BANNOCKS TAKE THEIR REVENGE

Captain Smith and Two Comrades Murdered.

The Indians Had Sworn Vengeance Against Smith Because They Believed It Was He Who Killed One of Their Tribe and Indirectly Caused the Death of a Papoose Last July—Troops Start for the Scene.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 7.—A special from Pocatello, Idaho, says: A courier and scout for the United States troops, named J. W. Wilson, reached Idaho Falls, about ninety miles north of this place, last evening, bringing details of the killing of Captain Smith and two comrades by Indians in the lower part of Jacksons Hole on Thursday morning. The Indians had sworn vengeance against Smith, as it was he, they believed, who killed one of their tribe and was the cause indirectly of the death of a papoose last July. Smith was wounded himself in this fight but recovered.

Wilson states that Captain Smith and his two companions were prospecting on the south fork of Snake river, at the south end of Jacksons Hole, and were ambushed, and he and his two companions were shot dead, and their bodies left on the river bar. Wilson and Constable Manning were scouting in this locality at the time, and both saw the dead bodies of the murdered men. Wilson rode at once to Captain Collis' command at Swan Valley and reported the facts, leaving Manning at Cape Granite to return to Jacksons Hole with the troops, who left immediately for the scene of the killing. Wilson then rode to Idaho Falls with dispatches.

B. Adams, a rancher living three miles from the scene of the killing and now visiting at Idaho Falls, told Wilson through a searching examination in regard to the killing of Smith and his companions, and says there can be no doubt whatever as to the reliability of Wilson's statement. He says, further, that the killing of Smith was no surprise to him, as the Indians openly avowed they would have his scalp. He believes, however, that this will virtually settle the difficulty so far as the Indians are concerned. Having avenged the death of their braves they will now return to the reservation.

Wilson says there are about sixty Indians at Jackson Hole and they are Bannocks from the Fort Hall reservation. Captain Collis with his command, who started for the Hole, will drive out all the Indians found there, but it is almost certain that none will be encountered, as they will anticipate the arrival of the troops and head by a circuitous route for the reservation.

Lieutenant Ladd, of the Ninth cavalry, and Lieutenant Penn, of the First infantry, now stationed at Montpelier, Idaho, were much alarmed at the killing. From the reports received by them from the troops camped in Star Valley, it is believed no further trouble would ensue and the reports states that there were no Indians in Jacksons Hole, with the exception of a small band under military escort going to another camp in Wyoming to recover a child that was lost last winter. The names of Smith's comrades cannot be ascertained.

THE DURRANT MURDER CASE.

The Eleventh Week of the Trial Begins To-day—Final Struggle of the Defense.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—On the opening of the eleventh week of the Durrant trial to-morrow the defense will make a final struggle to break down the testimony of the prosecution—a process which is expected to last three days longer. A few more students will be called to the stand, several additional citizens will testify to Durrant's excellent reputation and then the defendant may be called to the witness stand.

It is the intention of the defense to have Durrant recount the history of his adventures on April 3, from the time he accompanied Blanche Lamont to school until the hour when he reded to rest in his father's house. A schedule of time for the close of the trial is as follows: On Thursday Attorney Duprey will make the final argument for the defense; Friday and Monday will be occupied by District Attorney Barnes in rebuttal; Tuesday will be passed in further rebuttal. On Wednesday the opening argument of the prosecution will be made, and Thursday, Friday and Monday the closing efforts of the defense will be made. The next day the district attorney will close for the prosecution. It is confidently expected that the judge will charge the jury not later than the morning of Wednesday, October 23.

John Chinaman Called to Order.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Dispatches received here from Shanghai say that Captains Halifax, of Her Majesty's ship Undaunted, and Newell, of the United States steamship Detroit, have been instructed to ask the viceroy to order the mandarins who are said to be openly menacing with vengeance those Christians who give information of the Ku Cheng outrage, to stop these obstructive tactics and to allow the inquiry to proceed.

Wrecked on the Colorado Reefs.

HAVANA, Oct. 7.—The Spanish bark Joven Lola has been wrecked near Rosario on the Colorado reefs. Five of her crew were drowned, but the captain succeeded in swimming ashore. The captain and seventeen of the crew of the unknown Dutch steamer which was wrecked on the Colorado reefs have arrived at Esperanza, province of Pinar del Rio.

