The latest designs in Tiffany visiting and calling cards; wedding cabinets; commercial and octavo note for ladies, at THE STAR office.

Mrs. J. C. Frink and child, also her mother, Mrs. Mattox, of Jensen, have been stopping at Mrs. Deisner's boarding for a day or so.

Mr. Baile and wife, of Jacksonville, arrived Sunday afternoon. Mr. Baile is now in the employ of Julius Kline, in the latter's drygoods emporium.

The year-old babe of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Osban, of Mims, died Tuesday night of dysentery. Undertaker Frocher had charge of the burial Wednesday.

Mr. Haggerty's little sloop capsized during the storm of Tuesday night, probably caused by the ballast shifting to one side and the rain water in the boat.

Archdeacon Brown's appointments for Sunday next will be as follows: St. Mark's church, Cocoa, in the morning; St. John's church, Eau Gallie, at night.

After spending the winter in Orlando Mr. Fred Wright returned to his old love, Titusville, again last week. He paid a visit to Jacksonville, but did not care to remain there.

Capt. Geo. E. Andrews left his launch, the Whistling, with Capt. Peter Nelson last week for the summer season, returning to his home at Tibbals same day of his arrival.

Mr. P. A. Vans-Agnew, of Kissimmee, editor of the Valley Gazette, gave us a pleasant call yesterday. He was here for a day or so on legal business before Judge Jones.

Mr. Yost, of Kentucky, a practical piano tuner, who has been spending some time at Coronado Beach, stopped in Titusville several days the past week, leaving Tuesday for Sanford.

Capt. Nelson has been overhauling his mariae ways and has secured deeper water for hauling out all kinds of water craft. He can take any boat with 38 inches draft now at low stage of water.

Mr. S. N. Gladwin sent another new fish boat to Fort Pierce last week. He is thinking of building round bottom fish boats, as deeper draft boats are used to advantage on the lower river in fishing.

Messrs. W. R. Walker and Fronie Cleveland, of Grant, who are in charge of the branch fish business of G. W. Scobie, at that place, were in town Sunday, returning to their post of duty Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Maurice Walsh left Saturday for St. Louis, where he will only spend a few days, as he has to be in the Hotel Champlain, N. Y., two weeks earlier than usual. This resort opens this year to-morrow, the 15th inst.

Mr. W. M. Woodward was among the passengers leaving here Sunday afternoon. He is spending a few days this week in West Palm Beach and Miami prospecting with a view perhaps to locating at one of these places.

Miss Bessie Bryan, of Clarksville, Tenn., who is now stopping at Erin, Tenn., has withdrawn her application for position in the public school at this place. We expect, however, to see her return to Titusville this coming fall.

Mr. S. D. Geiger spent a few days with his wife and the two babies the latter part of last week, leaving Sunday afternoon for the pineapple belt, West Palm Beach and the tomato section of Dade in the interest of the Germania Insurance company.

So many base rumors have been in circulation in regard to the delayed trains Wednesday that it may be well to correct them by stating the facts, which are as follows: The northbound was delayed at Mico station by the trucks of the mail car getting off the track, necessitating help to arrive from Fort Pierce. The southbound that day was held at New Smyrna several hours by a disabled locomotive on the northbound freight. The passenger locomotive had to pull the freight into New Smyrna before the former could pass.

Circuit Judge Jones was taken ill down the river this week while attempting to reach home to be present at his son's wedding Wednesday. He has been confined to his residence ever since and could not be present at the ceremony. Also both of the judge's sons, Stanley and Wade, have been quite ill this week, the former is down with fever and the latter is suffering from attack of stomach trouble. So the family is afflicted with sickness at a most unpleasant time, none of them being able to be present at the marriage except the judge's daughter, Miss Annie.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our sincerest thanks to all our friends for their loving and tender kindness during the brief illness and death of our darling baby boy and infant son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. OSBOURNE.
Mims, Fla., June 13th, 1901.

Real Estate Transaction.

Mr. H. Julius Smith, of Pompton Lakes, N. J., who has been at Rockledge since Thursday of last week, has secured a contract for the purchase of the J. Q. Stewart place at Bonaventure, on which there are now some 900 orange trees in excellent condition. He will plant out 25 acres more on the place in oranges. This property is now owned by W. G. Frink and his sister, and the two minor heirs of the late Chas. Magruder, who are under the guardianship of Frink. The latter gives legal notice this week of his intention to apply to County Judge Penney for leave to sell the minor heirs' interests at private sale, which relates to the above contract for sale. Mr. Frank Warner, of Rockledge, will have charge of the property for Mr. Smith. The latter returned north yesterday.

Remember Saturday, June 15th, is the day for school election. Don't fail to vote for the measure.

In Aid of the Gymnasium.

A cantata entitled "Peggy's Dream" was given in the opera house Wednesday evening by members of the gymnasium. Because of the inclement weather only a small sized audience greeted the young people, but those present were simply delighted, and there is a general demand for a repetition when the weather is more favorable.

Peggy, a poor cripple, appears on the stage with a rag doll and talks to it of her hard lines and what she has seen in the windows of the stores. She begins to sing a lullaby to her doll, after wishing she had a fairy godmother, and she herself falls asleep. Then appears a fairy queen who takes up the song and soon the tired cripple is sound asleep and dreams that she sees what the fairy invokes. First comes Miss Bunny and Miss Kitty Cat capering about the stage and singing; second, she calls for Little Bo-peep, who comes waltzing upon the stage and sings about her sheep. Then comes Little Boy Blue, famous for his horn and sleeping in the hay. Then comes Old Mother Hubbard, but at the command of the fairy she has left her dog at home. The fairy then calls for Miss Muffit and her horrid old spider; Old King Cole, the merry old soul, with his pipe and bowl comes prancing upon the stage, followed by Jack and Jill, who tumble on the stage with their celebrated pail. A Brownie next appeared skating about the stage and singing that he dreaded a public display.

