COCOA.

Watermelons—yum, yum! and the darkie that hasn't got a big slice is not happy.

Mr. R. N. Andrews was at the county's hub on Monday in attendance at school board meeting.

The Emporium has enlarged its sales-room by the removal of the partition between it and the room back to the south. New goods and big trade make the demand.

Mrs. Muncey, of Brooklyn, who has been in Cocoa for a fortnight on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. G. Paterson, and father, Mr. A. I. Moore, returned to her home on Tuesday.

Miss Annie Bulloch, who is the guest of Miss Carter, has been laid up with a sprained or strained ankle, resulting from a fall off her bicycle last week. She is improving rapidly and her friends are glad.

Two questions answered. Why do so many people patronize the "Emporium"? Because the goods are new and up-to-date, and they are sold at low-down prices. Before buying elsewhere call and see them.

Dr. Schofield has left for his trip north. He will visit Pablo-by-the-Sea on his way and take in the mountains of Georgia and North Carolina on his way to the Pan-American and the old home at Stamford, Conn.

Mrs. Capt. McIntyre, of Miami, stopped off at Cocoa to visit a few days with friends. She was the guest of Mrs. W. G. Paterson. The lady was en route to Daytona and Seabreeze for the summer. Mrs. Paterson will join her there soon and spend the heated term.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Paterson took the train at Cocoa on Friday en route to Murfreesboro, Tenn. They will visit Black Mountain, N. C., where Miss Grace is visiting her brother, and take her with them to Chicago, their ultimate destination.

ROCKLEDGE.

Miss Mamie Hardee left Tuesday for West Palm Beach and is the guest of her young friend, Miss Anita Canova.

Mr. Chas. P. Singleton returned home from West Palm Beach on Monday for a visit with his parents, brothers and sisters.

Mr. T. G. Ronald has gotten his new launch into the water and her name is "Utilis." She is to be useful as well as beautiful.

Misses Gertrude Breese and Myra Williams left for West Palm Beach Tuesday to spend the Fourth in merrymaking. They took in the ball, of course.

visit with Mrs. S. W. O'Brien at Daytona. They will mingle with other merrymakers at Seabreeze and celebrate the glorious Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White leave tomorrow, Saturday, for their intended trip to Washington, Buffalo and Michigan. They stop over at Daytona until Monday to visit with Mrs. Porter.

Mr. Geo. Gingras improved the opportunity to visit his sister, Mrs. A. J. Canova, at Palm Beach on the Fourth, and partaking of that city's celebration of the national natal day anniversary.

Sunshine and shadow, breezes and showers make pleasant the days and nights of midsummer, and the orange trees to rapidly put on new growth, which give them various tints of color.

When is the street commissioner going to turn his attention to Barton avenue? The road is in a dreadful condition, a menace to both team and vehicle. Something should be done this summer regarding it.

The old May packing house that has stood so long as an eyesore of Indian River avenue has been removed, and has greatly improved the appearance of the avenue. There is another on the Wooten place that would further improve the appearance of the avenue by its removal, either by tearing away or by relegating it to the back yard.

Miss Maude Hardee left on Tuesday for New York where she will put herself into training in order that her school teaching may be brought up to its highest standard. Miss Maude has taken up the arduous work of teaching with an eye single to success, and she will succeed. Parents and patrons as well as pupils should give her all the aid possible.

Wedding announcements have been received of the coming nuptials, this month, of Miss Genevieve Barnes and Mr. W. H. Schoonmaker, to be celebrated at the home of the bride's parents at North Haven, Conn. Miss Barnes has spent many winters in Rockledge and is a favorite of the guests of the New Rockledge as well as of the town. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Shares. Mr. Schoonmaker is from New York city, and he with his parents are winter visitors to Florida and Rockledge is their headquarters. He is a distant relative of Capt. C. J. Schoonmaker, of Cocoa. Many wishes for happiness flow out in best thoughts for the young people.

MELBOURNE.

Mrs. M. Michell is home again from Jensen.

Mr. A. J. Goode has built a substantial ice house in his fish house.

Miss Jennie Miller arrived home last Saturday from Bonaventure.

The Conkling brothers are making some improvements in the drug store.

