Items of Interest Picked Up About the Line City.

Monday evening G. W. Garrison and wife of Oklahoma City arrived in the city and registered at the Brickwood.

Auditor Hannon of the Hays Consolidated Mining, Milling & Lumber Company was a visitor in Nogales Tuesday of this week from Camp Hays in the Pinito mountains, having come up to the line city on business for his company. He returned south the same evening.

Manager Ferd VanMourick of the Sonora News Company is now selling tickets for a handsome silver punch bowl and a fine large phonograph, which are on exhibition in the front of his popular store. Ferd is a hustler, and he is coining money for his company.

Monday Mr. W. T. Payne, traveling representative of the Chamberlain Medicine Company of Des Moines, Iowa, was a guest at the Montezuma and a pleasant caller at this office. While here the gentleman did a splendid business for his house and as a result he left town thinking Nogales one of the best on the map.

Theodore Gebler & Son, the pioneer hardware dealers, have secured the fine large store room, which for a long time has been occupied by Sturmers' Moss Rose restaurant. The Pioneer Hardware House will at an early date put in new fixtures and stock the room with a line of new and up-to-date goods.

The Many friends of Mrs. Fred Sterling, formerly a resident of Nogales, but now living at Los Angeles, California, will regret to learn of her illness, and hope for her speedy recovery. Mr. Sterling, who had been visiting here on business, has returned to Los Angeles, having been summoned home by a telegram announcing his wife's illness.

Monday morning Jack Kearney came up from Magdalena, having business here of a mining nature. Jack is interested in a number of good mining properties situated in Sonora which it is said he is about to turn for a handsome figure. The gentleman has been operating in the Magdalena district for many years, with the town of Magdalena as his headquarters, and his friends here and in Sonora would like to see him make a fortune.

R. Zellner, Jr., the Los Angeles piano man, has returned from a business trip to Hermosillo and Guaymas, at which places he succeeded in selling six high grade instruments which will be shipped south next month. The Zellner Piano Company has the piano business in Sonora pretty well corralled and is doing a splendid business, thanks to the quality of the instruments and the personal popularity of Mr. Zellner, who is a member of the firm he represents.

Vicent W. Clark, who with Ben. F. Daniels invented the "Prospectors' Smelter," which is attracting considerable attention among mining men, and of which considerable mention was in THE BORDER WIDETTE two weeks ago, has returned from his goat ranch, and will now devote his time to his smelters, a number of which will be erected at different mining properties in Santa Cruz county, one at the Huntington group owned by Mr. Daniels, and another at the Wandering Jew mine owned by Mark Lulley.

Frank N. Cox, general superintendent of the big Cerro Prieto gold mines owned by the Nogales Copper Company, was a business visitor in the city Monday and Tuesday of this week, for his company. For many years Mr. Cox was general manager of the Promontorio mines when they were the property of Mr. L. Ephraim of this city. He is one of the most successful mine superintendents in the country, and is filling the responsible position with the Nogales Copper Company with credit to himself and his company. The gentleman reports operations at Cerro Prieto running in a most splendid and satisfactory manner, the big stamp mill being kept busy night and day pounding out the yellow metal. As development work progresses on this great property for which the Nogales Copper Company, through General Manager Colby N. Thomas, only paid $600,000, immense bodies of good grade ores are encountered which far exceed the fondest hopes of the most enthusiastic member of the company. The Cerro Prieto mines have already been the means of placing a number of Nogales people on "Easy Street," and it is safe to say that all those fortunate enough to be interested in the Nogales Copper Company will receive big returns for the money invested.

The Transvaal.

O. L. Near, of the Transvaal company, who has been ill in Douglas for several days, left this morning for El Paso, where he goes on business for the company, says the International-American of December 5th. He said that work would be started at once on a tunnel that is to be cut into the mountains a distance of 2500 feet; a complete air compressor plant is to be installed as soon as the machinery can be brought to the property and a narrow gauge railroad built.

This road will be built for a distance of sixteen miles and will connect the Transvaal mines with the extension of the Nacozari road. The directors of this company are conservative business men and they have waited until the development work showed them that they had a mine, before spending a fortune on machinery and a railroad. Now that the proposition has developed into a very promising mine the company will rush the completion of the railroad and will get the machinery in place and operation as soon as possible. Mr. Cloud, the general manager of the company, is at the mine, and during the absence of Mr. Near, will have charge of the work. Mr. Rogers, who was assistant superintendent, is now doing the assaying.

Mexico's Great Wealth.

From 1537, the date of the establishment of mints in Mexico, to the end of April 1902 (figures to this date only being available) the total coinage of Mexico amounted, the Mexican Investor states, to the enormous sum of $3,631,395,901.95. Of this amount $129,240,138.50 was gold, $3,490,921,681.72 silver, $7,128,787.73 copper, $4,000,000 nickel, and bronze, $104,412.—Los Angeles Mining Review.

Items of Interest from all Over the Territory.

The jury at the inquest held this afternoon in Justice Culver's court, returned a verdict to the effect that Charles W. Greenleaf, a native of Maine, cause to his death December 3 by taking an overdose of a drug administered by himself, accidentally.—Tucson Citizen.

Last Friday Kirk Hart went to Nogales, traveling in his automobile. He made the trip to take Mrs. Stanley, who had been summoned to the bedside of her father, W. N. Cummings. This city was left at 1 o'clock and Nogales was reached at 8 o'clock, only 7 hours later.—Tucson Star.

