

LIST YOUR REAL ESTATE WITH
GEO. W. DUNBAR
 AND WATCH IT MOVE.
Real Estate, Insurance
 219 1/2 Morley Avenue NOGALES, ARIZONA

THE NOGALES NATIONAL BANK

A Safe Conservative Banking Institution

CAPITAL ..... $ 50,000
 DEPOSITS ..... $450,000

Collections, Exchange, Escrows, Trusts, and a GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS

DIRECTORS

A. M. Gillespie, Sam Leeker, James
 A. Harrison, J. E. Wise, A. F. Kerr

OFFICERS

A. F. KERR, President. A. M. GILLESPIE, Vice President and Manager. R. E. BUTLER, Cashier.

Fordson
 TRADE MARK

TRACTOR AND TRACTOR IMPLEMENTS
 PHILADELPHIA DIAMOND GRID BATTERY

United States Tires.
 U. S. Royal Cord Casings.
 Expert Ford and General
 Overhauling - Machine Work
 Genuine Ford Parts
 Used Exclusively.
 Oxy-Acetylene Welding.

KARNS BROS., INC.

Jobbers and Distributors
 Auto Accessories

123 Grand Ave. Phone 99
 143 " " 239

Nogales, Arizona

NOTICE OF GUARDIAN'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

In the Superior Court of the State of Arizona, in and for the County of Santa Cruz.

In the Matter of the Estate and Guardianship of Freddie Lee Sorrells, Robert Leslie Sorrells, Mildred Rex Sorrells, and Joseph Ahira Sorrells, minors.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of an order of the Superior Court of the County of Santa Cruz, State of Arizona, duly made and entered on the 2nd day of February, 1920, in the above entitled guardianship matter, the undersigned as guardian of the estate of Freddie Lee Sorrells, Robert Leslie Sorrells, Mildred Rex Sorrells, and Joseph Ahira Sorrells, minors, will on Saturday, the 3rd day of April, 1920, at the hour of 11 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, in front of the courthouse, in the city of Nogales, County of Santa Cruz, State of Arizona, sell to the highest bidder, for cash, and subject to confirmation by said Superior Court, all the right, title, and interest and estate, the same being an undivided one-fourth thereof, of the said Freddie Lee Sorrells, Robert Leslie Sorrells, Mildred Rex Sorrells, and Joseph Ahira Sorrells, minors, in and to that certain land, real estate and property, situate, lying and being in the County of Santa Cruz, State of Arizona, and particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Lot one (1) and the Northeast quarter of the Northwest quarter of Section six (6), Township 21 South, Range 15

East; Lots one (1) and two (2) of section one (1) Township 24 South, Range 14 East; the Northeast quarter of section six (6) Township 24 South, Range 15 East; the Southwest quarter of section thirty-one (31) Township 23 South, Range 15 East; and the East half and the Southwest quarter of section thirty-six (36) Township 23 South, Range 14 East.

Terms and conditions of sale: Cash, in lawful money of the United States; ten per cent of the purchase money to be paid on the day of the sale, and the balance on confirmation of sale by the Superior Court of Santa Cruz county; deed and abstract at expense of purchaser.

OTTO H. HEROLD,

Guardian of Estate of Freddie Lee Sorrells, Robert Leslie Sorrells, Mildred Rex Sorrells and Joseph Ahira Sorrells, minors. 3 6-4

This afternoon at 3 o'clock, the funeral of Alexander and John A. Fraser, victims of last week's terrible tragedy at Montana Camp, will be held from Marsh's undertaking parlors, interment being in the Nogales cemetery. Mrs. John A. Fraser, wife of one of the murdered men, with her sister, arrived from San Diego, early in the week, and a sister, Miss A. Fraser, from Jamacia, Massachusetts, arrived yesterday.

The Border Tidette.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
 One Year.....$2.00
 Six Months.....1.50
 Three Months.....1.00
 IN ADVANCE

MARCH 6, 1920.

LOCAL NEWS.

Fred. Alford is here from Noria.

Blas Torres is here from Guaymas.

Sam Heslet is here from the Sultana mine in Sonora, near Carbo.

Frank Turner, the mining man, has returned to Nogales, from the east.

Juan Platt, well known Hermosillo business man, is a visitor in the city.

