MR. MONTAGUE NOMINATED.

Onancock, Va., Oct. 12.—The joint Democratic convention, representing Accomack and Elizabeth City counties, reassembled at Parksley to-day and declared E. E. Montague, of Hampton, nominee of the party for the house of delegates from these two counties. S. Gordon Cummings, the opponent of Mr. Montague, presented a strong protest against the manner in which the recent primary election was held in Elizabeth City. The convention by a vote of twenty-one to eight rejected the motion to refer back the matter to the Democrats of Elizabeth City, and by the same vote ratified the nomination of Montague. Much feeling was manifested and at times the discussion was very lively.

MR. PLATT PROTESTS.

New York, Oct. 12.—With the election only three weeks removed it looks as if the mixes and snarls in all the tickets will not be straightened out before the election day. The latest move of the Platt machine to-day was to protest against the legality of the Citizens' Union nominees.

THE LAMBKINS ARE ELATED

Representative Walker Declares
For Their Ticket.

AGNEW'S FOLLOWERS ARE DISGUSTED—RUNNING OF A STATE TICKET, THEY FEAR, MAY IMPAIR THE CHANCES OF ELECTING MEMBERS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY—SENATOR DANIEL REFUSES TO ENTER A JOINT DEBATE.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 12.—The Lamb Republicans opened headquarters on Bank street to-day and will wage an active campaign. Chairman Wickham and his supporters will try and arouse the party and bring out a full vote for McCaull, Roller and Lyons, and will also give aid, to all the anti-Democratic candidates for the legislature whether put up by the Agnew committee or not.

Colonel Wickham is greatly elated over a letter just received from Gen. James A. Walker, member of Congress from the Ninth district. There has been some doubt about Gen. Walker's position with respect to the rival factions since the State committee in its meeting at Lynchburg deposed Col. Lamb from the chairmanship. General Walker opposed the action of the committee, but bowed gracefully and said that he would not become a candidate for governor. He is, however, with the Lamb-Wickham element. In his letter to Col. Wickham the Congressman says:

Wytheville, Va., October 8.

To W. F. Wickham, Esq.:
My Dear Sir—Yours of the 17th instant just to hand. I will vote and work for the Republican candidates; and so far as I can hear, all the Republicans in this section will do the same.

Very truly yours,
JAMES A. WALKER.

The Agnew followers do not attempt to conceal their disgust at the nomination of the McCaull ticket, which, they declare, will at best poll a very small vote. These leaders who have been devoting their attention entirely to the fight for members of the legislature are as much annoyed as disgusted. This concern grows out of the fear that the running of the State ticket may seriously affect the canvass for the members of the general assembly.

One of the Agnew leaders said to-night that their plans in this respect had been greatly upset. They had expected to secure the election this fall of a sufficient number of lawmakers committed to a revision of the election laws to insure the repeal of the Walton law, and the enactment of a more satisfactory one, but they confess that there is little hope of accomplishing this.

INDORSED A DEMOCRAT.

Fredericksburg, Va., Oct. 12.—At Bowling Green to-day S. E. Pitts declined the Republican nomination for the legislature from Caroline county, tendered him several days ago. The Republicans then endorsed the candidacy of Dr. W. D. Quisenberry, who was to-day nominated by the Democrats of that county for the legislature. Dr. Quisenberry has taken a decided stand for pure election laws, and it is thought that he will have no opposition in the general election.

At Louisa court to-day Col. P. H. McCaull, Republican candidate for governor, challenged Senator John W. Daniel for a joint debate. Col. Daniel refused and each spoke to separate audiences. Col. McCaull arrived here to-night from Louisa and challenged Major Tyler for a joint debate, but the proposition was declined.

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 12.—The Lamb faction of the Republican party met here to-day and named George L. Barton, general manager of the Suffolk and Caroline railway, for the house of delegates. The Agnew-Bowden faction held an opposition convention at the same time, but failed to make nominations.

A JUDGE ON INJUNCTIONS.

