IN THE WORLD OF FINANCE NEW YORK STOCKS.

New York, July 23.—The change for the better in the immediate outlook owing to the measures that are being taken for the protection of the Treasury gold reserve, while gratifying to the conservative element, failed to induce professional operators, both here and in London, to forego the opportunity to realize profits.

A LAND OF PLENTY.

The Sun has on several occasions alluded to the wonderful productiveness of what is known as the Northern Neck of Virginia between the Potomac and Rappahannock rivers.

A prominent business man of Fredericksburg, who has recently made an extensive tour of the Northern Neck, gives a glowing description of the crop prospects there.

"The country," said this gentleman, "is looking splendid and I never saw better crops. The corn is the finest I ever sown, and the sweet potatoes magnificent; prospects splendid for tomatoes.

Packing-houses getting ready for the crops. There has been more hay cut down there than ever before. Fresh vegetables are plentiful, and the people live in nice homes with nice surroundings.

I never saw with more chickens and fowls in my life." When the Northern Neck secures a railroad through its entire length, which is promised in the near future, it will present unsurpassed attractions for home-seekers. Baltimore Sun.

FOUND IN THE RIVER.

A foot from a grown negro was found in the river near Hurt's Mill. An inch or two of the ankle was attached to the foot and it had the appearance of being the work of a surgeon.—Lynchburg Advance.

"Are you expecting your rich aunt to visit you this summer?" "Yes, and it will be a lot of trouble. We have to get all the old family portraits down out of the attic and hang them around while she's here."—Raleigh Observer.

"What are you thinking about?" she inquired. "I want to ask a question, only I can't get it so that it won't sound mixed up."

"What is it?" "Why, when an elephant shakes his trunk is he wagging his tail?"—Washington Star.

THAT DID NOT MATTER. Doctor—"Above all you must not exert your mental capacity too much." Poet—"But I want to finish a volume of poetry."

Doctor—"Oh, that will not hurt you in the least."

IN ARKANSAS. Slick-Head Sal—"Quick! quick! hurry up, young feller! I want a 'surance policy on my husband for $100,000."

Bland Insurance Agent—"But, my good woman, why all this hurry? Won't you slow—"

Slick-Head Sal—"Ter-morrer be blowed! He's jist stole a hoss!"—Truth.
