The El Paso Herald of last Monday says: "At last three of the four gaming houses, that so long have been a bone of contention in our midst, have succumbed to the inevitable clutches of the Law and Order League, and shut down. The Mint was the first to close, they having closed late Saturday night. The Bacchus was the next, Johnny Bradley driving the golden spike, as he termed it, at 11:30 p. m. last night. Quite a number of local sports were present and witnessed the ceremonies. The next was the Wigwam, which closed at 12 p. m. sharp. The Gem still persists in its wayward course and was crowded with visitors at an early hour this morning. What next?"

THE SUPPER

Given by the Ladies' Aid Society Last Evening.—A Successful Affair.

The supper and social entertainment given at Mining Exchange Hall last evening by the Ladies' Aid Society for the benefit of the Methodist church was a charming success, being largely attended and well patronized. Great credit is due to Mrs. Wolcott, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Packard, Mrs. Eccleston, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Harwood and many others who did everything possible for the pleasure and entertainment of those present. It was impossible to learn the net proceeds last night but it is estimated that nearly $100 will be realized.

Vocal and instrumental exercises commenced about half past eight and continued about two hours, during which many selections were beautifully rendered and received much merited applause. Mrs. F. Herrera was organist for the evening. Following is the programme rendered:

- Music... Violin Solo Wm. C. Staehle. Song... No Man Shall Break My Heart Alice Crable. Recitation... Little Squirrel's Lesson Mammie Meaher. Recitation... Which Shall It Be Laura Crable. Music... Violin Solo Wm. C. Staehle. Recitation... Little Mollie's Trouble Bessie Sharkey. Vocal Solo... Marguerite J. H. Carpenter. Song... Driven from Home Alice Crable. Recitation... Curfew Shall Not Ring To-night Fred Herrera. Song... by J. H. Carpenter Music... Violin Solo Wm. C. Staehle.

The ladies of the society desire to thank all those taking part in the entertainment and all who in any way assisted in making the affair a success. A considerable quantity of edibles were not consumed last evening and the hall will be open this morning to dispose of the remainder.

Vic Wilson came over from Tucson yesterday with warrants for two of our citizens who had been subpoenaed as jurors and who had concluded that they didn't want to go to Tucson at this particular time of the year. One of them, however, was fortunate enough to receive a telegram a few minutes before the stage left excusing him, but the other unfortunate continued his sorrowful way and will probably do a heap of thinking—only that isn't the way it's spelled—before he gives an excuse to the court.

AN OLD RELIC.

Translation of a Report Written in Tucson, Arizona, in 1777.

The following document is a correct translation from Spanish and was given us by a gentleman now residing in this city:

Señor Capitan Don Pedro Alvarado y Saavedra.

In virtue of your order, dated the 20th of the current month, to the effect that I and two citizens of the most eminence, well known in the country and reliable, should appear in your presence to give you information concerning this locality as to watering places, lands for corn fields, pastures for horses and cattle and minerals, and also as to points of ingress and egress of the inimical Apaches, and where they make their abodes, I, Don Manuel Barragua, and Antonio Romero and Francisco Castro (who are the two individuals who possess the requisites which you demanded), most respectfully obey, and affirm that the town of Tubac is situated between two mountains, which are distant from each other six leagues.

In the valley there is much land fertile and suitable for corn fields. There is sufficient water for wheat growing, but scarcely enough each year for corn; but if that which is at Tumacacori be distributed, one week to the Indian laborers and another for Tubac, it will sufficiently benefit the said laborers, and there will be an abundance of water; in this manner was it disposed of by our former Captain, Don Juan Bap. Auga, and recently this same disposition has been sanctioned by your honor.

There is much pasture, with an abundance of sustenance for horses and cattle, as well on the hills and in the dales as on the mountainous plains. In the same valley there is a great deal of cottonwood and willow, and in the Santa Rita mountain there is an abundance of excellent pine, of easy access, six leagues distant.

Of provisions alone there is raised every year by the inhabitants six hundred or more fanegas of wheat and corn—one-third of the land not being occupied.

There are many mines of very rich metals to the west, in the vicinity of Arihac, at a distance of seven leagues; there are three, particularly, in the aforesaid vicinity, one of which yields, according to rule (de reputable ley) a silver mark from one arroba (25 pounds) of ore, the other yields six marks from a load (100 pounds) of ore and the third yields a little less. Three leagues beyond this vicinity, in the valley of Baboconari, there are fine gold placers, examined by Don Jose de Torro and this whole population. After three visits which these people made with Don Jose at great risks, and by remaining there over three days each trip, it was verified by their having brought away and spent with two traders, who at this time have it, as much as $200 in gold.

In the Santa Rita mountain and its environs, which is distant from Tubac four leagues, there have been examined five silver mines—two have been tried with fire and three with quicksilver, with tolerable yield. All of this is notorious among this entire population, and they do not work them because there are Apaches in all these places; because they live and have their pastures there, and pass continually by this mountain itself to a place a little more than four leagues off, called Hot Springs (Agua Caliente). Daily experiencing more violence from the enemy, because he is aware of the few troops that we possess, we have desired to break up our homes and sell our effects; and you being aware of it, we received the order, which you were pleased to send us, imposing heavy penalties upon us if we should remove or sell our goods, and have punctually obeyed it; and now, finally, the last month, the Apaches finished with the entire herd of horses and cattle, which we had guarded; and, at the same time, with boldness, destroyed the fields and carried away as much corn as they were able. Since the fort was removed to Tucson these towns and missions have experienced some casualties, so much so that they have been obliged to burn the town of Calabasas, a calamity it had never before experienced. Also, but a few days ago, the cavalcade which the Apaches brought from the west was grazing for three days in the vicinity, falling every day upon the fields to load with corn, and to run away with those whom they found there; and lastly, their not leaving the neighborhood, we momentarily expect that they may serve us and our families as they have served our property, there being nothing else left for them to do.

We trust in God that, by the numerous petitions of the poor people, this fort may be restored to its ancient site, and, if necessity requires it, there shall be more troops to protect the herds, by remaining at the several points of ingress and egress which the enemy have established throughout this entire region, and that they may be continually watching from the hills and the adjacent mountains.

We humbly beseech you, in the name of the whole community, that you will pity our misfortunes and listen to our petition, that you may remove the continual misfortunes that we have suffered, being in continual expectation of our total destruction.

We live in great confidence, from the knowledge that some us have of you, that by your exertion and by your conduct, and by that of the military commandant, we shall receive the benefit to which we are entitled, since no one is better known than Señor Saavedra, and he knows that we exaggerate nothing, considering the many years we have been under his orders.

Your humble and obedient servant, MANUEL BARRAGUA, FRANCISCO CASTRO, ANTONIO ROMERO. San Augustin de Tucson, Nov. 24, 1777.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best success. For sale by H. J.
