

CONQUER BY SAVING

Overcome the shiftlessness of listlessness and save and have. Gain a name and fame through conquest of yourself. Lay aside a little money and receive the reward that peace of body and mind brings when you are old. Start depositing here today.

THE
First National Bank of Nogales,
NOGALES, ARIZONA

BABY BEDS AND CRIBS—LARGE STOCK
GEO. B. MARSH, INC., B. P. OLBERT, MGR.

THE NOGALES NATIONAL BANK

A Safe Conservative Banking Institution

CAPITAL.....$ 50,000
DEPOSITS.....$450,000

Collections, Exchange, Escrows, Trusts, and a GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS

DIRECTORS

A. M. Gillespie, Sam Leeker, James
A. Harrison, J. E. Wise, A. F. Kerr

OFFICERS

A. F. KERR, President. A. M. GILLESPIE, Vice President and Manager. R. E. BUTLER, Cashier.

Fordson

TRACTOR AND TRACTOR IMPLEMENTS
PHILADELPHIA DIAMOND GRID BATTERY

United States Tires.

U. S. Royal Cord Casings.

Expert Ford and General
Overhauling—Machine Work

Genuine Ford Parts
Used Exclusively.

Oxy-Acetylene Welding.

KARNS BROS., INC.

Jobbers and Distributors
Auto Accessories

123 Grand Ave. Phone 99
143 " " " 239

Nogales, Arizona

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Border Vidette.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One Year.....$2.00
Six Months.....1.50
Three Months.....1.00

IN ADVANCE

AUGUST 23, 1919.

LOCAL NEWS.

Martin Eppstein, the hide buyer, has gone to New York on private business.

Jack Egan, superintendent for Wells, Fargo & Co., after a visit to the coast, has returned south.

Wednesday Jack Schleimer, the real estate man, motored to Tucson in his new Hudson car.

This week Morris Raines, proprietor of the Nogales Steam Laundry, has been on the sick list.

This week Phil Herold, of Herold & Tidwell, haberdashers, visited Tucson on private business.

Monday Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gatlin, from their ranch near Patagonia, were guests at Hotel Evans.

Mrs. H. M. Hamblen and daughters returned the forepart of the week from a visit to California.

W. Beckford Kibbey, from his Alamo ranch in the Altar district, Sonora, is in town, having arrived last Wednesday evening.

Michael Long, Patagonia miner of many years practical experience, was sight-seeing in town this week a couple of days.

Arthur Hamilton, the mining man, who has been a very sick man at his home in Nogales, Sonora, is again able to be around.

Mrs. H. M. Claggett returned the forepart of the week from California, where she enjoyed a month's visit with relatives and friends.

Supervisor James Finley was a Nogales visitor the forepart of the week a couple of days, from his ranch home in the Canille district.

Jefferson Davis Rountee was been awarded the contract for sinking a well on Sheriff R. R. Earhart's ranch on the Santa Cruz river.

After a week's absence from the city on business for his company, A. R. Griffith, local manager for Buxton Smith Co., has returned to Nogales.

Attorney S. F. Noon has returned home from California, where he and his family enjoyed their summer vacation. His family returned with him.

Mrs. Bosch, wife of Frank Bosch, popular local manager for the Standard Oil Company, has returned from a visit with her parents at Willcox.

Mr. George Young, manager of the Cananea Copper Co., was a business visitor at Nogales last Wednesday, from the great copper camp, in Sonora.

Editor H. T. Wilson of the Santa Cruz Patagonian, was a county seat visitor last Wednesday, having motored down from Patagonia Tuesday evening.

T. B. Grace, representing the James Dick Company of El Paso, who makes his home in Douglas, has been in town several days, a guest at The Bowman.

W. P. McComas, the mining man, who has been in Sonora looking after his mining interests, has returned to Los Angeles, where he makes his home.

After several days spent here, Colonel E. C. Carnahan, commander of the military district of Arizona, returned to his headquarters at Douglas last Wednesday.

Mr. Weeks, the well known chef, is the proud father of a bouncing boy baby. Dr. Purdy reports mother and little one doing nicely, at their home on Beck street.

The Key City Groceria is the name of a new store just opened in the new C. T. Jones building on Morley avenue, next door to the Russell Electric & Machine Co. Our good friend Nick Polyhronis is manager of the new store.

Stewart Bogan, of the Arivaca Land & Cattle Co., was a county seat visitor last Wednesday. He was a guest at the Montezuma hotel. Stewart is a native son of Nogales, where he and his estimable family resided many years ago. Hon. John Bogan, of Tucson, is his father.

Supervisor Oscar F. Ashburn was a county seat visitor last Wednesday from the Pennsylvania ranch near Patagonia.

Mr. J. L. Schleimer, the real estate man, has recovered from his recent illness, and is again hitting the high places for business. Jack is one of the best hustlers on the border.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wilkey, after a pleasant visit in Nogales with the gentleman's parents, Judge and Mrs. J. W. Wilkey, have returned to their home at Duncan, Graham county.