Their Excessive Use by Courts Strongly
Condemned in Colorado.

Denver, Col., Oct. 12.—Judge Wilson, of the court of appeals, with Judges Thompson and Bissell concurring, rendered an opinion to-day in which he made a vigorous attack on "government by injunction."

In the case of H. Schradske against the Appel Clothing Company, in which the former was given a perpetual injunction by the lower court restraining the company from advertising a certain stock of goods as bankrupt goods, the court of appeals reversed the decree and remands the case to the trial court with instructions to dismiss and dissolve the bill.

"We cannot approve a practice," said Judge Wilson, "nor subscribe to a doctrine which permits the exercise by the courts of the extraordinary power of injunctive relief from every wrong or infringement upon the rights of another. Such a course of procedure, if carried to its ultimate natural conclusion, would tend to subvert entirely the fundamental principles upon which our system of laws is founded."

SWEPT BY TORNADO, FLOODED BY WATER.

Large Area Around New York
Damaged by the Elements.

New York, Oct. 12.—A tornado which swept this part of the country this afternoon caused a small flood with great damage. Several people are reported killed.

The flood extended over a large area of country. The most serious damage was at Reading, Pa., where the streets were converted into streams. Many people had to be rescued from their homes by firemen.

At Elizabethport, N. J., James Carr was killed by a falling building and many outhouses were destroyed.

In this city the flagpole of the city hall was blown down. It was 300 feet above the ground. Several people were injured by it and a panic was created. The yacht White Dove was blown ashore on Liberty Island.

MISS CISNEROS ARRIVES.

The Brave Young Spanish Girl
is in This Country.

New York, Oct. 12.—Miss Evangelina Cossio y Cisneros, the girl of seventeen years, who escaped from a Spanish prison in Havana, arrived here to-day. A demonstration to witness Miss Cisneros was planned by the Cubans, and for that purpose the most prominent members of the Cuban colony were asked to meet in the evening in the office of the junta at No. 50 New street. About 5 p. m. all the persons invited to the demonstration received word that for some reason it was put off until further notice.

It was learned afterwards that the Cubans' counsel, Hortio S. Rutens had a conference with some persons interested in Miss Cisneros' fate on account of rumors that either Spain would ask from this government the extradition of Miss Cisneros, or that the Spanish government had already asked for it. It was thought prudent to conceal Miss Cisneros in some safe place until her rights should be decided.

The offense for which Miss Cisneros was awaiting trial in Havana, according to Weyler and the Spanish, renders her liable to extradition.

Miss Cisneros, Weyler says, planned to kidnap the governor of the island of Pines, Senor Berriz, and inspired the Cubans there for that purpose.

The truth is, the Cubans say, that she only defended her honor against Berriz, who is a favorite of Weyler. Even if she had helped Cuban revolutionists to seize a Spanish governor in time of war, her offense is a political one, and consequently not extraditable. But the friends of Miss Cisneros do not want to take any chances. So Miss Cisneros was smuggled out of town by them to-day.

SUICIDE TO AID SCIENCE.

Peculiar Manner in Which Dr. T. T. Munroe Obtained Death.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 12.—Dr. T. T. Munroe, of Union, S. C., committed suicide at the Hotel Alvin to-day with the joint purpose of escaping from the morphia habit and of benefiting science. He came here a few days ago with Dr. J. T. Going, of Aiken, S. C., to consult a specialist with reference to treatment for himself.

The specialist prescribed a course and the two physicians retired to their rooms last night. In a careless conversation Dr. Going remarked that if any member of the profession dared to commit suicide he should permit a fellow physician to take notes on the approach of death for the benefit of mankind.

Dr. Munroe went to bed and shortly after called Dr. Going. The latter found the bed clothes bathed in blood, flowing from veins which Dr. Munroe had severed in several parts of his body. The latter calmly told him to "take notes," and though his brother physician worked heroically, in twenty minutes he was a corpse. He had a large practice in his native city, and leaves a wife and two children, now on their way to Atlanta.

