The Book of Mormon is printed in eight different languages.

The annual revenues of the government of Great Britain are £210,000,000.

France proposes to March on Peking. There is nothing to prevent so far as the Chinese are concerned.

The flogging publicly administered to an Ohio man for cruelly treating his child will be generally commended. No humiliation or suffering is too great for these cowardly wretches, of whom there are far too many.

The French government sends dynamiters over the border and warns them not to return. Every other government should do the same thing. There is no part of the civilized world in which they have rights which governments are bound to respect.

It will be wisdom on the part of the democrats in congress to let the silver bill alone. It means an early break in their ranks if it is now forced to the front. A good many men in congress—who are inclined to give Cleveland's administration a fair trial, will antagonize it from the day of his inauguration if the silver bill is urged too strongly.

Arizona is comparatively a new mineral field with the people of the east. The boom that certain California schemers gave her in 1878-9 resulted disastrously. Then came the advance guard of eastern tricksters who gave her a black eye from which she is beginning to recover.

Governor Tritle is going out of office with a good record and the confidence and approval of the people of Arizona. His recent appointments, which in all probability are the last he will make, have been selected with great care and judgment.

The continued severe weather is adding greatly to the misery of the destitute in Gilmer and Braxton counties. The legislature adjourned without making the appropriation asked for and petitions are now in circulation praying the governor to afford speedy aid.

Hyde Park is stirred up by a skating rink scandal. Charles H. M. Brooks, a leading society young man of that suburb, a few nights ago took a young lady to the Lakeside rink. As they glided over the shining floor, Mr. Brooks became conscious that a would-be rival was using his best endeavors to win the recognition of the lady.

steadier, was shot and killed by Mrs. Taylor's sons, who are now in jail. The woman and Jones are suspected of inducing the boys to commit the murder, and they were notified to leave the county. They did not do so, and Saturday night 50 masked men took Mrs. Taylor and Jones and hanged them to a bridge. The bodies were left swinging there until 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. An inquest was held and a verdict of death at the hands of parties unknown was rendered.

Mexico LYNCHED BY THEIR GUARDS. MATAMOROS, March 21.

A squad of the 5th cavalry started a few days ago from this city to convey three prisoners to Victoria Salinas. When about half way they hung the three prisoners to trees and returned to town yesterday.

Yesterday Anastacio Gonzales was arrested for stealing three horses from Senor Davilo, two of which were recovered by the Texan authorities, and Juan Valdez was brought in from the Santa Anita ranch for boldly running off with an ox team and cart.

No further particulars can be learned of the hanging of five bandits up the river.

Piedras Negras, March 21.—Proprietors and laborers in the Sabinas coal mines have come to an understanding, and work was resumed today, after a strike of two weeks.

The F. C. I. M. is making preparations to build $3,000 machine shops here.

The proprietors of the Haciemento ranch will hereafter bale their clip of 75,000 pounds of wool and ship direct to England.

Jeff Springs yesterday found in the trunk of an old tree he was felling several hundred gold and silver coins. The gold is mostly of English and Spanish coinage. The find is worth several thousand dollars.

A citizen of this place, while digging in his garden, turned up several pots of treasure, one of which contained 1,200 gold dollars. It was on a place owned by a wealthy family named Ataway during the war, and the money was undoubtedly buried to hide it from advancing federals.

The Jackson Bugle says the suffering for lack of food in portions of Jackson county is intense. Near Stad's mills a secret organization has been effected to compel a division of the food remaining in that neighborhood for the preserving of the lives of man and beast.

The continued severe weather is adding greatly to the misery of the destitute in Gilmer and Braxton counties. The legislature adjourned without making the appropriation asked for and petitions are now in circulation praying the governor to afford speedy aid.

Hyde Park is stirred up by a skating rink scandal. Charles H. M. Brooks, a leading society young man of that suburb, a few nights ago took a young lady to the Lakeside rink. As they glided over the shining floor, Mr. Brooks became conscious that a would-be rival was using his best endeavors to win the recognition of the lady.

Brooks asserted that the masquerade content with employing the usual methods of his class, several times touched the lady as she passed. Brooks finally released his companion and sought an explanation from the offending party. The masquerade immediately retaliated by striking Brooks a stinging blow on the eye, which laid him out on the floor and caused a sensation among the other habitués of the rink. Learning the name of his assailant, Brooks swore out a warrant before Justice Brayton to-day and will seek revenge by a fine for assault and battery. W. N. Van Valkenberg, a clerk in the office of the Michigan Central railroad, is the assailant. Brooks said he hoped the case would be settled without the appearance in court of the young lady who was the innocent cause of the affray.

An Absconding Constable. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., March 21.

Quite a sensation has been created by the absconding of B. O. Beard, constable of Campbell township. He had been summoned to appear before the county court to-day to answer to the charge of collecting money and failing to turn it over. When the sheriff called him this morning he failed to appear, and the fact developed that he had left the county. He had left on the 2 o'clock train Saturday night with his family, buying tickets for Memphis, over the Gulf railroad. He was twice elected city marshal of North Springfield, and last fall elected constable, which office pays about $1200 per year. Since the election an examination of his books shows him to be short about $520 as marshal, and, so far as heard from, he has appropriated about $300 of other people's money while constable. His crookedness in office is quite a surprise to everybody, as he had previously appeared to be a conscientious young man. For several months, however, he has been addicted to drinking and gambling. The court to-day suspended him from office and appointed Rice Perrin in his stead.