Tuesday Frank N. Cox, the mine operator, who is working mines in the Duquesne district, leased from the Duquesne Mining & Reduction Company, was a business visitor at the county seat.

J. W. Griffith, master mechanic for the Southern Pacific of Mexico, accompanied by his little boy, has returned from a visit east. From here he will go to his headquarters at Empalme, Sonora.

Don Ignacio Corella, treasurer of the state of Sonora, has been a visitor in the city a couple of days this week, from Hermosillo. Don Ignacio has many friends in this city, who are always pleased to see him.

Don't miss the Burns Lincoln prize fight tonight at The Lyric. Both boys are clever and you'll sure get the worth of your money. Tickets are on sale at the Border News Agency at the Montezuma hotel.

Last Monday Mr. J. W. Edwards, the hardware merchant, returned from El Paso, where he was called last week by the death of his father. The gentleman's mother returned to Nogales with her son.

E. L. Chalfant, agent at Cananea for Wells, Fargo & Co., was a visitor in the city last Tuesday, being registered at the Montezuma hotel. Emery resided in Nogales many years; he has a host of friends here.

Mr. Norman Vincent, representing the W. R. Grace Co., of San Francisco, has gone to New Orleans on business for his company, which is financially interested in the shipment of garbanzos from Sinaloa and Sonora, to the States.

Captain J. W. Dawson, the Butte, Montana mine manager, accompanied by his son Joe, also an experienced mining man, stopped over in Nogales the forepart of the week, en route from the mines near Noria, to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Thompson, wife of Major Thompson, U. S. A., is visiting relatives and friends in Nogales, where she was born and raised. Mrs. Thompson was formerly Miss Edith Doherty, one of Nogales' most charming popular young ladies.

The Second Battalion, 25th Infantry, is at the recreation camp, out on the Santa Cruz river, where the boys are having a fine time. Colonel Johnson, commander of the Nogales district, is at the river camp, which is located near the pumping plant.

Mr. V. C. Joslyn, a mining man of Douglas, accompanied by his wife, arrived in the city last Thursday, by auto. They are guests at the Montezuma hotel. Mrs. Joslyn is a relative of Mr. Henry Levin, of Holler & Levin, the pioneer customs house brokers.

John Ebinger, dry farmer from the Noria, Sonora, country, was a business visitor in town a couple of days. He registered at Hotel Evans. John has planted a big acreage to beans, on land near Noria, purchased from Mr. A. M. Conard of Los Angeles.

John and Bird Yoas, from their splendid stock ranch in the Santa Rita mountains, near Amadoville, spent Tuesday in Nogales transacting private business. They report the range in fine condition, with feed and water plentiful and cattle getting fat.

If the promoters of the Burns-Lincoln ten round boxing contest at The Lyric tonight, want to witness some real sport, let them arrange for an exhibition between Tom Garrett and John Raphael. The boys say they are anxious to "go" just for the fun of going.

Superior Judge W. A. O'Connor has returned from a visit to the Texas oil fields, and is very enthusiastic over the wonderful holdings owned there by the Southwest Ranger Oil and Refining Co., of Nogales. Judge O'Connor is a director of the company.

Herbert Drachman, the Tucson real estate man, last Sunday chaperoned a number of friends at the bull fight across the line. In the evening the Tucson visitors motored home.

Mrs. Louise Shelby has returned from her outing on the coast, where she delightfully spent several weeks. Mrs. Shelby is closing out her stock of auto tires and in future will devote her entire attention to a gasoline service station on Grand avenue.

Henry Cohen, proprietor of the Hotel Rosales at Culiacan, Sinaloa, has been a guest at Hotel Evans this week several days. He is here on private business, and will return home next week. Henry also owns the Cohen Hotel at Hermosillo.

Last Thursday morning E. K. Cumming, president, and H. R. Sisk, financial agent of the Southwest Ranger Oil and Refining Company, departed for the Texas oil fields and Kentucky, on company business. The trip will be made by automobile, driven by Mr. Sisk.

"Doc" Harry Dolson, who recently disposed of his interest in the Owl Drug Store, accompanied by his son Harry, departed the forepart of the week for Ocean Park, California, where he and his son will engage in the drug business. We join their many friends in wishing them good luck.

James H. Reagan from Patagonia, has been a business visitor in the city several days this week. He is a brother of Frank and Lee Reagan, both well known in Santa Cruz county. The Reagans are pioneers of Del Rio, Texas, the old home of Hon. W. A. Moeur, state land commissioner.

Dr. C. Howard Davis, the eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, returned Wednesday from Florence, Pinal county, where he went to attend a meeting of the county commissioners, and also a mass meeting to boost the San Carlos dam project, now assured the people of the Gila and Casa Grande valleys.

George Singleton, of the contracting firm of Singleton, Littlejohn & Murphy, has been in the city a couple of days, from the road camp near Mount Lemmon, Pima county, where the gentleman's firm has a contract for building a link of the scenic mountain road, at the expense of the government.