Thursday R. G. Wing was a guest at Hotel Evans from Empalme, Sonora.

Charged with robbing the Patagonia postoffice, Jose Quiroga, is now in the county jail.

John A. McDonald, from Patagonia, was a business visitor at the county seat yesterday.

Ed. Sheehy was in from the Globe mine last Thursday, purchasing camp and mine supplies.

Louis Giroux, from his mines in Sonora, has been a Nogales visitor a couple of days this week.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gardner from Patagonia, were visitors in the city, being guests at Hotel Evans.

W. E. Karns of Karns Bros., Inc., has returned from a successful business trip through southern Arizona.

Collector Chas. E. Hardy attended the cattlemen's convention at Tucson Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Jesse Gatlin was a business visitor at the county seat this week a couple of days, from his ranch near Patagonia.

This week Frank Loan, the contractor and builder, has been confined to his home with a severe attack of influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Bodio, from Noria, were visitors at the border a couple of days this week. They returned home yesterday.

The many friends of Mrs. F. F. Rodriguez will be pleased to learn that she has recovered from an attack of influenza.

Chaplain Joe Handy was among the Nogales fight fans who witnessed the prize fight at Tucson last Wednesday night.

William Heinike, many years engaged in the hotel business at Magdalena, Sonora, is a Nogales visitor, from the Garden City.

Cafe Colon, formerly the Cave Club, in Nogales, Sonora, is one of the most attractive places of its kind on the international border.

E. L. Manning, general agent for the Arizona Cotton Growers' Association, after a business visit at Phoenix has returned to Nogales.

Hon. James A. Harrison, chairman of the Board of Supervisors and city alderman, this week visited San Antonio, Texas, on private business.

Mr. E. C. Damon, from Albuquerque, New Mexico, has arrived in the city to accept a position in the local telegraph office as operator.

J. R. Mays, representing the Western Woodenware Company of El Paso, has been here this week visiting the Nogales branch of his big company.

Bracey Curtis, president of The First National Bank, and Dr. A. L. Gustetter, spent last Sunday at Camou, Sonora, returning home Monday.

The excursion of the Men's Club of Nogales out to the hunting lodge of Mr. E. Titcomb at Lake Gurvavi, last Thursday evening, was a very enjoyable affair.

Mr. A. M. Gillespie, vice president and manager of the Nogales National Bank, attended the cattlemen's convention at Tucson, a couple of days this week.

Pete Hanson, one of the best practical mining men in Santa Cruz county, was a business visitor at the county seat last Thursday, from his camp near Patagonia.

Yesterday Harry Grace, manager of the Stanley Oil & Refining Company, motored down from Tucson, being accompanied by Messrs. Sargeant and Oxnard, of Tucson.

M. Loaliza, the well known Hermosillo merchant, has returned from California. Wednesday the gentleman was a stopover visitor in the city on his way to the Sonora capital.

James Burke and George Warner, accused of stealing an automobile tire from E. L. Mix, of Roy & Titcomb, Inc., are in the county jail. The men were arrested by Chief of police J. J. Lowe.

Judge Samuel Pattee, of Pima county, was a Nogales visitor the forepart of the week. His Honor has a host of friends in Santa Cruz county who will vote for him for Supreme Judge of Arizona.

Pedro Trelles, civil and mining engineer, was a visitor in the city Thursday. Anyone having surveying to do, will make no mistake by employing Pete. He is competent and thoroughly reliable.

Attorney E. R. Purdum, present efficient clerk of the Nogales High School Board, announces that he is a candidate for reelection at the school election to be held on Saturday, March 27th, 1920.

Manuel Vargas, of Nogales, Sonora, who has been touring Mexico with General Obregon, candidate for president of Mexico, has returned home. He says General Obregon is sure to be elected.

Last Tuesday Messrs. S. L. Kingan, Archie Connor and Gerald Jones, well known, successful Tucson attorneys, were in Nogales on legal business connected with the World's Fair mine litigation.

Francis J. Hobson, who some years ago conducted an assay office in this city, died suddenly last month while on his way from Los Angeles to Mexico, where he was going to examine and report on a mine.

The Nogales chapter of the American Red Cross, has adopted resolutions approving and supporting the proposed federal building site on the High School grounds, and creation there of a civic center for Nogales.

