POLICE VIGILANCE.
Saturday a negro walked into Nyburg's store on Jefferson street and wanted to pawn a diamond ring. The proprietor thought it rather suspicious, that an ordinary negro tramp should have a fine solitaire diamond worth from $75 to $100, so called Policeman Rigney's attention to the matter. When Mr. Rigney arrived the negro had gone and no trace of him could be found, but he had left the ring. Officer Rigney immediately notified the police of Lynchburg and other points of the find and inquired if they had any complaint from any one having lost such a ring and it so happened that the Lynchburg police had had a complaint and they immediately notified the chief of police of the fact, and yesterday evening J. C. Wheatley, a student at Bellevue, arrived in town and identified the ring as one that had been stolen from his room some time ago and was an heirloom given to him by his mother many years ago. Mr. Wheatley, whose home is in Georgia, immediately telegraphed them of his recovery and gave all credit to the vigilance of Officer Rigney. The negro has not been heard from and it is supposed he has skipped town.

RUMORS WITHOUT FOUNDATION.
The Cincinnati Post had a special from Knoxville, Tenn., last week to the effect that the Norfolk and Western had secured large tracts of land in and around the last named city for terminal facilities and that they would build into Knoxville in the near future. A reporter of The Times called upon Mr. Geo. W. Ramsey, chief clerk to General Manager Joseph H. Sands, in reference to the report and was told that they knew nothing about any such move here, and that whilst it might be possible, the officials here know nothing of any such move having been made. He also says the rumor that the shops of the Norfolk and Western at Bluefield are to be moved to Max Meadows is without foundation, and that no such move has been agitated. Manager Sands and Vice-President Barlett yesterday morning for Hagerstown and will return to-day. Mr. Ramsey says the road is in a good condition, but the business they are doing will not justify them in making any great amount of improvements.

ARRESTED THE WRONG MAN.
A yellow negro was arrested here Sunday by the officers as resembling a description sent them of a fellow named Tapp who is wanted in West Virginia for rape. The man arrested proved who he was and that he was not the one wanted; but said he had been arrested three times before he arrived here, the officers taking him for the party wanted in West Virginia. There is a reward of $200 offered for the arrest of Tapp.

DEATH OF ROBERT PAYNE.
Robert A. Payne died at his home at 355 Campbell street Sunday night at 12 o'clock at the advanced age of 64 years. He was father-in-law to Officer Nichols and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. The funeral was conducted from his residence yesterday afternoon, the remains being interred in the City Cemetery. The exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Shipman, of the First Baptist Church. Messrs. Wright, Tullman, Giles, Dalby, Beckers and Abbott were the pall-bearers.

FUNERAL OF J. H. WOODY.
The funeral services over the remains of J. H. Woody were conducted from Greene-Memorial Church yesterday morning under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias and conducted by Rev. C. D. Pulla. After the services at the church the procession formed. First were the knights and behind them the officers of the lodge, the chancellor commander and prelate bringing up the rear. Immediately behind the knights came the hearse and behind were the relatives and friends of the deceased. At the grave the ceremony of the Pythians, which consisted in each one dropping into the grave a sprig of evergreen and the talk by the prelate, Dr. R. W. Fry, was very impressive. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Z. N. Bright, R. T. Boswell, G. T. Dlugail, Jno. W. Hartwell, J. C. Moir and N. W. Phelps.

DEATH OF A FORMER RESIDENT.
Mr. Greene, at one time a resident of this city and who had many friends here, died in Richmond last week of appendicitis. He was living in Danville, but went to Richmond for treatment. Mr. Greene was in business here for some time, and was once connected with Crockett Springs Hotel Company. He was a brother of the Rev. Mr. Greene, for whom Greene-Memorial Church takes its name. He was married about two years ago to Miss Lyons, of Richmond.

DR. SNEAD'S DEATH.
Dr. E. F. Snead, a prominent physician of Lynchburg, died Saturday of heart trouble, aged about 40 years. He was a native of Bedford county, and began the practice of medicine in Lynchburg in 1887. Dr. Snead and his wife were well known in this city, having many friends here. It will be remembered when his little son was drowned a few years ago, the money he had saved was donated to the home mission fund of Cavalry Baptist Church, and a society organized and named for him the Lawrence Snead Missionary Society. Since then the old Calvary tabernacle has been moved to the northwest section and is now known as Lawrence Snead chapel. Dr. and Mrs. Snead were present at its dedication.

