REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President of the United States
BENJAMIN HARRISON, OF INDIANA.

For Vice President of the United States,
WHITELAW REID, OF NEW YORK.

La Voz del Pueblo gives H. H. Pierce quite a send off last week. There seems to be trouble all around in the Democratic camp this fall. One prominent Democrat says the leader of the White Caps is trying to sell out to the Republicans. We can not believe such base tales of a true reformer.

Col. Dick Hudson received his commission as agent for the Mesquero Indians on Wednesday last, and yesterday passed down on his way to take charge of the agency.—Deming Headlight.

There must be a mistake about the above as Col. Hudson was removed from the position of agent by Gov. Albright several days ago.

On Wednesday night there were two men arrested for drunk and disorderly at Cimmaron. Next day they were taken before Esquire Strivens and fined $5 each and costs, and turned over to Constable Charrette to hold in custody until the fine and costs were paid. That evening the town was entered by twenty armed men from the Ponil, who declared that the men should not pay the fines and otherwise menaced the constable, who, however, held his ground against the mob. Yesterday morning 50 more men from the adjacent country, all armed with revolvers and rifles, took possession of the town and demanded of the justice the liberation of the prisoners. Finding himself powerless Justice Strivens had to let the men go, and the rescuers immediately furnished them horses and arms, after which they all left the town.

It is understood that the names of 31 of the rioters were secured and the matter will be presented to the next grand jury.—Springer Stockman.

CLEVELAND DOUBTFUL.

Candidate Cleveland is quoted by some of his friends as very doubtful as to the result in November, and as being wholly unwilling to accept the rosy views of the rainbow chasing leaders of his party. It is entirely to Mr. Cleveland's credit as a political observer that he feels as he does. There is nothing in the situation to encourage a hope of Democratic victory. Mr. Harrison beat Mr. Cleveland when the latter had the prestige and influence of the whole administration back of him.—New York Press.

COURT CHANGES.

The New Mexican's information from the city of Washington is to the effect that the resignation of Chief Justice James O'Brien is now in the hands of the Minnesota senators and will doubtless be presented next Wednesday, should the judge receive the nomination for judge at the convention to be held next Tuesday by the Republicans of his district in his home state, Minnesota. It has also come to the New Mexican's knowledge, that as soon as the resignation has been tendered a strong effort is to be made to secure the appointment of District Attorney L. C. Fort, of Las Vegas, to the vacancy. The New Mexican knows of no reason why this information should in any manner be doubted.—New Mexican.

LADIES' WORLD'S FAIR MEETING.

The special meeting of the Ladies' World's Fair association, Saturday afternoon, was one of particular interest and was attended by a very large number of enthusiastic ladies. Mrs. F. L. Albright, the efficient lady manager of the territory, was present and entertained and instructed the ladies with reports of the work being done by women in various parts of the country, and by giving the ladies particulars in regard to their work. Miss Henry called the meeting to order, and after a few encouraging remarks in regard to the proceedings of the territorial board in their meeting at Santa Fe, stated the object of the meeting to be to listen to the remarks and suggestions of Mrs. Albright, concluding with the remark that most of the work to be done in the territory must be done by the ladies, and as Mrs. Albright had but recently returned from Chicago, where she had personally interviewed Mrs. Potter Palmer in relation to the work, her information would be especially interesting and helpful.

Miss Henry then introduced Mrs. Albright, who pleasantly greeted the ladies, expressing herself pleased with the interest manifested. The secretary read the full report of the proceedings of the territorial board at their last meeting, whereby the ladies received a general knowledge of the work being done in the territory. Mrs. Albright then took the floor and held the undivided attention of all present during her remarks. She first spoke of her recent travels, said she had met a number of the lady managers of different states, and in comparing notes with them came home encouraged with the work of the women of New Mexico. She then read sketches of work being done by various organizations. Illinois, for example, is to have a "model home" as their exhibit, special attention to be given to the convenience, sanitary arrangements, heating, lighting, etc. In connection with this item Mrs. Albright stated that Illinois ladies had $90,000 for their exhibit. San Diego is to send a collection of fish preserved in alcohol. Ohio will collect old coins, etc. One feature of California's exhibit will be a "jelly palace." It is to be 16x20 feet, and 25 feet high, composed of glasses of various colored jelly, the interior to be lighted by electricity, and the cost is estimated at $2,700.

