E. C. Grasty, after an extended business trip in the state of Sinaloa, in the interest of himself and Gananes associates, returned to Nogales Wednesday, tired and dusty. He expects to return south in a few days.

Superintendent H. J. Temple of the Cananea, Yaqui River & Pacific railroad, was a visitor in the line city Wednesday of this week, on official business. Mr. Temple is a very busy man these days, being on the road almost constantly.

George Januel, the expert German barber, opposite the Sonora News Company, guarantees his work, and respectfully invites you to give him a trial. Everything neat and clean. Hair-cutting a specialty. 11.

Dr. Sam S. Butler, the Magdalena physician and surgeon, accompanied by J. Kingston, also of Magdalena, spent Wednesday in the city on private business. The doctor is very fond of Magdalena, which he says is the best town in Sonora.

Monday night Alejandro Carpena, the haberdasher, returned from Tucson, where he had been to meet representatives of a couple of mammoth eastern clothing houses, from whom he purchased a dandy line of fall and winter clothing, for men.

Charley Stevens, of El Paso, Texas, many years associated with J. A. Harrison in the cattle business, after enjoying a combined business and pleasure visit at the Harrison ranch northeast of the city a few miles, left for home Wednesday morning.

Last Sunday evening Hon. Manuel Mascareñas, Sr., returned home from a business visit to Hermosillo, where he has large financial interests. The gentleman is a big stockholder in the Banco de Sonora, one of Mexico's largest, most substantial financial institutions.

T. H. Williams, representing the German American Fire Insurance Co., of which George B. Marsh, who pays in thirteen days, is local agent, spent Wednesday here helping Mr. Marsh write new business. Mr. Williams is a crack jack insurance man, and a prince of entertainers.

E. B. Sharpe, secretary of the La Oobriz Mining Company, of which Fred O. Emery is president, was a visitor in the city Tuesday, from the mines near Noria, Sonora. He was accompanied by his wife and sister-in-law, Miss Emilio Fraijo, of Magdalena, a most charming young lady.

F. R. Crandall, United States internal revenue agent, with headquarters at Santa Fe, New Mexico, spent Tuesday in the city, on official business. It is understood he found all the wet goods dealers, and others, totting fair with Uncle Sam, and Wednesday morning left for Globe.

Mr. A. O. Bernard, president of Hotel Albin, Guaymas' big new hotel, came up from the south Wednesday evening and transacted his business here in time to return on the 10 o'clock train. He said that Mrs. Bernard, who has been quite ill at Guaymas, with pneumonia, is recovering.

William M. Murphy, the Harshaw mining man, one of the original owners of the group of silver properties now owned by the Douglas-Arizona and Sonora Development Company, is a guest at the Brickwood hotel, from Harshaw, near where the gentleman has other valuable mining interests.

Our friend Richard Rogers of the Rogers Gandy Company, has been busy this week remodeling the room next door to Smith, the jeweler, and will soon be prepared to serve the public with everything in the confectionery line. Dick thoroughly understands the business, and never fails to please his customers.

Manager I. E. Bowers of the Otate Gold Mining Company's properties; also manager of the Llano Copper Company's property, both of which are located near Noria, Sonora, Mexico, was here Tuesday purchasing mine and camp supplies for his two companies. He reported operations progressing nicely at his copper and gold camps.

J. O. Cowan, of Douglas, Arizona, who with a number of associates is interested in the Quinners machines now being manufactured in this city by the Arizona Sonora Manufacturing Company, has for several days been a guest at the Montezuma hotel. Cowan and his own crowd own some gold placer ground down in the Altar district, near Boludo.

J. Fred Cleveland, secretary of the governor of Arizona, also grand chancellor commander of the Knights of Pythias, who is on a tour of the lodges in Southern Arizona, arrived in the city Thursday evening from Douglas, and after spending the evening here with Dave Loeb and other members of the local lodge, left yesterday morning for Globe.

Manuel Duarte, the Mexican arrested last Sunday night by Night Watchman Tom Sanford, and fined $25 by Judge Chatham, is still in the county jail, being suspected of knowing something of the killing at Helvetia, Pima County, last Saturday, of Oscar Bucklew, a rancher and storekeeper of that place. Bucklew was assassinated while he sat in his house.

Actual work of excavating for the foundation of the big two-story brick on the corner of International street and Elias avenue has commenced. The work is being done under the personal supervision of Architect Ralph Parsons, of this city. When complete the structure will be a credit to the line city, and greatly enhance the value of property on International street.

Wednesday work was commenced on the new Catholic academy for ladies, north of the Catholic church. Father Duval expects to have the new educational institution completed and ready for scholars early next fall. The academy will be the cause of bringing many young ladies and their families from towns in the state of Sonora, who will come here to make their home.

Engineer William Armstrong, upon his arrival from the north Wednesday evening, on the engine pulling the Tucson-Nogales train, stated that the work of track laying on the Tucson and Nogales Railroad, had that day been completed at Calabasas and the cut off will soon be ready for the big Cinco de Mayo special trains from Mexico and Nogales, to Tucson May 5th and 6th, next.

