MELBOURNE.

Mr. Frank Gautier, of Crescent City, was a guest of the McBride House Tuesday.

Rev. S. D. Paine is invited to West Palm Beach to deliver the oration on Memorial day, May 30th.

Mr. R. A. Conkling continues to supply our market with plenty of water melons and vegetables of all kinds.

Huckleberries are plentiful at 10 cents per quart or three quarts for 25 cents. Our housewives are busy canning and making jam.

Mr. Chas. T. McBride has added to his store an expensive refrigerator in which to keep a good supply of fresh meat for all seasons.

Messrs. N. Downey, G. S. Snedeker, Claude Beaujean and L. E. Adams have been busy with the addition to the Carter cottage. Mr. Enos Gauger is doing the mason work on the building.

We were grieved to learn that Mr. Chas. Barnes Sanders died last Friday at his home in Indianola. His host of Melbourne friends extend their heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved parents and sisters and brothers.

Another real estate deal on hand. We can tell more about it next week. Melbourne is not on a boom, never was, but we notice a steady growth that looks like business and the class of people who are buying here are the best.

Mrs. Frank Robertson expects to leave on Saturday for a summer's vacation in the north, visiting relatives in Chicago and stopping at other points for a rest. Mrs. Ferguson will manage the Carleton during her absence. We wish her a pleasant outing.

On Memorial day, May 30th, all are cordially invited to join in decorating the graves of the noble men who wore the blue and the gray, whose remains rest in the Melbourne cemetery. Bring all the flowers you can carry. Let all the children come to strew the flowers and blend their sweet voices in song. Will meet at Congregational church at 1 o'clock p. m. Let us not forget those who fought and died for our country. Let us rest from business from 1 to 3 o'clock and show our respect for the dead.

Man's Unreasonableness

Is often as great as woman's, but Thos. S. Austin, manager of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by Red Cross Pharmacy, price 50c.

WHITE CITY.

At a special meeting of the White City Improvement club Saturday night it was decided to erect a two-story club house and town hall, which will cost in the neighborhood of $1,000. A building committee was appointed and are working on the plan and specifications. The building will contain a large dancing hall on the first floor. The second floor will be divided into an auditorium with a spacious stage and dressing rooms, also a reception room and kitchen, which may be used in time of banquets. A subscription list is being circulated and considerable has been subscribed. The building will begin in the latter part of July or first of August. The Improvement club was incorporated last December and is in a good substantial condition.

Everybody is invited to attend the Literary society Thursday, June 1st. A fine program will be rendered and everybody is welcome. As it costs nothing why not attend and spend a pleasant and instructive evening. Come one, come all.

THE NEW EVERETT PIANO.

Mr. J. A. Homan is among the foremost American writers on music and musicians. In the Cincinnati Enquirer, April 30th, 1905, Mr. Homan says of Alfred Reisenauer:

"Though a German, Mr. Reisenauer has always been a favorite in Russia, and his artistic gauge in that country is set at the highest notch. Physically, intellectually and temperamentally Reisenauer is a giant of the keyboard. By reason of his artistic triumphs in America in the season of 1903-04, the public appetite is naturally whetted for his second coming in the early part of next fall."

It is important to remember that this "giant of the keyboard," this greatest of living pianists chose Everett pianos for his great work when in America in 1903-04, and it is still more important and highly significant that he confirms the correctness of that judgment by choosing Everetts for his tour of 1905-06.

We challenge the world to produce a parallel to the situation. The Everett pianos (the present, or new Everett) is less than seven years on the market, and yet it is chosen for the highest possible class of artistic work by the foremost men and women on the concert stage such as Reisenauer, Barmeister, Gabrilowitsch, Mrs. Birdice Bly, Lillian Nordica and many others.

These magnificent productions of the art of piano construction are carried in stock by the Indian River Music House, at Titusville, Fla., who sell them on equally as favorable terms as they are disposed of in the largest cities north or south. Buy the New Everett, the artistic standard of today, and we assure you that you will have the best piano produced in the world.

ADELAIDE V. LANSING.

The subject of this sketch, Mrs. Adelaide V. Lansing [nee Sellers] was born in Zanesville, Ohio, August 16th, 1840. In 1847, after the death of her father, she emigrated with her mother's family to Warsaw, Missouri. In her 18th year she was married to Dr. C. F. Lansing, of Madison, Wisconsin. To this union four sons and four daughters were born. One son and one daughter have preceded her to the spiritland.

In 1875 she removed to Florida with her husband and family, since which time she has resided in this state. She lived a simple, faithful, consistent Christian life always. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her and will continue to live in the memories and hearts of the many people she so often befriended. Her untiring kindness and motherly care of her children will be sadly missed in the coming years and the wise precepts she ever tried to teach them will be forever enshrined in their hearts as the richest legacy earth can give them.

God's hand of affliction seems heavy upon us, for his last-call has rent our home in twain, yet we feel as one by one the few remaining will enter heaven's bright portals, her sweet spirit will meet us and bear us to the throne of Jesus. There we will all be united in that blessed home above.

On Friday evening, just as the sun was sinking in the western sky, a number of our townspeople joined in a simple service conducted by Rev. J. B. Hawk, of Melbourne, then her body was laid away in the Eau Gallie cemetery beside the husband who preceded her just nine months ago.

She was a lover of all out doors. Her flowers and plants were a part of her life, and so, as was appropriate, over her casket, throughout her home, above her last resting place, flowers, nature's simplest and art's rarest, were heaped in lavish abundance by kindly hands.

'Twas hard to give thee up, dear mother, To see death's cold hand upon thy brow, And know that soon thou would'st be borne away To rest beneath the cruel sod.

God, in His wisdom, has recalled The boon His love has given, And though there is one less on earth, Another soul will rest in heaven.
