

SALEM

EDWARD JETER, REPORTER.

Attorney L. C. Hansbrough has gone to Staunton on legal business.

Attorney James Payne, of Charleson, W. Va., is on a visit to the family of his sister, Mrs. Captain Roberts.

Dudley Boogher, a last year student of the college, who was expected to return the first of September, has postponed his trip until a later date.

Rev. Robert Holland and wife, of Newberry, S. C., are visiting at Mrs. Capuin Holland's.

Mrs. E. B. Wilson and children left yesterday for a visit to friends in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Garth and two daughters, of Bryan, Tex., who have been summering at Mrs. C. C. Tompkins', left yesterday for their home in the far South.

Mrs. Thos. Cooper, of Coopers, W. Va., is visiting her father, Judge Barwitz, and family, at their home on College avenue.

J. W. F. Allemoning has gone to Hinton, W. Va., in the interest of the Salem Machine Works.

J. A. Baumgardner, the Norfolk and Western station agent at Salem, will go on a two weeks visit to the Nashville Exposition. Mr. Palmer St. Clair, of Roanoke, takes charge of the position until his return.

Mrs. David Ayres, of Market street, Las gone on a visit to friends in Botetourt county.

Mrs. Leach, of Morristown, Tenn., a sister of Mrs. Tash Murray, is visiting the latter at her home on Main street.

Mrs. Koster and her daughter, Miss Anna, who have been visiting for the past summer at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Saul, left last night for their home in New York city. As they are very fond of Salem and have many friends here, they will probably return again next summer.

Rev. M. Gaston and wife, of Sumter, S. C., who have been summering at Mrs. A. Shipman's, on Broad street, left yesterday for their home in the Palmetto State.

Miss Lucille Adams, one of the teachers for the past session at the Baptist Orphanage, has gone on a visit to her home at Burkeville. The attention of the teachers and patrons of the public schools of Salem is called to the following section of the Virginia school law, which is as follows: "Section 80.—Persons suffering from contagious disease shall be excluded from the public free schools while in that condition, and the teachers shall require of the pupils cleanliness of person and good behavior during their attendance at the school and on their way thither and back to their homes; and no pupils shall be admitted unless they have been vaccinated; provided, that the operation of this clause concerning vaccination may be suspended in whole or in part by the school board of any city or county."

On yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding, the contracting parties being James Clayton Terry, a prosperous merchant of Turner, Ark., and Miss Salie White Johnston, a charming brunette of Salem. The groom's best man was J. Horace Smith. Miss Fannie Berkeley, of Farmville, acted as maid of honor, attired in a pretty street costume. Promptly at the hour appointed, Mr. Terry and his best man advanced from the north and south wings of the church, while the ushers and bridal party advanced from the front in the following order: Ushers, J. S. Baer and J. O. White, Jeter Johnston and Dr. Minor Wiley. They were followed by Miss Berkeley, alone, carrying an elegant bouquet of bride's roses, followed by the prospective bride, attired in a handsome blue tailor made gown, and her brother. The soft strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Edward Allemoning, floated through the church and the party finally halted at the chancel, beneath an arch of clematis. The chancel was decorated with cut flowers and palms. The decorations were especially beautiful having been prepared by the fair friends of Miss Johnston. The Rev. E. W. Hubbard united the couple with the simple and impressive ceremony of the Episcopal Church. The young woman was given away by her brother, Wm. Johnston, of Salem. A large crowd witnessed the ceremony, after which the entire bridal party drove to the depot, where the bride and groom took the 4:30 train for their future home in Turner, Ark. The presents of the young couple were numerous and costly and they left amid congratulations and the best wishes of their friends for a happy and radiant future.

CLLED INDEFINITELY.
At a recent business meeting of the members of the Fourth Avenue Christian Church they decided to extend an indefinite call to Rev. Ira W. Kimmel, the pastor, who will likely accept He leaves to-day to attend a meeting in Craig county.

KLONDIKERS RETURNING.
Pack Horses Dying and No One Can Get Over the Trail.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 25.—The steamer which arrived from Alaska this morning was the Willamette and not the Portland, as first reported. The mistake occurred owing to the fact that the Willamette took the outside passage and was escorted into port by three newspaper tugs.

The vessel brought back seven disheartened Klondikers. The officers of the ship report that there were 4,500 persons encamped on the beach when they left and by this time the number will reach 7,000. No one, they say, has as yet got over the trail. Pack horses are dying from hardships.

Broke the Spell.
Up to the time of Cleveland's election it was a popular superstition with politicians that no candidate whose name began with the letter C could be elected to the presidency. The idea arose from the fact that no man whose surname presented this peculiarity, no matter how strong he was with the people, had ever been successful at the polls. There were two Clintons, George and DeWitt. William H. Crawford, Henry Clay, Lewis Cass and a number of others, who, though their prospects seemed bright indeed, met with a defeat when it came to the test. Several of the C's, George Clinton and Henry Clay, for instance, were strong candidates several times, but never could "make the rifle."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

German (to hostess)—Today I was told the donkey he brays.
Hostess—Yes, that's right; we say "The donkey brays."
German—You mean he brays in the church.—Judy.

Origin of Pale Ale.
It is not generally known that India pale ale is so called because it was originally made solely with a view to the climate of the East Indies. Once a vessel containing a number of Bass' hogsheads for the east was wrecked in the channel, but the greater part of the cargo was saved. Among other salvage, the underwriters sold the barrels of ale in London. The new beverage was warmly praised by the Londoners who happened to drink it, and in the course of a short time a demand sprang up throughout the English speaking countries for India pale ale.—San Francisco Argonaut.

A REMARKABLE CURE OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA.
In 1862, when I served my country as a private in Company A, 167th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a 50-cent bottle; and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great remedy, and recommend it to all suffering veterans. If in doubt write me Yours gratefully, HENRY STEINBERGER, Allentown, Pa. Sold by H. C.