Foreign countries are taking an unusual interest and active steps in the matter. Thousands of car loads of goods are already at Chicago waiting to be placed when the buildings are completed. These were only a few of the many items read, but enough to convince those present of the grandeur of the great exposition. Mrs. Albright said that the women's building is finished, and is beautiful, surpassing all expectations. The dedicatory exercises of the World's fair buildings will take place October 20, 21 and 22, 1892, and the president and his cabinet, the United States supreme court, members of congress and other prominent persons will be present on the occasion.

Mrs. Albright also said Mrs. Potter Palmer had told her that one room in the woman's building had been set apart for the colonial exhibit of New Mexico. This, Mrs. A. said, was quite a concession to New Mexico, as others had applied for such a room and were refused.

The women's exhibit of New Mexico was then taken up and talked over. The question arose as to the advisability of having separate county exhibits or one grand territorial exhibit, and the ladies were unanimously in favor of the latter. Mrs. Albright here gave a description of a design which she said had been suggested by various remarks and ideas that had been expressed to her. The idea was this: that the woman's special exhibit be a filigree pinon tree, which we will describe as nearly as possible. The base is to be of polished and carved native granite; the trunk of the tree to be composed of polished blocks of our different kinds of wood; a vine is to entwine the trunk of the tree, said vine to represent the A. T. & S. F. railroad; the bark of the tree is to be made of copper and put on in such a way that the wood may also be seen; the branches are to represent the counties, each county its industries, etc.; every mineral in the territory is to be used, and the work is to be wrought in the finest of filigree. This tree is to be four feet high, is to revolve, and is to be placed under a glass globe in the women's building at Chicago. Mrs. Albright told the ladies that Mrs. Palmer and others in Chicago thought the idea grand and earnestly hope the ladies will carry out the plan. We would here remark that a more fitting and beautiful suggestion has not been heard. Mrs. Albright, after explaining the design fully, offered a prize to the lady who draws the best design of such a tree, said design to be used as a working model.

Mrs. Albright then said she would like a history of all the societies here—church, benevolent, etc. She said the people in the east were so surprised to hear told that we had such organizations out here. The ladies in Chicago are going to compile an encyclopedia of ladies' societies throughout the country, and it is for this purpose she wishes these histories.

The question of territorial headquarters at the fair was next discussed at some length, and the ladies were unanimous in the idea of an adobe building illustrating the old time as well as the modern style. The board has the ground at Chicago for that purpose, but owing to the failure of Arizona to appropriate her proportion of the amount required, the project of erecting a joint territorial building at Chicago was abandoned, leaving us without a building until some action is taken by New Mexico herself. The adobe building for that purpose is therefore under consideration. After telling the ladies about the "baby" building to be erected at Chicago and informing them New Mexico was assessed $60 for said building, Mrs. Albright explained about the pictures she is to take. She concluded her remarks by thanking the ladies for their attention and urging that every lady take hold and do her part, as the success of the work depends not upon the manager, but upon the ladies, and the credit will be given to all.

Quite a number of ladies signed the constitution, becoming members of the organization, and the meeting adjourned.

Mrs. Albright's enthusiasm and interest should be an incentive to all the ladies, and in appreciation of her efforts nothing should be left undone to make the women's exhibit of New Mexico a lasting monument and a telling advertisement of the territory.

CHANGING THE MAIL BAG LOCKS.

Once in eight years all locks on U. S. mail bags must be changed, if not oftener. This is because after a while a good many lost keys get around and it is not safe to have them so distributed. Just now the equipment division of the postoffice department is making over one-fourth of a million old locks, merely for the purpose of rendering them different. They were very good in their day, and are still so in other respects. At first it was suggested that all these locks should be thrown away. The junk men were asked how much they would give for them and they said 20 cents a hundred pounds. This did not seem large, inasmuch as the post-office had originally paid 57 cents apiece for the locks. Therefore it was concluded to make them over again, and this is being done now at a repair shop on C street, at a cost of 62 cents per lock.—Washington Star.

APPEAL OF CRIMINAL CASES.

In the supreme court this forenoon, in the case of Hicks, et al., criminal cases which came up on appeal from Dona Ana and Grant counties, a question of much interest to attorneys and litigants was decided. Solicitor General Bartlett moved to dismiss the case and affirm the judgment of the court below on the ground that the cases were not properly before the court, having been brought up on appeal and not by writ of error. The court filed no written opinion, but denied the motion, holding that appeal was the proper method of bringing criminal cases up to the supreme court.

At the present term there are ten criminal appeals, more than double the number ever brought up to the supreme court at one term. In these Solicitor General Bartlett must appear and defend the action of the lower court. The task is an onerous one and will keep the solicitor general very busily engaged throughout the term.—New Mexican.
