Figs, dates and the finest confectionery at Mrs. M. J. Woods'.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will be held with Mrs. Bordman tomorrow afternoon promptly at 3 o'clock.

About $500 changed hands in Albuquerque on the result of the Slavin-Jackson fight. Most of the boys failed to pick the winner and got left.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society held this afternoon at the M. E. parsonage. It was decided to have a sociable on the 20th of June. The resignation of Mrs. Sarah Gatchell was unanimously laid on the table.

Last Sunday morning promptly at 12 o'clock all of the saloons in Socorro went closed with a whack and bang like a steel trap. This was due to the firm stand taken by his honor Judge Freeman in his address to the grand jury.—Socorro Chieftain.

PERSONAL.

Chas. Turney arrived from the A—L ranch yesterday.

Oscar Mallirickrodt arrived from Puerto de Luna this morning.

J. B. Howells, of La Cueva, is mourning the loss of a six-legged calf.

B. J. Marquez was on the streets today. We hope he has fully recovered.

Mrs. and Miss Moore, of Vincennes, Indiana, arrived this morning and went direct to the Ladies' Home.

Revs. Ferrari and Fernandez have been in Albuquerque, helping celebrate the feast of the patron saint of the town.

Pedro Gallegos shot and killed two large grizzly bears near Manuelitis yesterday, and was exhibiting their hides around town today.

Geo. W. Hartman returned from Cerrillos last night, but left his family there. His little girl had the measles, but is over them now and out again.

Hon. W. D. Lee, judge of the district court, left the city last evening in company with his daughter, for southern California. He will be absent several weeks.—Democrat.

H. D. Brown, representing the World's Fair, was in town today, making arrangements to have advertising matter placed here. He leaves tonight for the south.

R. A. Savageau, an old time resident here, engaged in merchandise brokerage, is in town today, shaking hands with old friends and looking as young as when he left here five or six years ago.

H. F. Grierson, who was immigration agent for the Santa Fe here for a number of years, arrived from the south last night and will spend a few days at the Springs before going east.

M. A. Otero will leave tonight for Minneapolis as delegate to the Republican national convention. Mr. Otero has not been well for several days, but don't intend to allow sickness to interfere with important business.

Deputy U. S. Marshals Serapio Romero and Bernardo Romero are in the city attending the sessions of the U. S. district court for the counties of Santa Fe, Taos, Rio Arriba and San Juan, which opened here yesterday.—New Mexican.

Prof. Ramsay returned from Albuquerque last night. He was yesterday elected principal of the normal department of the university, at a salary of $2,000 per year. We are glad he will not leave the territory and that he was lucky enough to strike so good a position. The professor has now concluded he don't care to live in California.

J. H. STEARNS, THE PEOPLE'S GROCER.

The seminary exercises at the opera house last night attracted a large and appreciative audience. The acting was like the work of professionals rather than of amateurs—this is the verdict of a professional gentleman. Miss Belle Rogers sang her trills and melodies in a perfectly natural and graceful manner, and it certainly surprised her friends and teachers, as well as the public.

Miss Ophelia Henriques is gifted with a clear, sweet voice and an exquisite taste. She charmed all beholders with her graceful acting. Not a note was strained, not a muscle exaggerated, not a motion uncalled for—the result of deep study and persistent cultivation.

Lafe Allen deserves special mention. His familiar voice has resounded in all our churches, but never to greater advantage and perfection than at the opera house last night.

The others performed their parts to the satisfaction of all present and gave a fine exhibition.

RAILROAD POINTERS.

R. R. Rogers is on the sick list. Machinist William Moran has resigned.

Ninety cars of stock were fed at Wallace today.

John Hanlin, the blacksmith, is laid off with an attack of rheumatism today.

It is surprising to see how many people forget the old proverb, time and trains wait for no man.

Wm. Thiel, a cousin of Mrs. L. J. Raymond, will arrive from Detroit Friday on a month's visit.

C. Sandoval, of Maxwell City, is in charge of section 140, in place of Tomas Sanchez, who is laying off on account of sickness in his family.

The body of Jim Heal the news agent who was killed by the cars at Trinidad a few days ago, was shipped yesterday to Kansas City.

The bodies of 150 soldiers passed through from Santa Fe en route for the national cemetery at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, this morning, in charge of Conductor Fugate.

Great fear is expressed of a grasshopper plague in Colfax county this year. Already millions of young grasshoppers have made their appearance and are covering the railroad track near Colmor.

Frank Stone, blacksmith's foreman, left for Topeka this morning, to have an operation performed on his eyes. William McClain will take his place during his absence.

Somebody will get hurt if he doesn't let some of the married feminine beauties of Maxwell City alone. You can not infringe the marital rights of the Mexicans any more than of the Americans without smelling powder. A couple of nights ago a little incident happened at Maxwell City of which a couple of gentlemen are fully aware. A six shooter is sometimes a powerful argument.

THIS MORNING.

Judge Waldo and family arrived from Santa Fe.

Mrs. A. J. McKenna, of Topeka, who came here to take her daughter from the convent school, left with her for Topeka.

Miss Mattie Sharp, who is on her way from Albuquerque to Colorado Springs, stopped off to visit Mrs. A. H. Kellogg and Mr. and Mrs. E. Caldwell for a few days.

Mrs. H. G. Coors and children left for Howard, Kansas, on a visit to William F. Coors, and from there they will go to Tascosa, Texas.

Mrs. Dr. Skipwith and child left for Emporia, Kansas, on a visit to her mother.
