HUSTINGS COURT. In the hustings court yesterday morning, when the case of E. C. Watts, charged with perjury, was called, R. E. Scott, one of the defendant's counsel, moved to quash the warrant, which after argument was done by the court, on the ground that the time of the offense was not definitely charged. As there was nothing very important before the court it adjourned till this morning at 9:30 o'clock. The cases of John William Sanderson and Sam Ford, both charged with felonious shooting, are both set for to-day.

PREACHING TO-NIGHT. Rev. G. S. Luck, of Hollins, will preach at the East Roanoke Baptist Church to-night at 7:30.

ALMOST FATAL. U. C. Falls, of Blue Ridge Springs, while repairing the heavy speed wheels at the Crozier mines washer yesterday, was caught in the wheels and mashed partially through a small space in the floor. The machinery was stopped and it was found that he could not be extricated without reversing the machinery, which was done. Mr. Falls was taken home more dead than alive and Dr. Spinner, the company physician, was called. Dr. Chas. G. Cannaday, of this city, was also sent for, and it was found that he had sustained severe internal injuries, besides having several ribs broken and his eyes very much injured. It is nothing short of a miracle that he escaped instant death.

THE BEAUTIFUL SNOW. The first real snow to visit this section began to fall at 6 a. m. yesterday and continued at intervals till night. Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday it looked as if the sky would soon be clear; but in a short time the snow began to fall more rapidly than ever, until by nightfall it was two or more inches deep. The boys had a splendid time coasting late in the afternoon and unless the predicted rain should come there may be fairly good sleighing for several days.

PEGRAM RELEASED.

Howard Pegram, the negro man who attempted to kill himself last Monday, was released from jail yesterday morning by Justice J. W. Camper, who did not deem a commission of lunacy necessary. Pegram promised that he would not make any such attempt on his life again and seemed delighted to get out of prison. The authorities think the alleged attempt at suicide was as much to excite the interest of his wife as for anything else.

AMONG SHOE MERCHANTS.

There is a movement on foot among the shoe men to close their stores at 7 o'clock every evening instead of keeping open late at night, as has been the custom in the past. It is understood that all the merchants except one have agreed to close. It would be a good thing for the clerks if such an arrangement could be entered into and it will be just as convenient for the people when they get to understand that such will be the case.

MRS. SAWYER DEAD.

Mrs. Sawyer, wife of Engineer J. W. Sawyer, died yesterday after one week's illness of pneumonia, complicated by congestion of the brain. Her remains will be taken to Radford for interment.

FATHER HOPPER'S SERMON.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather the usual large audience was in attendance last night to hear Father Hopper in one of his most brilliant efforts. His text was: "There is a way that seemeth just to man, but the end thereof is death." He said that intemperance inflicts more harm than war, famine and contagious disease. He compared the drunkard to the beast and proved by statistics that this indulgence leads to three-fourths of the crimes committed and that drink is the mother of crime and leads to more misery and crime than any other vice. Cards with coupons attached were given to those present and they were earnestly implored to sign them. The subject for discourse to night will be "Hell." Services begin at 7:30.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Col. U. L. Boyce had a narrow escape from being killed at the Norfolk and Western depot at Berryville Tuesday night. In attempting to board the south-bound passenger train, due there at 6:13, he missed his footing and after having been dragged some distance, was thrown between the cars, with both legs across the track. Fortunately the engineer happened in, looking out of the cab window, to see Col. Boyce's precarious situation, and, putting on the air brakes, succeeded in stopping the train when the wheels of the car were almost upon him.

WANTS AN OFFICE.

Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Index Appeal: It has leaked out since Hon. J. W. Marshall, one of the electors at large, has been in the city that he would like to be nominated for lieutenant-governor by the Democrats. He has served in the senate and is fond of spending winters in Richmond. Judge Marshall comes from the same section of the State as Major Tyler and his candidacy will not help the major's chances.