About March 20th, Gil Rankin, editor and proprietor of the West Coast Magazine, will issue the initial number of his publication, which will have a wide circulation in the States and on the West Coast of Mexico.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, a number of Santa Cruz county stockmen attended the twenty-first annual convention of the Panhandle and Southwestern Stockmen's Association at Tucson.

Thursday in United States Commissioner W. A. O'Connor's court, James Kane made final proof on his homestead. His witnesses were James A. Hathaway, William Hathaway, Maude Peterson and Clyde Shields, all of Nogales.

G. J. Phillips, from the Ures district, Sonora, where he is managing the Dolores mine, is here from the south country, transacting business. Mr. Phillips is one of the pioneer miners of Sonora, where he has resided many years.

C. C. Chapman, the Salero cattleman, was a business visitor at the county seat the fore part of the week. The Chapman cattle range in the Santa Rita mountains, where there is an abundance of feed all the year around.

W. B. (Billie) Martin, well known mining man, who many years has operated in Arizona and Sonora, arrived in the city last Wednesday for a visit here with his family. He is interested in mining properties situated in the Ures district, Sonora.

Fred. H. Hilliker, of the Sonora Valley Land Company, who has been visiting the company's great ranch near Noria, Sonora, was a visitor in the city last Thursday, en route to Los Angeles, where the main offices of his company are located.

This week Mrs. A. R. Oster, from her home in California, has been visiting Nogales, a guest of Mrs. Emma Budge. The lady is the widow of the late A. R. Oster, who some years ago was superintendent of the Sonora railway. The Osters are pleasantly remembered here and in Guaymas, Sonora, where they resided before removing to California.

Mr. W. B. Gidden, a prominent attorney at law, has arrived from Colorado, and will make Nogales his home. The gentleman has opened law offices in the Jund building. We welcome Mr. Gidden to the best town on the international border.

Mrs. Anna L. Halley, of the Western Union Telegraph office, who was called to her former home in Mercer, Pennsylvania, by the illness of her mother, who died shortly after the arrival of her daughter, will return to Nogales about the 15th of March.

Last Sunday Mr. P. J. Munch, assistant state bank examiner, who had been in Tombstone on official business, paid Nogales a visit. Monday Mr. Munch returned to Phoenix. While here he met many old-time friends and acquaintances. All were glad to see him.

George W. Parker, from his splendid ranch in the San Rafael Valley, is a visitor in the city. It is said that Mr. Parker is here for the purpose of looking after his political fences. He may decide to announce himself as a candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket.

Yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. Isaac Fraizer in this city, Mr. William T. Holcomb, died suddenly from heart failure. Deceased was a native of Mississippi, where he was born sixty-nine years ago. To the bereaved family, the entire community extends sympathy.

John R. Henderson, from the Libertad mine, near Caborca, Sonora, was a business visitor at Nogales a couple of days this week. Ore from the old producing property is hauled to Santa Ana, a station on the Sonora railway, from where it is shipped to the El Paso smelter through Nogales.

Dr. George K. Link, pathologist, of the United States Department of Agriculture, has arrived from Washington, D. C., and will go to Sinaloa, Mexico, to investigate the tomato industry. Dr. Link will also assist growers as much as possible and encourage shipping their products to the United States.

Mr. G. N. O'Brien, president of the American National Bank of San Francisco, was a visitor in the city last Thursday, a guest of Mr. A. M. Gillespie, vice president and manager of the Nogales National Bank. The distinguished gentleman attended the cattlemen's convention at Tucson, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Hon. James D. Barry, formerly of Barry, Mimiaga & Barry, local attorneys at law, now successfully engaged in the practice of his profession in Tucson, was a Nogales visitor a couple of days this week, on legal business. The Honorable James, and his estimable wife, have a host of friends in Santa Cruz county.

Wednesday General P. Elias Calles, former governor of Sonora, who recently resigned as Minister of Commerce, Industry and Labor in the cabinet of President Carranza, arrived in Nogales from Mexico City. From here General Calles, who is campaigning for General Obregon, candidate for president of Mexico, went to Hermosillo.