Several matters of importance will come before the body, among them the matter of laying better sidewalks on the streets leading to the new postoffice. E. B. Crabbill's successor on the school board will be elected and in all probability the matter of the bill of $2,000 against the city by Watts, Robertson & Robertson will be taken up and decided upon. The question of establishing a city light plant which has been under advisement for several months will probably be decided at this meeting.

THE HAPPY POSSESSORS.
The Piano and Sewing Machine
Delivered Yesterday.

The Times publishes below a very appreciative and graceful letter from Mrs. C. M. Raup, who is now the possessor of the elegant Jewett piano, awarded to her in the great contest. It is a pleasure to The Times to realize that the piano is in the possession of one who so thoroughly appreciates it. The piano was delivered yesterday, as was the sewing machine to Mrs. W. J. Wright, thus ending a contest without a parallel in Roanoke journalism. Mrs. Raup's letter follows:
Mr. M. H. Claytor, Publisher Roanoke Times.

Dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge receipt of your order on the Hobbie Music Co. for the Jewett piano awarded to my husband in The Times prize contest.
In the absence of my husband I desire to express for him, and for myself, our hearty appreciation of your offer, so grand and so generous, through which we have become the happy possessors of one of the renowned Jewett pianos.
We shall ever hold in kindly remembrance The Roanoke Times, and while it shall be ours to enjoy the instrument, we sincerely hope it may be yours to be rewarded by the successful offer made to your patrons. Very respectfully yours,
MRS. C. M. RAUP.

JUSTICE WOODS COURT.
The docket in the police court yesterday morning was unusually small for Monday morning, there being only a few cases of minor importance before Justice Wood. A negro and three white men were fined $2.50 each and in default of bail were committed to jail. Three boys were arrested for stealing pigeons and the case continued until to-day.

The case of Henry Walker was dismissed upon suggestion of plaintiff, who paid all costs.

CIRCUIT COURT.
The attention of Judge Dupuy in the circuit court yesterday was taken up with the case of L. H. Cooke, trustee, against the Exchange Building and Investment Company. The suit is being brought by several parties, among them L. H. Cooke, trustee, to get costs and to inform him as to the proper administration of its affairs, also by the different persons who had not secured release deeds to give them good titles to the lands, and to question Col. Lewis' right to his part of the land which they had bought under his deed of trust. The case involves property valued at about $100,000, and in case the court should refuse to compel the release of the land it might occasion considerable loss on the part of the purchasers of these lands. The case is attracting a great deal of attention and the greater part of the city bar is engaged on one side or the other. The attorneys for the purchasers are Smith & King, W. A. Glasgow, Col. R. H. Logan, of Salem; J. P. Woods, Jno. M. Hart, Scott & Staples and E. Perkins. Col. Lewis is represented by Watts, Robertson & Robertson.

HUSTINGS COURT.
The only case of importance in the hustings court yesterday was the case of Habib Jacob Maroon against Abraham Fikani, both Syrians. Maroon instituted suit to recover $30 and interest from August, 1893, on a note executed in Denver, Colorado. As the note was written in Syrian and all the conversation carried on in Syrian the lawyers were considerably puzzled as to what to do in the matter. A photograph was used to identify the parties and an interpreter was called in requisition and the case was finally disposed of, the jury deciding in favor of the plaintiff's claim.

RETURNS THANKS.
Mrs. R. A. Payne desires to return thanks to kind friends and neighbors for the aid and sympathy given her husband during his late fatal illness.

"HER MAJESTY'S CORSET!"
A Cut of Which We Show Here:

We are sole agents of this celebrated Corset for Roanoke.

"Her Majesty's Corset" is probably enjoying a larger sale than any high grade Corset in the market just now.

It is especially adapted to persons inclined to be stout. The one great feature of it is that it will never break. The peculiar shape of the Corset obviates the usual great inconvenience of "breaking in." It is shaped exactly to the figure. If you have not yet been altogether suited in a Corset, and want one that will last, buy "Her Majesty's."

It's a high grade Corset, however. Price, $2.75—either black or white. Try it on our recommendation and you will find it the most pleasant to wear, to be the greatest addition to your figure, and the cheapest when the many benefits are realized after wearing.

"J. B." Corsets made over the "P. D." shapes, but much cheaper.
"J. B." Corsets for summer wear, all sizes, at $1.50.
"J. B." Empire Corsets, white only, $1. These are entirely new numbers with us.
