

CONQUER BY SAVING

Overcome the shiftlessness of listlessness and save and have. Gain a name and fame through conquest of yourself. Lay aside a little money and receive the reward that peace of body and mind brings when you are old. Start depositing here today.

THE
First National Bank of Nogales,
NOGALES, ARIZONA

Does Your Roof Leek?

ARCO SEALIT—Elastic and Everlasting—will protect your roof during the rainy season better than any other roof cement made.

No advance in price. 20 cents per pound net f. o. b. Nogales.

GEO. B. MARSH, Inc.

B. P. OLBERT, MANAGER

NOGALES, — — — ARIZONA

THE NOGALES NATIONAL BANK

A Safe Conservative Banking Institution

CAPITAL.....$ 50,000
DEPOSITS.....$450,000

Collections, Exchange, Escrows, Trusts,
and a GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS

DIRECTORS

A. M. Gillespie, Sam Leeker, James
A. Harrison, J. E. Wise, A. F. Kerr

OFFICERS

A. F. KERR, President. A. M. GILLESPIE, Vice President and Manager. R. E. BUTLER, Cashier.

We Will Soon Start Demonstrating

THE
FORDSON TRACTORS

No. 7
Oliver Chilled Plows

No. 28
Recommended Harrows

Full Particulars Mailed on Request

KARNS BROS.,

INC.

Nogales, Arizona

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Border Vidette.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One Year.....$2 00
Six Months.....1 50
Three Months.....1 00

IN ADVANCE

SEPTEMBER 21, 1918.

LOCAL NEWS.

A. M. Conard returned to his home in Los Angeles Thursday.

J. N. Hess has taken a position in the U. S. customs service.

W. J. Neumann spent several days in Tucson on business this week.

Fred. Alford is here from Nogales, Sonora, paying a visit to his family.

Yesterday a party of 56 Mexican laborers went to Tempe to pick cotton.

Arturo Gonzalez, the garbanzo buyer, has returned to his home in New York.

The superior court trial jury has been excused until 9:30 Tuesday morning.

M. T. McCleary has purchased of J. E. Wise, a cottage on Grand avenue for a home.

Hugo Miller, the assayer, has returned from a business and pleasure trip to the east.

Reports are rife that good indications of artesian water have been found near Caborca.

The back taxes and penalties on the Baca Float grant for 1917 now amount to $16,874 60.

County Treasurer Burgoon reports tax collections greater than usual at this early date.

Mrs. Kelley Henry, the popular newspaper writer, is visiting friends in Douglas this week.

Mrs. Frank Harrison of Mowry, has been visiting with her sister, Miss Herma Bronson, this week.

James D. Barry spent several days this week in Phoenix in the interests of the war work societies.

J. T. Wilkey of El Paso, was visiting this week with his parents, Judge and Mrs. J. N. Wilkey.

Col. Charles E. Hardy, collector of customs spent several days in Phoenix this week on official business.

C. T. Jones contemplates opening a pool hall in his handsome brick building adjoining Hotel Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gatlin were in from their ranch home near Patagonia yesterday on a shopping trip.

L. C. Tyler has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ady, at the Touraine apartments in Los Angeles this week.

The members of the Baptist church gave a reception Friday evening in honor of the public school teachers.

M. D. Smith returned Thursday from Los Angeles where he went as escort for a carload of Mexican laborers.

A new order in Nogales, Sonora fixes a severe penalty for persons found on the streets in an intoxicated condition.

Miss Maud Corkindale will arrive from Ontario, Cal., tomorrow and will take charge of the school in Parker Canyon.

The Mexican colony in Nogales, Arizona, celebrated the 16th of September with a dance and supper at the Nogales Cafe.

If you expect to vote at the election November 5, get your name on the great register. Registration will close after October 15.

Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Winegar celebrated the twelfth anniversary of their marriage by entertaining a few friends at dinner.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Woody Gatlin of Patagonia, a son. The father is now on his way to Siberia as a soldier in the Twelfth Infantry.

Mike Moreno and Geo. Bayze have established a new meat market in the Noon building, on Grand avenue. Dolores Moreno is manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolfo Tapia are the proud parents of a new ten-pound son. Mr. Tapia is a trusted employe of the Sonora Bank and Trust Co.

Drunkenness by the use of denatured alcohol is increasing to an alarming extent and is giving police officials a great deal of trouble and concern.

The municipal government of Nogales, Sonora, has opened a free employment bureau.

George H. Pratt, until recently in the customs service as an inspector, has gone to Spreckles, Cal., to accept a position in a sugar refinery there.

The Santa Cruz Club lyceum course will open this evening at the Lyric theater with "The Musical Guardsmen." It will be a treat for all lovers of music.

Monday the board of supervisors canvassed the returns of the recent primary election. No change was made in the unofficial figures originally given out.

