The Irrigation Question.

Messrs. T. J. White and H. G. Howe, of the committee appointed by the Board of Supervisors to collect information to lay before the Senatorial committee, returned to town yesterday from a tour of investigation down the San Pedro river. They commenced at a point known as the narrows, about sixteen miles from Benson, and worked back up the river as far as Charleston. The committee found several sites where reservoirs could be advantageously located, both as regards the impounding of water and the amount of land that could be brought under cultivation. As far as their investigation has gone, and also without making an accurate survey, it is roughly estimated that there are in the San Pedro valley alone about 250,000 acres of land that could be profitably reclaimed by a proper use of the water in the river.

The people of St. Davids are fully alive to the benefits to be derived from an intelligently directed system of irrigation, and will hold a public meeting to-day for the purpose of taking steps to gather information to lay before the committee for their use.

Messrs. White and Howe will leave this morning to continue their investigation on the San Pedro and will go as far as the Mexican line. On Tuesday next the entire committee will start on a tour of inspection through the Sulphur Spring and San Simon valleys, and will extend their trip to the Chiricahua mountains, making as thorough an examination of the country as the short time at their disposal will allow.

Mr. White expressed regret that the matter was not taken up much sooner, as the time is entirely too short to do the subject justice. He also says that the resources of Cochise county in the way of agricultural land, as shown even by this short trip, are surprising, far exceeding all expectations, and that there is no reason why our county should not take a foremost position in Arizona in all branches of farming.

Another Strike.

It is reported that Clark, Grover & Co. have made a rich strike at the depth of 50 feet in the Good Truck mine, in the Sierrita district. At the bottom of the shaft they have five inches of solid ore, assays of which run up as high as 1480 silver. The vein is well defined. Seven tons have been taken out, and will be shipped to this place in a few days. Those who have seen the new find say it is most promising.—Tucson Citizen.

James McFarland last night brought to this office a specimen of amygdalus, that for size and flavor would rank favorably with any of this species in the United States. It was grown in a portion of his garden where the soil is the poorest and is another demonstration of what the State of Arizona will produce.

Mr. H. Menager, says the Tucson Citizen, exhibited to the hungry eyes of the reporter this morning, a $25 gold nugget that was picked up by a Mexican in a cañon in the Sierritas. Mr. Menager says nuggets of this size are frequently brought from the placer districts of Arizona.

Dr. Goodfellow went to Bisbee yesterday in response to a telegram from Dr. Darlington, of that place. A very dangerous operation is to be performed on a resident of the copper camp. His daughter Edith accompanied him.

E. W. Storm, foreman of the Kansas cattle company, arrived last Thursday and left yesterday for the ranch.

A Big Strike.

Mr. Lattin, who owns a good orchard near Dudleyville, and makes regular trips to this city with fruit, came in Saturday with a load of peaches. Mr. Lattin reports considerable excitement about Dudleyville over a very rich strike which was made a few days ago by Anderson Bros. The new find is in a mine which was located several years ago, but had never been worked any until recently when the Anderson brothers commenced sinking in the old shaft. Just below the water level they struck a body of ore that gives assays as high as 4700 ounces. The particulars, as to quality of ore or size of ledge could not be obtained, but the owners are jubilant and no doubt they have good cause for their jollity. One of the Andersons is an old Silver King miner and says he has never seen any ore in the Territory, except from the King, that is a rich as his new find. The mines are located six miles from the junction of the Gila and San Pedro rivers, and surrounded by an abundance of good timber, and the water supply is endless and easy of access.—Tucson Citizen.

The committee of Protection hose company met last night and decided to have the dance on September 5th. Mining Exchange Hall will be engaged and the Mexican orchestra will furnish the music. The management of the dance is in able hands and it is hoped to clear enough money to pay for the lot and necessary repairs on the building. The idea of the company to have a house and lot of their own that they can beautify and adorn is a good one and should receive substantial encouragement. The committee will meet again next Sunday night.

H. S. Thomas returned yesterday afternoon accompanied by Antonio Rodriguez, who had been trailing him for several hours. Antonio overtook Mr. Thomas, who was coming toward Tombstone, a short distance from the San Diego smelter. Mr. Thomas was suffering from thirst and eagerly drank from the canteen that was given him. He was very weak and had to be assisted on the horse. It was reported last night that he was seriously ill at his residence from the effects of the exposure.

The concert hall will be crowded to-night to hear the music and singing by Mr. Woods and wife, who have appeared before the public for many years. A new system is to be inaugurated in connection with the concert hall. The music stand is to be moved to the north end of the building and additions made to form a small stage, on which performances can be given. The inside doors will be closed and only opened on presentation of a ticket. Work will commence next Monday.

We are unable to present a mining report this morning for the reason of a heavy press of work which prevented a visit to the mines and mine owners. We do not propose to sit in our office and write up guesses about mining properties of which we know nothing. Next week we hope to be able to give a correct report of the condition of mining affairs in this district, from information gathered from mine owners or their representatives and from visits to their properties.

A Move in the Right Direction.

Gov. Wolfley has been in correspondence with the agricultural department at Washington relative to obtaining $15,000 per year for Arizona for the purpose of founding an experimental farm in this territory. Yesterday the Governor received a letter from the commissioner, who assures his hearty co-operation in doing all in his power to assist Governor Wolfley in obtaining this large fund, which will prove to be of incalculable benefit to Arizona.—Phenix Gazette.

Dropped Out of Sight.

On Thursday, August 1st, Mr. H. H. Kraesinger took the noon train at Phenix for Springfield, Missouri. He reached Halstead, Kansas, where he stopped for breakfast. From that time he disappeared entirely. His valise and gun were left aboard the train, but inquiries instituted by the various railroads and by his anxious friends have thus far failed to discover the slightest trace of him.—Phenix Herald.

Two young mountain lions were captured yesterday in the mountains about five miles from this city. They were brought to town and presented to Will Baron, who procured a suitable cage and will take them to his house. Will swears they are mountain lions but that their resemblance to ordinary cottontail rabbits is so accurate as to excite general surprise. They are great curiosities.

Louis Koehn returned from Globe yesterday much improved in health. He says Tombstone is the liveliest place he struck.

Bargains in every department at the Palace.

Idleness is a Dangerous Fault

In the kidneys. When inactive they speedily fall into despair. Those obstinate and fatal maladies, Bright's disease and diabetes, ensue with terrible certainty upon the inaction of the organs affected. Catarrh of the bladder, enuresis, gravel and strangury are also to be apprehended from a partial paralysis of the bladder, of which weakness and sluggishness are the causes. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a fine tonic and promoter of activity for the renal organs, and one which can be relied upon to afford them the requisite stimulus without exciting them—an effect to be feared from the unmedicated alcoholic excitant of commerce. A further beneficial effect of the Bitters, by renewing activity of the kidneys, is to enable them to drain from the blood in its passage through them, impurities productive of rheumatism and dropsy. Nervousness, fever and ague, constipation and dyspepsia are conquered by the Bitters.

There was a terrible epidemic of dysentery and bloody flux in Pope County, Illinois, last summer. As many as five deaths occurred in one day. Messrs. Walter Brothers, of Waltersburg, sold over 380 bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy during this epidemic and says they never heard of its failing in any case when the directions were followed. It was the only medicine used that did cure the worst cases. Many persons were cured by it after the doctors had given them up. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by H. J. Peto.