NO TROUBLE FEARED.

Washington, Oct. 12.—At the Cabinet meeting this afternoon it was decided that the enterprise of the New York Journal in rescuing Miss Cisneros will cause no international complications.

ANARCHISTS CAUSE A RIOT

Three Persons Killed and Probably Fifty Injured.

A MONSTER DEMONSTRATION IN THE HOLY CITY—THE DISTURBANCE ORIGINATED WITH A PROCESSION OF 50,000 MERCHANTS WHO PARADED IN PROTEST OF EXCESSIVE TAXATION—TROOPS CALLED OUT—A FIGHT ENSUES.

Rome, Oct. 12.—A monster procession of 50,000 merchants and shopkeepers paraded the streets of Rome to-day as a protest against the proposed income tax. A deputation representing the protesters waited upon the prime minister, the Marquis di Rudini, and formally presented a petition. The premier promised that justice should be done.

After the procession had marched over its prescribed route, anarchists took advantage of the occasion to start a riot, which assumed a very serious character before it was quelled. The rioters were armed with sticks, stones and revolvers and used these weapons effectively. Troops were called out to put down the disturbances, but the rioters turned upon the soldiers and fought them desperately. Several of the troops were wounded and one workman was killed. Order was finally restored and a number of arrests were made.

It has been learned that three persons were killed. Probably fifty were severely injured, while a large number were slightly hurt.

The scene of the fiercest fighting was in the Piazza Navona, outside the ministry of the interior, the windows of which were wrecked. Troops patrolled the city during the night. Everything is quiet now.

In consequence of the riot the prefect has ordered that the Roman Socialist Union be dissolved.

The city this afternoon presented a remarkable aspect. All the shops and even the cafes were closed, and notices on the shutters stating that they had been closed for fiscal reasons. The streets leading to the capitol were thronged with enormous crowds. The committee that headed the procession included the mayor and the president of the board of trade. Having regard for the respectability of the demonstration the Marquis di Rudini, prime minister, and the minister of the interior had not ordered any special police precautions.

Doubtless the organizers of the demonstration intended to be orderly and dignified and did not foresee the presence of the professional agitators and riot mongers. Immediately after the procession started the latter raised cries of "Down with taxes," "Down with the ministry."

The excitement, which was great, culminated while the committee was interviewing the prime minister. The police, who numbered only forty, received reinforcement.

A squad of gendarmes arriving with fixed bayonets incensed the crowd, which it is estimated numbered 15,000. The shouts changed to "Down with the bayonets," and stones were torn from the streets and hurled at the gendarmes, who were also struck with fists.

When the troops arrived the fury of the mob was further increased and there was more stoning. A refuse cart passing, some of the mob seized its contents and showered them upon the troops and gendarmes. The carts were smashed into fragments, which were used as weapons. Soon the entire street was a mass of fighting humanity. Knives and revolvers were freely used. More troops were hurried to the scene and the disturbance was ultimately quelled.

Although the violence was primarily due to the lawless element, the affair is significant and will cause the ministry to reflect. The grievance consists in the arbitrary mode of assessing commercial and professional incomes, which are taxed 20 per cent. The assessment is done by agents whose numbers have been doubled and trebled throughout the country during the present year, doubtless at the government's orders.

CLOSED ITS DOORS.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 12.—The Western Carolina Bank failed to open its doors this morning. The following notice was posted: "This bank closed for liquidation." There was a large number of depositors and great was the excitement among them to-day.

NEW YORK DAY.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 12.—New York day was celebrated with appropriate exercises in the auditorium at the Tennessee centennial exposition grounds this morning. The weather was good and the attendance large. Lieut. Gov. Woodruff, of New York, was the chief speaker.

SUICIDE IN MONTGOMERY.

