

CONQUER BY SAVING

Overcome the shiftlessness of listlessness and save and have. Gain a name and fame through conquest of yourself. Lay aside a little money and receive the reward that place of body and mind brings when you are old. Start depositing here today.

THE
First National Bank of Nogales,
NOGALES, ARIZONA

TOYS!! TOYS!!

Christmas gifts of all kinds

Call and see our big display--December 2nd to 24th.

PRICES REASONABLE
Largest Assortment
ever received in Nogales

GEO. B. MARSH, INC.

W. C. PAGE,
Mgr. Furniture and China Depts.

B. P. OLBERT,
Mgr. Hardware and Implement Depts.

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.

We handle a complete line of Lumber, Sash Doors, Lime, Cement, Douglas Plaster, Corrugated Iron, Builders' Hardware, in fact everything to build with.

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.,

Successors to Nogales Lumber Co.

THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG STORE,

Phone 671 Morley Avenue P. O. Box C.
NOGALES, - - - ARIZONA.

To the Public:

We offer exceptionally liberal inducements to those who like to do their trading at or near home and avoid delays.

Best Quality, New and Selected Stock, the largest on the border, Purest Drugs most efficient clerks and prompt personal attention to all phone, mail and express orders.

YOUR MONEY BACK IF NOT SATISFIED.

A trial solicited from new customers as we are able to hold all our old patrons with above tactics in our business.

Respectfully,

THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG STORE

The Border Tidette.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One Year.....$2.00
Six Months.....1.50
Three Months.....1.00

IN ADVANCE

DECEMBER 30, 1916.

LOCAL NEWS.

A Happy New Year.

A new roof is being put on L. Lulley's Buffet.

M. L. Spies has purchased a new Page car. It's sure a beauty.

Teal's Ducklings have gone to Deming, New Mexico. They'll return.

The New Year's ball at Masonic Hall tomorrow night, will be a brilliant affair.

Earl Hammick, the real estate man, enjoyed Christmas in Tombstone, with friends.

Get busy on your annual assessment work if you don't want to lose your mines, boys.

One day this week Karns Bros., Inc., sold eight Ford cars and two Dodge cars. Some business.

Sacks, Sacks, Second-hand Sacks, for sale by W. G. Bowman, Grand Ave., Nogales. adv

Johnson, the automobile man, has been in Tucson this week a couple of days, on private business.

Next week Robert Shugart and a party of friends will go to Guaymas for a week's fishing trip.

William Cavanaugh has been on the sick list this week, being confined to the St. Joseph's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Northraft are guests at the Montezuma hotel from Patagonia, their home town.

Last Tuesday Ed. Ellis, the well known freighter from Patagonia, was a business visitor in the city.

Miss Ruth Udell of Tucson, has this week been a Nogales visitor, being a guest of Mrs. S. D. Karns.

Judge and Mrs. W. A. O'Connor spent Christmas at Florence, with the judge's brother, Judge O'Connor.

Wednesday A. B. Young was here from Canille, where he has one of the finest ranch homes in the county.

County Assessor Victor J. Wager, has this week been over in Parker Canyon visiting friends and relatives.

BEES FOR SALE—One hundred and twenty-five stands of bees, cheap. Address, W. E. Balcom, Tempe, Arizona. Adv.

A. G. Fletcher, of the International Drug Store, is back from a combined business and pleasure visit to Los Angeles.

Francis Duffy is here from the University of Arizona, spending the holidays with his parents, Judge and Mrs. Frank J. Duffy.

Cal Bates, the Douglas cattle buyer, has for several days past been a guest at the Montezuma hotel. He's here on cattle business.

State Senator-elect Ray Ferguson, has been a visitor in the city several days this home week, being a guest at the Montezuma hotel.

Superintendent Kuck of the Nogales Cananea branch of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, is a business visitor in the city, from Naco.

Henry Ohm, one of the best known farmers in the Calabasas section, was a business visitor in town Tuesday, from his farm on the river.

Louis Koller, owner of splendid mining claims, situated in the Patagonia mountains, is spending a few days at home with the folks.

Captain Graham Parker of the quartermaster's department, has returned from San Francisco, where he enjoyed Christmas with his family.

James Reagan, uncle of Walter Strickland, is here from Patagonia, for a few days visit at the home of his brother Lee, on North Grand avenue.

Assistant Cashier Mignordot of the Sonora Valley Bank & Trust Company, is enjoying a ten day's vacation in Los Angeles, with his mother.

J. I. Jones, well known, successful stockraiser, from Parker's Canyon, has been a business visitor at the county seat a couple of days this week.

Last Wednesday afternoon about twenty men and women in Nogales, Sonora, were arrested and placed in the city jail, charged with bottlegging.

Joe Davenport, who operates a motor car in the Elgin country, where he owns a dry farm, has been a visitor at the county seat this week a couple of days.

