Around the County

OATMAN

C. A. Means, relief operator for Mgr. O. T. Stone of the Western Union left Oatman, Friday. Miss Robinson took his place, until Mr. Stone returns.

Mrs. Mabel Le Clair and Mrs. C. W. Cook returned Saturday from Utah, where they attended the funeral of their father, Mr. Smith, a well-known Los Angeles mining man.

Mrs. J. Howard returned from San Francisco Monday, where she has been for the past three months.

Among the Kingman visitors, Saturday were Miss Sylvia Poole and Miss K. Armour of the A. C. & N. Telephone Co., there.

Saturday was a big day in Oatman, being the opening of the Fourth Liberty Loan. There was much noise around six P. M., due to siren whistles and exploding powder. After the show Charles B. Ward rendered a very enthusiastic and thrilling speech.

Mr. Ward proved to his audience that he had oratorical talent, and made us all feel that we should help our country by buying Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds. After the entertainment, at the Theatre, a dance was held at the Star Theatre. A large crowd attended, all enjoying a pleasant evening.

PLANET NOTES

Special Correspondence to the Mohave County Miner

E. H. Farrell has gone back to Jerome Junction. He was much pleased with the farms around Planet.

R. G. Hamilton has sold his farm and gone to Stockton, California to live.

The Planet school has not yet been opened on account of not being able to get a teacher.

Jack Ferrell is cutting about fifteen tons of maize seed.

The farms in Planet section are looking fine and the farmers are all busy.

Cooler weather has set in at Planet.

Chloride feels proud having gone over the top in the Fourth Liberty Loan drive. Ten thousand, eight hundred dollars have been subscribed to the present time.

A. McDuffee says that he likes company but that it makes him warm under the collar when company slips in while he is asleep. He said that he got up a little early the other morning and found two cows eating breakfast. They had opened the cupboard door and had made a clean sweep and for desert they had eaten up his Turkish towel.

MAKES WINE FROM RAISINS IN JEROME

Officers searching houses in Jerome have discovered six places where wine is made from raisins by Austrians.

The men who have been producing the wine have been arrested. The officers also have arrested many men for gambling, the games being conducted in private homes. Jerome, being some distance from the New Mexico and California lines, has trouble in bringing in booze and some of the men who have a craving for liquor or money conceived the plan of making wines from raisins and then supplying their gambling customers with the red stuff.

YUCCA NOTES

By Mrs. M. P. Chapman

Special Correspondence to the Mohave County Miner

Mr. W. P. Eshom was a recent Yucca visitor. He reports things going fine with the rodeo work, and range conditions very satisfactory. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Mullins and Master Minor Mullen were shopping in Yucca last Monday.

Telly Bland from the Sandy accompanied by his son Jeff, recently passed through Yucca enroute to Kingman. They report stock and crops both in very excellent shape in and around the Signal country.

Our school opened with an excellent attendance and the Teacher, Miss Croy is giving perfect satisfaction.

It looks like rain and we're hoping it really fulfills its promises.

The fall rodeo work is in progress but the late calf crop is very light. Range conditions are very good, and stock looks well.
