Modern Pilgrims.
"Yes, Dusty," declared Weary Waggle reflectively as he regretfully laid down the tomato can which he had drained of its contents to the last drop, "a genius must be dead many years to be appreciated."

"Huh," replied Dusty, who was wanting in the ability to express his thoughts with the elegant grace of his fellow wanderer.

"Now, there's them pilgrim fathers that you hear people making so much fuss about. Do you know what they are?"

"Dunno as I does."

"No, of course not. You see, you haven't such a good education as this here gent. Well, then, you just look in the dictionary, and you will find that pilgrim means a wanderer who journeys on foot. Now, ain't that just what you and me are?"

"Yes."

"Well, I guess it was just the same with them as with us. Nobody made any fuss over them until they were dead for hundreds of years. When we are dead hundreds of years, people will be making a fuss over us. We will be pilgrim fathers sure, if the dictionary is right and we get married. We struggle now, but our posterity will be making a big fuss over us. I'd rather some fuss was made over us now. But, Dusty, 'such is life,' as the immortal poet remarks."

But Dusty had fallen asleep.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Occupation and Health.
"There are occupations which men do not shun as they do work in a gashouse," said a life insurance examiner, "which we consider far more hazardous. You will be more likely to find old men in a gashouse—men who have worked in the business for many years—than in a brewery. In the brewery men look robust and strong. They have every external appearance of health and would be looked upon by the average man as 'good risks.' But the fact that one rarely sees an old man in the business shows that the calling, coupled with the habits which it creates, has a tendency to shorten life. The iron worker is another who is a less good risk than the gasman if all other things are equal. The fine particles of metal which find their way into his breathing apparatus have an effect on his lungs, and strong men in that calling frequently develop pulmonary consumption. In fact, all trades and occupations which require working in dust are detrimental to longevity and will kill much more quickly than working in a well regulated gashouse."—New York Tribune.

Pictures of Rousseau and Hume.
"The portraits of Rousseau and Hume are historic. Both were executed in 1766, the year of that absurd misunderstanding between the self-tormentor and his guide, philosopher and friend, over which so much eighteenth century ink was spilled. They must have been painted shortly after the arrival of the pair in England in January, and that of Rousseau was apparently interrupted by the quarrel, since it is asserted that he refused to continue the sittings, and the portrait, in which he wears the American dress he had recently adopted, is supposed to have been finished from such furtive glimpses of him as could be obtained in public. That of Hume exhibits the historian in his charge d'affaires period, when, as the apostle of deism, he divided with what the admiration of the Parisians.—Austin Dobson's "Eighteenth Century Vignettes."

After the Garden Party.
After the guests bidden to a garden party given by the queen have withdrawn, the police, with a staff of men, go carefully through the grounds examining the interior of the marquees and scrutinizing nooks and retreats in search of lost jewels. Everything that is found in the way of trinkets, sticks, lace handkerchiefs and love letters is forwarded to the lord chamberlain's office.—Philadelphia Ledger.

It is believed by some naturalists that wasps, like bees, establish sentinels at the door of the nest to prevent the entrance of intruders.

The peach blossom indicates submission, though why nobody has been able to guess.

TWO MEN MISSING.

It is Thought They Perished in the Burning of a Store.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Feb. 4.—The general store of Novak & Zabotzky at Walford, a small town about twelve miles southwest of here, together with the Bank of Walford, adjoining, was destroyed by fire yesterday, causing a loss of $40,000, which is partly insured.

It is known that one man perished in the flames and it may be that a second body will be found in the ruins which cool enough to search.

Owing to several attempts made recently to rob the store, the proprietors fitted up a room over it and took turns sleeping in it. This week was Novak's turn and he and Edward Murray, a farmer living near, were seen together Tuesday night.

Both men were missing yesterday and it is believed that both perished in the flames.

JUDGE GOFF'S COURT.

Richmond, Feb. 4.—The United States circuit court of appeals was in session today, Judges Goff, Simonton and Brawley on the bench.

Jno. M. Slater, of Atlanta, Ga., and M. B. Burks, of Bedford City, Va., were admitted to practice in this court.

The cases of the North Carolina Land Company which occupied the court on Wednesday was the only one argued.

The next for argument is No. 103, Phoenix Insurance Company, of Brooklyn, appellant, vs. J. Z. Schultz, appellee; appeal from the circuit court of the western district of Virginia.

HANNA MAY BE P. M. G.

Canton, Feb. 4.—The indications now are that the political intentions of Mr. Hanna will occupy the Cabinet guessers the rest of this week. It is rumored here by many of Mr. Hanna's Cleveland friends who have visited Canton within the last thirty-four hours that he may decide to accept the position of Postmaster General. The most generally accepted opinion is that Mr. Hanna thinks he will not be appointed to the Senate by Gov. Bushnell.

WANTS THE PARIS MISSION.

Canton, Feb. 4.—The visit of Chairman Gowdy, of the Indiana Republican committee, was one of interest. He spent the day in Canton and had an extended talk with the President elect. Mr. Gowdy says Indiana will be modest in her demands upon the President-elect and when pressed confessed that he would like to be appointed consul-general to Paris.

SOMETHING BEHIND THIS.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The President, taking advantage of a prerogative rarely exercised, placed Col. Robert E. A. Croftin, commanding the Fifteenth Infantry, with headquarters at Ft. Bayard, N. M., on the retired list of the army to-day under the statute enabling the executive as commander-in-chief to retire an officer who reaches the age of 62.