Miss Consuelo Mix, daughter of Captain L. W. Mix, departed the forepart of the week for New York, where she will enter a well known school for young ladies.

Joseph Hang, efficient, accommodating bookkeeper for Geo. B. Marsh, Inc., is ill at St. Joseph's hospital, with la grippe. Dr. Smelker is the attending physician.

John Brickwood, Jr. has accepted a contract to do annual assessment work on a group of mining claims located in the Patagonia mountains, for eastern capitalists.

Ignacio Carrillo, purchasing agent for the Mexican government in the state of Sonora, is here from Douglas, where he and his family have resided many years.

Harold Wheaton, owner of splendid producing mines in the Altar district, Sonora, was a business visitor in the city the forepart of the week. He has returned to his mines.

The Misses Irene Griswold and Anna Henry, students at the Tempe Normal school, are home for the holidays. The young ladies have many friends, all of whom are pleased to see them.

Nathan Leeker, proprietor of the La Barata store, of which A. Dumbauld is manager, has gone to New York and other eastern markets to purchase goods for his big store on Morley avenue.

Dr. J. C. Underwood, the mine promoter, who for more than a quarter of a century has been operating in Sonora, has returned from a business trip to Tucson. The doctor's mines are in the Altar district.

Ramon Elias, manager of the Alamo Cattle Company, who was arrested last Wednesday in Nogales, Sonora, has been released and is again circulating among his friends, on the American side of the international line.

This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jones and their little daughter, will depart for Douglas, where they will spend New Year with Mr. Jones' brother. The cross-country trip will be made by automobile, with Eb. at the wheel.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Page of Guthrie, Oklahoma, parents of Mr. W. C. Page, furniture and china manager for George B. Marsh, Inc., arrived in the city the forepart of the week to spend the holidays with their son and family.

Last Wednesday afternoon General P. Elias Calles, candidate for governor of Sonora, accompanied by his staff, arrived in Nogales, Sonora, from Agua Prieta, and has since been busy transacting official business in the little town across the border.

Sister Ancilla, Esther O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. O'Neill, accompanied by Rev. Sister Dolores Ila, Mother Superior of the convent at Chaperito, New Mexico, after enjoying Christmas here with the O'Neills, departed for home on Thursday's train.

Last Sunday Dave, Loeb, proprietor of The Popular haberdashry, departed for New York, on his semi-annual buying trip, expecting to be gone about two weeks. During his absence from the city, Manager Hart will carefully look after the business end of The Popular.

Grover Marsteller, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Nogales, has returned from a well-earned vacation, spent on the coast with friends. Mr. Marsteller has been with the big financial institution many years. He is one of the most popular young bankers in the city.

Thursday Nogales was visited by Assistant General Manager D. W. Campbell of the Southern Pacific, with headquarters in Los Angeles, who was accompanied by Superintendent Fitzgerald and Division Engineer Matthews, of Tucson. The gentlemen traveled in Manager Campbell's private car "Siskiyou."

Frank Wilkey, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Nogales, has fully recovered from his recent severe attack of la grippe.

At the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Santa Cruz Club, to be held next Wednesday afternoon, officers for the ensuing year will be elected. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

Effective Tuesday, January 2nd, 1917, Postmaster William Schuckmann, of Nogales, announces that in accordance with instructions received from the Department, the post office will close at 5:30, for the balance of the winter, in place of 6:00 p. m., which has been the closing hour for some time past.

Mr. J. C. Glissan, for a number of years connected with the United States customs service, now located at Douglas, accompanied by his wife and daughter, motored over from the Smelter City to enjoy a few days visit here with relatives and friends. Mrs. Glissan is a daughter of Judge W. Wittins of Nogales.

Tuesday County Attorney-elect Chas. L. Hardy returned from a flying business visit to Tucson. Attorney Hardy is now pleasantly located in his offices in the County Court House. Hon. Fred S. Noon, the outgoing county attorney, has moved into comfortable offices over the postoffice, on Grand avenue.

J. W. Kingsbury, assistant superintendent of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, with headquarters at Empalme, has been a business visitor in the city a couple of days this week, from the south. Said conditions at Guaymas are greatly improved since gold and silver coins have again become the medium of exchange.

Mrs. John Strickland, mother of Walter Strickland, arrived the forepart of the week from Del Rio, to be at the bedside of her son who is in St. Joseph's hospital, suffering from pneumonia. The lady was accompanied from Texas, by her brother, Lee Regan, of this city, who had been visiting his old home in the Lone Star state.

The untimely passing of Miss Grace Thacker, loving daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Thacker, from pneumonia, is regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Last Monday the body was taken to Santa Ana, California, for burial, being accompanied by Rev. Thacker. To the sorrowing family we extend our sympathy.