Mrs. H. V. McFadden and Miss Clara McFadden, mother and sister of H. P. McFadden, have come to Nogales from Los Angeles, to make their home here.

H. W. Hamblen of the Arizona Gas and Electric Company, has bought the Wing Wong Sen business property on Potrero avenue, near the Smelter bridge.

On Wednesday night Deputy Sheriff Patterson of Patagonia brought in Jesus Gastelum who is being held by the department of justice officials for investigation.

L. H. Watkins, Nogales agent for the Willeys Knight Company, has received a carload of Overland automobiles and has them on display at the Overland garage.

The Nogales Jewelry Co. recently established in the Jund building on Morley avenue, were yesterday installing an elegant lot of new and up to date store fixtures.

The local selective draft board has sent out to registrants of the 1918 call questionnaires. These go to registrants whose serial numbers are No. 1 to 277, both inclusive.

Bracey Curtis, president of the First National Bank, returned from a three months trip to the east, where he went in the interest of war work and on a visit to friends.

Monday Mrs. Harry D. Tomlin and young son Edward, returned from a ten weeks' visit in the east. They visited friends in Philadelphia, Atlantic City and other points.

Tuesday Chief of Police Jay Lowe turned over to the Red Cross fifty dollars of a reward of $200 given him for capturing a thief who was convicted in the superior court.

Carlos Jury of Cananea, has come to Nogales, Sonora, with a view of establishing a clothing jobbing house, and is looking for a suitable location to establish his business.

Hon. Oscar Ashburn, the Democratic nominee in the Patagonia district for supervisor has been in Nogales most of the week doing duty as a juror in the superior court.

Rev. Arthur Thomas, pastor of the Methodist church, Friday evening united in marriage Sergeant Joseph S. Alexander of the 25th Infantry to Miss Nellie Wakefield of Tucson.

Last Sunday afternoon Frank Edgell, who works on the range for Bird Yoas, had two fingers torn from his right hand by getting the hand caught in the riata while roping a cow.

Santa Cruz county's proportion of the $170,500 to be raised in Arizona for the war work societies, is fixed at $10,484. This sum may be cut down some, though probably very little.

The American consulate in Nogales, Sonora, has been engaged very busily of late in affixing the official visa to the new passports required by recent regulations from Washington.

J. J. Oates, a Canadian, arrested at Sonoita Thursday by Deputy Sheriff White as a suspected slacker, has decided to enlist in the United States army and will go to Camp Kearney.

The new county council of defense as now constituted is composed of Mayor James A. Harrison, Bracey Curtis, R. R. Earhart, Leslie Hardy, Mrs. A. L. Gustetter, Ben J. Jones and A. T. Bird.

There will be a big Red Cross dinner at the pleasant ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Young at Canille tomorrow. Dinner will be served at 12:30 and the price will be 50 cents the plate.

Mayor Harrison has received a letter from Mrs. T. E. Watson, 1826 Walton Way, Augusta, Ga., in which she wishes to learn the whereabouts of her son Richard Watson, (or Hal Watson, as he is generally called.)

W. H. Florentine, the Overland automobile man and Mrs. Edith Knapp, cashier in the Western Union office, were married Wednesday evening by Rev. F. J. Stoetzel, pastor of the Congregational church.

B. P. Olbert, manager for Geo. B. Marsh, Inc., and his family, returned the first of the week from an outing during which they visited Phoenix, the Roosevelt dam and other points of interest in central Arizona.

The work of covering the arroyo from the Crawford street bridge for a distance of 480 feet north, was completed Wednesday. At this point Grand avenue and Arroyo Boulevard now merge into one thoroughfare.

Carlos Fernandez, manager for the grain department of the Eagle Pass Lumber Co., left Wednesday for Eagle Pass. Mr. Fernandez has been located in Nogales for a couple of months and made a host of friends here.

The young men of the Seventh Field Battalion of the Signal Corps, gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening in Anding hall at the military camp. A large number of society people from town was in attendance.

M. E. Mesgrave of the United States Biological Survey, is visiting the city on official business. The gentleman is giving considerable attention to the work of destroying the numerous destructive wild animals in Southern Arizona.

C. W. Doherty, American vice consul at Nogales, Sonora, has returned from a vacation trip to California. He reports having had a most enjoyable trip and returns with a keener zest for the arduous and exalting duties of the consulate.

The public schools of Nogales opened Monday morning with a full force of teachers. This year there are thirty-seven teachers, aside from Prof. G. H. Madden, the superintendent, which will give some idea of the size and importance of the schools.

Born, Sunday September 15, to Major and Mrs. A. L. P. Johnston, a son. Immediately upon his arrival the young man flashed a wire to his soldier father that he had assumed full command at the cantonment of his granddad, Capt. L. W. Mix.

