Office on Allen Street, north side, between Third and Fourth. Delivered by Carriers for 25 Cents a Week.

We observed a lady this morning using a pair of tongs to throw the "boiler plate" into the street.

The boiler plate "editor" admits that he is a cur, beast, bummer, or anything that even a snake would recoil from.

Oh, Davie, what an obscene sheet you allow Tidy to "edit" for you. It is a regular mazepah paper.

We kicked the cur, around the corner, for snapping at our heels, and the public will notice how he whines in this morning's issue of Cooper's Mazepah.

The "boiler plate" this morning uses language in the forty-first, forty-second and forty-third lines of an article entitled "Nabbing a Newspaper," which is unfit for publication, let alone to go into families where there are young children.

President Cleveland continues his habit of retiring early. He gets up regularly at five o'clock in the morning, and after starting the fire in the kitchen range and calling the cook and servants, he may be seen any morning building chicken coops or sawing wood in the back yard.

The Champion says: It is known that for some time past Mr. John Kelly, the great Tammany sachem, has been in bad health. He made a trip to Florida and returned somewhat improved, but not entirely restored. His condition now is such that he does not care to be in active life, and he gives out, as did Mr. Conkling, that he is forever done with politics. If this resolution is adhered to by Mr. Kelly, Tammany will miss the active brain and potent influence which made it a power to be respected in politics.

The New York Times says: It will be a source of satisfaction to the people of the United States that, after the finger of death was laid upon him, General Grant, was still spared long enough to fully know and realize how profoundly the popular heart was touched and stirred by his sufferings and moral affliction, and to feel how completely the steady and enduring fervor of the American people's reverence for the great name of Grant has dispelled the mists of perplexity and embarrassment that troubled the last years of his life.

There seems to be considerable anxiety concerning the fate of Council bill number 50, amendatory of section 10, chapter 6, Compiled Laws, reducing the rate of interest on county warrants from 10 to 7 per cent. The published journals show that this bill passed the Council on March second, was messaged to the House on March 3d, referred to the Judiciary Committee on March 4th, reported back with recommendation that it do pass, on March 7th, was indefinitely postponed by the House on March 9th and so messaged back to the council on March tenth. This action effectually disposed of the bill and the rate of interest on county warrants remains the same as before. - Q. tizen.

Mrs. Sharon.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.

Judge Sawyer, of the United States Circuit Court, made a new order yesterday afternoon in the case of William Sharon vs. Sarah Althea Sharon, that the defendant produce by eleven o'clock to-day the alleged marriage certificate and "dear wife" letters, in order that expert Piper may test the ink used in the documents. It is believed outside the Court that Mr. Sharon has again refused to produce these documents for the purpose assigned, in which case she will again be committed for contempt of court.

General Grant.

NEW YORK, April 22.

Drs. Barker, Shady and Douglass, met in consultation at 2 o'clock, to-day. The general's throat was examined by the aid of an electric light, and was found better than when last seen by Drs. Barker and Shady on Sunday last. As Douglass was leaving he said in response to an inquiry, that the general experienced some pain during the examination of his throat, but otherwise he had suffered no more pain to-day than yesterday. The throat was much improved, except at the main point. The patient was much stronger and could eat more, with a greater desire for food. General Grant said Doctor Douglass, is better at present than when he took his last drive, which was before the alarming symptoms developed three weeks ago last Sunday. The next consultation, he said, would take place on Sunday next. Dr. Douglass was of the opinion that General Grant would not go out to walk this afternoon, but the doctor had not been gone twenty minutes, when the General and Col. Grant left the house and walked to Madison avenue. At the corner the General stood and gazed down the street for a few moments and then slowly retraced his steps to the house.

Eloped With a Negro.

CHICAGO, April 23.

A dispatch from St. Louis, Sunday, gave the particulars of the elopement Mrs. Anna Steinreid, of Memphis, with John Irwin, her husband's negro coachman, and stated that her husband who is a wealthy physician of St. Louis, was following the runaways. The elopement occurred three weeks ago last Saturday. The truant couple arrived in Chicago last Wednesday morning and went at once to a boarding house on Third avenue, kept by colored people. They gave the name of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, and secured a room there. The landlady of the house was seen last night by a reporter and she told the following story: All they told me was that they were lawful husband and wife, but I did not want to take them when I saw she was a white woman. I told them I kept a respectable house and that I never kept white and colored people. She said she had colored blood in her, that her mother was a colored woman, so I gave them a room. She was very fair, and I saw at once she was refined. She had no baggage, and she had no change of clothing. She and her man kept close together. Every day they went out to hunt work but didn't get any. She cried a great deal in her room and appeared to be all broke up. She asked her what was the matter, and she said she was crying because her husband could get no work. The couple left the house on Monday morning but are known to be in the city, and are watched by detectives. The latter asserts that she will return to her husband if he wishes.

Cuticura THE GREAT SKIN CURE

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN

Hair Renewer.

Seldom does a popular remedy win such a strong hold upon the public confidence as has HALL'S HAIR RENEWER. The cause in which it has accomplished a complete restoration of color to the hair, and vigorous health to the scalp, are innumerable.

Old people like it for its wonderful power to restore to their whitening locks their original color and beauty. Middle-aged people like it because it prevents them from getting bald. Keeps dandruff away, and makes the hair grow thick and strong. Young ladies like it as a dressing because it gives the hair a beautiful glossy lustre, and enables them to dress it in whatever form they wish. Thus it is the favorite of all, and it has become so simply because it disappoints no one.
