EXPERIENCE is the best teacher. Fifteen years' experience has taught W. K. Andrews & Co. what the Roanoke people need in the way of fuel, and they are at all times prepared to deliver on short notice, dry coal, wood or coke. Look out for their belled teams. You may know their teams by the bells.

Last Week of the Contest!

THE NUMBER OF SUGGESTIONS FOR A NAME FOR OUR NEW PRESS has far exceeded our most sanguine expectations. Besides the innumerable suggestions from Roanoke and vicinity, they have come to us from the extremes of the State, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Rhode Island, etc.

The contest will close with our last mail received on February 1st. Don't wait until the last moment. Just as quickly as possible after the close the decision will be made and the $10 gold piece awarded.

SUGGEST A NAME FOR THE NEW PRESS.

ONE and one-quarter pounds of Irish linen paper for 15c at HOBBS' on Salem avenue.

SOME time ago Mr. Simon Goldbaum, of San Luis Rey, Cal., was troubled with a lame back and rheumatism. He used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and a prompt cure was effected. He says he has since advised many of his friends to try it, and all who have done so have spoken highly of it. It is for sale by the Chas. Lyle Drug Company.

Notice—Pumps.
To ANYONE wishing pumps, I am now prepared to make pumps a short notice. The pumps I make are known throughout the country as the Whitesell pump. There is a quantity of them in Roanoke county, also in this city, Montgomery, Craig and Botetourt counties. I challenge all makers of pumps to compete with it for durability and simplicity. I can give references from parties who have been using them over twenty years. For further information you can write me at Roanoke.