MERRY WEDDING BELLS.

The Marriage of Mr. John C. Jones and Miss Sallie Hall.

The showery weather of Wednesday afternoon and evening, following the storm of that morning and the day before, could hardly have been considered an unpleasant feature in connection with such a happy event as the wedding of two of the most prominent young people of Brevard county, had not Byron, the poet of love, had something to say many years ago about "doomed is the bride that the rain falls on," etc., but nowadays superstitions of poets has given place to a more advanced train of sentiment, and their sayings of long ago no more count for aught.

Mr. John Calhoun Jones and Miss Sallie Winnifred Hall were married Wednesday evening, 12th inst., at the residence of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch W. Hall, in North Titusville, Rev. A. D. Penney tying the nuptial knot in his usual appropriate and impressive manner.

The bride wore a gown made up of white organdie over white silk, with trimmings of white satin, ribbons and lace. The groom was attired in the conventional black.

The ceremony, which commenced promptly at 8 o'clock, was witnessed by only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and several very near friends. The parlor, in which the marriage took place, was profusely trimmed with flowers, masses of them being hung in festoons around the room, about the bay window, and here overhead was suspended a floral horse shoe, which hung directly over the bride and groom while they pledged their troth, while the floral initial letters H and J were suspended on either side and almost directly in front of them.

Those present were Mr. J. M. Sanders and family, of Cocoa; Mrs. R. A. Hardee, Mr. G. B. Hall and family, Sebastian; Mr. T. L. Paine, St. Lucie; Rev. A. D. Penney and wife, Mr. D. B. Pritchard, Miss Zandie Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hall and daughter, Miss Bessie, Miss Annie Jones.

As soon as the ceremony was over congratulations were showered upon them and refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, olives, chicken salad, ice cream, cake and lemonade.

The bride received numerous wedding gifts, very handsome in design, and many very useful for housekeeping, showing the wide circle of friends and relatives who esteem her so highly. We append a list of these gifts, which has been handed us for publication, below. A reporter of THE STAR was invited yesterday to inspect the wedding gifts, and the sight was enough to dazzle the eyes and fill the hearts of any young couple to the brim with pleasure.

The groom is the eldest son of our distinguished townsman, Hon. Minor S. Jones, judge of the Seventh judicial circuit. A young man of sterling integrity, full of energy and determination, he is bound to make a success in life of whatever he undertakes. He is too well and favorably known throughout this county to need any encomiums of praise from us. He has just been appointed by Governor Jennings as county commissioner for the Fourth district, and he will enjoy the distinction of being the youngest member that has ever served on the board in this county.

The bride is one of the most agreeable, entertaining and loveable young ladies that we know of. Coupled with these attributes she possesses a business tact and thoroughness of purpose which has made her the main reliance of her father in so ably carrying out the duties of tax collector for this county for a number of years. She has a host of friends up and down Indian river who realize that she will be a helpmeet to her husband in the fullest sense.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will remain in Titusville until the first part of the coming month, after which they will be at home at their fine orange grove and plantation generally known as Klondike, situated about twelve miles west of Indian River Narrows.

THE STAR wishes them a voyage full of happiness and prosperity over the seas of life, which we trust may be so smooth that not a ripple of adversity or misfortune may ever attend them.

A Heavy Rainstorm.

This section of Florida was visited by a wind and rainstorm this week that has no parallel on record for this season of the year. Monday night it commenced raining, and with increasing rainfall and wind from northeast it continued all day Tuesday, all Tuesday night and until Wednesday afternoon, when the wind had veered more to the southward. This excessive rainfall places us ahead of the normal rainfall even up to July 1st. The heavy easterly winds and the rains have raised the water in the river about to its summer height. The weather since Sunday has had all the appearance of a cyclone, and had this storm come upon us about two months later it would have been termed a mild cyclone.

The rainfall for 24 hours from Tuesday at 7 a. m. until Wednesday was 2.84 inches. The heaviest rainfall followed this, and the total rainfall since Monday up to yesterday aggregated 5.64 inches.

Remember Saturday, June 15th, is the day for school election. Don't fail to vote for the measure.

A $10,000 libel suit has been filed in the circuit court for Hillsborough county by St. Petersburg parties. B. H. Tinkelpaugh files suit against H. B. Strada, and it is understood that the allegation is the alienation of the affections of Mrs. Tinkelpaugh from the complainant.

A large grampus, or blackfish, as it is known here, came into Key West harbor a few days ago and was captured by one of the crew of the steamer Florida. The United States court was very busy last week at Key West over the condemnation proceedings of squares 16, 26 and 27. A special venire of eighteen jurors was drawn to select a jury to decide on the valuation of the property. The government has assessed the property at $95,500. Some of the valuations made meet with the approval of the owners, while others fall far short of their expectations. E. M. Martin and George I. Dade county seems to have solved the problem of good roads satisfactorily. Since the arrival of the steam road roller, recently purchased, enough experiments have been made to satisfy the most exacting. The machine weighs twelve and one-half tons, and is built something on the order of a traction engine. An experiment was made last week on a rough, uneven plat of stone that had been laid on the side of the public road near Buena Vista. On reaching it the front crushers mounted the stone without difficulty, while the broad rear wheels crushed it to atoms.

Remember Saturday, June 15th, is the day for school election. Don't fail to vote for the measure.