L. H. Grimes, for a long time efficient member of the Nogales police force, has tendered his resignation to Town Marshal Jay Lowe, and will at once engage in the plastering and cement business, being associated with Frank Miller, the contractor. The name of the new firm will be Miller & Grimes.

Thursday James B. Gordon, veteran train dispatcher for the Southern Pacific of Mexico, with headquarters at Empalme, was a guest at Hotel Evans. Many years ago Mr. Gordon and his estimable wife resided in Nogales. They have a host of old-time friends here. Mrs. Gordon at the present time is visiting relatives in the east.

Last Sunday Alfred S. Donau of Tucson motored down to Nogales, with a party of friends, to witness the bull fight. Harold Steinfeld was a member of Mr. Donau's party which greatly enjoyed their visit to the best town on the border. While here they were delightfully entertained by Mr. J. A. Legarra, at his pleasant home on Nob Hill.

Last Thursday morning at St. Joseph's hospital, in this city, the two-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bergier of Patagonia, passed away after several days illness. The bereaved parents who brought the little one to the hospital, in their hour of sorrow, have the sympathy of many friends here and throughout Santa Cruz county.

Everybody will be pleased to learn that both Mr. W. Ruschaupt and Mrs. W. H. Newnes, who were seriously injured last Sunday in the automobile accident which resulted in the death of the injured woman's husband, W. H. Newnes, are reported out of danger, and their recovery is assured. They are at St. Joseph's hospital.

After a couple days visit here on business and pleasure, Fred. Alford returned to Noria, Sonora, last Thursday. Reported splendid rains down Noria way and the dry farmers and stockmen happy. For many years Mr. Alford has been associated with Mr. A. M. Conard, the well known successful land man, formerly of Nogales, now of Los Angeles.

Mr. Joe Berk, proprietor of The Modern Shop and The Red House, has returned from the eastern markets, where he purchased goods for his big emporiums on Morley avenue.

Mr. J. J. Smith, expert piano tuner and repairer, representing Zellner Piano Company, will be in town about June 23rd. Leave orders care at Montezuma hotel or Nogales Hardware & Furniture Co. 6 21-10t.

Mr. Isaac G. King, president of the Prudential Mining Company, owning valuable mining properties near Nogales, has recovered from his recent illness, during which he was at St. Joseph's Hospital, where he received every possible attention. Mr. King's many friends are pleased to see him around again. Tuesday he returned to his pleasant home at Camp King.

Mr. Samuel C. Newnes, from Anaheim, California, is a visitor in the city, having come to see his sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Newnes, who is at St. Joseph's hospital, suffering injuries received in the fatal auto accident last Sunday, when her husband was killed and Mr. W. Ruschaupt seriously injured. His brother's funeral was held in Tucson last Wednesday, interment being in Evergreen cemetery.

Tuesday George Clarke, from the American Boy mine situated in the Santa Rita mountains, was in town circulating among his old friends. George and his partner, Jens Peterson, recently bonded their property, which is now being worked by experienced men, with sufficient capital to put the American Boy among the producing propositions of Santa Cruz county. The two old pioneers deserve success.

Last Wednesday in Justice of the Peace Wilkey's court, James Dailey, the well known carpenter, accused of attempting to rob the Golden Rule store, was completely exonerated, after a preliminary hearing. According to the evidence, Jim is absolutely innocent of the serious charge made against him by W. Larcom, special merchants' police officer, who made the arrest. It was a clear case of mistaken identity.

County Attorney Leslie C. Hardy, after a couple of months spent in California, returned home last Thursday looking the picture of health and feeling fine, to the delight of his host of friends. While in Los Angeles, the county attorney was the guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Attorney and Mrs. Chas. L. Hardy, who have a pleasant home in the "City of Angels," where Mr. Hardy is now successfully engaged in the practice of his profession.

John T. Brickwood, Jr., who has been overseas with Uncle Sam's army, arrived home this week, and is being given a warm welcome by his host of friends, all of whom are glad to know he is recovering from an attack of rheumatism contracted "over there." Since returning to the States several months ago, John has been in government hospitals most of the time. Now, however, he says he is feeling "fine and dandy." John certainly looks like a sure enough American soldier.

Stop Corn Agony In Four Seconds

Use "Gets-It"—See Corns Peel Off!

The relief that "Gets-It" gives from corn-pains—the way it makes corns and calluses peel off painlessly in one piece—is one of the wonders of the world. The woman in the home, the shopper, the dancer, the foot traveler, the man in the office, the clerk in the store, the worker in the shop, have today, in this great discovery, "Gets-It," the one sure, quick relief from all corn and callus pains—the one sure, painless remover that makes corns come off as easily as you would peel a banana. It takes 2 seconds to apply "Gets-It"; it dries at once. Then walk with painless joy, even with tight shoes. You know your corn will loosen from your foot—peel it off with your fingers. Try it, corn sufferers, and you'll smile! "Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Sold by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Nogales and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by OWL DRUG STORE.