NAVAL ORDER.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Assistant Engineer Danforth, U. S. N., has been ordered to report at the New York navy yard.

TO SEIZE THE STEAMER.

Jacksonville, Feb. 4.—As soon as the steamer Three Friends returns from her trip down the coast she will be seized by the collector of customs at the instance of district attorney, and will be held by him until the attorney files a forfeiture against her, in which it will be charged that she was used for piratical purposes on the high seas and within the waters of the kingdom of Spain.

GAVE CASH BAIL.

New York, Feb. 4.—Hamilton F. Coleman, who was arrested yesterday for having $5,500 worth of Government "periodical" stamps unlawfully in his possession, today furnished $2,000 cash bail for his appearance before Commissioner Shildt for preliminary examination on Wednesday next. He departed at once to visit his father, who is reported to be dying at Cooperstown.

TO DIG THE CANAL.

Conn., Feb. 4.—The mission of Mr. Mangu, director of the Panama Canal Company, to Jamaica, is for the purpose of obtaining laborers for the canal, which has been successful. The men will be paid $1.20 currency per day and the government of Jamaica will receive three pounds for each laborer as a guarantee that the men will be returned to Jamaica upon the expiration of their contracts. A large number of Jamaica laborers are expected to arrive here shortly.

THE POPE FAINTED.

Rome, Feb. 4.—Dr. Lappini, personal physician to the Pope, was summoned to His Holiness' bedside at 5:30 o'clock this morning and found he had fainted into a fainting fit, from which, however, he soon recovered. Dr. Lappini has issued a bulletin stating that the faintness of the pope is not of a serious nature. He has frequently had such spells. Nevertheless the doctor has forbidden that His Holiness hold any receptions for the present.

A $40,000 FIRE.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 4.—The loss by the burning of James A. Boyd's tobacco factory was about $40,000; fully covered by insurance.

IN THE WORLD OF FINANCE

NEW YORK STOCKS.

New York, Feb. 4.—The reduction in the Bank of England discount rate from 4-1/2 to 3 per cent, had comparatively little influence in markets for securities, at the opening today, partly because London failed to respond to the news. It was quite evident that the action of the directors of the bank had been discounted, a reduction in the bank rate having been fore-shadowed by the declining quotations in the open market for London for some days past.

Stocks, after advancing 1/8 to 3/8 per cent, soon developed weakness and under selling, chiefly for the short account, almost the entire list sustained losses varying from 1/4 to 1 per cent. The downward movement was temporarily checked by the unexpectedly favorable showing by the C, B. and Q. It was rumored yesterday and this morning that the statement would show a decrease in clearings of about $200,000. Instead, the official figures report an increase, compared with 1896, of $56,399 in net earnings and of $69,553 in surplus. On this the shorts covered freely and C, B. and Q. rose from 74 3/4 to 75 1/8 and other stocks rallied fractionally in sympathy. The firmness, however, was of short duration, and during the afternoon the advance was not only lost, but in some instances, substantial declines were recorded.

The growing belief that the business of the trusts will be probed into by New York investigation committee and continued advices from Washington that the differential duty on refined sugar will be reduced operated against the industrial group. Sugar fell from 114 5/8 to 114 1/2, while Leather preferred declined 1/4 to 59 1/8 and Lead 1 1/8 to 22 7/8. Chicago Gas was sold down 1/8 to 75 1/8 on advices from Springfield that a bill would be introduced into the Illinois legislature to regulate the price of gas in the State. Officials of the company here attach no importance to the matter. The grangers yielded about a half per cent, and Louisville and Nashville and General Electric even less.

Total sales were 141,434 shares. The bond market was firm. The sales aggregated $2,291,000.

Treasury balances: Coin, $122,984,762; currency, $5,235,778.

Government bonds firm; State bonds steady; railroad bonds dull. Silver at the board neglected.

CHICAGO.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—The French crop was in the main a factor in the wheat market today. Although information regarding that crop received was simply a confirmation of what was already known, still it was none the less effective in causing an advance. The market was irregular up to noon, the opening being weak on lower Liverpool cables, prices soon advancing on good export clearances at New York, but again declining because other seaboard points were not in line with New York. The final bell deal was due to French news.

Wheat opened from 74 1/2 to 74 3/8, sold between 74 1/4 and 74 1/8, closing at 75 3/4, 3/4-7/8 higher than yesterday.

Cash wheat was steady, closing firm and 1-1/2-2c per bushel higher.

Corn—Alterations in the price of corn were very small, the business being of such light volume that it was remarkably stationary. The strength or weakness of wheat, however, started a slight influence, to which the changes were due. May corn opened at 24, sold at 24 1/4, closing at the latter, 1-1/2 higher than yesterday. Cash corn was steady and prices were unchanged.

There was very little difference in oats and corn markets. Moderate fluctuations within range of narrow limits took place. May oats closed a shade higher. Cash oats were steady and unchanged.

Provisions—Eggs were up another 2 1/2c this morning, a circumstance which had a salutary effect on provisions. Commission houses and packers were good buyers early, but trade became slack after the first hour and prices gradually settled backward, until most of opening advance was lost. May pork closed 2 1/2 higher; May lard 5 cents higher, and May ribs unchanged. Hides were active and firmer; natives, heavy, 9 1/4; light, 8 1/4; native cows, heavy, 8 1/2; light, 8 3/4.