Railway Appointments.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—Traffic Manager J. M. Culp, of the Alabama Great Southern, to-day appointed H. F. Smith, general freight agent, and W. A. Turk, general passenger agent, the duties of the latter heretofore having been covered by W. C. Rineron, general passenger agent of the Cincinnati Southern.

THE OROLES' TURN.

They Will Now Try to Make It Three Straight Games.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 7.—The Champions tasted the sweetness of revenge to-day by shutting the Spiders out, thus in a measure getting even for three successive defeats they met in Cleveland. The playing to day seems to indicate that the home team will make it three straight here, and that the seventh game of the Temple Cup series will have to be played. More than 10,000 people saw the battle and the enthusiasm was unbounded, so much so, in fact, that some of the rougher element forgot themselves and offered some indignities to the visitors. Paper balls, peanuts, one or two eggs, and finally a rock were thrown at them as they left their hotel for the grounds, and after reaching there they were hissed by a small part of the crowd.

This was frowned upon by the majority, but there were further attempts at insult during the game. It was purely a pitchers' contest in which Esper had the better of it. Cuppy, though a bit wild, held the victors down to nine hits. These, however, came at opportune times, while the five made by the visitors were scattered and non-productive of runs. The fielding on both sides was almost perfect, not a chance being refused. Aside from the work of the batteries, the only notable features were brilliant catches by Kelly, Brodie, McGarr and Blake, and the splendid work of Jennings at short.

The game began in the second, when Brodie got home on Carey's rattling two-base hit to center, after having reached first on a force hit and second on Geason's sacrifice. Two more were made in the third, McGraw and Keeler coming home on a bunt by McGraw, another by Keeler, a single by Jennings, Kelly hit by pitcher, and a long fly by Brodie.

This performance was duplicated in the seventh, Keeler going to first on balls after two men were out, to third on Jennings' single and home on Kelly's single to left, which also brought Jennings across the plate. The visitors, as a rule, went out in one, two, three order, and at no time did they seem dangerous. Attendance 10,000.

OHIO DEMOCRATS.

Plea For Concerted Action Made by Chairman Thurman.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 7.—The silver Democratic State central committee, of which A. W. Thurman is chairman and W. W. Durbin secretary, to-night issued an address to the Democrats of Ohio urging concerted action looking to the control of the next national Democratic convention. The address concluded as follows:

"The functions given of the United States are distinct and separate from those of the States. Matters of tariff taxation and coinage are functions of the United States with which the States have nothing directly to do.

"The support of every Democrat is, therefore, due to the State ticket. But members of the legislature, who are to be chosen, and who will elect a member of the United States Senate, who will have to vote directly upon the monetary question, and a very critical stage of it, should be uncompromisingly pledged, if they are elected as members of the general assembly, to vote:

"First, in favor of an open party caucus for the naming of a United States Senator; second, against a secret ballot in caucus; and third, against the selection of any man who is not in favor of the free coinage of both gold and silver into full legal tender money by the United States alone, without regard to the action of any other country. To this end we ask your cordial co-operation and assistance."

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 7.—Several hundreds of Chattanoogaans were at the depot to greet the Liberty Bell on its arrival from Knoxville shortly before noon to-day. Mayor Ochs, in a few remarks of welcome said that the people of the South welcomed the bell as patriots and Americans. He pointed out the fact that Gen. Willard Warner, of the Federal army, and Major Shipp, quartermaster of the Confederates, were on the citizen's committee. Both were veterans in the late war. Mayor Warwick, of Philadelphia, in responding, said that he had never seen such demonstrations of loyalty as on this trip through the South. He said he felt that the bell was as safe in Chattanooga as in Philadelphia. The Philadelphia party was then taken to Lookout Mountain. At 4 o'clock this afternoon the formal ceremonies of welcome took place in the presence of several thousand people.

Two Cousins Fight a Duel.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 7.—A special to the Times from Harrodsburg, Ky., says: News was received here this morning of a duel which occurred at Maxwell, a village in Washington county, Saturday, between two young cousins, John and Proctor Shewmaker. They had a spat at a church door the night before, and after being separated, agreed to go out of the town limits and shoot it out, which they promptly did. After stepping ten paces they fired five shots at each other. Proctor was shot through the body, the ball entering his right side and lodged in his left shoulder. Two shots from Proctor's pistol passed through John's hat. Proctor's wounds may prove fatal. A trial will take place when the result of Proctor's wounds are known.

