Mr. Rock is cashier of the Lancaster National Bank, at Irvington, and has a wide acquaintance and many close personal friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Rock took the afternoon steamer for an extended northern tour, and will there be coming to their friends at the Irvington Beach Hotel after November 1st.

SOME EPIGRAMS.

Mrs. Alice Mothershead, widow of the late R. H. Mothershead, died in Richmond county recently of paralysis. She leaves two children, Mr. Clarence Mothershead, of Washington, and Mrs. W. C. Wallace, of Warsaw