FINE MARSHALL & WENDALL PIANO AT $275—EASY PAYMENTS.

A fine Marshall & Wendall piano, fancy walnut upright, slightly used, for $275 on easy payments. No interest. A real bargain. Hobbie Piano Co.

A FINE OPPORTUNITY.

Read the advertisement of Heironimus & Brugh to-day—he sure to read it—and see what a splendid bargain they are offering in silks for to-morrow morning. They caution their customers to be on hand early. There is also a great chance offered in capes. Everybody knows what a special sale at this store means.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

At the Fourth Avenue Christian Church the Sunday services were of an interesting nature. A large congregation was present at the morning service. The pastor preached on "God's Revelation of Himself Through Christ." At night, after a most spiritual Christian Endeavor meeting, the regular gospel service took place. The sermon theme was, "A Warning—Breakers Ahead." This service was enlivened by solos by Miss Lillie Bass and R. M. Kent. There was one addition, making the fiftieth one since January 1st.

CALVARY BAPTIST.

At Calvary Baptist Church on Sunday night Rev. Dr. Broughton preached on "Soul Winning" to a large congregation. In the way of an introductory theme to his sermon, Dr. Broughton took occasion to give football a rap or two, which he did very pointedly. He characterized Saturday's game as a shame and an outrage. There were six additions to the church and three conversions on Sunday night. Five new converts were baptized, making in all fifty-three people who have been baptized by Dr. Broughton in two months.

GRACE CHURCH.

At Grace M. E. Church Sunday morning Rev. G. T. Collyer, for seven years a missionary to China, and who will start on next Saturday to Corea as a missionary from the M. E. Church South, preached to a large congregation Sunday morning from John 11:10. In the course of his sermon he recounted many of his experiences while a missionary. He will now be supported in his mission work by the Epworth League of Virginia. At night Rev. C. D. Bulla, the pastor, preached.

FIRST BAPTIST REVIVAL.

At the First Baptist Church last night Rev. W. C. Tyree preached a most powerful and convincing sermon from Matthew, 11:28: "Come unto Me all ye that work and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." There was one convert and several requests for prayer. The services are growing in interest and bid fair to do great work for the cause of God. Services will last throughout the week.

UNITED BROTHERS REVIVAL.

At the United Brethren Church last night Rev. S. L. Rice preached an interesting sermon on the subject of "Trust" to a large congregation. Much interest was manifested, and each night of the revival shows a growing interest. There were three conversions and six penitents. The services will be continued throughout the week. Good music is a specialty of the meeting. Everybody is invited to attend. Services to-night at 7:30.

THE TIMES PIANO CONTEST.

A $400 PIANO FREE.

ARE YOU A GOOD GUESSER?

In 1880 . . . . .	9,209,406
In 1884 . . . . .	10,044,985
In 1888 . . . . .	11,380,860
In 1892 . . . . .	12,059,351

THE TIMES will give a grand $400 Piano to the person who guesses nearest to the popular vote at the next Presidential election, to be held in November. For the benefit of those who wish to try their guessing faculties, we append a statement of the popular vote in the last four Presidential elections:

THE SECOND PRIZE.

As a prize to the person turning in the largest number of Coupons, we will give a splendid $50 NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE, complete in every particular and fully warranted to be first-class.

Now, here are two prizes well worth trying for. Put on your thinking caps and go in to win.

CONDITION.

The only condition imposed in this contest is that your guess must be recorded on the COUPON printed on the fourth page of THE TIMES. Cut it out, write your guess, name and address on it and mail or bring it to THE TIMES office. It will be filed away in the order of its receipt. You can guess as often as you please.

After the final count of the official returns the Coupons will be turned over to a committee of representative citizens of Roanoke, who will announce the result.

No one connected with THE TIMES in any capacity whatever will be allowed to participate in the contest.

ROANOKE, Va., May 11, 1896.

To THE TIMES:—We desire to say that the Jewett Upright Piano, which THE TIMES has purchased from us and placed on exhibition at our warehouse, is in every respect one of the finest and best pianos on the American market for the price. The retail price of this piano is fixed at $400 by the Jewett Piano Company.

We further desire to say that the Hobbie Piano Co. hereby offers to the winner of this instrument $100 cash for the same, provided he or she purchases a Piano from us at any time between now and when the decision is made.

This offer is made to prevent any one holding off the purchase of an instrument until this Piano is awarded. Very truly, HOBIE PIANO CO.

SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL CLOSED.

At Belmont M. E. Church Sunday fourteen persons were received into the church. The church membership has recently been increased by twenty-seven converts at the special meetings which have been held. There were four conversions on Sunday night, which was the closing service of the revival. The revival meetings which have been in progress at Greene-Memorial Church closed at Sunday night's service. Sunday morning fifteen persons made profession of faith, and one at night, thus making thirty in all since the revival began. Dr. Carson preached both morning and night and at the morning service $100 was taken up in a collection for incidental expenses.

RADFORD ENDORSED.

The McKinley and Hobart Club at a meeting held last night endorsed the candidacy of duVal Radford, the goldbug nominee, and urged the members to support him on election day.

W. K. ANDREWS & CO.

The up-to-date coal dealers, 219 Salem avenue, handle the celebrated West Virginia splint coal. Won't you try some of it?

The line of capes and cloaks they carry is very complete, and the prices quoted are not the least points of merit. "The Bazaar" is the leader in this line.

A MISSIONARY TALK.

Rev. G. T. Collyer, the Epworth League missionary to Corea, addressed a union meeting of the Epworth Leagues at Greene-Memorial Church on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. There was a large attendance and Mr. Collyer delivered an interesting address in which he spoke of many exciting experiences encountered while a missionary in the eastern countries. Mr. Collyer spoke at Salem at night.

LICENSE ISSUED.

A marriage license was issued yesterday by the clerk of the hustings court to Silas H. Walthall and Miss Cora Malotte, both of this city. A license was also issued to a colored couple.

CHICKEN AND WAFFLE SUPPER.

To-night at the residence of Miss Bettie Wood, No. 218 Harrison avenue n. e., a chicken and waffle supper will be given by the Stuart Y. W. C. T. U., to which the public are invited.

A GREAT IMPROVEMENT.

The city engineer has recently completed the raising of Henry and Church streets at their intersection at the public building to conform with the grade of the building sidewalk. The street has been newly macadamized, and is now in splendid condition. In the meantime work is progressing on the interior of the post-office building.

One case of Dark Cal