Will Try to Float the Cristobal Colon.

HAVANA, Oct. 7.—Admiral Imas, commander of the Spanish naval forces here, left Havana to-day on board the Spanish steamer Contra Maestro for the Colorado reefs in order to personally direct the operations of trying to float the wrecked cruiser Cristobal Colon, or failing in this to save her guns, etc.

THE United States Government reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

THE PROPOSED PRIZE FIGHT

It Cannot Come Off in the Indian Territory.

Commissioner Browning Has Taken Prompt and Decisive Steps to Prevent Such an Occurrence—Intruders Will Be Forcibly Ejected and Prosecuted Afterwards—Indian Police Will Help the Troops Eject the Fighters.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Commissioner Browning, of the Indian office, has taken prompt and decisive steps to prevent the Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight taking place in the Indian Territory. He has prepared a letter of instructions to Agent Wisdom, at Muscogee, I. T., directing him to see that the laws are enforced and to eject forcibly any intruders who may enter the Indian country for the purpose of creating a disturbance or of engaging in anything that may prove detrimental to the Indians.

The commissioner says that the statutes of the United States are ample to cover the situation and to prevent the fight. The agent will have at his back not only the Indian police, but enough United States troops necessary to eject the fighters. The statutes have given the United States authority to keep out of Indian Territory all persons whose presence would be detrimental to the peace and prosperity of the Indians. The commissioner says there is no doubt that the presence of the prize fighters and the gang that would follow them into the Indian country would be very detrimental to the Indians, and that it is, therefore, the duty of the Indian office to keep them out.

He says that the agent at Muscogee has not got as much authority as the agents on reservations, but, nevertheless, has enough to prevent the fight taking place in the territory of the Five Civilized Tribes. The commissioner intends also to notify all the governors and head men of the Five Civilized Tribes that they must not allow the fight to take place, and must assist the United States authorities in preventing it.

Commissioner Browning was asked if the admission of Corbett, Fitzsimmons and others connected with the fight to citizenship in one of the tribes would make any difference in the authority of the government, and he said that it would not change the conditions in the least.

The government has the power to expel a full blood Indian from the Territory if the peace and good order of the Indians required it. The government will be able to exercise a great deal of discretion in the affair. The United States marshals, or the Indian agent and his police backed by the United States troops, can remove the fighters as intruders and keep them out, and compel them to answer as to violation of the law afterwards.

It is not a case where the fight might take place and the fighters then be called upon as to whether they have violated the law. The government will not even wait for the affair to progress that far. The principals and others connected with the fight will be hustled off the Indian lands on the ground that they are intruders whose presence is undesirable. If they make any complaint about it the courts will have to determine the rights of the matter, and it is believed the probabilities are that the power of the United States government will be broadly interpreted.

No Chance in Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 7.—Governor Altgeld, when asked what course he would take in case an attempt was made to pull off the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight on an island in the Illinois river, near Henry, Ill., said: "I don't know where the island is, nor do I know of any projected prize fight, but if it is on Illinois soil we will do all in our power to prevent any prize fighting taking place there. The enforcement of the law rests primarily with the local authorities, but if it becomes necessary for the State to take a hand you may say that I will use every effort to prevent the fight."

SALE OF THE GEORGIA CENTRAL.

To be Reorganized Under a New Management.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 7.—The Central railroad of Georgia was sold at auction to-day, Henry Crawford, attorney for the reorganization committee, bid it in for $2,000,000.

Gen. Samuel Thomas states that all the properties of the Central system will be sold and their sales confirmed by Judge Pardee by October 15. A temporary organization will then be formed at New York, the board being composed of men convenient to call. It will take about two weeks to complete the transfers and the entire reorganized system should be under the new management by November 1.

Receiver Comer was elected its first vice-president. General Thomas declared that the rumor saying that its business would be diverted from Savannah to Norfolk to be entirely false. The business of the Central will be allowed to take its natural channel, he declares, and the Southern will not seek to divert it. The ocean steamship lines will continue to be operated from Savannah. The presence of the Plant System officials at to-day's sale gave rise to the report that Plant intended to bid on the Central, but there was only the one bid, that made by Crawford.