Mrs. Emery L. Chalfant, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has been promoted to the position of cashier, under Manager A. M. Hardie, and Mrs. Anna L. Halley has been advanced to the position of bookkeeper. Mrs. Beall is now night clerk, filling the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mrs. Halley, who is absent on leave.

Kelly Henry, the well known, successful commission man, returned the forepart of the week from down the West Coast of Mexico, where he transacted a big amount of profitable business. Kelly has an international reputation as a man who thoroughly understands the commission business. Kelly's reputation for honesty and square-dealing, also is international.

Yesterday J. L. Sheperd, manager of the Rey de Plata Mining Company, owning the San Ignacio, Santa Rosa, Santa Gertrudes and Salazar, all old Spanish mines situated in the Altar district, Sonora, was a business visitor in Nogales, where all mine and camp supplies are purchased. Mr. C. C. Chapman, the California millionaire, is financially interested in Mr. Sheperd's company, which is expending a large amount of money on the old mines, said to be very valuable.

A. S. Noon has commenced the work of adding another story to his building on Grand avenue occupied by E. J. Holder, the Nogales Shoe Doctor, and the Santa Cruz Market. The upper floor being added, will contain eight office rooms.

Fifty men and two big tractors are busy clearing the Nogales aviation field of trees and shrubbery, and J. D. Rountree is sinking a well on the Reddoch farm, for Uncle Sam. According to Lieutenant March in charge of the work of preparing the field for the reception of the fliers who will inaugurate the aerial border patrol between Douglas and Yuma, the four way field will be ready inside of three weeks. The first flight will comprise thirteen DeHaviland Fours, which are expected within the next twenty days.

E. E. Bethell and W. J. Wilson of Patagonia, were visitors in Nogales last Thursday on business connected with The Flux Extension Mining Company, which they and Mr. O. L. Allen of this city recently organized to operate valuable mining property situated in this county, near the famous old Flux mines. The gentlemen report their property looking good with excellent prospects of developing into a big dividend payer. Duffy & Purdum are attorneys for the company, the main offices of which are in Nogales.

All during Tuesday, Mr. J. A. Legarra, proprietor of The Famous, Nogales' new, up to date store for men and boys, was busy receiving and entertaining his numerous friends, who called to pay their respects and wish him good luck. No man in Nogales better understands the clothing and furnishing business than Joaquin. He is courteous and accommodating. We join his host of friends and acquaintances in wishing him the great success he so richly deserves. The Famous is located at 114 Morley Avenue, just across from The Modern, Joe Berk's mammoth emporium.

Esequiel Lara and an unknown Mexican, who on Friday of last week shot to death Alexander Fraizer and fatally wounded his brother John A. Fraizer, at Montana Camp, after which they looted their store and the Ruby postoffice, are still at large some where in Sonora, where the brutal murderers fled after committing the terrible crime. Mexican cavalry, said to have taken up the trail of the bandits, who were followed by Sheriff Earhart's posse and U. S. soldiers as far as the international line, are said to have surrounded the murderers in the mountains south of the border, and news of their capture or death, is hourly expected in Nogales.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS.

The United States civil Service Commission announces that a 2nd Class Steam Engr., non-educational examination will be held on March 19, 1920 for the purpose of filling a vacancy in the position of Stationary Engineer in the Supply service at Nogales, Arizona.

Application blanks and further information may be obtained from the Local Secretary, Board of Civil Service Examiners, at the Nogales, Arizona, Immigration office.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that a Wringerman non-educational examination will be held on March 19, 1920, for the purpose of filling a vacancy in the position of Wringerman in the Supply service at Nogales, Arizona. Application blanks and further information may be obtained from the Local Secretary, Board of Civil Service Examiners, at the Nogales, Arizona, Immigration office.

EASTERN ADDITION.

The ordinance committee of the City Council is working upon an ordinance for adoption at a meeting of the Board of Aldermen, which provides incorporation within the city of the Eastern Addition to the City of Nogales, of that tract of land on both sides of the arroyo in the vicinity of the Banks bridge that has been left outside although surrounded on all sides by other additions to the townsite. The tract has grown up finely and is the seat of many fine homes, which are without water, sewage, etc., except in so far as has been extended by courtesy in some few instances. Incorporation into the city will give all such a right to those urban conveniences.—Oasis.