RETURNED TO RICHMOND.

Worshipful Master Geo. W. Carrington spent the forenoon of yesterday with the members of the lodge of Masons in this city. He was taken over the town and expressed himself as highly delighted with the town and the hospitality of the people. He left on the noon train for his home in Richmond. Mr. Courtney and some other members of the visiting staff spent yesterday visiting brothers in Salem.

ATTENTION, ARTILLERYMEN.

Members of Roanoke Artillery Company will assemble at 8 o'clock Monday evening, June 28, in the office of Edward Lyle, city hall, to arrange a detail for July 5. All interested parties are invited to participate in this meeting.

A SMALL FIGHT.

Lawyer G. S. Good and E. A. McGehee, a resident of the county, became involved in an altercation on the corner of Jefferson street and Campbell avenue, which resulted in a small fistfight. It seems that McGehee took exception to something Mr. Good had said in a speech in the courthouse recently and approached him concerning it. Some words were exchanged and Good struck McGehee in the face. Mr. Good says McGehee had a knife in his hand and when he struck him McGehee cut at him with the knife, cutting a hole in his coat sleeve and inflicting a very slight scratch on the arm. The matter will be settled in the police court Monday morning.

ST. ANDREW'S PICNIC.

The picnic of St. Andrew's school took place in Carr's woods yesterday as advertised. During the morning the crowd in attendance was not so large, but as soon as the noon hour was reached and the force from the shops and offices were released from their duties the crowd commenced to swell and a large number were present. Near the centre of the woods an enclosure has been fenced in and a band stand and dancing pavilion erected. In the enclosure were, in addition to dancing by music furnished by the Roanoke Machine Works Orchestra, athletic games of all kinds. Swings had been swung from the trees and the little children seemed to be enjoying themselves to their heart's content. All during the day refreshments were served by parties having this part of the entertainment in charge and nothing was left undone that would add to the pleasure of those in attendance.

NO FAKE.

Foster & Hensel have an ad. on the eighth page of The Times this morning which will pay for its perusal. These progressive gentlemen give fits—to clothes. Go around and get a fit.

BONSAK TACK THROWERS.

Reports continue to come from Bon-sacks of the miscreants who persistently fill the road with tacks. This is certainly one of the meanest ways of taking revenge, if such is the intention of the perpetrators, and if it is not revenge but pure meanness, the officers of the law should be notified and an effort made to stop this very annoying nuisance.

ODD FELLOWS RETURN.

The Odd Fellows excursion to Norfolk returned yesterday morning at 5:45. They report a most glorious outing and a thoroughly enjoyable trip. There were five cars and about 300 people.

DEATH OF AN INFANT.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Upike, of Fourth street n. e., died yesterday evening at 2 o'clock and will be buried in the City Cemetery this evening at 3 o'clock. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. C. D. Bulla.

FELL FROM THE STREET SWEEPER.

Lucius Payne, who drives the street sweeper, got a very severe fall last night about 9 o'clock on the market square. The seat upon which he was sitting broke, precipitating him with considerable force on the street. He landed on his back, was picked up unconscious and carried to Mundy's stable. He recovered shortly, but was suffering considerably with his back.

JUST IN SEASON.

Fairfax Bros., in their ad. on the sixth page of The Times this morning, set forth prices on some very seasonable goods. It's a good time to buy ice picks and shaves this hot weather.

AT CHRIST CHURCH

There will be services at Christ Church to day as follows: At 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Children's service at 3:30 in the afternoon. Dr. T. H. Lucy will officiate at all the services. Sunday-school at 9:30 a. m.

FROM THE ORIENT.

Joseph Azar, a native from the Orient, who is now on his way to the Tennessee Exposition at Nashville, where he goes to exhibit his fine line of O-oriental and Egyptian novelties, is stopping for a short time at the store of Watt, Rettew & Clay, where his line is now on sale. His exhibit consists of handwork of the Orientals and shows their wonderful skill in the execution of curiously embroidered table covers, scarfs, centre pieces and sofa pillow covers; also an endless variety of bracelets, bonbon boxes, belt buckles, chains, charms, brooches, candlesticks, etc. There is a lot of interesting reading the big ad. on the eighth page, setting forth some rare values for buyers to consider.

HEAVY RAINS IN THE SOUTH-WEST.

Tourists from Bristol and other points in Southwest Virginia, report that heavy rains have been falling during the past week. In some localities the growing crops have been washed considerably by the heavy down pour.

THE CONCERT LAST NIGHT.

The largest crowd that has yet attended the concert at Crystal Springs was present last night. The cars were crowded from 7:30 until almost 10 o'clock with people going out, and the applause that greeted the performers at the conclusion of each number assured them that their efforts to entertain were not in vain. The concert opened with some selections by the Dixie Quartette, followed by a knock about black face turn by Armstrong and Butler. Their turn was well received and was very creditable for amateurs. The duet by Misses Price and Walthall was one of the most pleasing numbers on the programme. Prof. Corwice again delighted all by his very clever imitations and was again recalled to the front. The series of concerts were a decided success from every standpoint and it is exceedingly gratifying to the members of the quartette and the Roanoke Light Infantry the liberal patronage that was accorded them.

AT JACK'S NEWS DEPOT—The Metropolitan, Cosmopolitan, Ladies' Home Journal, Puritan, Godey's, Harper's Monthly, Lippincott's and Scribner's for July. Sunday papers to day.

ROMANCE MADE PUBLIC.

One of the most romantic marriages that has happened and one which the young people have been until yesterday very successful in keeping quiet, has just come to light. The actors in the pretty little romance were Mr. Fred Tremain, of the Dixie Quartette, and Miss Lucille Martin, and, as all romances end or should end, they are happily married. On last Friday, the 18th, Miss Martin went to Salem to visit some friends and was to return home on Sunday. On Saturday she decided to come home and left presumably to catch the 5 o'clock car, but instead went to the depot, where she boarded the 4:40 train for Bristol and, as will sometimes happen, Mr. Tremain happened to be a passenger on the train and together they proceeded to Bristol and were married. By being very careful they managed to escape the lynx eye of the Bristol news gatherers and the matter was kept secret. On Sunday Miss Martin returned home, as she was expected, and Mr. Tremain arrived in town a few hours later on a car from Salem. The matter of their being married was unsuspected, but as they did not want it to become known it was denied. But last night they concluded it was best to make it public and it was given out. The only objection that was sustained by any one was the youth of the parties, he being only 21 and she 19, but as this can hardly be counted as an objection they can expect only the benediction of those who were opposed. Mr. and Mrs. Tremain will make Roanoke their home for the present at least. The announcement will be a great surprise to all the friends of the young people, but their extreme popularity will bring them the best wishes of all for a long and happy life in their new relation as man and wife.

After....
Taking
a course of Ayer's Pills the system is set in good working order and a man begins to feel that life is worth living. He who has become the gradual prey of constipation, does not realize the friction under which he labors, until the burden is lifted from him. Then his mountains sink into mole-hills, his moroseness gives place to jollity, he is a happy man again. If life does not seem worth living to you, you may take a very different view of it after taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

Can You Raise $10.00?
