READY FOR CONVENTION.

Democratic Headquarters to be Opened To-morrow.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC HAS BEEN BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED FOR THE OCCASION—ALL THE PRELIMINARY ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR THE GATHERING OF THE HOSTS—LIST OF PLACES WHERE DELEGATES MAY LIVE.

The preliminary arrangements for the State convention, which assembles next Wednesday in the Academy of Music, have all been completed and now everything is in perfect readiness.

Democratic headquarters will be opened on Jefferson street Monday morning, and if necessary will remain open until Friday. Headquarters will be in charge of a competent corps of clerks who will on the arrival of the delegates register their names and assign them to their homes.

A number of guides will be on hand to show the delegates to their hotels or boarding houses and everything is expected to run like clockwork.

Special seats and desks will be arranged on the stage for the benefit of the members of the press who will be in attendance. A special Associated Press wire will be placed inside the building.

Ten pages of special messengers will be employed for the purpose of waiting on the convention. Wm. McDermott will be recommended for appointment as sergeant-at-arms, with an ample corps of special police at his command.

It has been arranged that the district committees shall meet on the morning of the 11th, one in the circuit court room, one in the hustings court room, one on the right side of the parquette circle of the Academy, one on the left, one on the right side of the first balcony and one on the left, one in the room in the rear of the balcony and one on each side of the gallery. The Fifth district committee will meet on the stage.

GOLD MONEY QUADRUPLED.

Washington, Aug. 7.—Marcus Baker, an officer of the geological survey, who has been studying the great gold finds, reports a steady increase in the production of the precious metal. He says that the finds in Kamtschatka will equal that of the Klondike and the available supply to-day is three times that of fifty years ago. He says the per capita of gold has quadrupled in fifty years.

AN INHUMAN MOTHER.

New York, Aug. 7.—Lizzie Hoffman, the 18-year-old unmarried daughter of a night watchman, walked down to the Hudson river this afternoon with a bundle wrapped in paper, which she threw in the water. Some workmen near by fished it out and it was found to contain an infant a day old. The child will live. When the girl was apprehended she said she was trying to conceal her shame from her father.

BEDFORD BANK CASES ENDED.

Cashier J. W. Smith's Acquittal at Bedford City.

THE CHARGE OF MAKING A FALSE STATEMENT WAS NOT SUSTAINED—OTHER INDICTMENTS AGAINST HIM WERE DISMISSED UNDER THE STATUTE—MOTIONS TO TAKE STEPS TO REINDEICT T. D. BERRY WAS OVERRULED.

The Lynchburg News says: Messrs. Lee & Howard sent a telegram to their secretary here yesterday from Bedford City stating that their client, James W. Smith, cashier of the defunct Liberty Savings Bank, who was being tried on the charge of making a false statement as to the condition of the bank, had been acquitted. A telegram to the same effect was received Mr. J. T. Coleman, of the firm of Caskie & Coleman, counsel for Mr. T. D. Berry.

Additional information received last night was to the effect that the grounds on which Mr. Smith was acquitted were set forth in a plea of res adjudicata, entered in the case by Messrs. Lee & Howard. A special venire of thirty men had been secured for the trial of the case from Radford, and when the plea referred to was entered, counsel for the prosecution took issue, and the jury was empaneled to determine whether or not the facts as alleged in the plea were true. There were a number of indictments against Mr. Smith, but all of them, except the one on which he had been tried, were dismissed on the ground, (as in the case of Mr. Berry,) that four terms of the county court had passed without the indictments being tried. When, however, it came to a consideration of the indictment for making a false statement, other measures were adopted by Mr. Smith's counsel.

When the supervisors of Bedford county first began proceedings against Mr. Smith, the indictments were drawn by Major T. J. Kirkpatrick, of this city. When Mr. A. H. Burroughs afterwards entered into the case for the prosecution, the indictments were redrawn, but the indictments drawn by Major Kirkpatrick were not dismissed for several months. Recently, however, the Kirkpatrick indictments were dismissed, and Mr. Smith's counsel claimed that in this action of the court the charge was dismissed on which Mr. Smith was being tried. Their plea briefly stated, was as follows:

"And the said James W. Smith, being brought to the bar of this court and having heard the said indictments read and the matters therein contained, says that he ought not to be put to answer the said indictment, he having been at the April term, 1896, of the county court of Bedford county, indicted by a grand jury duly constituted by the said court for the same alleged offense, that is, the offense of making a false statement; that the said indictment has been pending and he has been held for trial by said county court on said indictment from the time of finding said indictment until the July term of 1897 of said county court, and there have been four regular terms of said county court in which he has been held for trial without the trial upon said indictment. The failure to try him has not been caused by his insanity, or by witnesses of the commonwealth being excused or kept away or prevented from attending by sickness or inevitable accident; or by reason of his escape from jail, or failing to appear according to his recognizance; or by the inability of the jury to agree on a verdict; or there being no court held at regular term, and the said county court by its solemn judgment and word, made and entered at its July term of 1897, forever discharged him from prosecution for the offense with which he was charged by the indictment aforesaid."

"And the said J. W. Smith avers that the J. W. Smith mentioned in the former indictment and the J. W. Smith, who is charged in the present indictment, are one and the same person and not different persons; that the Liberty Savings Bank mentioned in one indictment and the Liberty Savings Bank mentioned in the other indictment are the same institution. That the 'statement' of the financial condition of the bank mentioned in the former indictment is the same as the 'statement' mentioned in the present indictment; and the said J. W. Smith further avers that the offense and felony mentioned and charged in the former indictment is one and the same offense and felony charged in the present indictment; wherefore he, the said J. W. Smith, prays that the present indictment be dismissed."

After the verdict dismissing the indictments against Smith, a motion was made by counsel for prosecution to summon a special grand jury to reindict both Mr. Berry and Mr. Smith, but the court overruled the motion on the ground that he saw no reason for such action and that the prosecution of the case had proceeded far enough.

ENGLAND IN NO HURRY.

May Reply to Our Bimetallic Commission in October.

NOT YET READY TO DECIDE THE QUESTION—THE ENGLISH CABINET IN COMMUNICATION WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA THE AMERICAN ENVOYS DO NOT CONSIDER THE SITUATION AT ALL DISCOURAGING.

London, Aug. 7.—The British government has informed the American bimetallic commission that it will probably reply to the proposals of the commissioners on behalf of the United States in October. The commissioners have been awaiting in London since their conference with the cabinet, and, desiring to know the exact position of England before opening negotiations with other governments, they wrote yesterday to the cabinet inquiring when they might expect a decision, as they were anxious to arrange their future programme.

To-day Senator Wolcott received a reply from Sir Michael Hicks Beach, chancellor of the exchequer, in the course of which the chancellor expressed a fear that the British government was not yet in a position to reply to the proposals of the envoys of the United States and the French ambassador on the question of an international agreement.

Sir Michael Hicks Beach said: "It is due both to the importance of the subject and the manner in which it has been brought before the English ministry by the representative of the two countries that these proposals should be very carefully examined and considered, and this process must be somewhat prolonged, owing to the time necessarily occupied in communicating with the government of India."

The chancellor of the exchequer adds that he can not say with certainty how long these communications will take, but he hopes the cabinet will be ready to meet the envoys again early in October.

While this postponement of England's decision delays the work, it is discouraging. On the contrary, they think Great Britain's interest in the question justifies them in expecting that the Indian mints will be opened. They believe that the Times, in opposing the re-opening of the Indian mints, does not represent the government, but rather the city financial circles, which are opposed to any change. The report made to the government from the mint is understood to be favorable to silver.

The headquarters of the commission will remain in London until October. Senator Wolcott may visit Austria in the meantime and pave the way for negotiations with the Austrian government. The commissioners do not wish to approach other governments until England's attitude is settled, as our participation in the movement, if secured, will aid in enlisting others. After receiving the English reply they will go to Austria, Germany and Russia in that order.

James Maudsley, secretary of the cotton operative spinners, to-day forwarded to Lord Salisbury a petition representing 350 labor organizations in all the industries, urging Great Britain to co-operate with other governments in the movement now on foot to secure a stable par exchange for gold and silver.

MACHINES CONFISCATED.

New York, Aug. 7.—There have to-day been confiscations of machines given as guarantee of good faith to the garment makers by the contractors. This was the result of a failure of the contractors to keep faith with the workmen. This action has caused consternation. The machines will be used by the union to establish co-operative plants. Contractors now demand that their workmen put in ten hours daily and this will cause more trouble.
