SALEM

EDWARD JETER, REPORTER.

There was a card published in the Salem Times-Register of the 23d instant, respecting the difficulties existing in the First Baptist Church of this place. Rev. B. F. Fox, the former pastor of the church, claims that the publication misrepresents facts, and thus places him before the public in a false light. He therefore proposes to give the public facts respecting the matter in an article which will appear in the next issue of the Salem Sentinel.

Miss M. D. Ha'e, of Washington, D. C., is visiting in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Ayres, at their Market street home.

The Mahone property, situated on Maryland avenue, was sold yesterday under a mortgage and bought by S. O. Fisher, of Lynchburg, for $800.

J. W. F. Allemon and wife left yesterday for a visit to friends in Harrisonburg.

Regular services will be held today at the Episcopal and Presbyterian Churches. The Rev. J. M. Lucas, of Hollins, will occupy the pulpit this morning at the Baptist and at night the conquest service of the B. Y. P. U. will take place. This morning at 11 a. m. the Rev. James E. Armstrong will preach the initiatory sermon of a series of revival services, in which he will be assisted by the Rev. S. S. Lambeth, of Bedford City. Mr. Lambeth will not arrive in Salem until Monday. Dr. Painter, of the college, will preach this morning in the Lutheran church. In case of a night service or lecture it will be announced from the pulpit at the morning hour.

C. O. Murray, on returning from a hunt one day last week was asked, what luck? He replied 4 pheasants, 8 wild turkeys, 10 squirrels, 2 bears and one elephant. This was a very lengthy way of answering the old question which a fisherman in ill luck would have disposed of with a single line.

As in all things else, William Jennings Bryan is showing his good sense by keeping out of New York politics, even if, as the Washington Post states, Tammany and the followers of George have long memories. The followers of these demagogues are not the only people with memories.

Wilkes Kyle, a well-known Salem man, principally known by an unfortunate affliction of the feet, known to science as elephantiasis, while discussing politics on the street a few days ago said: "Of course I see you to vote for Mars Pat McCaull, cause he's running for governor of the United States." Apropos to the above a colored gentleman from Roanoke a few days ago, insisted on telling a Salem colored man that D. C. Moomaw was running for the house of delegates and that Pat McCaull was running for the legislature.

Mrs. S. D. McCommon and her daughter, Gertrude, left Friday for their future home near Charleston, W. Va.

Mrs. Horine left Friday for Chattanooga, Tenn., where she went to purchase a farm near that city, where in the future her husband and son will engage in stock raising.

The laws have been complied with by the electoral board, registrars, etc., and the same voting places will be used in the different wards and precincts as formerly with the exception of the new voting precinct in the western part of the county, known as Glenvar, where the balloting will be done at T. P. Harman's store. As Salem is a very quiet town, a quiet Tuesday is expected with good indications at present of fair weather and an average vote.

Friday evening a coon of the ring-tailed variety was sighted in the large aspen tree in the front yard at "Monterey." His comings was dispatched with a double barreled gun in the hands of Charlton Oakley.

Mrs. Charlotte Harvey, after a pleasant visit to friends in Lexington and Bedford City, Va., has returned to Salem.

Nat Hartman, the snake tamer and weather prophet, says that we will have a mild winter. The hornets, he says, have built their nests this year high up in the trees, which is an infallible sign. As we have not examined the hog meat or the goose bone yet, we will have to accept his theory, but when we examine the marriage register we are somewhat sceptical.

A runaway accident occurred yesterday morning back of T. J. Shipman's store, which might have been serious, but fortunately was not. The house attached to the Salem roller mill wagon ran away, smashing the wagon and throwing the young driver, Brown Webber, out against a fence. The boy was bruised, but not seriously hurt.

The Democratic campaign club of Salem was addressed on last Friday night in the courthouse by Hon. A. P. Staples, of Roanoke city. Mr. Staples' remarks were timely and to the point and were greatly appreciated by the audience, which was composed of the home and sine of the Democracy of this section. He dwelt with force upon the progress Virginia has made under Democratic rule, yet at the same time showed that there could be and was progress without prosperity, which was caused by the present financial system of the Federal government that did not give the people a sufficient circulating medium. He showed by statistics that Virginia in 1890 raised over twice as much wheat, corn, oats and other farm products as she did in 1870, yet the products of 1870 sold for over nine millions dollars more than did the products of 1890. In 1890 we had the free coinage of silver, and were not afflicted with the evil of a gold standard as we were in 1870. He showed how the free school system of Virginia had progressed under the Democratic State administrations, and that it is now equal to any in any State in the Union, Massachusetts not excepted. Col. R. H. Logan also addressed the club, urging them to do all they could to secure the election of Hicks and Caldwell.

R. W. Kime and Wm. Simpson addressed the voters of Cave Spring last night.

Salem people, don't forget on Monday night at the Roanoke Academy of Music, the big minstrel attraction. This is the largest minstrel show now traveling. Don't fail to see the street parade at 11 o'clock.

THE Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland is the largest Southern bond company. Assets, $2,301,290.12. Bonds can be given in ten minutes. Rates very low. The largest fire companies in the world represented. CHARLES LUNSFORD & SONS, Agents, office corner Campbell and Jefferson.

The man who awakens from a deep sleep, just in time to ward off the blow of an assassin, who, knife in hand, is preparing to drive it into his heart, has had a narrow escape. There are thousands of grateful men who have aroused themselves from the lethargy of recklessness and neglect, just in time to ward off the deadly assault of that dread enemy of mankind consumption.

The weapon with which we have successfully combated this grim destroyer has been Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the only known medicine that will prevent and cure consumption. Taken in time, it will always ward off this deadly disease, and even after the devastating germs have attacked the lungs, it cures 98 percent of all cases. It acts directly on the lungs, building up new, healthy tissues and driving out all disease germs. It corrects all stomach and digestive troubles, invigorates the liver and makes the appetite keen, the blood rich and the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and nerve tonic. There is nothing else "just as good" and the druggist who says so is untruthful.

"I was a sufferer for five or six years from indigestion, sore stomach, and constant headaches," writes R. F. Holmes, of Gaffney, Spartanburg Co., S. C. "I tried several of our best physicians and found no permanent relief. By the persuasion of Mr. J. R. Tolleson, a friend of mine, I commenced on the 28th September, 1895, to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets,' which gave me relief in a few days. Since then I have used five bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and five vials of 'Pellets.' When I commenced using the medicines I could not sleep, had a restless uneasy feeling all the time, and my skin was yellow and dry. I weighed only 145 pounds. I now weigh 170 pounds, have a good color, and rest well at night. I have a good appetite, can eat anything I want. For two years, while under treatment by a physician, I ate nothing but Graham bread."

In reference to the above letter, J. R. Tolleson, P. O. Box 175, Gaffney, Spartanburg Co., S. C., writes: "The above Mr. R. F. Holmes, is a good christian gentleman, and one whose word will go a long way with those who know him. I use and sell Dr. Pierce's medicines, and I recommended them to Mr. Holmes."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure that disease-producing disorder, constipation. They never fail. They never gripe. Druggists sell them.