East Radford, Va., Oct. 12.—Special.—Mrs. N. H. Price, who resided near Rice Forks, Montgomery county, committed suicide about 10 o'clock Monday morning by shooting herself over the left eye with a 32-calibre revolver. Death was instantaneous. Mrs. Price had been addicted to the morphia habit for a long time, and failing to get the drug at the time she wanted it she took her life.

THE REPORT WAS CONSIDERED LAST NIGHT.

The Recommendations of the Finance Committee Adopted.

The City Council held an adjourned meeting last night in the Council chamber. President Terry was in the chair. The following members were present: Messrs. Page, Evans, Buckner, Muller, Seifert, Coulbourn, Woods, Witt, Mays, Fox, Hodgson, Guy and Strickland.

After the reading of the report of the finance committee on the report of Expert Accountant Callahan, the various recommendations of the committee were taken up and adopted. The report of the committee has already been published in full in The Times.

The recommendation of the finance committee as to the account of W. A. Noble and the taking of the proper steps to recover the amount which he misappropriated from his bondsmen was adopted. Upon the consideration of the question Mr. Buckner called attention to the disparagement between the reports of Expert Accountant Jacobs and Callahan as to the condition of the auditor's office.

A motion offered by Mr. Fage requiring the city treasurer to furnish Council at the end of each month a trial balance showing the exact amount of money in the treasury, the resolution to take effect November 1, was adopted.

The resignation of City Sergeant Tillett as collector of delinquent taxes was received by the Council and accepted.

M. Andrews made application for the position made vacant and the matter was referred to the finance committee for report to the Council.

On motion of Mr. Buckner the acceptance of the resignation of Mr. Tillett above referred to was reconsidered and the matter was laid on the table until the next meeting of Council.

On motion of Mr. Buckner the Council instructed the city auditor to draw a warrant refunding $5 to Wm. Watts Camp Confederate Veterans for the use of the old opera house.

Reports from the committees on fire and water and public property were received and filed.

A petition was received and read from the Sisters of Charity asking that an electric light be placed at St. Andrew's Orphanage, and was referred to the light committee with power to act.

A communication was received from a committee appointed by a citizens mass meeting, a notice of which appeared in The Times of yesterday. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

A report was received from the city physician in which he asked the Council to please define his duties.

A communication was read from the board of health, which was referred to the mayor to investigate.

Council on motion of Mr. Buckner adjourned to meet again at the call of the president.

CUP MONEY DISTRIBUTION.

Each Baltimore Player Gets $310 and Each Bostonian Gets About $207.

Baltimore, Oct. 12.—The new and the old champions gathered at the Entaw House last night about 8 o'clock to divide the Temple Cup money. After much figuring by Managers Hanlon and Selee and their secretaries, they arrived at the following results:

The total receipts were in the neighborhood of $12,000, but the expenses were quite heavy, so that less than $10,000 was left for distribution.

Baltimore's share was $5,580 and Boston's $3,720. Each share was divided into eighteen parts, each Baltimore player receiving $310 and each Boston player a fraction less than $207.

Besides this, the Baltimore and Boston players divided equally the money from the two exhibition games of last week, each player receiving $47 clear of expenses.

The Orioles had still another sum to divide for an exhibition game at Hoboken. Each man got $30 for that, so that the total sum received by the Baltimore players was $597 apiece.

All the players came in for a full share except Maul and Kitson. Anole got his full share, although he joined the team late in the season. The scene about the Entaw House last night was by no means as hilarious or enthusiastic as the year before in Cleveland, when the three-time champions vanquished their old-time antagonists, the cohorts of Tebeau. Then the Temple Cup was filled with champagne again and again and drained.

Although the cup was not on hand last night, the champagne was not lacking. H. R. Vonderhorst, with characteristic hospitality, insisted that his players and the Bostonians, while waiting for the settlement, should join him in a few dozen cold bottles, and his health was drunk by the old and new champions many times and three cheers for Vonderhorst were given several times.

WADDILL IN WASHINGTON.