Misses Esther and Fannie Reagan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reagan, have come in from their home at the Reagan mine in the foothills of the Huachuacas, to enter the Nogales high school. They are living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Chatham.

Sunday last Sherman Rinehart, a prominent rancher of the San Rafael valley, was stricken with pneumonia and for some days his life was despaired of but he is now reported in a fair way of recovery. The army physician stationed at Lochiel attended him.

The garbanzo season is just about closed. There have been more than 56,000,000 pounds of these nutritive peas shipped into the United States through this port this season. Some were shipped in from Sonora but the greater portion came from Sinaloa.

Thursday the local selective draft board sent Angel Gomez, Sam Aiello and Mike Lombardo to Camp Kearney. The first named is a Mexican alien but he says he wants to get into the United States army and that he wants also to go to France to fight while the fighting is good.

Howard Keener, editor of the Patagonian and Democratic nominee for county treasurer, spent several days in town this week talking up the commercial advantages of his town and the importance of the mining industries surrounding—and incidentally getting acquainted with the voters of Nogales.

The moving picture film "Sonora and its Resources," which it was planned to display at the Nogales Theatre, in Nogales, Arizona, will have to await license from Washington and approval by the Board of Censors there. So the exhibition of the film that has been promised will have to be postponed.

Tom Lake who last spring left here with one of the draft contingents, is in the officers' training camp at Camp Taylor, near Louisville, Ky., and will soon set forth with a lieutenant's commission. Tom is a native of Santa Cruz county, having been born in Harshaw, and has hosts of friends here who will regard the honor as worthily bestowed.

Tom Finley, Charley Frazier, W. A. Wyatt, Sam B. Dodge, William McCormick and Osmundo Maldonado, registrants who went to Tucson Monday to appear before the district board for re examination as to their physical fitness for service, have returned home. All were again turned down by the examining physicians.

Mrs. E. E. Noon left Tuesday for Los Angeles, San Diego and Camp Kearney, she will make the trip by automobile and was accompanied by her young son, Zenas, who she will place in the Los Angeles Military Academy. Zenas, who is thirteen years old and a gifted musician for that age, will specialize in music while in the academy.

Cards received in Nogales announce the marriage in San Antonio, Texas, September 11th, of Miss Margaret Wylie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wylie of this city to Lieut. Allison B. Farmer of the U. S. army, who was formerly stationed here. Mrs. Wylie accompanied her daughter to San Antonio to be present at the wedding.

To put a stop at once to all building in the country which is not absolutely necessary at this time, the War Industries Board has decreed that government permits will be required in the future for all construction work, except in certain government work, and State councils of defense have been authorized to disapprove building projects.

In the superior court Thursday the Smith and Wright cases wherein the defendants were charged with the unlawful transportation of liquor, were disposed of. In the Smith case the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. Wright entered a plea of guilty and was given a $200 fine and sixty days. Judge Pattee of Tucson presided in both cases.

Mrs. Josephine Saxon, county school superintendent, has been having considerable trouble securing teachers for some of the county schools. The trustees of the districts have been also diligent, but all are up against a hard proposition. All schools have been provided with teachers except the Rain Valley and Santa Cruz districts, but Mrs. Saxon thinks these schools will be opened Monday.

The Syrians of Nogales have raised the handsome sum of $187.00 for the Syrian Red Cross Association which has had a great deal of work to do in allaying the wide spread destitution in their native land. A. K. Saleeby had charge of the work of soliciting subscriptions and succeeded remarkably well considering the very few Syrians here and the numerous demands for like contributions incident to the great war.

Word has been received here to the effect that James A. Reddoch has been promoted to general superintendent of the Missouri & North Arkansas railroad, with headquarters at Harrison, Arkansas. This promotion came soon after he returned to Arkansas from his sad trip to Nogales to attend the funeral of his son, Gaston Reddoch, who was fatally wounded during the battle on the international line August 27.

Eduardo Rodriguez and Angelita Lopez, the young couple who eloped from Harshaw last week and were arrested here Monday, were married by Justice Wilkey Thursday afternoon. At first the girl's father lodged a complaint against Rodriguez charging him with a statutory offence, the girl being under 18, and the young man was in jail for three days. Finally the girl's father relented and consented to a marriage and the incident was closed.

E. D. Miller editor and proprietor of THE BORDER VIDETTE is at the California beaches visiting his family who have been spending the heated term on the coast. A great diversity of political opinion among the "help" on the paper came near causing a radical change in its political complexion, but wiser conclusions at a conference of all concerned prevailed and the paper remains the exclusive exponent of true Jeffersonian and Wilsonian Democracy "in this neck o' woods."

"THE Americans have put pep into us," says King George. They have also put something into the Germans, but it wasn't pep. From the way the Huns have been running it seems to have been the reverse of pep.