Charley Taylor, the veteran assayer, many years a resident of Nogales, after an absence of about three months at the Cerro Colorado mines in Sonora, where he held a responsible position, has completed his contract with that company, and will again open his assay office on Morley avenue. Charley Taylor is a sure enough assayer, and we take pleasure in again recommending him to our friends.

At the non partisan mass meeting last Wednesday evening at the court house, called by a committee of five non-partisan Republicans, appointed at a non-partisan meeting of citizens, held in the court house on Tuesday evening last, for the purpose of nominating candidates on a non-partisan ticket for the coming city election to be held Monday, May 23rd, 1910, another committee was appointed to select names to be placed in nomination for the various city offices, at the non-partisan citizens' mass meeting called for next Tuesday evening, at the court house. Everybody is invited to attend the meeting.

Thursday night Judge W. A. O'Connor and A. H. Saleby, representatives of the local Old Fellows Lodge, and Mrs. I. Burgoon, representative of the Rebekahs, returned home from Phoenix, where they had been four days attending the I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge meeting. The delegates from Nogales report having a fine time, the annual meeting of Odd Fellows being one of the most successful held in many years. Globe was named as the place of holding the next grand lodge session in April, 1911. The grand lodge at Phoenix was honored by the presence of Grand Sire Kuykendall, who is now visiting the Southern Arizona lodges.

Superintendent Taylor of Grant Brothers Construction Company, builders of the great Southern Pacific in Mexico, arrived from the south Wednesday evening and Thursday was a guest at the Montezuma hotel, being accompanied by his wife. Both Mr. and Mrs. Taylor look as if the southern Mexican country agreed with them. They formerly resided here where they have many friends.

M. J. Lee, car inspector for the Southern Pacific railroad, with headquarters at Tucson, has for several days past been a visitor in Nogales, having come down to the border Tuesday night to inspect engines being sent north from Empalme and other points in Sonora and Sinaloa, Mexico. At the last city election in Tucson, Mr. Lee was elected a member of the city council, on the Democratic ticket, of course.

Early Monday morning, Immigration Inspector A. A. Gates, stationed at this place for some time past, died suddenly at his home on Nob Hill, of heart failure. Deceased was about thirty years of age and leaves a wife and two small children to mourn his untimely passing. The body was embalmed by George B. Marsh, Inc. and shipped east to the dead inspector's former home in Vermont, for interment.

Elgar V. Dodge, superintendent at the Cabrillo Mining Company's silver mines in Sonora, a short distance from Noria, stopped over in Nogales Thursday on his way back to the mines from San Diego, California, where he was married last week to a beautiful young lady, who accompanied her husband to their Mexican home. Before going to the mines, however, Mr. and Mrs. Dodge will visit Hermosillo, and possibly Guaymas.

Wednesday Sheriff Saxon took Capt. Stephen O'Connor, the accused murderer of Dr. A. S. Russell, to Tombstone, where he will be confined in the Cochise county jail until his case is called. Major R. P. O'Connor, U. S. A., son of the captain, now stationed at Fort Huachuca, accompanied the sheriff and his father to Tombstone. At the last term of district court, Judge Doan granted the accused army officer a change of venue.

Monday night Mr. Gordon Seymour, son of Mrs. Frank Seymour, owner of the Torres Prietas Railroad, passed south en route to Hermosillo, from the United States. Mr. Seymour stated that tomorrow his only sister, Miss Myra, a most charming young lady, who for some time past has been visiting friends in Pennsylvania, would be united in marriage to a member of a prominent, wealthy family of the old Keystone State.

K. O. meats at the Nogales Cold Storage.

O. F. Bache of Boston, who with his wife and little son recently visited Nogales, being guests at the Montezuma hotel, has returned to Boston where he will organize a mining company to operate the La Montera gold mines in the Altar district acquired by him on his recent visit to the Altar district. During Mr. Bache's visit here he and his family made many friends all of whom join us in wishing them good luck in their Mexican mining venture.

A. R. Dickson and F. O. Bostwick, two Douglas mining men, who last winter sold the Washington mine in Sonora, about thirty miles west of Oumpas, to James S. Douglas, of Cananea, have this week been guests at the Montezuma. The gentlemen were here for the purpose of closing a deal for some valuable copper properties owned by Mr. Fain of Ures, Sonora. The property is said to possess great merit, and all parties interested stand to make big money.

In the death last Saturday in the City of Mexico, of Hon. Ignacio Mariscal, many years Minister of Foreign Relations, Mexico has sustained a serious loss, for Mariscal was truly a great man, who will be greatly missed. It is said that Enrique O. Creel, governor of the state of Chihuahua, may succeed the late Minister of Foreign Relations Governor Creel many years was ambassador to the United States, and is universally liked and respected in the City of Washington.