There to Write an Address to Virginia Republicans.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Judge Edmund R. Waddill, Jr., the noted Virginia Republican, is at the Ebbitt. Judge Waddill is here to consult with other Old Dominion Republicans on matters of general party interest, but his principal mission is to prepare an address to the Republican voters in answer to the address lately given out by the Lamb wing of the party, which nominated Hon. Pat McCaull at Lynchburg. Judge Waddill, in common with Messrs. Brady, Agnew, Allen and others, is opposed to the nomination of a State ticket this year, and in the forthcoming address will make plain the policy of the dominant wing of the party.

A RIOT OVER CRAPS.

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—Twenty colored prisoners created a riot in the county jail this afternoon over a game of craps. Several were badly injured and all of them were confined to dungeons.

TAMMANY FACES DEFEAT

Only Hope is to Alienate the Supporters of George.

DISTRICT LEADERS' REPORTS ARE NOT ENCOURAGING—ONLY ONE DEMOCRATIC GOVERNOR HAS ANSWERED SHEEHAN IN FAVOR OF VAN WYCK—AN APPEAL TO GOLD DEMOCRATS FOR FUNDS MEETS WITH A CHILLY RECEPTION.

New York, Oct. 12.—The Tammany district leaders have reported that the feeling in favor of the candidacy of Henry George is so strong among the poorer voters that something must be done to stop it or the defeat of the Tammany ticket is assured. This warning has been heeded and it was said to-night that it has been decided to use the fact that Millardre Tom L. Johnson is managing the George campaign to disorganize the workingmen. Banners will be put up in the tenement districts ridiculing the George movement, it is said, and also Johnson.

John C. Sheehan has at last secured a favorable reply to his appeal to Democratic governors of States to back up the candidacy of Van Wyck for mayor. It came to-day from Governor Johnson, of Alabama. As this is the only one which Mr. Sheehan has made public and so many Democratic governors have declared that Mr. Sheehan has a lot of letters and telegrams which would make better campaign material for George than for Van Wyck. Tammany's appeal for campaign funds is meeting with a chilly reception in the money center. A circular letter issued by Sheehan was sent to the gold Democrats, who have usually been counted on for contributions.

It carefully refrained from any mention of the Chicago platform or the attitude of the organization in last year's Presidential contest, and the hope was entertained by Mr. Sheehan that the substantial men of the party would forget that Tammany stood in 1896 for silver. The hope was vain, for those in Wall street who received the circular, almost to a man, tore it up and threw it into the waste basket. Tammany's double dealing in this campaign is not bringing much to its leaders. Gold Democrats refuse to contribute to her campaign fund and the Bryan men will withhold their votes from her candidate.

Tammany's district leaders are under instructions to whom things up for the ticket, to announce accessions from every quarter to their ranks and to predict on every possible occasion a Tammany Hall victory. Those orders were given by Richard Croker, who has told his lieutenants that nothing wins votes like enthusiasm. The district leaders are doing their best to obey these orders, but the real fact is that their hearts are not in the business, and when they are not talking for the public, but let their friends see their real thoughts, they admit that the situation for the Tammany ticket is just as desperate as it was when they were all wearing plum faces waiting to see what stripe of corner politically would sit on the Tiger. They say, too, that the man who tells them to laugh and shout and predict victory for the ticket is the man who has made it hard work. A leader of the executive committee, discussing this subject, says:

"If it had not been for Mr. Croker's return and his insistence on running the machine again, I believe Tammany would have won in a walk. I cannot see how he has strengthened us by taking hold again. He certainly has not attracted the votes which we need. The only thing which can be said in his behalf is that Mr. Croker is perhaps the only man who could keep the machine together and working in harmony. But we need something more than a machine when Henry George threatens to make such a drain on our voting strength. We need more votes and I think we could get more if Mr. Croker had stayed in England and kept his hands off this fight."

It is announced that at the ratification meeting to be held at Tammany Hall on Thursday night ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio; Arthur P. Gorman, Jr., of Maryland; and John B. Stanchfield, of Elmira, will speak.
