Yesterday the soldiers of the 12th U. S. Infantry, and the troopers of the 10th Cavalry, U.
S. A., now stationed at this place had a pay-day, between seventeen and eighteen thousand good hard American dollars being put in circulation. The boys are an orderly bunch, and splendid order is being maintained, notwithstanding the fact that all are flush.

Fred. Sayre, one of Pata-gonia's successful young business men, spent Thursday and yesterday forenoon in Nogales on a combined business and pleasure visit. He is a brother of George Sayre, one of Uncle Sam's efficient line riders.
Fred. is a member of Pata-gonia's recently organized Home Guards, every member of which is an expert with rifle or pistol.

Harry Barnett, manager of the Happy Jack Mining Company, the splendid properties of which are located in the Santa Ritas, near Patagonia, was a business visitor at the county seat the forepart of the week.
The Happy Jack property will at once be extensively operated under Manager Barnett's personal supervision. The high grade ore will be shipped to Douglas.

Carlos Randall, former treasurer of the state of Sonora, after being released from the Nogales, Sonora jail, departed Tuesday afternoon for the Pacific coast, being accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Maytorena, wife of the governor of Sonora, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Joffroy.
The ex-treasurer is now an exile from Sonora, and will not return to that state while the present military authorities are in power.

Major Carrillo and his party of fishermen returned Monday from the Babacomari grant between Elgin and Turner, bringing with them wonderful fish stories, none of which their friends would believe. A. E.
Crepin, of Patagonia, who entertained the party, and Editor Price of the Santa Cruz Patagonian, are said to have won most of the blue ribbons. The boys made a dandy catch and report having had a fine outing.

Hon. J. W. Cook, president of the La Cobiaza Mining Company, and Hon. Cyril F. Ent-whistle, both of Manchester,

Coast of Mexico, where he had been in the employ of the big company, with which he has been connected for many years.
Jack returned from Empalme, Sonora, via San Diego. He reports having had a delightful ocean voyage, and says he is awaiting orders to return to the front.

Last Tuesday in Tucson, John D. Wanvig, Jr., superintendent of the Three R mines near Patagonia, secured a license to marry Miss Irene A. Manning, the beautiful and accomplished Patagonia school marm, who came to Patagonia from California. The young people are deservedly popular, and a host of their personal friends and acquaintances will join THE BOR-DER VIDETTE in wishing them much happiness as man and wife. It is stated the newly weds will reside at the Three R mine.

C. L. Northcraft manager of the Ely-Real Estate and Investment Co., owners of the great Sonoita land grant, which comprises some of the most valuable land in Southern Arizona, now makes Patagonia his headquarters. Manager-Northcraft, who is accompanied by his estimable wife, says just as soon as he can get his large commodious adobe ranch house completed, he and Mrs. Northcraft propose giving an old-fashioned housewarming. The work of feecing the grant and otherwise improving the splendid property, will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible, under Mr.
Northcraft's personal supervision.

Local officers and employes of the Sonora Bank and Trust Company have been as busy as bees all week, installing mammoth safes, bank fixtures, etc. in the large commodious new bank quarters in the James Breen building on Morley avenue, just north of the Montezuma hotel.
Artistic sign painters have also been busy decorating the big front windows with neat and attractive signs for the banking institution, which will shortly do business under the State of Arizona banking laws. Adolfo Bley, Max Muller and L. Brauer, all connected with Banco de Sonora, are the officers of the banking house, Mr. Bley being president, Mr. Muller, vice president, and Mr. Brauer secretary. It is stated that Manager Rivera and Cashier Mignordot of the local branch of Banco de Sonora, as well as many of the other efficient employes of that big financial institution will have desks in the new bank and trust company.

Chaplain Webb at Methodist Church.

We are glad to be able to announce that Chaplain Webb of the 12th Infantry has consented to assist in a series of services to begin at the Methodist church Sunday, May the 17th, and continuing at least through the following week.

Those who had the pleasure of hearing Chaplain Webb last Sunday in his unique and forceful discourse "Killing Lions and Eating Honey," will I am sure welcome this opportunity of hearing him again in a series of discourses.

We assure those who have not heard him that they have a splendid treat in store for them if they will come out and attend these services.

Pews in the church are free.

All are welcome.

The song service will begin at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

On Sunday the Pastor will preach in the morning—Subject:
"The Single Eye." Mr. Webb's subject in the evening will be:
"How to Be Happy."

B. H. MOBLEY, Pastor.

Americans Notice.

American Consulate, Nogales,

Sonora, May 12, 1914.

In order that the whereabouts of Americans remaining in Mexico may be known and for the purpose of informing inquiring friends and relatives, the government of the United States of America has instructed the Consul to ask all American citizens who for any reason do not deem it advisable to leave Mexico at this time to register their names and addresses personally or by written communication at this consulate with the least possible delay.

THOS. D. BOWMAN,

American Vice Consul in charge.

Attention, Mr. Voter.

Some people, who do not desire the granting of the proposed Franchise and the erection of a new and up to date Electric Light and Ice Plant, on account of not considering this in benefit of their Personal Interests; have circulated the version that Spiro S. Proto's associate in this enterprise is a cheap clerk of Tuc-son, therefore, in order to avoid the misleading of the average public, through such a false and untrue statement, we herewith make known, that Mr. Proto's associate, Mr. Monte M. Mans-feld, is the Secretary of the Eagle Mining Company of Tuc-son, Arizona, a very widely known and prosperous corporation and further more that Mr.
Mansfeld has plenty of funds behind him both personal and otherwise. Spiro S. Proto,