Mr. Lee Reagan, president of the Yaqui River Consolidated Gold & Copper Company, returned Wednesday night from an extended business and pleasure trip to Texas. On the trip he visited his old home at Dal Rio, where his parents reside. We are pleased to announce that the gentleman's father, who was reported dangerously ill, is greatly improved, and hopes are entertained for his complete recovery. The grand old man is pleasantly remembered here where he visited about a year ago.

On Monday Messrs. J. A. Harrison and J. E. Wise, two of Santa Cruz county's biggest stockraisers, made another shipment of 600 head of cows to California, from Calabasas. The cows were sold some time ago to California buyers, the price paid being $15 a head. Tuesday night Mr. Harrison went down to Imuris Sonora, to receive 1,000 head of Sonora steers, recently bought through Henry Levin, the broker of this city. The cattle will enter the United States at this port of entry and placed on the Harrison pastures.

The Nogales Cold Storage is now handling Kansas City meats, butter, eggs, etc. If you want Schlitz beer, just out of the cold storage, either in bottles or from the wood, telephone the Nogales Cold Storage.

According to many legal documents recently filed in the county recorder's office, the name of the new railroad just completed to Calabasas is "The Tucson & Nogales Railroad," and not the "Tucson and West Coast of Mexico Railroad," as our good Tucson friends persist in calling the Tucson-Nogales cut off. However, there's not much in a name, and Nogales, the Gate-way City to the richest mining and agricultural country in Mexico, will continue to catch the business coming and going, and as Cook said, "There's enough glory for both of us."

Mrs. P. J. McIntyre, accompanied by her son Joe, and the little girls have gone to Los Angeles, California, where they will in future make their home, occupying the handsome new residence recently purchased by Mr. McIntyre, during his visit to that city. Mr. McIntyre is detained in Nogales on mining business but he too will later join the folks in the city of angels, where his son and little daughter will attend school. George who is copyist in the county recorder's office, will also go to Los Angeles to reside.

Mr. Chas. McCulley, of London, England, a mining engineer of international reputation, is a guest at the Montezuma hotel. Mr. McCulley has visited all the important mining fields in American and foreign countries. He is visiting this section with a view of becoming interested in this wonderful country which he believes has a great future. The gentleman has a most pleasing personality and a large fund of interesting stories, gathered in different parts of the world. We hope he'll decide to make Nogales his headquarters.

Charles L. Fowler has been appointed as chief census enumerator for Santa Cruz county, his district comprising Nogales and the county south of the river and west of Washington district. Harry Smith is enumerator for Washington and Parker districts, Owen Walker for the Santa Cruz river and district west, and Mr. Davis of Canille for the Patagonia, Elgin and Canille district. The enumerators have been busy all week rounding up citizens of Santa Cruz county. The population of the United States is believed, by those who have counted the heads, to be 90,000,000.

Chas. T. Askew, representing the Zellerbach Paper Company of Los Angeles, California, of which he is sales manager, and P. Claudius, of San Francisco, representing Wm. Wolff & Co., of Old Government Whiskey fame, were two interesting welcome visitors at THE BORDER VIDETTE office on Monday of this week. Both gentlemen are veteran knights 'o the grip with a wide acquaintance throughout Arizona where they are well and favorably known, especially among dealers of paper and w-o-oods. While here the gentlemen secured a number of fat orders. They will again visit Nogales about October first.

Rafael Molina, the Mexican federal soldier who last week assaulted an aged Mexican lady in a most brutal manner, was on Monday given a hearing in Justice J. Chatham's court and bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $1,000. Witnesses say the soldier who was very drunk at the time, not only struck the woman with his fists, but kicked her while she lay on the ground. The man disclaims all knowledge of the affair. He is a member of the company of federal soldiers stationed on Arizpe street for some time past, and not a member of Colonel Kosterlitzky's company, as has been reported on the streets.

William Palmtag, president of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Hollister, California, and N. O. Briggs, a prominent attorney of Hollister, spent Wednesday in Nogales, on business connected with the Douglas-Arizona and Sonora Development Co., in which they are interested financially. During their visit here the gentlemen were entertained by L. M. Raines, president and general manager, and P. J. McIntyre, treasurer of the company, the properties of which are located in this county, adjoining the famous World's Fair mines of Frank Powers. The result of the visit of Messrs. Palmtag and Briggs has not been learned, but Mr. McIntyre says the affairs of the company, at both ends of the line, are in fine shape.

Antonio Rodriguez, Valentin Espinoza, Rafael Ruiz, E. Torres, and another young Mexican named Carrillo, all of Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, are in the Nogales, Sonora city jail. The bunch was arrested on Thursday charged with having on April 7th broken into a coxcar in front of the Mexican customs house, and stealing nine sacks of peanuts, which they sold to Chinese merchants of Nogales, Sonora. Agent Bowman of the Southern Pacific company, and Judge Pujol, of Nogales, Sonora, became interested in the case with the result that the arrest of the boys suspected was made Thursday, and the peanuts recovered. Another Mexican boy named Alvarado, driver of hack No. 9, is also wanted by the authorities for assisting in disposing of the stolen peanuts. Alvarado has left the city.