Mr. A. W. Tennent, general manager of the Sonora River Placer Mining Company's properties, south of Cananea, brought in some samples of coarse gold that had been washed out by hand in the sluice boxes. A pumping plant of double the capacity of the one they have now, is to be put in, and they hope to have it in operation within thirty days.—Cananea Herald.

The La Crosse Chieftain says in a recent issue: "We have seen many a tramp printer, but about the most unique specimen I ever met came to our house last Sunday evening. He was dead broke; had'n't a sou, and not a stitch of clothes on his back. He called for a drink and after getting it laid down to sleep it off. Our wife seems completely 'gone' on him and he is still at the house, drinking and sleeping, but as soon as he gets strong enough, he will be given a job in the office. He weighs 8½ pounds."

Sheriff Murphy leaves Tucson this morning for Benson. He will be accompanied by Collis McCormick and Robert Drayton, the two boys who have been confined in the county jail, and who will now be placed in the reform school, which opened this morning, says the Star. The industrial school should fill a long felt want. Collis McCormick, one of the two being taken from Tucson, has been in the county jail for two years and yet his years are such that a reform school would have been the place for him from the start.

A convention of the Arizona Cattle-men's Association will be held in Phoenix, Monday, January 4th, 1904, and all of the cattlemen of the Territory are earnestly requested to attend. The railroads of the Territory have the matter under consideration of giving a special rate to the convention of one and one-fifth fares, effective so as to permit arriving in Phoenix a day prior to the convention commencement, and leaving as late as the 10th of January. The Southern Pacific company have already promised this rate, and no doubt the other railroad companies will follow suit.

It is understood that the salt mines of the Virgin Valley are to be worked, says the Mohave Miner. A few days ago a party of gentlemen passed through Kingman, having just made location of a large amount of saline lands for a syndicate of capitalists. The salt lands of the Virgin and Muddy Valleys are the largest deposits of sodium chloride in the United States and are very pure, much of it running as high as 98 per cent. For years some of these saline deposits were worked by Daniel Bonelli, but the market was limited and for the past ten years little was done with them. Now, we understand, that they are to be worked on a large scale.

A distinguished party of Pennsylvania people was entertained at Tucson on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The party arrived on Thursday morning in the private car of Mr. John Wilson of Franklin, Pa., an oil magnate. In the party were Mr. Wilson, wife and daughter, Mrs. Blakely, a sister of R. R. Richardson, of Patagonia, Mrs. Black a niece of Mr. Richardson, Mrs. Bartleson, Mrs. Maddox and Miss Gordon, all of Franklin. Tuesday the party was driven to San Xavier by Mr. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Black and Dr. Crepin. The same evening they were entertained at dinner at Rossi's. They left on Thursday morning for the east.—Tucson Post, Dec. 5th.

Mr. L. V. Navarro has resigned his office as Mexican vice-consul in this city, and intends to leave for a protracted stay in Europe within a few days. Mr. Navarro has served his government in Arizona for seven years and in Tucson for three years. He is a man of many accomplishments, progressive, active and always deeply interested in his country's welfare. He has made many devoted friendships during his residence in Arizona and the announcement of his severance of his official relations with the Mexican government will cause regret in many quarters. Like many American officials at home and abroad, Mr. Navarro became dissatisfied with the slowness of promotion and concluded to embark in private enterprise.—Citizen.

Eward Scarborough, according to Southern Arizona papers, has gone wrong. He is charged with having drawn a number of checks on the Bank of Douglas, in which he never had a deposit and cashed them in Bisbee. He was arrested and E. A. Tovar went his bond for $50. He jumped the bond and is now in Old Mexico. He is also accused of having bucconed a man from New Mexico by telling him he would restore some lost or stolen stock for $150, as he believed he knew where it was. The money was paid and that closed the transaction. Scarborough is the son of George Scarborough, the noted New Mexico outlaw, who was the terror of the bandits, but who was eventually murdered by them.—Mexican Herald.

The Elks memorial services held at their hall Sunday afternoon was an impressive event. The large audience present showed the appreciation and regard in which the people in general hold these annual ceremonies of this fraternal order. The solemnity of the entire ceremony from opening to close was deeply impressive, creating a devotional spirit closely allied to the experience expressed by the varied religious sentiments. The devotional and musical features of the ceremony were touchingly beautiful. The addresses and tributes paid to the deceased brethren of the Order were fraught with thoughts and sentiments worthy of the impressive occasion. The memorial of the B. P. O. E. of Tucson was a most touching, loving, generous and beautiful tribute to their departed brethren.—Star.

Heermans Stationery company was attached this week by Henry S. Corbett. His claim exceeds $10,000, besides notes of the corporation for $4000, and a number of other creditors, making the full indebtedness $23,000. Corbett has been identified with the firm three years but not as a stockholder in the corporation. He asked Heermans to make an assignment but could not get him to do so. As a matter of protection he caused the attachment to be made. Thomas H. Schuster was placed in charge of the business. Corbett states that the value of the stock and accounts is not sufficient to cover the full obligations. Heermans was absent from the store the past week. A dozen employees are laid off pending adjustment and renewal of the business. The closing is not a failure; only an attachment to settle matters. The store is stocked with holiday goods.—Tucson Post.

AMENDMENT.