James Gamble, one of Uncle Sam's oldest, most efficient customs guards, is said to be in California enjoying his honeymoon, with his new bride, one of Santa Cruz county's lovely native daughters. If this good news is true, we desire to congratulate Jim and his bride, at the same time forgiving them for "putting one over" their friends.

The Wandering Jew mime in the Tyndell mining district, the dream of the late Mark Lulley, is coming into its own, according to reports from the old lead-silver producer. The Jew has paid from the grass-roots and Colonel Richardson and L. Lulley, the owners, are to be congratulated. All parties interested, will realize good returns on their investment.

Wednesday William Franklin, the El Paso cattle buyer, crossed a trainload of Sonora cattle at this place. After dipping, the stock were re-loaded and shipped to Texas pastures. This was the first shipment of Mexican cattle brought across the line in many months. Other American buyers have hopes of being able to get their cattle across in the near future.

Wednesday Col. R. R. Richardson and Ed. Bohlinger, two well known mining men, were in the city a few hours on their way from Patagonia to Tucson, on private business. Col. Richardson is the owner of the famous Three R mines near Patagonia. Mr. Bohlinger, who is an experienced mining engineer, has for a number of years been the colonel's most trusted lieutenant.

Leslie Hardy, the well known Bisbee attorney, after enjoying a couple of weeks here with his parents, Collector of U. S. Customs and Mrs. Hardy, has returned to the big copper camp where he is in the employ of the great Copper Queen Mining Company, being associated with Messrs. Ellingwood & Ross. Mr. Hardy is considered one of Arizona's brightest young attorneys.

Burton & Son, local contractors and builders, have a large force of men at work excavating for the foundation of the big two-story building to be erected for Escalada Brothers, corner of International street and Nelson avenue. The building will be first-class in every respect, being constructed of stone and brick. John Burton, junior member of the firm, is in personal charge of the work.

That coast liquor houses are taking steps to test the constitutionality of the new "bone dry" prohibition law, which forbids the possession of liquor shipments from without the state, is the information contained in letters received by Tucson people who failed to get their orders in time to receive consignments of personal use before the signing of the new law by Governor Hunt.—Star.

Dr. Frank T. Hogeland, of the United States army medical corps, who has been stationed with the 16th Infantry, in Mexico, has been here a couple of days on his way to Cananea, where he has accepted a position with the big copper company of that camp. The doctor has been placed on the reserve list of the medical corps at the request of the company, until such a time as Uncle Sam needs him.

Harry Grace, agent in Mexico for the Los Angeles Tanning Company, after an enjoyable visit in Los Angeles with his family, is a guest at the National Hotel. Today he will go to Guaymas, where he makes his headquarters. Harry for several years was agent at this place for the Southern Pacific railway company. He has a host of friends here and in the south country who will be glad to know that he is prospering.

The many friends of Walter Strickland, the well known, well-liked cowman, who for a number of years has made his home in Nogales, will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from a very serious attack of pneumonia. Mr. Strickland was taken to the St. Joseph's hospital last week, and immediately given every possible attention. For several days small hopes were entertained for his recovery, but at this hour he is on the road to recovery.

C. C. Rockwell and Fred Williams, who recently returned from the San Xavier mining district, Sonora, where they had been to inspect valuable mining property owned by Mr. Williams, will make another trip to the mines some time next month. Through Mr. Rockwell, who is an experienced mine promoter, eastern capital has been interested in a big copper property owned by Mr. Williams and his associates, all of whom will soon be on Easy Street.

James A. Murray, Butte, Montana millionaire mine owner, who is a big stockowner in the Havalena Mining Company, is a guest at the Montezuma hotel. It is said that Mr. Murray is here for the purpose of purchasing the valuable producing mines situated in the Patagonia mining district, for which bids will today be submitted to James A. Harrison, receiver of the company. Mr. Murray has for many years been considered one of the big mining men of the west.

Next Thursday Mrs. Geo. B. Marsh, state representative-elect from Santa Cruz county, will depart for Phoenix, where she will reside during the coming session of the legislature. Mrs. Marsh and two lovely little daughters, during their stay at the capital city, will reside in an elegant residence owned by the Stoddards, which Mrs. Marsh has leased for two months. Santa Cruz county's able representative says the latch string at her Phoenix, home will always be out to her friends from Santa Cruz.

Jack King, the mining man, who a short time ago acquired good producing copper mines from Henry Stewart, accompanied by his son Richard, arrived from camp the forepart of the week. The property is situated in Sonora, about fifteen miles south of the international line, and fifty miles from Amadoville, on the Nogales-Tucson branch of the Southern Pacific, to which place Mr. King is arranging to ship his copper ore, which assays close to twenty percent. According to Mr. King, everything out his way is very quiet, and the work of taking out good pay ore is progressing nicely. If there are any "bad" men in his section, Jack don't know it and he and his son Dick are going back as soon as they finish their business here.