RAILROAD POINTERS.

Master Mechanic Symons was on No. 3 last night.

H. J. Ryan returned last night from San Miguel.

Mrs. Raymond, the roadmaster's wife, is very sick.

Sixteen cars of wool were shipped yesterday and today.

Roadmaster Elliot and the work train went to Sands this morning.

Fireman George Ryan and his brother Richard leave tomorrow for Chicago.

Mr. Hollingsworth is foreman of the "up track" during Foreman Morrison's absence.

D. E. Massey, E. E. Miles and several other railroad men went to Taos today to investigate the mines around there.

It rained at Fulton, south, and at Maxwell City, north of here, yesterday, showing that the rain blessed a large portion of this territory.

Cornelius Valdez, who was in the employ of the railroad company until one day last week, when he was taken with a paralytic stroke, went crazy last night, left his home and traveled about a mile from town in his robe de nuit. However, his friends missed him, instituted a search and found him this morning in a terrible condition.

J. F. Moore, of Cerrillos, wants about 40 men. He pays laborers $1.50 per day, rock men $1.75, and scrapers, with team, $4, with the privilege of boarding themselves.

The county commissioners were in consultation this morning with Mr. Voorhees, of Raton, and several other gentlemen, on the subject of a new water works system. It was proposed to build a new system, costing about $150,000.

Turner A. Vaughn, a passenger from the south into Albuquerque, was taken from the train and placed in a cell in the jail suffering from derangement of the mind. He threw himself around in his cell and finally was heard to fall, and when parties entered his cell he was found to be dead.

The rain yesterday extended over a large section of country and was of great value. It looks very much as though it would be repeated again today. Good showers for the next two weeks would not hurt the country at all, as it had become dry. We see it stated that unless Socorro county had rain soon there would be a great loss of cattle.

Geo. W. Hancock, the master mechanic of the Atlantic & Pacific road, has resigned, and Richard English, division master mechanic of the Santa Fe at San Marcial, has been appointed in his place.

Keeping Everlastingly at it Brings Success

E. R. Case, a dealer in wool, arrived from the north this morning.

E. A. Prentiss brought in a bunch of cattle from Cherry valley yesterday.

A. C. Voorhees, of Raton, is in town again. His new franchise here will probably keep him here a good part of the time for the coming year.

W. H. Baldrige, a druggist of California, who has been here on a visit to his brother, Engineer Baldrige, leaves tonight for his home, Escondido, Cal.

Prof. Miller and Mr. Herrick returned from a trip up the Hot Springs canon. They are quite the worse for wear, will need reshoeing, and are not favorable to burros for rapid transit.

Col. Prichard says he saw A. J. Houghton in Salt Lake City on his return from California, and that he is doing well and is happy and thinks his present location the best place in the United States.

Col. Mills writes from Hartford that he will not leave there on his return before about the 1st of the month. He says the daily visits of the FREE PRESS make him feel that he knows all that is going on in Las Vegas.

Mrs. M. O'Keefe and her children, Mrs. Clay and son, Mr. and Mrs. Gatchell and Mr. and Mrs. Clark went to Trout Springs yesterday for a jollification, but were caught in the rain, which marred their pleasure somewhat.