Explosion at the Dorrance Mine.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 7.—Shortly after 5 o'clock this afternoon a terrific explosion of gas occurred in the Dorrance mine, operated by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, which is situated in the northwestern part of the city. It is not yet known how many men were in the mine. At 8 o'clock five men, all badly burned, were brought to the surface.

A COLORED PREACHER'S THREAT.

He Said the Torch Must be Applied if the Law is Not Allowed Its Course.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—"If the law is not allowed to take its course, concerning our men involved in crime, the torch must be applied in those cities where the outrages occur." These words were uttered last night at the close of the regular evening services by Rev. J. M. Townsend, colored, pastor of Quinn Chapel. An audience of a thousand colored people applauded the sentiment and rose to their feet to show their appreciation of their pastor's stand.

Rev. Townsend's sermon had been called forth by the report of the outrage upon Neal Smith, at Chattanooga. When it was finished the pastor gave out the hymn: "Thou sleepest, justice, awake." At the closing of the singing Rev. Townsend asked the audience to remain a short time. "I want no one to leave the house while I am speaking."

He produced a clipping from a morning paper, read the account of the torturing of Neal Smith and then said: "This must stop in a Christian land. If the law is not to be allowed to take its course, concerning our men involved in crime, the torch must be applied in those cities where the outrages occur." The preacher delivered these sentiments in an impassioned manner, and, as he finished, for a moment there was silence, and then the entire audience rose and applauded. This quick endorsement of his position seemed to confuse the Rev. Townsend, and he remained silent. One of the congregation shouted: "We rise to endorse what you have said." The audience was then dismissed, and slowly left the church.

RIOT AMONG BOATMEN.

A Boat Owner Killed and His Son Fatally Wounded.

TONAWANDA, N. Y., Oct. 7.—One man was killed and another fatally wounded here this morning in a riot among boat men over the question of loading a boat at Scribner's dock. About 150 men were involved in the riot and several pistol shots were fired. Captain Phillips, owner of the boats John Craft and May, was shot in the head as he stood upon his boat and died soon afterward. Phillips' son was struck on the head with a club and knocked insensible. It is believed his skull is fractured and his death is feared.

Captain Phillips brought his boats down from Buffalo and sought to load out of turn. The boatmen objected and gathered very early to-day at the dock to prevent him. The Tonawanda boatmen say that Phillips began it. However that may be, Phillips was the first to fall. His son then cut the lines and the boats drifted down the stream out of the range of the pistols. While cutting the lines young Phillips was assaulted and hurt. The shooting brought the police to the docks, but the affray was over and the men had dispersed. Eleven arrests have been made.

ACCIDENT IN BELGIUM.

Eighteen Persons Killed and One Hundred Injured in a Collision at Wavre.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 7.—Dispatches from Wavre, fifteen miles from this city, where a collision occurred between a crowded passenger train and an engine yesterday evening, shows that eighteen instead of ten persons were killed, and that one hundred persons and not forty were injured. Several of the wounded people are so seriously injured that their lives are despaired of. There are no Americans among the dead or injured.

The passenger train was just passing the railroad station at Mousty when an engine coming from Ottigies at full speed collided with it and telescoped three of the carriages.

Tried to Kill His Sweetheart.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 7.—A special from Birmingham, Ala., says at Spring Park, this county, yesterday afternoon, Sam Childress, aged 22, became angered at his sweetheart, Sallie Thomas, because she had broken an engagement with him and had gone to a revival meeting with another man. Childress came up with the couple near the church, and drawing a knife, put his rival to flight. He then attempted to cut the girl's throat, when bystanders seized him and sent to the city for an officer. When Deputy Sheriff Henry Cole arrived, Childress broke away and ran, but got caught in a barbed wire fence. Unable to escape, he tried to use his pistol, when the officer shot him in the abdomen. He was brought to this city and died last night.

Severe Earthquake Shock in Illinois.

WESONA, Ill., Oct. 7.—The inhabitants of this town were greatly alarmed this morning by an earthquake. The shock occurred at 1:20 o'clock this morning. A few moments later there was a shock. Then there was a lull for two or three minutes, followed by more rumbling and then more quaking, which was so violent as to shake dishes from pantry shelves. Many people ran to the streets in their fright. It was over an hour before quiet was restored, and many people were so alarmed that they sat up until daylight.