Mr. A. J. Hoke returned home from Ankona last week and finds work to do here.

Mr. Count, of Orlando, has been the guest of the McBride House the past week.

Mr. Chas. Mossman has finished painting the Goode cottage, on New Haven avenue.

Mrs. Addison Fee and children made quite a visit to Mrs. G. F. Paddison, of Eau Gallie.

Mrs. D. B. Clark and little daughter are home again after a pleasant visit to relatives in Loughman, Fla.

The work on New Haven avenue has been done this week under the management of Mr. G. S. Snedeker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker and son Walter returned home last week after spending several months in Ankona and Jensen.

ANKONA.

O. K. Wood, from Stuart, was a pleasant visitor in our place last week.

Mr. E. H. Walker makes his home here during the picking season, with occasional absences to Miami and Palm Beach.

Mrs. Saylor and daughter Alice left some time ago for the north, and are now in New York and Buffalo, whence they will go to Europe later on.

The majority of the pineapples have been harvested and on the whole have proved a short crop. The long continued cold weather and short drouth we had had a tendency to make the apples small and thus not fill near as many crates as everyone expected.

The train called "pick up" has been of great convenience to the growers, and I, for one, am very thankful to the railroad management, as it saved a great deal of night work, sitting up and waiting for the regular train during the worst of the mosquito season.

Mr. Russell has arrived here from Des Moines, Ia., to take charge of the Dr. Ankeny estate, and if possible improve a portion of it. He and W. Schubert, Jr., went to the beach Monday night to hunt turtle eggs. They report any quantity of sand-flies and mosquitoes; fled into the bathing houses near the pavilion at the Eden trail, made a huge smudge and found life more bearable. Going down the beach about two miles they spied a bear cub coming toward them, and with a Winchester and smokeless powder loaded cartridges persuaded the cub to come home with them and be eaten, and first-class meat it was. They went a little further but the eggs they expected to find were conspicuous by their absence.

OAK HILL.

Mr. H. J. Magruder spent Sunday at his home in Rockledge, returning Monday.

Mrs. J. R. Harper has returned from her pleasant stay in Courtenay, much to the delight of her husband and brother.

Miss Brooks Curry, with her little niece, Miss Annabel Williams, will spend the Fourth in Orange City with Mrs. H. L. Ryland.

There were services in the Congregational church Sunday morning conducted by the Rev. J. E. Patillo, who gave us a good sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Barker have had the pleasure of a visit from their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Asa M. Wing, of Bayard.

Mrs. E. S. Contant, who has been spending a few days with Mrs. W. C. Howes, went home Monday, taking the Misses Maud Gamble and May Howes with her to spend the Fourth with Miss Nettie.

Mrs. Walter Null has been at home on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gaines, Mr. Null spending Sunday, and both returning to Daytona Monday. His brother, Mr. Sam Null, was also here for a few days.

Messrs. M. R. Creighton, W. H. Forman and W. W. Dix, of Baltimore, were in town last week. These gentlemen are the executive committee of the Florida East Coast Commercial company, which owns the north 5,000 acres of the Low grant. They expect to begin operations this fall with a view to sawing and marketing the cypress timber and draining and cultivating some of the best lands for sugar raising. We wish them all success in their enterprise.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co.

OSLO.

Several new houses are going up in this place.

Mr. J. E. Jones is to build a fine house. He expects to plant an orange grove.

Mr. J. J. Roberts, of this place, is going to plant several thousand pines and also some orange trees.

Mosquitoes and sand-flies are quite bad in the neighboring settlement, but we hope they will not continue so.

Mr. R. G. Roberts, of Johns island, after shipping nearly fifteen hundred crates of beans has moved over here and bought 20 acres of our best land on which he expects to start an orange grove.

Mr. W. J. Grice, of Johns island, after making a success in growing beans has moved over to Oslo. Mr. Grice will have watermelons ripe in a few days when he may look out for visiting friends.

Dark Hair

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a great many years, and although I am past eighty years of age, yet I have not a gray hair in my head."

Geo. Yellott, Towson, Md.

We mean all that rich, dark color your hair used to have. If it's gray now, no matter; for Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color to gray hair. Sometimes it makes the hair grow very heavy and long; and it stops falling of the hair, too.