International Fire Chiefs' Convention.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 7.—The Convention of International Fire Chiefs opened up in Augusta to-day. It is the biggest meeting in the history of the association. Chief Benoit, of Montreal, called the meeting to order. The next convention will be held in Salt Lake City. Congressman Black, in behalf of Governor Atkinson, delivered the address of welcome to Georgia. The chiefs are being royally entertained. The convention will be in session until the 10th.

Hanigan to be Tried Wednesday.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The trial of David Hanigan for the murder of Solomon H. Mann, the alleged betrayer of his sister, who died from a criminal operation, was expected to begin to-day before Judge Ingraham. The court, however, adjourned until Wednesday, and the case was set down for that day.

Resignation Accepted.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The President has accepted the resignation of Lieut. R. H. Miner, of the navy.

TURKEY WARNED BY THE POWERS

The Government Must Release All Innocent Prisoners

And Inquire Rigidly Into the Recent Rioting, Bloodshed and Wholesale Imprisonment of Armenians—The Porte Promises to Make Reforms in Armenia—Armenians Still Inside the Patriarchate Church—Inflammatory Placards at Stamboul.

CONSTANTINOPLE, VIA SOFIA, Oct. 7.

The representatives of the six powers have sent a collective note to the Turkish government calling attention to the inadequate measures taken by the police authorities to maintain public tranquility in Constantinople and its suburbs, and demanding the prompt institution of a rigorous inquiry into the recent rioting, bloodshed and wholesale imprisonment of Armenians here.

In addition, the powers demanded the release of all prisoners who are innocent of wrong and the cessation of arrests. Said Pasha, the new Turkish minister for foreign affairs, has called at the different embassies and has presented to the representatives of the powers a communication, saying the demand for reforms in Armenia has been accepted by the Porte.

The Armenians are still inside the Patriarchate Church, in which they sought refuge after the rioting of Monday last. Some shots were fired at noon to-day and it was feared that another outbreak was imminent. Police watching the building promptly notified the military authorities and a strong force of troops was sent to the spot.

The soldiers immediately blocked all the adjacent streets. This action of the military caused quite a panic among the inhabitants of that quarter, and they fled from their homes in all directions. The Kurds then entered the workshops among the quays and expelled from them all the Armenians they could find. Later, it is claimed, the bodies of four Armenians were found.

There is one feature of the work which is attracting considerable attention. It is frequently recalled that the gendarmes, while making arrests, repeatedly told the persons taken into custody to "go upon England to deliver you." Those who know the way of Turkish officials say that this shows that the police were instructed to impress upon the minds of the Armenians that Great Britain was unable or unwilling to assist them in the emergency.

Finally, many quarters of Stamboul have been placarded with notices inciting the populace against the "infidels." The police, it is true, tear down these placards, but they were either unable or unwilling to do so before they have been widely read, and the placards have had the effect anticipated upon the Mahomedan population. It is not claimed that the government is responsible for this agitation, but the work is being done and the government, apparently, is unable to put a stop to it.

NEW YORK MUSICAL COURIER.

What It Has to Say, Editorially, About the Lindeman Piano.

The trade in Lindeman pianos can be made more extensive than ever by an aggressive campaign in the West and South, where the name Lindeman on a piano makes the instrument of itself as rapidly salable as it is here in New York State. Lindeman pianos have always stood high in the estimation of the better class of houses, and the future conduct of the business can be vastly influenced by remembering this undeniable fact. A Kentucky Shooting Affray.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 7.—A special to the Times from Bowling Green says: Information was received here this morning from Morgantown of a shooting affray. It is stated that a man named Burns and his son John last night waylaid three men near London, in Butler county. All three of them, whose names cannot be learned, were wounded, one seriously, and he will die. The sheriff was sent for at 12 o'clock last night and left at once for the scene of the shooting. More trouble is feared.

Train Robbers' Water Haul.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 7.—The north-bound Frisco passenger train was robbed at Caston, I. T., fifty miles south of here, last night. Six men did the work. They cut the express car loose from the train and ran it up the track. They failed to open the through safe and only got 85 cents from the local safe. The passengers were not molested. The train was permitted to pull out after the bandits failed to open the big safe.

Dramatic Scene in Court.

DECATUR, Ill., Oct. 7.—Charles N. Smith was to-day sentenced to hang November 29. There was a dramatic scene in court. When the sentence was pronounced, the mother of the child murdered by Smith cried out, "I am so glad."
